2. He shall preserve order and decorum in debate, shall prevent personal reflections, and confine members to the question under consideration. When two or more delegates arise at the same time, he shall name the one entitled to the floor.

3. He shall decide all questions of order. An appeal from his decision may be made by any delegate, or the President may in the first instance submit the question to the Convention. On questions of order there shall be no debate, except on appeal from the decision of the President, or on a reference of a question by him to the Convention, when no delegate shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the Convention.

4. While the President is putting a question or addressing the Convention, none shall walk out of or across the house, or when a delegate is speaking shall entertain private discourse; nor while a delegate is speaking shall pass between him and the chair.

5. The President shall appoint the standing committees, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

6. He shall have a general direction of the hall. He may name a delegate to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment. In case of the sickness or necessary absence of the President, he may appoint a President pro tempore for any period not exceeding ten days, after which, or in default of such appointment by the President, a President pro tempore shall be chosen by the Convention. While the President pro tempore officiates, he shall be clothed with all the powers, and perform all the duties of the President.

9. If any delegate in debate transgresses the rules of the Convention, the President shall, or any delegate may, through the President, call him to order; the delegate so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. The Convention shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, but without debate. If there be no appeal, the decision of the President shall be submitted to, and if the case requires it, the delegate so called to order shall be liable to the censure of the Convention.
10. No delegate shall speak more than twice to the same question without leave of the Convention.
11. No delegate, when speaking, shall be interrupted, except by a call to order by the President, or by a delegate through the President, or by a member to explain, nor shall any delegate be referred to by name, in debate, unless for a transgression of the rules of the Convention, and then by the President only.

15. If the President, or any delegate requires it, a motion made shall be reduced to writing. Any motion may be withdrawn by the mover before amendment or decision.
16. Any delegate may call for the division of a question, which shall be divided if it comprehends questions so distinct that on being taken away, the rest may stand entire for the decision of the Convention. A motion to strike out or insert shall be deemed indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost shall preclude neither amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert.

And in the organization of new counties and in changing the lines of organized counties the boundaries of congressional townships and natural boundaries shall be observed as nearly as may be.

Sec. 3. All changes in county boundaries in counties already organized, before taking effect shall be submitted to the electors of the county or counties to be affected thereby, at the next general election thereafter, and be adopted by a majority of the legal votes cast in each county at such election; and in case any portion of an organized county is so stricken off and added to another, the county to which such portion is added shall assume and be holden for such portions, part and proportion of the indebtedness of the county or counties from which it was so stricken.

Sec. 4. In counties already organized, where the county seat has not been located by vote of the people, it shall be the duty of the County Board to submit the location of the county seat to the electors of said county at the first general election after the admission of the State of North Dakota into the Union, and the place receiving a majority of all votes cast at said election shall be the county seat of said county. If, at said election, no place receive a majority of all the votes cast, it shall be the duty of the County Board of said county to re-submit the location of the county seat to the electors of said county at the next general election thereafter; and the electors at said election shall vote for one of the two places receiving the highest number of votes at the preceding election. The place receiving the majority of all the votes cast for county seat at said second election shall be the county seat of said county.

Sec. 5. Whenever a majority of all the legal voters of any organized county shall petition the county board to change the location of the county seat which has once been located by a vote of the people specifying the place to which it is to be changed, said county board shall submit the question to the voters of said county at the next general election, and if the proposition to so change the county seat be ratified by two-thirds of all the votes cast at said election then the county seat shall be so changed, otherwise not. A proposition to change the location of the county seat of any organized county shall not be submitted oftener than once in six years.

Sec. 6. The Legislature shall have no power to remove the county seat of any organized county.

Sec. 7. The Legislature shall provide by general law for organizing the counties into townships, having due regard for congressional township lines and natural boundaries, and whenever the population is sufficient and the natural boundaries will permit, the civil townships shall be co-extensive with the congressional townships.

Sec. 8. In each organized county at the first general election held after the admission of the State of North Dakota into the Union, and every two years thereafter, there shall be elected a clerk of the court, sheriff, county auditor, register of deeds, treasurer, state's attorney, surveyor, coroner and superintendent of schools, whose terms of office respectively shall be two years, and, except the clerk of court, no person shall be eligible for more than four years in succession to any of the above named offices.

Sec. 9. Sec. 10. The Legislature shall provide by general law for such other county, township and district officers as may be deemed necessary, and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of all county, township and district officers.

SECTION 1. All men are born equally free and independent, and have certain inherent, inalienable and indefeasible rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, of acquiring, possessing and protecting property and reputation, and of pursuing their own happiness.

SEC. 2. All men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of their own consciences, and no person shall be denied any civil or political right, privilege or capacity on account of his religious opinions. No man can of right be compelled to attend, erect or support any place of worship or to maintain any minister of religion against his consent. No preference shall ever be given by law to any religious establishment or mode of worship; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be construed to dispense with oaths or affirmations, excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of the state.

SEC. 3. No title of nobility or hereditary distinction, privilege, honor or emolument shall ever be granted or conferred in this state.

SEC. 4. Emigration from the state shall not be prohibited.

SEC. 5. Aliens who are bona fide residents of this state shall have the rights of citizens with regard to the acquisition, possession, transfer and descent of property.

SEC. 6. Every man shall have the right freely to write, speak and publish his opinions on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that privilege. In all civil and criminal trials for libel, the truth may be given in evidence, and shall be a sufficient defense when the matter is published with good motives and for justifiable ends; and the jury shall have the same power of giving a general verdict as in other cases.

SEC. 7. All political power is inherent in the people, and they have the right to alter, reform or abolish their form of government whenever the public good may require it.

SEC. 8. Treason shall consist only in levying war against the state or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort.

SEC. 9. No person can be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

SEC. 10. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient surety, except for treason, murder or any capital crime, where the proof is evident or the presumption great.

SEC. 11. Excessive bail shall not be required.

SEC. 12. No person shall be imprisoned for the purpose of procuring his testimony in any case, longer than may be reasonably necessary in order to take his deposition or secure his recognition with sufficient surety.

SEC. 15. No ex post facto law shall be passed.

SEC. 16. The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions, from unreasonable searches and seizures, and no warrant to search any place or seize any person or thing shall issue without describing them as nearly as may be, and without probable cause supported by oath or affirmation subscribed by the affiant.

Rights as to Crimes—At Trial.

SEC. 17. No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law.

SEC. 18. In all criminal prosecutions the accused has a right to a speedy trial by an impartial jury of the county in which the offense was committed; provided, that the general assembly shall have power to provide for the trial of crimes not infamous, by a jury of less than twelve.

SEC. 19. The accused has a right to be heard by himself or his counsel, and to meet the witnesses face to face, and to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor; and he cannot be compelled to give evidence against himself. But the general assembly may provide for the taking of depositions in criminal cases in presence of the party, when there is reason to believe that any witness from sickness or other cause cannot attend at the trial, and when it is important to preserve the testimony. But such deposition shall not be used if the witness can be personally present at the trial.

SEC. 20. No person shall for the same offense be twice put in jeopardy of his life or liberty.

Rights as to Crimes—After Trial.

SEC. 21. Excessive fines shall not be imposed or cruel punishments inflicted, but all punishments and penalties shall be proportioned to the offense.

The votes of all such persons, wherever they may be, may be taken on the day of such election or at any time within twenty days next before said day, and the general assembly shall provide for the manner in which and the time and places at which such absent electors shall vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election districts of which they respectively are inhabitants.

The President of the Constitutional Convention:

The American Sabbath Union, whose office is at 23 Park Row, earnestly recommend that a provision should be inserted in your New Constitution protecting and encouraging Sabbath observance. Perhaps the following form would be acceptable to the Convention: "No work or trade shall be carried on, on the first day of the week usually called Sunday, except such as may be strictly charitable or necessary and the Legislature shall pass laws regulating and encouraging the observance of the Holy Sabbath by all the people." If the matter has not already been favorably acted upon by the Convention, will you not kindly take the necessary steps to have this or a similar proposition adopted by the Convention and thus lay the Constitution for the new state upon the sure foundation of the divine, word and reap the gratitude of your own people and those of the whole country. ELLIOT F. SHEPARD,
President of the American Sabbath Union.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The executive power shall be vested in a Governor, who shall reside at the seat of government, and shall hold his office for the term of two years and until his successor is elected and duly qualified; a Lieutenant-Governor, who shall be elected at the same time and for the same term.

SEC. 2. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor or Lieutenant-Governor except a citizen of the United States and a qualified elector of the state, who shall have attained the age of thirty years and who shall have resided two years next preceding the election within the state or territory, nor shall he be eligible to any other office during the term for which he shall have been elected.

SEC. 3. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected by the qualified electors of the state at the time and places of choosing members of the Legislature. The persons respectively having the highest number of votes for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected, but if two or more shall have an equal and highest number of votes for Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, the two houses of the Legislature, at its next regular session, shall forthwith, by joint ballot, choose one of such persons for said office. The returns of the election for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be made in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 4. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief of the military and naval forces of the state, except when they shall be called into the service of the United States, and may call out the same to execute laws, suppress insurrection and repel invasion. He shall have power to convene the Legislature on extraordinary occasions. He shall, at the commencement of each session, communicate to the Legislature, by message, information of the condition of the state, and shall recommend such measures as he shall deem expedient. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of the government, civil and military. He shall expedite all such measures as may be resolved upon by the Legislature, and shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SEC. 5. The Governor shall have power to remit fines and forfeitures, to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, but the legislature may by law in all cases regulate the manner in which the remission of fines, pardons, commutations and reprieves may be applied for. Upon conviction for treason he shall have power to suspend the execution of sentence until the case shall be reported to the Legislature at its next regular session, when the Legislature shall either pardon or commute the sentence, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. He shall communicate to the Legislature at each regular session each case of remission of fine, reprieve, commutation or pardon granted by him, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he is convicted, the sentence and its date, and the date of the remission, commutation, pardon or reprieve, with his reasons for granting the same.

SEC. 6. In case of the death, impeachment, resignation, failure to qualify, absence from the state, removal from office, or other disability of the Governor, the powers and duties of the office for the residue of the term, or until he shall be acquitted or the disability removed, shall devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor.

If during a vacancy of the office of Governor the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign or die, or from mental or physical disease, or otherwise become incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Secretary of State shall act as Governor until the vacancy shall be filled or the disability removed.

If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within three days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, unless the Legislature shall by its adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall be filed with his objection in the office of the Secretary of State, within fifteen days after such adjournment, or become a law.

SEC. 11. Any Governor of this state who asks, receives, or agrees to receive, any bribe upon any understanding that his official opinion, judgment or action shall be influenced thereby, or who gives or offers, or promises his official influence in consideration that any member of the Legislature shall give his official vote or influence on any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity, or who menaces any member by the threatened use of his veto power, or who offers or promises any member that he, the said Governor, will appoint any particular person or persons to any office created or thereafter to be created, in consideration that any member shall give his official vote or influence on any matter pending or thereafter to be introduced into either house of said Legislature, or who threatens any member that he, the said Governor, will remove any person or persons from office or position with intent to in any manner influence the official action of said member, shall be punished in the manner now, or that may hereafter be provided by law, and upon conviction thereon, shall forfeit all right to hold or exercise any office of trust or honor in this state.

SEC. 12. There shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the state at the times and places of choosing members of the Legislature, a Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of School and Public Lands, Commissioner of Insurance, three Commissioners of Railroads, Attorney-General and Commissioner of Agriculture and Statistics, who shall have attained the age of twenty-five years, and shall have the qualifications of state electors. It shall be deemed a trust fund, the principal of which shall ever remain inviolate, and may be increased but never diminished. The state shall make good all losses thereof which may in any manner occur.

SEC. 2. The interest and income of this fund, together with the net proceeds of all fines for violation of state laws, and all other sums which may be added thereto by law, shall be faithfully used and applied each year for the benefit of the common schools of the state, and shall be for this purpose apportioned among and between all the several common school corporations of the state in proportion to the number of children in each of school age, as may be fixed by law, and no part of the fund shall ever be diverted, even temporarily, from this purpose or used for any other purpose whatever than the maintenance of common schools for the equal benefit of all the people of the state; provided, however, that if any portion of the interest or income aforesaid be not expended during any year, said portion shall be added to and become a part of the school fund.

SEC. 3. The Legislature shall provide for the sale of all school lands subject to the provisions of this article.

SEC. 4. The Superintendent of Public Schools, Governor, Attorney General and Secretary of State shall constitute a board of commissioners which shall be denominated the "Board of University and School Land Commissioners," subject to the provisions of this article and any law that may be passed by the Legislature. Said board shall have control of the apportionment, sale, rental and disposal of all school and university lands, and shall direct the investment of the funds arising therefrom in the hands of the State Treasurer, under the limitations in Section 10 of this article.

They shall take care first to select and designate for sale the most valuable lands.

SEC. 6. No lands shall be sold for less than the appraised value, and in no case for less than ten dollars per acre. The purchaser shall pay one-fifth of the price in cash, and the remaining four-fifths as follows, to-wit: One-fifth in five years, one-fifth in ten years, one-fifth in fifteen years and one-fifth in twenty years, with interest at the rate of not less than six per centum payable annually in advance. The principal of every such fund may be increased, but shall never be diminished, and the interest and income only shall be used. Every such fund shall be deemed a trust fund held by the state, and the state shall make good all losses therefrom that shall in any manner occur.

SEC. 8. All lands mentioned in the preceding section shall be appraised and sold in the same manner and by the same board, under the same limitations and subject to all the conditions as to price and sale as provided above for the appraisal and sale of lands for the benefit of common schools, but a distinct and separate account shall be kept by the proper officers of each of such funds; provided, that the limitations as to the time in which school lands may be sold shall apply only to lands granted for the support of common schools.

SEC. 9. PETITIONS, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

Mr. Camp introduced the following memorial:

Resolved, That this Convention submit to the United States senate committee on irrigation and reclamation of arid lands, the following memorial:

To the Honorable United States Senate Committee on Irrigation and Reclamation of Arid Lands.

GENTLEMEN: The Constitutional Convention for North Dakota duly assembled at Bismarck under the enabling act of congress passed at the last session of congress and representing the people of North Dakota familiar with their industries and pursuits, with their resources and necessities, has learned with interest and gratification that it is the expressed purpose of your honorable committee to inquire into the needs of North Dakota in the matter of artificial water supply.

To North Dakota this is a subject of such exceeding importance that this Convention is moved to memorialize your honorable committee, and through you the senate of the United States as follows:

First. We beg your attention to the fact that the great fertility of the soil of North Dakota has been shown by many seasons of sufficient rain fall.

Second. The superiority of the grain grown in this soil—and especially of the wheat, is now a matter of repute throughout the civilized world, and is a contribution to the fame of our national resources. In the United States this wheat is almost a necessary ingredient of fine flours.

Third. That these facts have attracted to North Dakota a population of 250,000 earnest, sober, law-abiding people, possessed of a purpose to develop the land, and who have already made it a source of wealth and importance to the nation.

Fourth. That it is now demonstrated and understood that the peculiar excellence of the cereals of North Dakota is the result of climatic conditions, as well as of qualities of the soil; that one of these conditions is the dryness of the climate, which, however, in seasons of average rainfall in most parts is not so excessive as to prevent yield of crops unsurpassed in other parts of the land; but, that this desirable average implies seasons in some parts of North Dakota of insufficient precipitation, disastrous to agricultural prosperity, and discouraging to farmers.

Fifth. Therefore we earnestly urge upon the honorable committee and upon the United States senate these considerations:

(a) We recognize and approve the object before your committee, namely, the invitation of investigation and certain work at the expense of the general government looking to the establishment of reservoirs, or other systems for the irrigation of lands in need thereof, to the end that the area of public agricultural lands may be greatly increased.

(b) We also realize the fact that such enlargement of area means direct and formidable competition with the industries of North Dakota (competition especially to be dreaded since irrigated farms are the most productive in the world), while already over-production has deprived farming of nearly all profit.

(c) We recall to your attention, and to that of the honorable body which you represent, the fact that the people of North Dakota have paid into the treasury of the United States many millions of dollars for their lands, while proposed expenditures for mountain reservoirs are mainly intended to benefit regions from which comparatively nothing has been received from sales of agricultural lands.

(d) While, therefore, we do not question the benefits to accrue from expenditures for the mountain reservoir systems, we feel justified in claiming some similar expenditure for North Dakota, and a share in the paternal solicitude of the government to this extent, namely, that suitable investigation, to be followed by experimental work, be made in behalf of North Dakota to ascertain whether or not it is practicable to provide by means of artesian wells sufficient water to eliminate the dangers incident to dry seasons and to maintain the agricultural industries of the state on a footing for competition in grain production, upon which its inhabitants absolutely depend for support.

We therefore trust that your honorable committee will give to North Dakota more than a passing glance; that you will conduct an investigation with reference to its resources and its necessities, and make a report thereon which will result in the development of the former and secure, if possible, relief from the latter.

We beg you to notice that while there are certain ascertained artesian basins, the extent of such basins has not been accurately ascertained, scientific experiment and survey are needed to determine this matter, as well as the character of the water to be obtained and its influence on vegetation. Other essential facts to be ascertained will suggest themselves to your committee. The whole of a scope too great for North Dakota to undertake at the expense of its people now engaged in their early struggles to establish themselves. We confidently believe that the outcome of such work by the government, in North Dakota, will be to return to the treasury many times the amount of its expenditure in the further cash entries of government land.

Mr. Camp moved that the memorial be referred to a special committee of three, of which the President shall be Chairman.

Which motion prevailed, and

The President appointed the following committee:

The President and Messrs. McKenzie and Meacham.

Mr. Williams asked unanimous consent to withdraw all of the report of the Committee on Legislative Department except sections two and eight.

Which request was granted.

FIELD SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
74 E. 90TH STREET, NEW YORK, Aug. 8, 1889. }

To the Constitutional Convention of North Dakota:

The American Sabbath Union, of which Col. Elliot F. Shepard is President, with a Vice President and members in each State, respectfully asks that you will settle in advance the question whether the Sunday laws of your future state are to be deemed constitutional by putting into the Constitution itself such a brief Sunday rest article as is hereto appended, and so save the expense that has been caused in twenty-five States to prove in the courts the constitutionality of the State Sunday laws; and also, protect the people against having such laws abolished by the influence of a corrupt lobby, to which such laws are especially exposed. If the principle is in the Constitution, so that only the people can change it, a permanency is secured that is especially desirable in such matters in this age of "Liberty Leagues," with their secret plots against American institutions. The article proposed for insertion, or at least for submission to separate vote, is as follows: "Traffic and all other work for gain on Sunday is forbidden, except works of necessity and mercy, and such private work by those who observe another day as will neither interfere with the general rest nor with public worship. The Legislature shall provide for the enforcement of this provision."

Respectfully submitted,
WILBUR F. CRAFTS,
Field Secretary.

ADAMS CENTER, N. Y., July 28, 1889.

To the Constitutional Convention of North Dakota:

MR. PRESIDENT:

In behalf of more than fifty thousand Christian people of the United States, some of whom reside in your proposed state, and who in obedience to the law of God observe the seventh day of the week commonly called Saturday as their Sabbath and day of rest and worship, most respectfully petition your honorable body not to incorporate into the Constitution of the new state any provision which will require any people who have observed the seventh day of the week as their Sabbath, to also rest from their labors on Sunday.

And, furthermore, inasmuch as the people of France and all southern Europe have, in accordance with the Word of God, always called and still continue to call the seventh day of the week instead of the first the Sabbath, in order to avoid ambiguity and confusion of terms, we most humbly petition that you do not make any provision in the Constitution wherein Sunday shall be called the Sabbath.

Most Respectfully,
C. D. POTTER.

Mr. Bennett introduced the following resolution:

Be it Resolved, That the Committee on Revision be and they hereby are instructed to insert between the word "city" and the word "and" in the last two lines of section 3 of File 125 as amended, the following words, "or for the purpose of constructing sewers."

Idaho is now prepared to present itself before congress simultaneously with its sister territories and ask for admission into the union of states, being fully able to support a state government and possessed of unlimited natural resources, we ask for your friendly assistance and co-operation in obtaining a speedy release from territorial dependence.

GRAND FORKS, August 8.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

Kindly inform the Constitutional Convention that the power to locate the public institutions for the new State of North Dakota, has never been delegated and still remains with the people at large. Should the Constitutional Convention farm them out and submit the "job" with, and as a part of the Constitution, the people cannot look upon it other than as an application of gag law, to take from them rights and privileges under the penals of remaining in territorial bondage. We believe that the territory will prefer that the birth of the new state be indefinitely postponed, rather that it be born under and by virtue of a Constitution reeking with jobbery. Grand Forks county has forty-five hundred votes, fifty public speakers and $25,000 to assist in maintaining the rights of the people and the fair fame of the new state. If we cannot start right we prefer not to start at all.

THE GRAND FORKS BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION.
GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 8, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

Please advise the Constitutional Convention that the people of Grand Forks county expect the privilege of voting on a Constitution pure and simple. If the Constitution be encumbered with jobs and schemes in such a manner that we must ratify them or reject the Constitution we prefer personal and public inconvenience to public disgrace.

S. S. TITUS, and 112 others.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 13.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

A mass convention here to-night adopted the following:

WHEREAS the Constitutional Convention now in session at Bismarck has adopted by a majority vote thereof an article providing for the permanent location of public institutions which it is proposed to submit with and as a part of the Constitution in such a manner that the people must either vote to endorse these matters not germane to the constitution proper, or to vote against the Constitution and in favor of the continuation of our present territorial form of government. Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the citizens of Grand Forks county in mass meeting assembled that we most earnestly and emphatically protest against the insertion of any such provision in the body of the Constitution as being subversive of the rights of the people; we demand the privilege of voting on the Constitution pure and simple, containing only such fundamental principles as may be necessary basis for a state government. We look with alarm upon the propensity exhibited to interpolate legislative questions which do not directly benefit the whole people. The people of North Dakota have struggled too earnestly and too long for the privilege of citizenship under the National government to now make their admission dependent upon their willingness to endorse matter foreign to the Constitution proper. If questions purely legislative must be submitted, let them be submitted separately in order that the people may voice their sentiments without involving the Constitution proper. Further, be it

Resolved, That we desire our representatives at the Constitutional Convention together with representatives from the other counties to use all their combined efforts to keep out of the Constitution all matters pertaining to the locating of public buildings and all other matters foreign to a Constitution.

D. McDONALD,
Secretary.

W. J. MURPHY,
Chairman.

CASSELTON, N. D., Aug. 12.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

Please inform the convention that at a public mass meeting held here to-night at which three-fourths of the voters of the city were present and participated, it was unanimously resolved as the sense of the meeting that in case the location of the public institutions should be incorporated in the Constitution that all honorable means will be used to defeat it at the polls.

R. D. GLASGOW, Chairman.
F. H. CARTER, Secretary.

JAMESTOWN, AUGUST 8.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

Please accept congratulations on securing location of Feeble Minded Asylum at Jamestown. This Institution is unquestionably the most important and desirable of any assigned by the Convention, and Jamestown has reason to be grateful, and time will prove its wise judgement of her delegates in this selection.

O. W. ARCHIBALD.

Resolved, That it now becomes the duty of the voters of Ransom County to send such persons to the Legislature of our new State, as will use every proper means to secure the building of the Soldiers Home;

Resolved, Further, that we hereby tender to Messrs. Stevens and Sandager the best wishes and thanks of our Post, and believe that we express the feelings of all soldiers and our citizens generally in doing so;

R. M. DAVIS, Commander.

LISBON, N. D., Aug. 12, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

At a public mass meeting held on the 12th day of August, 1889, in the City of Lisbon, N. D., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the people of Ransom county, do fully appreciate the efforts of the Committee on Public Institutions, appointed by President Fancher of the Constitutional Convention, and

Resolved, That we favor and approve the action taken by the Committee of the Whole, in the passage of the report of the said committee.

Resolved, That it is to the best interest and future peace and stability of our new state and the welfare and success of its public institutions, that the location of the same should be permanently settled now and for all time to come, thereby removing from our political horizon what would almost be a serious bone of contention so long as the question remains unsettled, and seriously impede and clogg the wheels of legislatures and much needed legislation.

Resolved, That as a people we consider it our duty to co-operate with our delegates the Hon. R. N. Stevens and Hon. Andrew Sandager in every just and honorable manner in securing the final passage of said bill to locate the public institutions.

Resolved, That Ransom county verify and ratify the above resolutions by casting her independent ballot, 2000 strong, for the adoption of this report.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent, by committee, to President Fancher and also of Ransom county's delegates at the Convention in session at Bismarck, N. D.

LISBON, N. D., Aug. 12, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention :

At a special meeting of the City Council of the city of Lisbon, N. D., held on the 12th day of August, 1889, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Constitutional Convention, in its wise judgment, saw fit to locate the public institutions for the coming State of North Dakota, thereby forever putting an end to the uncertainties and very expensive actions of future Legislatures in the premises, therefor, be it

Resolved, That we hereby endorse the action of the Constitutional Convention in locating the public institutions for the new State of North Dakota.

Resolved, That we hereby extend our hearty thanks to the Constitutional Convention for the magnificent gift of a Soldiers' Home to be located in the city of Lisbon, and that we pledge the matter our hearty support.

Resolved, That we hereby commend the actions of our delegates, Messrs, Stevens and Sandager, for the part they may have taken in the matter.

Resolved, That these resolutions be sent to Bismarck by committee.

W. J. HUGHES,
City Auditor pro tem.

W. D. PALMETIN,

CASSELTON, Aug. 13, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention :

Say that the sentiment here is not by any means unanimous. Many of our people are in favor of leaving matters as to location of public institutions as the Convention has fixed them. The disturbance is purely local and hinges on the Agricultural college. Cass county will give a rousing majority for Constitution, with the location feature left in. If the Agricultural college had been located here there would not have been the ghost of a kick. So you see it is not a matter of principle, but of local interest. The adoption of the Constitution will not be in the least endangered by locating capital and state institutions, for it will remove a source of evil and corruption from the Legislature. There is more Chinese gong and tom tom about this opposition than there is of real hostility about this opposition. I have talked with leading men and know how they feel. There is not a bit of opposition to Bismarck as the capital. It is all against Fargo having the Agricultural college and there are two hundred votes here and sixteen hundred in Fargo.

W. C. PLUMMER.

MINTO, N. D., Aug. 11, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention :

We, the undersigned Committee appointed by the mass meeting of the city of Minto, Walsh county, North Dakota, held on the 10th day of August, 1889, would respectfully submit the following:

WHEREAS, We consider that the Constitutional Convention has exceeded its authority in locating the state institutions and in allotting state lands; that they were not chosen for that purpose, but that the State Legislature, which is to convene next December, should have the authority of locating our State Institutions and the disposition of our public lands under the act of Congress creating the State of North Dakota, approved February 22d, 1889, and that our delegates were sent to form a Constitution that will insure us justice, domestic tranquility and promote the general welfare of our new state, and that when the Constitution is framed their labors are ended and they have no authority to interfere with out state institutions or officers. Therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the course taken by all the delegates of Walsh county, and the action of the noble thirty who championed the people's rights, and that when they voted "no" on File No. 143, reported article proposing to permanently locate public institutions and buildings, they voiced the real sentiments of the citizens of Walsh county.

Resolved, That we respectfully request you to reconsider all action in regard to the aforesaid article and vote it down at its third reading.

Resolved, That we will do all in our power next October to defeat the Constitution by at least 4,000 majority in Walsh county, if it contains the obnoxious article having for its object the locating of the state institutions of North Dakota.

E. E. DAILY,
JNO. R. YOST,
JAMES TWOMLEY,
W. G. MITCHELL,
G. H. MCPHERSEN,
Committee.

CASSELTON, August 12.

To Delegates R. M. Pollock and H. M. Peterson:

GENTLEMEN: We, the undersigned, qualified voters of the city of Casselton, heartily approve your course in challenging the right of the Constitutional Convention to locate the public institutions of North Dakota. We protest against the usurpation of powers that belong to the Legislature, and condemn the exercise of such arbitrary and unwarranted authority as will arouse the indignation of the people and make the adoption of the Constitution a matter of great uncertainty.

R. D. GLASGOW AND 115 OTHERS.

PARK RIVER, Aug. 10, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

WHEREAS, The Constitutional Convention of North Dakota now in session in the city of Bismarck, have adopted File No. 143, providing for the permanent location of the public institutions of the state, and parceling out the public lands to the same: Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the citizens of western Walsh county, regardless of politics, assembled at Park River, this 10th day of August, 1889, in mass Convention; that we do most emphatically protest against the provisions of File No. 143, as a usurpation on the Legislative rights of the people, and without a precedent in the history of our country;

That we demand the right to vote upon a Constitution embodying only such fundamental principals as may be necessary to form the basis of a state government;

That if such matters, foreign to a Constitution proper, as are embodied in File No. 143, must be submitted to the people of North Dakota at this time, we demand that they be submitted as a separate clause, the rejection of which will not endanger the body of the Constitution itself.

Further, believing the minority report of the Committee on Public Institutions and Buildings embodied in File No. 146 to be eminently proper and just, we most earnestly petition the Constitutional Convention to reconsider their action on their reports; and we still further pledge our votes and influence in October next in accordance with these resolutions.

J. M. MILLSPAUGH,
W. H. DOUGLAS,
H. H. HOSFORD,
Committee, and 127 others.

SHELDON, Aug. 10, 1889.

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Public Institutions in favor of the location of the Soldiers' Home at Lisbon, Ransom county, with a grant of 40,000 acres of land, be and the same hereby is heartily ratified and endorsed, and the delegates to the Constitutional convention from the— district are earnestly requested to vote in favor of the same and to use every legitimate means and exert every proper influence to secure the approval and adoption of said report by the Convention.

MARION GRANGE P. M., and 33 others.

Mr. Scott moved that the further reading of these petitions, protests and communications be postponed and that they be referred to a committee to be appointed by the chair.

Which motion was withdrawn.

BARNES COUNTY, August 10, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

The citizens of Barnes county warmly approve of the action of your Convention in locating the public institutions of the State of North Dakota. They believe that no act of this Convention should be more commended than this. They believe it insures permanency and stability, and means a saving of many thousand dollars to the State of North Dakota.

JOHN ANDERSON and 43 others.

PORTLAND, Traill County, N. D., Aug. 10, 1889.

To Hon. J. F. Selby, Delegate to the Constitutional Convention for North Dakota from Traill County:

We, the undersigned citizens of Traill county, hereby declare that we represent the opinion of a large proportion of the people of Western Traill, and that we hereby most strenuously protest against the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention in permanently locating the capital of North Dakota and the public institutions of the State and apportioning the public lands.

We demand our Constitutional rights as citizens of North Dakota in having a voice in the location of our capital and public institutions. The Constitution as it now stands will be defeated by a large majority in Western Traill.

We prefer political honor, even under a territorial carpetbag government, to anything that is tainted with political dishonor and rotten jobbery, and any usurpation of the powers vested in the people of a free and Republican form of government.

We demand at the hands of the Constitutional Convention, a Constitution for North Dakota that is pure and simple, and that will stand as a proper foundation upon which can be erected the laws that will govern one of the grandest States of the Union.

C. CRANSTON, and 93 others.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 8, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

The adoption of the Constitution will be defeated in this locality unless the article locating the Capital is stricken out, and we earnestly protest against the location of state institutions by an article in the Constitution.

WM. H. FELLOWS, and 66 others.

HATTON, N. D., Aug. 12, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

The citizens of Hatton and vicinity in mass meeting assembled wish to express their appreciation of the step taken by the Constitutional Convention in regard to the location of public institutions for North Dakota. We have nothing, but believe the distribution has been made in a spirit of fairness, and aside from local favors, we are profoundly thankful that a great source of corruption and jobbery has been removed.

We know of no person in that part of the counties of Traill, Steele and Grand Forks tributary to Hatton who does not fully agree with us in this.

T. E. NELSON,
Secretary.

A. FROSLID,
Chairman

MAYVILLE, N. D., August 8, 1889.

To Hon. E. M. Paulson:

The citizens of Mayville extend congratulations to yourself and Hegge.
N. D. NILSON, Mayor.

MAYVILLE, August 12, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

WHEREAS, It has come to our knowledge that certain towns in North Dakota of the "dog in the manger stamp" are attempting to discredit the action of the Constitutional Convention in locating the public buildings and institutions of the new State of North Dakota, and are charging corruption on the members who voted for the measure. Therefore, be it Resolved, By the citizens of Mayville and vicinity, in mass convention assembled, that we approve fully and heartily the action of our delegates from Traill county, Hons. E. M. Paulson and M. F. Hegge, in working and voting for the measure.

That we repudiate the accusation of corruption charged against them and other members of the Convention as simply the emanation of disappointed and envious minds.

That we think the locations as made in the proposed article are fair and just, and we believe satisfactory to a large majority of the voting population and taxpayers of the state.

That we particularly approve of the permanent location of the capital at Bismarck on economic grounds, believing also that its removal, while entailing enormous expense to the state, would be an act of gross injustice and bad faith with the people of Bismarck. Finally,

That we believe it eminently proper and wise that the location of the public buildings and institutions should be made by the Constitutional Convention, thus removing from legislative consideration for all future time the vexatious questions of public institutions which have been such a source of political contention and trading in the past.

The above resolutions were passed unanimously at a large mass meeting held this 12th day of August, 1889, at the city hall in Mayville, N. D.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

At a mass convention of the people of Nelson county held at the court house in Lakota on Saturday evening, August 10, 1889, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Constitutional Convention of North Dakota have, in defiance of the wishes of the constituents of the members thereof adopted the majority report of the Committee on Public Institutions, which report has been made a part of the Constitution; and

WHEREAS, We believe that the action of said Convention in so doing was the work of a corrupt and subsidized majority, and is against the best interests of the people of North Dakota, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the people of Nelson County, irrespective of party in mass Convention assembled, that we unqualifiedly condemn the action of said Convention in attempting to deprive the people of the privilege of voting upon the location of the Capital and other public institutions, and we do each and every one pledge ourselves, in case that the Constitution shall be submitted with the obnoxious plank contained therein permanently closing the Capital of the state without the question of location being first submitted to the people that we will not only vote against it, but also use every honorable means to defeat its adoption.

That we earnestly desire our representatives upon the reassembling of said Convention, to use every effort to have the article locating the Capital submitted as a separate article of said Constitution that we may be permitted to vote upon it.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ACCOUNTS AND EXPENSES.

MR. PRESIDENT:

Your Committee on Accounts and Expenses respectfully report: That after a full interview with the Secretary of the Territory they have ascertained that the appropriation of $20,000 made by the United States for the Constitutional Convention of North Dakota, is sufficient to pay members per diem for thirty-one days, mileage in full, $3,750 for printing and $500 for stationery and incidental expenses. Also the per diem of the Chief Clerk, Enrolling and Engrossing Clerk, Messenger, Sergeant-at-Arms, Chaplain and Watchman for thirty-one days, thereby making it incumbent upon the State of North Dakota to assume and pay the per diem of the members of the convention for each day exceeding thirty-one days; and also, of the Chief Clerk, Enrolling and Engrossing Clerk, Messenger, Sergeant-at-Arms, Chaplain, Watchman, for such days in excess of the thirty-one days as the convention has or may be in session.

The Secretary states that under his instructions from the United States he is unable to pay any clerks of committees, stenographers, door-keeper, pages or any expert accountants, and therefore, all expenses incurred by the convention on this account must be assumed by the State of North Dakota. Under a resolution passed by the convention we find that the following clerks, with the number of days, were discharged, and certificates of indebtedness issued to them in accordance with the resolution passed by the Constitutional Convention, signed by the President and Chief Clerk of the convention, to-wit:

M. M. Miller, 15 days Clerk Legislative Committee at $5.....	$75 00
F. H. Register, 15 days Clerk Legislative Committee at $5.....	75 00
Mrs. Etta Linn, 14 days as Clerk Committee on Public Lands.....	70 00
Geo. P. Stillman, Stenographer for Joint Commission and transcribing	338 65
Wm. G. Hayden, Expert Accountant for Joint Commission.....	170 00
A. E. Bennett, Clerk Joint Commission 21 days at $6.....	126 00
G. P. Stillman, 1 day Clerk Committee on Education.....	6 00
J. B. Wineman, Clerk Committee Municipal Corporations 15 days at $5.....	75 00
E. H. Sanford, Clerk Commission to Divide Public Property 22 days at $6.....	132 00
Margaret H. Davidson, Clerk Judiciary Committee 17 days at $5.....	85 00
George Auld, Clerk Corporations Committee 13 days at $5.....	65 00

There will remain for the State of North Dakota to assume and pay the salaries of the following clerks for the days herein enumerated and at the respective sums per diem set opposite their names.

M. L. Waterbury, July 15, Assistant Enrolling and Engrossing Clerk.	$5 00
Wm. G. Hayden, Aug. 3, 1889, Clerk Committee on Revision and Ad- justment.....	6 00

E. H. Sandford, Aug. 3, 1889, Clerk Committee on Revision and Adjustment.....	6 00
Mary D. Matteson, July 12, 1889, Clerk Apportionment Committee..	5 00
William Gleason, Janitor, July 4, 1889.....	5 00
George Wentz, Doorkeeper, July 4, 1889.....	5 00
R. M. Tuttle, Stenographer, July 4, 1889, $10 per diem and ten cents per folio for transcribing.
Arthur E. Linn, Page, July 4, 1889.....	2 00
Harry G. Ward, Page, July 4, 1889.....	2 00
Charles Lander, Page, July 4, 1889.....	2 00
Charles W. Conroy, Page, July 4, 1889.....	2 00
Geo. P. Stillman, Clerk Committee on Revision and Adjustment, Aug. 3, 1889.....	6 00
W. E. Raymond, Clerk Committee on Miscellaneous Subjects, July 17, 1889.....	6 00
C. M. Larrabee, Clerk Committee on Schedule and Revision and Adjustment, July 29, 1889.....	6 00

We find that each one of these persons has been employed as stated above at the per diem stated above, for services performed and are entitled to compensation therefor.

We are unable to report accurately the total cost of printing ordered and authorized by the Convention, but as near as we can estimate the same, we find—all printing for the Convention to date amounts to about $2,500. When finally completed it is estimated that the total expense of printing including the printing and binding of the Journals and debates will amount to $5,500. Of this sum the general government appropriates $3,750, leaving about $1,750 to be paid by the State of North Dakota.

There are some small bills for incidental expenses incurred for telegraphing which have been referred to the secretary and, in case he declines to pay the same out of the appropriation of $20,000, the sum must be paid by the State of North Dakota. They amount in the aggregate to about $13.

In addition to these expenses the State of North Dakota necessarily must provide for the revision, indexing and superintending the printing of the Journals and debates of the Convention. A reasonable estimate of the expense of this work is $600, as we find that the Legislative Assembly of Dakota has heretofore allowed the chief clerks of the house and council respectively $360 each for transcribing, indexing, superintending, printing and distribution of the Journals of the respective houses. We estimate that the indexing and superintending the printing of the Journal and debates of the Convention will fall within its limits.

We believe that the Journals and debates of the Convention can be revised, printed and be ready for distribution within sixty days from the adjournment of the Convention.

The matter of the printing and publishing the Constitution as finally adopted by the Convention is respectfully referred to the Convention for such action as it deems wise. Respectfully submitted,

O. G. MEACHAM,

Chairman Committee on Accounts and Expenses.

The Committee on Revision and Adjustment submitted the following report:

Mr. Camp moved that the report be read by title only.

Which motion prevailed.

MR. PRESIDENT :

Your Committee on Revision and Adjustment have had under consideration the several articles of the Constitution referred to them, and respectfully re-

HOPE, N. D., 13, 1889.

To the Hon. D. E. Wallace:

Inclosed please find copy of preamble and resolutions adopted unanimously at a meeting of citizens of Steele county, held on Monday evening, August 12, 1889, at the Hope opera house. The officers of the meeting were instructed to present you with a copy and request that you make the same known to the Convention.

JOHN J. WAMBERG,
Chairman.

WHEREAS, A majority of the members of the Constitutional Convention now in session at Bismarck have, by an assumption of arbitrary powers not intended by the people of North Dakota to be vested in them, located a number of public institutions; and,

WHEREAS, We believe that improper influences have been brought to bear by corporations and others affected in the location of said buildings and institutions; and,

WHEREAS, We believe that the location of the capital of North Dakota is a prerogative of the people, and should be left to them to be decided by their suffrages; and,

WHEREAS, Many of the public buildings and institutions will not be needed for many years to come, and in view of the further fact that large portions of the state of North Dakota are at present sparsely settled, and that no action should be taken at the present time which may prejudice their rights and interests in the future; and,

WHEREAS, The action of said majority of the members of the Constitutional Convention, if persisted in, will endanger the adoption of the Constitution and thus delay statehood, as well as place the people at great expense should the Convention have to again assemble; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the people of Steele county, in public meeting assembled, do hereby protest against the adoption of said article known as File 143, and ask that the same be stricken from the Constitution before its final adoption; and we respectfully ask our delegates to use all honorable means to defeat the final adoption of the Constitution unless said clause is stricken out; and, be it further

Resolved, That we hereby pledge ourselves to do all in our power to defeat the ratification of the Constitution when submitted to a vote of the people, unless our wishes in this respect are complied with.

R. H. SIMPSON,
Secretary.

PEMBINA, N. D., Aug. 13, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

We, the undersigned residents of Pembina county, do protest against the action of the Constitutional Committee in permanently locating the public institutions of North Dakota, and do pray that they reconsider the action that they have taken.

F. A. MILLER, and 285 others.

WHAHPETON, N. D., Aug. 14, 1889.

To the Hon. Andrew Slotten:

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted here last night: We, the citizens of Richland county in mass meeting assembled do hereby desire to express our disapproval of the location of the public institutions of the coming State of North Dakota by the Constitutional Convention and the farming out of the state lands for such institutions and give therefore the following reasons: First, That the members of such convention were elected for the sole purpose of framing a Constitution for the whole state and not to exercise ingenuity in furthering the interest of particular localities. Second, That the principle of locating such institutions by this convention is unjust in its inception and pernicious in its results. Third, That such locations are made by combinations for political schemes and private gains. Fourth, The Constitutional Convention has no authority to dispose of a hundred and seventy thousand acres parcelled out as are expressly granted for such charitable and educational purposes as the legislature may provide and can only be granted by the legislature. Fifth, That the granting of the last mentioned lands was inserted for the purpose of deceiving members into voting for an otherwise distasteful measure in order to secure some home institutions. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we express our approval of the course of our delegates who voted against such measure and that we respectfully request our other delegate to change his vote thereon and that they use their united endeavors to defeat the same.

H. J. McCUMBER,
JOHN NELSON,
C. N. WOOD,

Committee on Resolutions.

ST. THOMAS, N. D., Aug. 13, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

A large and very enthusiastic condemnation meeting of the residents of this city and vicinity was held at the opera house last evening.

Wm. McMurchie was elected chairman and A. L. Miller secretary.

After a number of speeches were made by leading citizens condemning the action taken by the Constitutional Convention, and in particular by the home delegates, Powles and Holmes, the chair appointed a committee of seven, to draft resolutions.

The resolutions condemned in the severest terms the action of the forty-four, and extolled the bravery of the thirty who, in spite of all opposition and offers of "boodle," worked and voted for what they knew was right and what their constituents desired.

The resolution also embodied the sentiment that if the Constitution, when presented in October, contained any clause permanently locating the public institutions of North Dakota, every just effort would be made to defeat its adoption.

A petition asking the Convention to reconsider their action on this matter has been signed by two hundred of the citizens of this city and vicinity and will be sent to-day to the Convention.

WHEREAS, We the people of southern Pembina county, have met in mass convention to take action on the matter of the location of public institutions by the Constitutional Convention; now, therefore,

Resolved, That we believe our Constitutional Convention is exceeding its duties and powers in presuming to permanently locate our public institutions, and we pledge ourselves to use all just means to defeat a Constitution containing clauses relating to the same.

Resolved, That we consider the action of the forty-four delegates who favored the resolution as unwarrantable and without the color of law, and look upon them as usurpers of our inherent rights and condemn them as unfit to represent a free and enlightened people living under a republican government.

Resolved, That we commend the thirty delegates who, in the face of bribery and corruption, have refused to exercise powers not delegated to them, and extend to them approbations greater than words can convey.

GRAFTON, N. D., August 12, 1889.

To the President of the Constitutional Convention:

At a meeting of the Republican and Democratic County Central Committees, held this day in the city of Grafton, county of Walsh, North Dakota, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Constitutional Convention for the State of North Dakota has included in the Constitution an article permanently locating the various public institutions for the State of North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, The location of said institutions by the Constitutional Convention is without precedent and was not contemplated by the electors of North Dakota when they selected their delegates to attend said Convention; and

WHEREAS, We believe it to be the right of the people to decide when and where all public institutions for the state of North Dakota shall be located; and

WHEREAS, We believe that the location of the institutions as contemplated by the Constitution will be subversive to the best interests of the people of the State of North Dakota, and will tend to produce extravagant and premature appropriations for public institutions long before they are needed, and introduce a dangerous element into the Legislative deliberations of the new State of North Dakota, at this critical formative period of its history; and

WHEREAS, The unanimous sentiment of the people of Walsh county, North Dakota, as conclusively shown by the fact that not a single advocate of location of the public institutions has yet been found in Walsh county, although several public meetings have been held to discuss this matter, and the members of both committees have endeavored to faithfully ascertain the sentiments of the electors of the county of Walsh; and

WHEREAS, It is the unanimous opinion of the members of the said County Central Committees that the electors of Walsh county, North Dakota, without regard to party, and in the exercise of the best judgment, firmly believe that the adoption of the Constitution with the article in it locating the public institutions would prove a most serious calamity for the new State of North Dakota, and that the said electors would prefer to remain a territory rather than become a state under such conditions it is, therefore,

Resolved, By the said Republican and Democratic County Central Committees for the county of Walsh, that in deference of the wishes and opinions of the entire people of Walsh county, Dakota, that if the said article locating the public institutions be not stricken from the Constitution, they will order each and every ballot printed for the coming election in the county of Walsh to be printed "Against the Constitution," and will use every endeavor to secure the defeat of the Constitution at the polls, firmly believing it to be the less of the two evils.

The committees further state that it is their unbiased opinion gathered from each and every section of Walsh county that there will be a unanimous vote recorded against the Constitution in its present form, and that not one hundred out of the four thousand votes of Walsh county will be cast in its favor.

In testimony whereof the said committees have caused these resolutions to be subscribed to by their respective chairmen and secretaries.

O. E. SAUTER
Chairman of the Walsh County Central Republican Committee.

M. K. MARRINAN,
Chairman of the Walsh County Democratic Central Committee.

D. W. YORKEY,

And the reports were adopted.

REPORTS OF SELECT COMMITTEES.

The Special Committee, to which was referred the telegrams, communications, etc., to the Convention, in reference to the location of public institutions, submitted the following majority and minority reports:

MAJORITY REPORT.

Report of the committee to whom was referred letters, telegrams, petitions and memorials on the subject of locating the state capital and public institutions.

MR. PRESIDENT:

The aforesaid committee beg leave to report as follows:

First. Although there are communications on both sides of the question, the preponderance, municipal and otherwise, is overwhelmingly against locating the capital and public institutions in the Constitution.

Second. The internal and external evidence indicates plainly that the commendations were in the main worked up by the Northern Pacific Railway corporation or by a narrow, local selfish mistaken qualification of favored communities, while the protests are in the main spontaneous, broad and patriotic expressions from the people.

Third. That we view with alarm the sure doom of the state treasury as foreshadowed in the following naive resolution of approval from Ransom county:

"Resolved, That it now becomes the duty of the voters of Ransom county to send such persons to the Legislature of our new state as will use every proper means to secure the buildings, etc."

One can hardly complain of the sincerity and logic of that resolution.

Instead of removing a fruitful course of corruption as the majority report claims, this article will fasten upon the state a powerful inducement to form a spoils ring in every legislature for log rolling and "going in for the old flag and a big appropriation."

Fourth. That this Convention owes it to the people of this state and to a proper regard for its own position in history to seriously and respectfully consider the objection urged against this article. That its effect on the Agricultural College is to dismember that institution and scatter its professorships and departments in remote parts of the state to grow up into so many useless high schools instead of a great seat of learning which should become the pride and glory of the state as contemplated by the munificence of the federal government.

Fifth. That inasmuch as many of these communications emphatically deny the right of this Convention to locate these institutions and regard the article a high-handed usurpation of their rights not contemplated by them in the election of May 14th.

Therefore, the article should at least be submitted as a separate article, like the article on Prohibition, so that the now evident and bitter hostility thereto will not result in defeating an otherwise very good Constitution and thus obstructing the march to statehood.

Sixth. That we read with deep humiliation in many of these communications from the people intimations of corruption and bribery and regret that such suspicious have found a lodgement in the minds of the people, as it will create distrust of the whole document and injure the fair name of the state both at home and abroad.

Seventh. The minority report relies very much for popular support on the hypothesis that our capital property of $250,000 at Bismarck would become valueless unless the obnoxious article is included in the Constitution.

The premises do not justify such a conclusion.

The majority report says that "when the seat of government is changed the land reverts by the terms of the deed to the donors—the building reverting with the land."

That is like the news we used to get from Texas during the war: "Important, if true."

The committee have carefully examined the "terms of the deed" from the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to the Territory of Dakota.

It is recorded on Page 125, Vol. A, No. 4, miscellaneous records of Burleigh county.

The only limitation therein contained is as follows: "The premises hereinafter described shall be held, used and disposed of by the party of the second part * * * for the purpose of erecting and completing the Capitol building of the said Territory of Dakota upon the parcel of ground first hereinafter described."

As soon as the buildings were erected and completed this condition was fulfilled, and the title vested absolutely in the territory.

The territory could have conveyed a perfect title to all the property at any time subsequent to about 1885. South Dakota has now formally relinquished all and any share in this property, and North Dakota's title is absolute.

The claim of the minority that "It would open up the way to innumerable suits against the territory from the holders of warrantee deeds for lots purchased, who would have an equitable if not a legal demand for the return of their money," is unfortunate, to say the least.

In the first place, there are no "warrantee deeds" to these lots.

The capitol commissioners, when they conveyed these lots, very properly omitted to insert any warranty whatever.

The only words that appear in said deeds between the description of the lots and the attestation of the signatures are contained in a habendum clause which reads as follows: "To have and to hold the same with all the appurtenances thereto belonging to the party of the second part, their heirs and assigns forever." Besides that, a state cannot be sued without giving its consent thereto.

Our Anglo-Saxon ancestors have from time immemorial maintained that principle and justified it on the maxim that "the king can do no wrong."

In the states of the American union the same policy has prevailed, and is abundantly justified on grounds of public policy and the general welfare of the state.

It is a remote alarm to fear that North Dakota will depart from the wholesome traditions.

Our land at Bismarck is valuable, simply on account of the Capital being there.

Any other community in the state would be glad to give us an equal area for the same purpose, and a like inflation of values would follow its location anywhere.

J. F. SELBY,
J. L. COLTON,

MINORITY REPORT.

MR. PRESIDENT:

Your committee to whom was referred various memorials concerning the locating of public institutions, respectfully submit the following report:

The remonstrances against the action of this Convention have undoubtedly been inspired by a misapprehension of the facts, or a misunderstanding of the reasons for such actions. We pass by the threat contained in some of the memorials, that unless the Convention recedes from its position, the memorialists will defeat the Constitution. These threats cannot be the result of reflection, for if seriously made, they would imply that liberty of thought and a decent regard for the opinions of others had fallen to a low ebb indeed. In the history of Dakota, every quarrel, every antagonism of sections, almost every charge of corruption, bargain and sale, has grown out of the location of public institutions. A disgraceful dispute, lasting for years, costing the territory thousands of dollars, and which threatened the dismemberment of the Legislature itself, grew out of the location of the capital. There is scarcely an institution of the territory, the location of which has not demoralized the legislature, arrayed communities against each other, and in some cases called for military interference, to avoid actual bloodshed. Even so late as the meeting of our last general assembly, the strife over the location of an institution, threatened to disrupt the pleasant relations of two of our principal cities, and occupied the attention of the legislature for weeks, to the detriment of public interests. Your committee believe that the positive and final settlement of the many questions sure to arise in our first legislature over the location of public institutions, would be a blessing to the new state, a relief of the tax-payers, and an avoidance of local feuds and quarrels, which otherwise would plunge the state into confusion and extravagance, for the next ten years. It is perhaps natural that the opponents of this article should magnify the objections to it, but we protest against that representation of the motives and influences governing the majority which is contained in some of these memorials, and which has appeared in the columns of the press. The charges are not only untrue, but are grossly unjust to the members of this convention. The proposition submitted in this article is fair to all sections, recognizing every division of the territory, and will prove a measure of equity for the future, as well as for the present. Five of the new institutions are located in the northern part of the state, four in the central, and three in the southern; six are on the line of the great Manitoba system, four on the transcontinental line of the Northern Pacific, and two on the line of both roads. Five are in the thickly populated counties of the eastern border (the university makes six), three are in the central range of counties between the Red and the Missouri rivers, and two on or west of the Missouri. The Constitutional declaration that these institutions shall be located permanently in certain places, costs the tax-payers nothing. It affords no pretext for the erection of public buildings, any more than does the organic act which also provides for them. The Convention is at liberty to restrict the number of these institutions which shall be built in a given time, or the Legislature may do so at its first or any subsequent session. It simply disposes of quarrels over locating in the future. The plea that the people should vote on this matter cannot be made in entire good faith, for no member of the minority has offered an article proposing a vote on the location of the university, the hospital for the insane, the agricultural college or any other institution fixed by the article in question. The cry has been, and still is, to vote on the Capital location, and to leave other institutions to be located by the Legislature—a proposition which all experience proves to be fraught with the utmost danger to the peace and dignity of the state. So far as the seat of government is concerned, a recital of a few facts is sufficient to vindicate the majority in the action they have taken, in the minds of reasonable and unprejudiced men. The Capital was fixed at Bismarck on conditions that the citizens would contribute $100,000 in money and 160 acres of land. This they did, adding to the quarter section demanded, another quarter section, making 320 acres of land altogether, donated to the territory. The building as it now stands with its steam heating fixtures, etc. has cost nearly $200,000. Of this amount the territory has contributed about $100,000. When the seat of government is changed, the land reverts by the terms of the deed to the donors. The result of such a change therefore would be to not only deprive the citizens who have contributed their means to the erection of this building of all they have expended, (the building reverting with the land) but would be absolutely abandoning and throwing away the two hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of property now vested in the people. Not only this, but it would open up the way to innumerable suits against the territory from the holders of warrantee deeds for lots purchased who would have an equitable if not a legal demand for the return of their money. These are the facts briefly stated, and it seems to your committee that they should appeal to every delegate in this convention. Can we afford to sacrifice this large property to gratify any whim or local ambition? But this is not all. If the seat of government is changed a new building for capitol purposes must be erected. Is the new state so rich that it can afford to spend a quarter of a million dollars unnecessarily and for property thus thrown away? We think not. We believe the sober sense of the people will agree that such a course would be unwarranted, extravagant and reflective upon the judgment, if not the sincerity and honesty of this convention. Every other institution located and built by the territory remains undisturbed. Nobody thinks of demanding a vote on the University or the Insane Asylum. Why should the Capitol be made an exception.

If this article is adopted and ratified the state will start out free from quarrels, with no cause for sectional strife, with no necessity for increasing its debt, to provide buildings at the seat of government, and, as your committee most sincerely believe, with an era of peace and prosperity before it, all of which is respectfully submitted.

All lands designated for sale and not sold within two years after appraisal shall be reappraised before they are sold. No grant or patent for any such lands shall issue until payment is made for the same; Provided, That the lands contracted to be sold by the state, shall be subject to taxation from the date of such contract. In case the taxes assessed against any of said lands for any year remain unpaid until the first Monday in October of the following year, then and thereupon the contract of sale for such lands shall become null and void.

SEC. 159. All land, money or other property donated, granted or received from the United States or any other source for a University, School of Mines, Reform School, Agricultural College, Deaf and Dumb Asylum, Normal School or other educational or charitable institution or purpose, and the proceeds of all such lands and other property so received from any source, shall be and remain perpetual funds, the interest and income of which together with the rents of all such land as may remain unsold shall be inviolably appropriated and applied to the specific objects of the original grants or gifts. SEC. 163. No law shall ever be passed by the Legislative Assembly granting to any person, corporation or association any privileges by reason of the occupation, cultivation or improvement of any public lands by said person, corporation or association subsequent to the survey thereof by the general government. No claim for the occupation, cultivation or improvement of any public lands shall ever be recognized, nor shall such occupation, cultivation or improvement of any public lands ever be used to diminish either directly or indirectly the purchase price of said lands.

SEC. 164. The Legislative Assembly shall have authority to provide by law for the sale or disposal of all public lands that have been heretofore, or may hereafter be granted by the United States to the state for purposes other than set forth and named in sections 153 and 159 of this article. And the Legislative Assembly in providing for the appraisement, sale, rental and disposal of the same shall not be subject to the provisions and limitations of this article.

SEC. 165. The Legislative Assembly shall pass suitable laws for the safekeeping, transfer and disbursement of the state school funds; and shall require all officers charged with the same or the safe keeping thereof to give ample bonds for all moneys and funds received by them, and if any of said officers shall convert to his own use in any manner or form, or shall loan with or without interest or shall deposit in his own name, or otherwise than in the name of the state of North Dakota or shall deposit in any banks or with any person or persons, or exchange for other funds or property any portion of the school funds aforesaid or purposely allow any portion of the same to remain in his own hands uninvested except in the manner prescribed by law, every such act shall constitute an embezzlement of so much of the aforesaid school funds as shall be thus taken or loaned, or deposited, or exchanged, or withheld and shall be a felony; and any failure to pay over, produce or account for, the state school funds or any part of the same entrusted to any such officer, as by law required or demanded, shall be held and be taken to be prima facie evidence of such embezzlement.

ARTICLE X.

And in the organization of new counties and in changing the lines of organized counties and boundaries of congressional townships the natural boundaries shall be observed as nearly as may be.

SEC. 168. All changes in the boundaries of organized counties before taking effect shall be submitted to the electors of the county or counties, to be effected thereby at a general election and be adopted by a majority of all the legal votes cast in each county at such election; and in case any portion of an organized county is stricken off and added to another, the county to which such portion is added shall assume and be holden for an equitable proportion of the indebtedness of the county so reduced.

SEC. 169. The Legislative Assembly shall provide by general law for changing county seats in organized counties, but it shall have no power to remove the county seat of any organized county.

SEC. 170. The Legislative Assembly shall provide by general law for township organization under which any county may organize whenever a majority of the legal voters of such county, voting at a general election shall so determine, and whenever any county shall adopt township organization, so much of this Constitution as provides for the management of the fiscal concerns of said county by the board of county commissioners may be dispensed with by a majority vote of the people voting at any general election; and the affairs of said county may be transacted by the chairmen of the several township boards of said county, and such others as may be provided by law for incorporated cities, towns or villages within such county.

SEC. 171. In any county that shall have adopted a system of government by the chairmen of the several township boards, the question of continuing the same may be submitted to the electors of such county at a general election in such a manner as may be provided by law, and if a majority of all the votes cast upon such question shall be against said system of government, then such system shall cease in said county, and the affairs of said county shall then be transacted by a board of county commissioners as is now provided by the laws of the Territory of Dakota.

SEC. 172. Until the system of county government by the chairmen of the several township boards is adopted by any county the fiscal affairs of said county shall be transacted by a board of county commissioners; said board shall consist of not less than three and not more than five members whose terms of office shall be prescribed by law. Said board shall hold sessions for the transaction of county business as shall be provided by law.

The Legislative Assembly shall provide by law for such other county, township and district officers as may be deemed necessary, and shall prescribe the duties and compensation of all county, township and district officers. The sheriff and treasurer of any county shall not hold their respective offices for more than four years in succession.

ARTICLE XI.

REVENUE AND TAXATION.

SEC. 174. The Legislative Assembly shall provide for raising revenue sufficient to defray the expenses of the state for each year, not to exceed in any one year four (4) mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the state, to be ascertained by the last assessment made for state and county purposes, and also a sufficient sum to pay the interest on the state debt.

SEC. 175. No tax shall be levied except in pursuance of law, and every law imposing a tax shall state distinctly the object of the same, to which only it shall be applied.

SEC. 176. Laws shall be passed taxing by uniform rule all property according to its true value in money, but the property of the United States and the state, county and municipal corporations, both real and personal, shall be exempt from taxation, and the Legislative Assembly shall by a general law exempt from taxation property used exclusively for school, religious, cemetery or charitable purposes and personal property to any amount not exceeding in value two hundred dollars for each individual liable to taxation; but the Legislative Assembly may, by law, provide for the payment of a per centum of gross earnings of railroad companies to be paid in lieu of all State, county, township and school taxes on property exclusively used in and about the prosecution of the business of such companies as common carriers, but no real estate of said corporations shall be exempted from taxation in the same manner, and on the same basis as other real estate is taxed, except roadbed, right of way, shops and buildings used exclusively in their business as common carriers, and whenever and so long as such law providing for the payment of a per centum on earnings shall be in force, that part of section 179 of this article relating to assessment of railroad property shall cease to be in force.

SEC. 177. All improvements on land shall be assessed in accordance with section 179, but plowing shall not be considered as an improvement or add to the value of land for the purpose of assessment.

SEC. 178. The power of taxation shall never be surrendered or suspended by any grant or contract to which the State or any county or other municipal corporation shall be a party.

SEC. 179. All property, except as hereinafter in this section provided, shall be assessed in the county, city, township, town, village or district in which it is situated, in the manner prescribed by law. The franchise, roadway, roadbed, rails and rolling stock of all railroads operated in this state shall be assessed by the state board of equalization at their actual value and such assessed valuation shall be apportioned to the counties, cities, towns, townships and districts in which said roads are located, as a basis for taxation of such property in proportion to the number of miles of railway laid in such counties, cities, towns, townships and districts.

SEC. 180. The Legislative Assembly may provide for the levy, collection and disposition of an annual poll tax of not more than one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) on every male inhabitant of this state over twenty-one and under fifty years of age, except paupers, idiots, insane persons and Indians not taxed.

SEC. 181. The Legislative Assembly shall pass all laws necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XII.

PUBLIC DEBT AND PUBLIC WORKS.

SEC. 182. The state may, to meet casual deficits or failure in the revenue, or in case of extraordinary emergencies, contract debts, but such debts shall never in the aggregate exceed the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, exclusive of what may be the debt of North Dakota at the time of the adoption of this Constitution. Every such debt shall be authorized by law for certain purposes to be definitely mentioned therein, and every such law shall provide for levying an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest semi-annually, and the principal within thirty years from the passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such tax to the payment of said principal and interest, and such appropriation shall not be repealed nor the tax discontinued until such debt, both principal and interest, shall have been fully paid. No debt in excess of the limit named shall be incurred except for the purpose of repelling invasion, suppressing insurrection, defending the state in time of war, or to provide for public defense in case of threatened hostilities; but the issuing of new bonds to refund existing indebtedness, shall not be construed to be any part or portion of said two hundred thousand dollars.

SEC. 183. The debt of any county, township, town, school district or any other political subdivision, shall never exceed five (5) per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; Provided, That any incorporated city may, by a two-thirds vote, increase such indebtedness three (3) per centum on such assessed value beyond said five (5) per cent. limit. In estimating the indebtedness which a city, county, township, school district or any other political subdivision may incur, the entire amount of existing indebtedness, whether contracted prior or subsequent to the adoption of this constitution shall be included; Provided, further, That any incorporated city may become indebted in any amount not exceeding four (4) per centum on such assessed value without regard to the existing indebtedness of such city, for the purpose of constructing or purchasing water works for furnishing a supply of water to the inhabitants of such city, or for the purpose of constructing sewers, and for no other purpose whatever. All bonds or obligations in excess of the amount of indebtedness permitted by this constitution, given by any city, county, township, town, school district, or any other political subdivision, shall be void.

SEC. 184. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the inhabitants of all that part of the area of the United States now constituting the territories of Dakota, Montana and Washington, as at present described, may become the states of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana and Washington respectively, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. The area comprising the territory of Dakota shall, for the purposes of this act, be divided on the line of the seventh standard parallel produced due west to the western boundary of said territory; and the delegates elected as hereinafter provided to the constitutional convention in districts north of said parallel shall assemble in convention, at the time prescribed in this act, at the city of Bismarck; and the delegates elected in districts south of said parallel shall, at the same time, assemble in convention at the city of Sioux Falls.

SEC. 3. That all persons who are qualified by the laws of said territories to vote for representatives to the legislative assemblies thereof, are hereby authorized to vote for and choose delegates to form conventions in said proposed states; and the qualifications for delegates to such conventions shall be such as by the laws of said territories, respectively, persons are required to possess to be eligible to the legislative assemblies thereof; and the aforesaid delegates to form said conventions shall be apportioned within the limits of the proposed states in such districts as may be established as herein provided, in proportion to the population in each of said counties and districts, as near as may be, to be ascertained at the time of making said apportionments by the persons hereinafter authorized to make the same, from the best information obtainable, in each of which districts three delegates shall be elected, but no elector shall vote for more than two persons for delegates to such conventions; that said apportionments shall be made by the governor, the chief justice and the secretary of said territories; and the governors of said territories shall, by proclamation, order an election of the delegates aforesaid in each of said proposed states, to be held on the Tuesday after the second Monday in May, 1889, which proclamation shall be issued on the 15th day of April, 1889; and such election shall be conducted, the returns made, the result ascertained and the certificates to persons elected to such convention issued in the same manner as is prescribed by the laws of the said territories regulating elections therein for delegates to congress; and the number of votes cast for delegates in each precinct shall also be returned. The number of delegates to said conventions respectively, shall be seventy-five; and all persons resident in said proposed states who are qualified voters of said territories as herein provided shall be entitled to vote upon the election of delegates, and under such rules and regulations as said conventions may prescribe not in conflict with this act, upon the ratification or rejection of the constitutions.

SEC. 4. That the delegates to the conventions elected as provided for in this act shall meet at the seat of government of each of said territories, except the delegates elected in South Dakota, who shall meet at the city of Sioux Falls, on the Fourth day of July, 1889, and, after organization, shall declare on behalf of the people of said proposed states that they adopt the constitution of the United States; whereupon the said conventions shall be, and are hereby authorized to form constitutions and state governments for said proposed states, respectively. The constitution shall be republican in form, and make no distinction in civil or political rights on account of race or color, except as to Indians not taxed, and not to be repugnant to the constitution of the United States and the principles of the declaration of independence. And said conventions shall provide by ordinances irrevocable without the consent of the United States and the people of said states:

First. That perfect toleration of religious sentiment shall be secured, and that no inhabitant of said states shall ever be molested in person or property on account of his or her mode of religious worship.

Second. That the people inhabiting said proposed states do agree and declare that they forever disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands lying within the boundaries thereof, and to all lands lying within said limits owned or held by any Indian or Indian tribes; and that until the title thereto shall have been extinguished by the United States, the same shall be and remain subject to the disposition of the United States, and said Indian lands shall remain under the absolute jurisdiction and control of the congress of the United States; that the lands belonging to citizens of the United States residing without the said states shall never be taxed at a higher rate than the lands belonging to residents thereof; that no taxes shall be imposed by the states on lands or property therein belonging to or which may hereafter be purchased by the United States or reserved for its use. But nothing herein, or in the ordinances herein provided for, shall preclude the said states from taxing as other lands are taxed any lands owned or held by any Indian who has severed his tribal relations, and has obtained from the United States or from any person a title thereto by patent or other grant, save and except such lands as have been or may be granted to any Indian or Indians under any act of congress containing a provision exempting the lands thus granted from taxation; but said ordinances shall provide that all such lands shall be exempt from taxation by said states so long and to such extent as such act of congress may prescribe.

Third. That the debts and liabilities of said territories shall be assumed and paid by said states respectively.

Fourth. That provision shall be made for the establishment and maintenance of systems of public schools, which shall be open to all children of said states, and free from sectarian control.

SEC. 5. That the convention which shall assemble at Bismarck shall form a constitution and state government for a state to be known as North Dakota, and the convention which shall assemble at Sioux Falls shall form a constitution and state government for a state to be known as South Dakota; provided, that at the election for delegates to the constitutional convention in South Dakota, as hereinbefore provided, each elector may have written or printed on his ballot, the words, "For the Sioux Falls Constitution," or the words, "Against the Sioux Falls Constitution," and the votes on this question shall be returned and canvassed in the same manner as for the election provided for in section three of this act; and if a majority of all votes cast on this question shall be "For the Sioux Falls Constitution" it shall be the duty of the convention which may assemble at Sioux Falls, as herein provided, to resubmit to the people of South Dakota, for ratification or rejection at the election hereinafter provided for in this act, the constitution framed at Sioux Falls, and adopted November 3, 1885, and also the articles and propositions separately submitted at that election, including the question of locating the temporary seat of government, with such changes only as relate to the name and boundary of the proposed state, to the reapportionment of the judicial and legislative districts, and such amendments as may be necessary in order to comply with the provisions of this act; and if a majority of the votes cast on the ratification or rejection of the constitution shall be for the constitution irrespective of the articles separately submitted, the state of South Dakota shall be admitted as a state in the Union under said constitution as hereinafter provided, but the archives, records and books of the territory of Dakota shall remain at Bismarck, the capital of North Dakota, until an agreement in reference thereto is reached by said states. But if at the election for delegates to the constitutional convention in South Dakota a majority of all the votes cast at that election shall be "against the Sioux Falls constitution," then, and in that event, it shall be the duty of the convention which will assemble at the city of Sioux Falls on the fourth day of July, 1889, to proceed to form a constitution and state government as provided in this act the same as if that question had not been submitted to a vote of the people of South Dakota.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the constitutional conventions of North Dakota and South Dakota to appoint a joint commission, to be composed of not less than three members of each convention, whose duty it shall be to assemble at Bismarck, the present seat of government of said territory, and agree upon an equitable division of all property belonging to the territory of Dakota, the disposition of all public records and also adjust and agree upon the amount of the debts and liabilities of the territory, which shall be assumed and paid by each of the proposed states of North Dakota and South Dakota; and the agreement reached respecting the territorial debts and liabilities shall be incorporated in the respective constitutions, and each of said states shall obligate itself to pay its proportion of such debts and liabilities the same as if they had been created by such states respectively.

SEC. 7. If the constitutions formed for both North Dakota and South Dakota shall be rejected by the people at the elections for the ratification or rejection of their respective constitutions as provided for in this act, the territorial government of Dakota shall continue in existence the same as if this act had not been passed. But if the constitution formed for either North Dakota or South Dakota shall be rejected by the people, that part of the territory so rejecting its proposed constitution shall continue under the territorial government of the present territory of Dakota, but shall, after the state adopting its constitution is admitted into the Union, be called by the name of the territory of North Dakota or South Dakota, as the case may be; provided, that if either of the proposed states provided for in this act shall reject the constitution which may be submitted for ratification or rejection at the election provided therefor, the governor of the territory in which such proposed constitution was rejected shall issue his proclamation reconvening the delegates elected to the convention which formed such rejected constitution, fixing the time and place at which said delegates shall assemble; and when so assembled they shall proceed to form another constitution or to amend the rejected constitution, and shall submit such new constitution or amended constitution to the people of the proposed state for ratification or rejection, at such time as said convention may determine; and all the provisions of this act, so far as applicable, shall apply to such convention so reassembled and to the constitution which may be formed, its ratification or rejection, and to the admission of the proposed state.

SEC. 8. That the constitutional convention which may assemble in South Dakota shall provide by ordinance for resubmitting the Sioux Falls constitution of 1885, after having amended the same as provided in section 5 of this act, to the people of South Dakota for ratification or rejection at an election to be held therein on the first Tuesday in October, 1889; but if said constitutional convention is authorized and required to form a new constitution for South Dakota it shall provide for submitting the same in like manner to the people of South Dakota for ratification or rejection at an election to be held in said proposed state on the said first Tuesday in October. And the constitutional conventions which may assemble in North Dakota, Montana and Washington, shall provide in like manner for submitting the constitutions formed by them to the people of said proposed states respectively, for ratification or rejection, at elections to be held in said proposed states on the said first Tuesday in October. At the elections provided for in this section the qualified voters of said proposed states shall vote directly for or against the proposed constitutions, and for or against any articles or propositions separately submitted. The returns of said elections shall be made to the secretary of each of said territories, who, with the governor and chief justice thereof, or any two of them, shall canvass the same; and if a majority of the legal votes cast shall be for the constitution, the governor shall certify the result to the president of the United States, together with a statement of the votes cast thereon and upon separate articles or propositions, and a copy of said constitution, articles, propositions and ordinances. And if the constitutions and governments of said proposed states are republican in form, and if all the provisions of this act have been complied with in the formation thereof, it shall be the duty of the president of the United States to issue his proclamation announcing the result of the election in each, and thereupon the proposed states which have adopted constitutions and formed state governments, as herein provided, shall be deemed admitted by congress into the Union, under and by virtue of this act, on an equal footing with the original states from and after the date of said proclamation.

SEC. 9. That until the next general census, or until otherwise provided by law, said states shall be entitled to one representative in the house of representatives of the United States, except South Dakota which shall be entitled to two; and the representatives to the Fifty-first congress, together with the governors and other officers provided for in said constitutions, may be elected on the same day of the election for the ratification or rejection of the constitutions; and until said state officers are elected and qualified under the provisions of each constitution and the states, respectively, are admitted into the union, the territorial officers shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices in each of said territories.

SEC. 10 That upon the admission of each of said states into the union sections numbered 16 and 36 in every township of said proposed states, and where such sections or any part thereof have been sold or otherwise disposed of by or under the authority of any act of congress, other lands equivalent thereto, in legal subdivisions of not less than one-quarter section, and as contiguous as may be to the section in lieu of which the same is taken, are hereby granted to said states for the support of common schools, such indemnity lands to be selected within said states in such manner as the legislature may provide, with the approval of the secretary of the interior; provided, that the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections embraced in permanent reservations for national purposes shall not, at any time, be subject to the grants nor to the indemnity provisions of this act, nor shall any lands embraced in Indian, military or other reservations of any character, be subject to the grants or to the indemnity provisions of this act until the reservation shall have been extinguished and such lands be restored to and become a part of the public domain.

SEC. 11. That all lands herein granted for educational purposes shall be disposed of only at public sale, and at a price not less than $10 per acre, the proceeds to constitute a permanent school fund, the interest of which only shall be expended in the support of said schools. But said lands may, under such regulation as the legislature shall prescribe, be leased for periods of not more than five years, in quantities not exceeding one section to any one person or company; and such land shall not be subject to pre-emption, homestead entry, or any other entry under the land laws of the United States, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, but shall be reserved for school purposes only.

SEC. 12. 1. This agreement shall take effect and be in force from and after the admission into the Union, as one of the United States of America, of either the State of North Dakota or the State of South Dakota.

2. The words "State of North Dakota" wherever used in this agreement, shall be taken to mean the Territory of North Dakota in case the State of South Dakota shall be admitted into the Union prior to the admission into the Union of the State of North Dakota; and the words "State of South Dakota," wherever used in this agreement, shall be taken to mean the Territory of South Dakota in case the State of North Dakota shall be admitted into the Union prior to the admission into the Union of the State of South Dakota.

PROPOSITION OF SOUTH DAKOTA COMMITTEE.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.

Each state shall take the institutions located within its boundaries, with its appurtenances, furniture, etc., and shall assume the payment of all indebtedness against the territory, on account of each institution, respectively. That any unexpended balances, either from bonds or direct appropriations, remaining in the territorial treasury at the date of dissolution of the territorial government, shall follow the institution on whose account such bonds were issued or appropriation made, and go to the state which takes such institution.

MISCELLANEOUS PROPERTY.

All other items and articles of personal property, except the Territorial Library and records, shall be divided equally between North and South Dakota.

TERRITORIAL LIBRARY.

Each Commission shall submit a sealed proposition stating a sum certain at which it is willing to take said library, including such books, records and volumes as may be added thereto up to the time of the dissolution of the territorial government, and the library as aforesaid shall go to the section whose bid as above provided, is the highest, and at the amount so bid, and such sum shall be accounted for in the settlement to be made by the Joint Commission.

(This disposition shall also include library in the Auditor's office.)

An arrangement shall be made by this Commission with the Territorial Auditor by which he shall keep and abstract the assessment returns from the several counties of the Territory in two classes or groups, putting and keeping the counties of North Dakota in one class, and the counties of South Dakota in another class, and such distinction and separation shall be maintained and preserved through the Auditor's and Treasurer's office, to the end that all taxes paid into the Territorial Treasurer, from such assessment, by the counties of North Dakota and South Dakota respectively, shall be kept separate and distinct from each other. Any and all claims of the Territory against counties on account of delinquent taxes, shall go to, and belong to the State within which such counties shall be located, and all credits for taxes overpaid by counties shall likewise go to the State within which such counties may be situated. Any balance of cash remaining on hand at the termination of the territorial government, and not otherwise covered by this proposition, or appropriated by law, shall be equally divided between North and South Dakota.

PROPOSITION OF NORTH DAKOTA.

TO THE JOINT COMMISSION:

The Committee from North Dakota makes the Joint Commission the following proposition: All the public institutions and buildings located in South Dakota which State shall assume and pay all bonded indebtedness arising out of and issued for their construction, and the same as to North Dakota, except the Capitol at Bismarck. All personal property and miscellaneous effects now in South Dakota, except militia outfits and accoutrements, shall be the property of South Dakota; and all of the same in North Dakota, except the militia outfits and accoutrements, and also excepting the furniture and fixtures of the Capitol at Bismarck, shall be the property of North Dakota. The State of South Dakota shall pay to the State of North Dakota, as a full settlement of unbalanced accounts and of all claims against the Territory arising out of the unlawful taxation of the Northern Pacific railroad lands, which claims shall be assumed by the State of North Dakota, the sum of $60,000. Should South Dakota desire the State of North Dakota to assume the ownership and control of the Capitol at Bismarck with its furniture and fixtures, including all claims against the Territory arising out of the acceptance of the grant of lands made to the Territory for Capitol purposes, and further to assume its bonded indebtedness, the State of North Dakota will do so upon the payment by South Dakota to North Dakota of the sum of $40,000. All other unascertained and unliquidated debts of the Territory of Dakota, shall when proved, be borne equally by the States of North Dakota and South Dakota. And all claims in favor of the Territory shall accrue to the benefit of the respective States in like proportion. The State of North Dakota shall be entitled to all delinquent taxes due the Territory at this date from counties located in North Dakota and the same to South Dakota. From and after March 11, 1889, the State of South Dakota shall be credited with all taxes collected from counties within its boundaries and charged with all moneys paid out by the Territory for appropriations made to the public institutions situated therein, and one half of all other expenditures. And the same as to North Dakota.

GENERAL PLAN OF AGREEMENT PROPOSED AND RECOMMENDED.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS.

Each State shall take the public institutions located within its boundaries, with all appurtenances, furniture, etc. And shall assume the payment of all indebtedness against the territory, bonded or funded, on account of such institutions respectively.

All other items of personal property and miscellaneous effects belonging to the territory, except the territorial library, and the territorial records and archives, shall be divided as nearly equally as possible between North and South Dakota. The State of South Dakota shall pay to the State of North Dakota $42,500, on account of excess of territorial appropriations for the permanent improvement of territorial institutions which under this agreement will go to South Dakota, and in full settlement of unbalanced accounts, and of all claims against the territory, of whatever nature, legal or equitable, arising out of the alleged erroneous or unlawful taxation of Northern Pacific Railroad lands, and the payment of said amount shall discharge and exempt the State of South Dakota from all liability for or on account of the several matters hereinbefore referred to, nor shall either State be called upon to pay or answer to any portion of any liability hereafter arising or accruing on account of transaction heretofore had, which liability would be a liability of the Territory of Dakota had such territory remained in existence, and which liability shall go out of matters connected with any public institutions of the territory situated or located within the boundaries of the other State.

Neither State shall pay any portion of any liability of the territory arising out of erroneous taxation of property in the other State.

Each committee shall make a sealed statement of the amount it is willing to pay for the undivided half of the public library, and the one offering the larger sum shall take the library at the sum so offered.

If on investigation it appears that the militia property is divided between North and South Dakota companies in proportion nearly equal, then the property is to remain within that State within the limits of which it now is; otherwise it is to be divided as nearly equally as possible. The final adjustment of accounts shall be made upon the following basis: North Dakota shall be charged with all sums paid to the public institutions located within the boundaries on account of the current appropriations since the same became available; and South Dakota charged with all sums paid to public institutions located within its boundaries on the same account and during the same time. Each State to be charged with one-half of the general expenses during the same time. That all moneys paid into the treasury during this period from about March 11, to the time of final adjustment, from North Dakota shall be credited to North Dakota, and all such sums paid from South Dakota for the same time shall be credited to South Dakota, except that all railroad taxes paid into the territorial treasury since date above mentioned for years prior to 1889 (that is, the part thereof going to the territory) shall be equally divided between North and South Dakota, and the railroad tax for 1889 shall be distributed as already provided by law, except that so much of said tax as goes to the territorial treasury shall be divided as follows: North Dakota shall have so much thereof as is paid by railroads in North Dakota and South Dakota so much thereof as is paid by railroads in South Dakota.

If there shall be an indebtedness at the time of the final division each shall assume its share as determined by the amount paid to each section in excess of the receipts from each section, and if there shall be a surplus at the time of such division, each shall be entitled to the amount it has paid in over and above the amounts it stands charged with.

The payment from South Dakota to North Dakota, or as much of it as possible shall be made by South Dakota assuming North Dakota's share of current liabilities at time of final adjustment, including North Dakota's share of cost of copying records.

It is further recommended that South Dakota and North Dakota pay one half each of all liabilities now existing, but not audited and allowed, except those incurred on account of public institutions.

Each State shall succeed to all rights of the territory upon contracts for public works within such State or bonds to secure the completion of such contracts. Each State shall receive all unexpended balances of the bonds which it is to pay whether such balances have been covered back into the treasury or not.

A. G. KELLAM,

Committee.

After full discussion of the motion Mr. Griggs moved that the report be amended by inserting in lieu of $42,500 the sum of $50,000.

Which amendment was lost.

The original motion was then carried unanimously.

Mr. Price moved that the chairmen of the respective commissions be appointed a committee to draw up the final agreement in accordance with the proposition already adopted.

Which motion prevailed.

Commission was called to order by Mr. Camp.

The Committee on Final Agreement was not ready to report and the Commission adjourned to meet at 10 a. m., July 30.

 BISMARCK, July 30.

Commission met with Major Kellam in the chair.

All members were present.

The Committee on Records made the following report according to instructions of July 29:

BISMARCK, D. T., July 29, 1889.

GENTLEMEN OF THE JOINT COMMISSION: Your sub-committee to whom was referred the duty of making a list of such records in the several territorial offices as in their judgment were necessary for the respective states to have in their possession in order that the officers thereof could commence business, beg leave to report as follows:

In our judgment the records referred to are to be found in the offices of the Auditor and Treasurer.

In the Auditor's office there is the Current Appropriation Ledger, which contains not only the appropriations made by the last Legislature, but also the balances of previous appropriations, and it therefore shows the condition of every account up to date. There is also in said office a Warrant Register, in which the more recent warrants, covering a period of probably three years, have been entered in numerical sequence. This book may be said to be the Journal of the final transactions of the office and is the book of original entry. In addition to showing the number, date, payee and purpose of each warrant, it shows also its date of cancellation. In the insurance department of the Auditor's office there is a record showing the names and residences of agents appointed by the several companies in the different judicial districts of the territory, and as undoubtedly each state will be required to know who is authorized to represent any particular company, the transcription of this book would be necessary even though its application can cover only two months of statehood existence, as it expires December 31. From the same department your committee would also recommend that there be produced a list of insurance companies entitled to do business in the several judicial districts of the respective states. This information is nowhere collated in such form that transcription would supply the desired information. It is our judgment that copies of the volumes referred to above would enable the Auditor's office of either State to inaugurate business in its several departments.

In the Treasurer's office there are the following records which we would recommend should be transcribed: The ledger showing the receipts and expenditures of the several bond funds and the general funds of the territory. Also the ledger showing the charges against the several counties by reason of the assessments made upon property therein during recent years, and showing likewise the payments made by said counties upon such assessments. Also one cash book showing detailed receipts and expenditures during recent years. Also one general bond register, giving the purpose for which bonds have been issued, with their dates, denominations, etc.

Respectfully submitted,

HARVEY HARRIS,
E. W. CALDWELL,
Committee.

The following proposition was submitted by Major Kellam:

This Commission shall agree upon a division of all records, files and books not already provided to be copied, in manner following, to-wit:

All records and files pertaining exclusively to institutions in South Dakota shall be the property of South Dakota, and all records and files pertaining exclusively to institutions in North Dakota shall be the property of North Dakota.

All other records, etc., not provided to be copied or divided as above shall be divided and grouped into two lots, as nearly of equal importance and value as possible, but so that the records of no office shall be divided by such grouping. Each State to have one of such two groups, to be determined by lot by this Commission.

All records shall remain at the Capitol of North Dakota. South Dakota may at any time take possession of such of the records and files as under this agreement become the property of South Dakota, giving North Dakota reasonable time to make copies or abstracts thereof.

If either State requires copies or abstracts of the records which under this agreement go to the other State, the expense thereof shall be borne equally by the two States.

It shall be determined by lot which State shall take the originals and which the copies of such records as are arranged by this Commission to be copied.

Mr. Caldwell moved that the books and records recommended in the report of the committee be copied.

Carried unanimously.

After discussion of the proposition presented by Major Kellam, the Commission adjourned to meet at 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Major Kellam in the chair.

All members present.

The proposition submitted at the morning session by Mr. Kellum was reread and Mr. Caldwell moved that the plan proposed in the proposition be adopted.

Adopted.

Messrs. Griggs, Harris, Scott and Price voting no.

All others aye.

The committee on records reported that they had divided the books and records according to the plan proposed, into two lots, as follows:

First Lot, The books, records and papers in the Governor's and Secretary's office.

Lot Two, The books, records and papers of all other offices of the territory, as follows, to-wit: Auditor's office, Treasurer's office, Attorney General's office, Railroad Commissioners's office, Commissioner of Immigration, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Veterinary Surgeon's office, Adjutant General's office, Supreme Court records and Board of Health.

Mr. Elliott moved that the report be adopted.

Carried unanimously.

Moved by Mr. Caldwell that Mr. Hayden, one of the secretaries draw lots for first choice.

Carried unanimously.

The drawing resulted in first choice for North Dakota.

North Dakota Commission chose Lot No. 1, consisting of books, papers and records in the offices of Governor and Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Caldwell the matter of division of records, books and files as decided by the Commission, was referred to the committee appointed to prepare the articles of agreement to be incorporated therein.

The Committee on Military Property submitted a verbal report, presenting reports of the officers having charge of military supplies, giving the amount, location and estimated value of the same, and the committee stated that it appeared from said report that the supplies were very nearly equally distributed between North Dakota and South Dakota.

The committee recommend that the supplies already distributed to the militia remain at the present location and become the property of the State in which said property is located, and further recommended that the property stored at the Capitol consisting of 944 50-calibre rifles, 80 45-calibre rifles, 35,000 rounds of 50-calibre ammunition, 35,000 rounds of 45-calibre ammunition, 12,000 rifle balls, one case (10) cadet rifles, be equally divided between the States of North Dakota and South Dakota.

The report was referred to the Committee on Final Agreement.

The articles of agreement so far as prepared were read and discussed. After some minor changes and recommendations the report was referred back to the committee for revision and final completion.

Mr. Camp moved that Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Purcell be appointed a committee to draft articles to be presented to the respective Conventions for insertion in the Constitution of the respective States.

Unanimously carried.
