No action can be maintained against the sureties on any bond given by a guardian unless commenced within three years from the discharge or removal of the guardian; but if at the time of such discharge the person entitled to bring such action is under any legal disability to sue, the action may be commenced at any time within three years after such disability is removed.

§ 6585. Action for recovery of an estate. Limitation. § 388, Prob. C.
No action for the recovery of any estate sold by a guardian can be maintained by the ward or by any person claiming under him, unless it is commenced within three years next after the termination of the guardianship or when a legal disability to sue exists by reason of minority or otherwise at the time when the cause of action accrues within three years next after the removal thereof.

§ 6586. More than one guardian, when. § 389, Prob. C.
The court in its discretion may appoint more than one guardian of any person subject to guardianship, who must give bond and be governed and be liable in all respects as a sole guardian.

§ 6587. Bonds run to the state.
Except when otherwise specially provided by this code all bonds and undertakings in anywise required by the provisions of this code shall run to the state of North Dakota as nominal payee and an action may be brought and maintained on any such bond or undertaking by and in the name of any person injured by any violation of the provisions thereof.

CHAPTER 8.

PRACTICE IN COUNTY COURTS WITH INCREASED JURISDICTION.

§ 6588. General provisions to apply. The general provisions of law which may at any time be in force relating to the district courts, and to civil and criminal proceedings therein shall relate also to the county courts having increased jurisdiction and the rules of practice of district courts shall be in force in said county courts, unless inapplicable and except as herein otherwise provided.

§ 6589. Terms of court. The regular term of the county court shall be held at the county seat, commencing at 9 o'clock A. M. on the first Tuesday of each calendar month for the trial of such civil and criminal actions as may be brought before such court.

§ 3, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6590. Calendar. The county judge shall, on the first day of each term, or as soon thereafter as may be, prepare a calendar of the causes standing for trial at such term, placing the causes upon such calendar in the order in which the same are numbered on the docket and setting the causes for trial upon convenient days during such term; provided, that no cause shall be set for trial upon the first day of said term without the consent of all parties thereto.

§ 6591. Appeals from county court. In all actions brought under the provisions of this chapter an appeal may be taken to the district court of the county or to the supreme court, and if the appeal is to the district court it shall be taken in the same manner as appeals from justice's court and if the appeal is to the supreme court it shall be taken in the same manner and pursuant to the same rules as appeals from the district court; provided, that in civil actions when the amount in controversy, exclusive of costs, is less than two hundred and fifty dollars an appeal to the district court only shall lie; and provided, further, that an appeal to the district court shall not be effectual for any purpose unless an undertaking is filed with two or more sureties in a sum equal to the amount in controversy or to the value of the specific property in controversy plus one hundred dollars.

§ 6592. Concurrent jurisdiction on appeal. Such county courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in appeals from all final judgments of justices of the peace, police, city or township justices, and the proceedings on such appeals shall be the same as now or may hereafter be provided for appeals from judgments of justices of the peace to district courts.

§ 6593. Cause certified to district court, when. In any civil or criminal cause of which this court has jurisdiction, whenever at any time before said cause is called for trial it shall appear to the court by affidavit, or if the court shall so order upon other testimony, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such court by reason of the bias or prejudice of the judge or otherwise, the court shall direct said cause and all papers and documents connected therewith to be certified to the district court of the county wherein said county court is held; and such papers shall be delivered to the clerk of the district court at least one day before the first day of the next term thereof and shall be placed upon the trial calendar and stand for trial the same as cases originally commenced in the district court.

§ 6594. Manner of selecting jury. Juries in the county court shall be selected by the county judge and summoned in the same manner as is now provided by law for selecting juries before justices of the peace; provided, that each party shall be entitled to the same number of challenges as is now or may hereafter be allowed in the district court in like actions. § 7, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6595. New trials. The county court shall have authority to grant new trials, affirm, modify or set aside judgments in actions tried in such court upon a statement of the case prepared and settled in the manner provided in the code of civil procedure. § 8, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6596. May issue process. The several county courts shall have power to issue all summons, citations, subpoenas, executions, warrants and process authorized by law which may be necessary to carry into effect any order, judgment or decree thereof, to compel the attendance of witnesses or to carry into execution the powers with which they are vested. § 9, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6597. Service in other county. All writs, summons and other process may be executed and served only in the county; provided, that when there is more than one defendant and one of such defendants has been served in the county, service may be made on the other defendants in any county in this state. § 10, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6599. Adjournment. The time for which any civil action may be adjourned shall be regulated by the county judge in the exercise of a reasonable discretion; provided, that such action cannot be adjourned over more than three regular terms of such court upon the application of either party without the consent of the other. In criminal actions if the defendant has been committed to jail, he must be tried at the first term of such court held after such commitment. If the defendant in a criminal action has given bail for his appearance, his trial must not be postponed longer than until the third term after such bail is given. § 12, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6601. Criminal jurisdiction. Concurrent jurisdiction, power and authority with the district court is hereby conferred and imposed upon county courts having increased jurisdiction of all criminal offenses of which the district court of said county has jurisdiction, below the grade of felony, and of any person accused thereof, and to hear, try, determine, pronounce judgment and sentence and take and have all necessary proceedings concerning or relating thereto as provided by law. The necessary jurisdiction, power and authority is hereby conferred and imposed upon the county court. § 14, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6602. Defendant bound over to. In any criminal action or proceeding for any criminal offense of which the county court has jurisdiction, any justice of the peace or other examining magistrate having jurisdiction must admit to bail, bind over or commit for trial the accused to the county court of such county and the information shall be filed in such county court. If any person accused of a criminal offense is so bailed, bound over or committed for trial to the county court for a crime of which such court has not jurisdiction, such proceeding shall not abate and such county court shall not lose jurisdiction of such person and proceeding, but shall certify the same to the district court of such county and such proceeding shall thereupon be tried in the district court with the same force and effect as if such action or proceedings had been originally commenced therein. If any examining magistrate shall at any time bind over a defendant to the district court for an offense of which the county court has jurisdiction or if it shall appear by evidence or otherwise at any time to the judge of the district court that the offense with which the defendant is or should be charged is triable in the county court, the judge of the district court may certify such cause and all proceedings relative to any person accused of such offense to the county court of such county for trial, determination and adjudication, and thereupon the same and all the papers and files therein shall be transferred by the clerk of the district court to the county court without any further order or certificate and such cause shall thereupon be tried in the county court with the same force and effect as if such cause had originally been commenced therein.

§ 6603. Jury trial. In civil actions when the value in controversy or sum demanded exceeds fifty dollars, either party may demand a jury trial, but such demand shall be made on or before the first day of the term upon the calendar of which said cause appears. In criminal actions when the defendant is arraigned he shall be informed by the court of his right to trial by jury and if he waives his right to a jury trial, an entry to that effect shall be made in the court minutes.

§ 6604. Warrant of arrest. The county court in term time or the judge in vacation may issue warrants of arrest for persons against whom an information has been filed, shall fix the amount of bail to be required of the accused and the clerk shall indorse the same upon the warrant except when the warrant is issued in term time, when the same may be returnable forthwith and it shall not then be necessary to fix the amount of bail until the accused is brought into court.

§ 6605. Receive plea and pass judgment. The court may receive the plea of guilty and pass judgment in term time or vacation; if the accused waives a jury he may be tried by the court without a jury in term time upon notice being first given to the state's attorney.

§ 6606. Preliminary examination. No preliminary examination shall be necessary before trial in criminal actions in the county court.

§ 6607. Assignment of counsel. In all criminal cases triable in the county court when it is satisfactorily shown to the court that the defendant has no means and is unable to employ counsel, the court shall in such cases assign counsel for the defense and allow and direct to be paid by the county in which said court is held a reasonable and just compensation to the attorney or attorneys assigned for such services as they may render; provided, however, that such compensation shall not exceed twenty-five dollars in any one case.

§ 6608. Summons. The summons shall require the defendant to file a copy of his pleading with the clerk of the county court within ten days after the service of the summons exclusive of the day of service. § 21, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6609. Complaint filed, when. The complaint in any civil action together with one copy for each defendant must be filed with the clerk of the county court within five days after the issuance of the summons in such action and any action in which the complaint shall not have been filed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be dismissed on motion of the defendant. In no case shall the defendant or his attorney be entitled to have a copy of the complaint served upon him. § 22, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6610. Answer or demurrer. The defendant must file his answer or demurrer with the clerk of the county court within ten days after the service of the summons. § 23, c. 43, 1895.

§ 6613. Clerk of district court ex officio clerk of county court. In all counties having county courts with civil and criminal jurisdiction, having a population of less than eighteen thousand inhabitants, the clerk of the district court shall be clerk of the county court in the same county and shall have the care and custody of all books and papers belonging to such county court which relate to or have any connection with any actions or proceedings commenced in such court by reason of its having increased civil and criminal jurisdiction conferred upon it. Such clerks of the district court and their deputies shall perform all the duties of the clerks of such courts in all actions and proceedings commenced in the county courts by virtue of its enlarged jurisdiction in the same manner as they are required to perform the duties of the clerks or deputy clerks of the district courts, so far as the provisions of law relating to that subject are applicable, and may demand and receive the same fees and compensation therefor except that they shall be entitled to receive no per diem for attendance in court. The judge of the county court, having increased jurisdiction in counties having a population of eighteen thousand or more, shall have power to appoint a clerk of such court, whose duties and powers shall be as nearly as may be the same as those of clerks of § 26, c. 43, 1895.

district courts. Such clerk shall hold his office during the pleasure of the judge appointing him and shall receive a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars a year. He shall charge and receive for all acts performed by him the same fees and commissions as are allowed to clerks of the district courts. He shall keep a true account of all fees and commissions received by him in a book of record to be kept for that purpose and on the first of each calendar month shall pay the same to the treasurer of the county.

§ 6614. Population, how determined. The county auditor or county clerk shall determine the population of his county by multiplying by five the total vote cast in the last general election of county officers and the result shall be taken as the population of such county.

§ 6615. Salary of judge. As compensation for their services under this act there shall be allowed and paid to the judges of county courts having civil and criminal jurisdiction in all counties having a population of eighteen thousand inhabitants the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and in counties having less than eighteen thousand inhabitants the sum of two thousand dollars per annum payable monthly by such county.

§ 6616. Process, by whom served and compensation. All writs and process in county courts may be served by a constable as well as a sheriff and when served by a constable he shall be entitled to the same fees as the sheriff receives for like service.

§ 6617. Court stenographer. The judge of any county court having civil or criminal jurisdiction is authorized in his discretion to appoint a court stenographer of such court. Such stenographer shall qualify in the same manner and his duties and compensation shall be the same as the court stenographer of a district court; such compensation shall be paid in the same manner as that of the court stenographer of the district court; provided, that such court stenographer shall not be appointed in any county having less than eight thousand inhabitants, unless the board of county commissioners shall first authorize such appointment.

JUSTICES' CODE.

CHAPTER 1.

TITLE AND APPLICATION OF CODE.

§ 6619. Application of code. The provisions of this code are applicable throughout the state to all justices of the peace now in office or hereafter chosen, and to every police magistrate acting ex officio as justice of the peace.

6, art. 10, c.
73, 1887.
am'd.

CHAPTER 2.

GENERAL POWERS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

§ 6620. Office of justice, where. Every justice of the peace shall keep his office and hold his court at a place by him selected, which must be within the county, civil township, city or town as the case may be in which he may have been elected or appointed.

§ 1, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6621. Court always open. Clerk. A justice's court is deemed to be always open and every judicial act of a justice is deemed to be the act of the court. A justice is his own clerk, but when required by law to reduce testimony to writing, he may employ a clerk for that purpose.

§ 1, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6622. Powers of. Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, each justice of the peace has power and authority to hold a court, maintain order and decorum and take cognizance therein according to law of all actions or other judicial proceedings within his jurisdiction and hear, try and determine the same or make such orders therein as may be prescribed by law and to issue in such action or proceeding all lawful process which may be necessary or proper, and require and enforce obedience thereto.

§ 97, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 2, 33, Jus. C.
am'd.
1, c. 80, 1891.

§ 6623. Jurisdiction. Justices of the peace and their courts have jurisdiction in all civil actions when the amount in controversy exclusive of costs does not exceed two hundred dollars; but in no case do they have jurisdiction when the boundaries of or title to real estate comes in question. Subject to the foregoing restrictions the jurisdiction of each justice of the peace extends to the following actions and proceedings:

1. An action for the recovery of money only when the sum for which judgment is demanded does not exceed two hundred dollars. In applying this subdivision a counterclaim is to be deemed a separate and distinct action.

2. An action to recover possession of personal property or its value, when the value of the property together with the sum if any demanded as damages does not exceed two hundred dollars.

3. An action given by statute to foreclose or enforce a lien upon chattels, or trespassing animals, when the amount of the lien or damages claimed does not exceed two hundred dollars.

4. An action for forcible detainer of real property irrespective of value, when the amount demanded therein for rents and profits or damages does not exceed two hundred dollars.

5. The entry of judgment by confession without action for an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars upon the statement of a defendant authorizing judgment in a justice's court.

§ 3, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6624. Criminal jurisdiction. The jurisdiction and authority of justices of the peace to prevent the commission of public offenses, to institute searches and seizures, to require the arrest and detention of persons charged with crime, to require and accept bail and otherwise act as magistrates in matters of crime is prescribed by the code of criminal procedure. Each justice's court has also jurisdiction and authority coextensive with the county or judicial subdivision to hear, try and determine every criminal action in which the offense charged is punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment, and every other criminal action in which jurisdiction is specially conferred by law.

§ 103, Jus. C.

§ 6625. Code of civil procedure, how far applicable. The provisions of the code of civil procedure shall govern the proceedings in justices' courts as far as applicable when the mode of procedure is not prescribed by this code, but the powers of justices' courts are only as herein prescribed.

§ 98, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6626. Process without blanks. Every summons, execution or other process issued by a justice of the peace except a subpoena must be issued without a blank left to be filled by another, otherwise it is void.

§ 83, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6627. Docket, entries in. Every justice of the peace shall keep a docket in which shall be entered in continuous order with the proper date and at the time when each act is done:

1. The title of each action or proceeding.
2. The object of the action or proceeding.
3. The issuance of process stating the particular process issued, when returnable, and the return of the officer.
4. The appearance of the parties either with or without process, the manner in which they appear or their nonappearance according to the facts.

5. A brief minute referring to every pleading or other paper, motion filed in writing, and a concise statement of each pleading or motion made orally.

6. Every ruling or decision of the court upon the pleadings or upon the motion or application of a party.

7. Every postponement stating upon whose application and to what time.

8. The demand for trial by jury, by whom made, the agreement of the parties if any respecting the jury, the order for the jury, the issuance of a venire, to whom delivered and the time appointed for the return of the jurors and for trial.

9. The return of the venire and the names of the jurors who are impaneled and sworn.

10. The names of all witnesses sworn and at whose request.

11. The verdict of the jury when received, or if they are discharged for failure to agree, the fact of such discharge.

12. The judgment of the court, separately stating the amount taxed and allowed as costs.

13. The stay of execution if a stay is taken.

14. The giving of an abstract to be filed in the district court.

15. The issuing of execution, when and to whom issued, the renewal thereof if any and the return of the officer.

16. A statement of all moneys received by the justice upon the judgment, from whom received and the disposition made of the same.

17. A minute of the appeal referring to the notice, undertaking and other papers therein.

18. Every other matter or proceeding required to be entered by a special provision of statute.

§ 6628. Docket, evidence of. A justice's docket is deemed true and correct as to all matters appearing therein as required by law and cannot be disputed in a collateral proceeding. The docket or a duly certified transcript thereof is competent evidence of the matters to which it relates.

§ 6629. Docket to be indexed. A justice must keep an alphabetical index to his docket, in which must be entered the names of the parties to each judgment with a reference to the page of entry. The names of the plaintiffs must be entered in the index in the alphabetical order of the first letter of the family name.

§ 6630. Docket to be deposited with successor. Every justice of the peace upon the expiration of his term of office must deposit with his successor his official dockets and all papers filed in his office, as well his own as those of his predecessors or any other which may be in his custody to be kept as public records.

§ 6632. Jurisdiction of successor. Any justice, with whom the docket of his predecessor or of any other justice, is deposited as hereinbefore provided has the same jurisdiction of all actions and proceedings entered in such docket and may exercise the same powers therein as if originally commenced before him.

§ 88, JUS. C.
am'd.

CHAPTER 3.

PROCEDURE IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

ARTICLE 1.—COMMENCEMENT OF AN ACTION.

§ 4, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6633. Actions, where commenced and tried. The county in which a civil action in a justice's court must be commenced and tried is as follows:

1. An action of forcible detainer or for trespass or other injury to real property, or an action to recover specific personal property, or to foreclose or enforce a lien upon chattels or trespassing animals must be brought in the county in which the subject of the action or property upon which the lien is claimed is situated.

2. An action to recover a penalty or forfeiture prescribed by statute or to recover of a public officer, or his deputy, agent or surety for a violation of official duty or any act done by color of his office must be brought in the county in which the cause of action arose.

3. Every other action must be tried in the county in which the defendant or one of several defendants resides or is served with summons, or in which a warrant of attachment is levied on property of the defendant except as provided in the next subdivision.

4. An action upon a contract stipulating for payment at a particular place may be brought in the county in which such place is situated.

§ 13, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6634. Minor's appearance, how made. The parties to a civil action are the same as in the district court, but when a minor is a party he must prosecute or defend by guardian. If he has no general guardian, a special guardian must be appointed by the court. A special guardian may also be appointed in any case in which it appears to be for the benefit of the minor. If the minor is plaintiff, the appointment must be made before issuing the summons. If the minor is defendant, the appointment shall be made at or before the time for answering. If the minor is not less than fourteen years of age, he may select the person to be appointed otherwise such selection may be made by a relative or friend or by the court.

§ 11, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6635. Action, how commenced. An action in a justice's court is commenced by the issuance of a summons or by the voluntary appearance and pleading of the parties. An appearance for any purpose except to interpose or maintain an objection to the jurisdiction assumed under the process is a voluntary appearance.

§ 1, c. 89, 1881.
am'd.

§ 6636. Surety for costs, how given. Nonresidents. The justice shall in all cases, when plaintiff is a nonresident of the state or a corporation before issuing a summons, require of the plaintiff sufficient surety for costs. The surety must be a resident of the county. His obligation shall be complete by simply indorsing the summons or signing his name on the complaint as security for costs. In all other cases the justice may in his discretion require surety for costs.

§ 14, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6637. Summons, what to contain. The style of the summons shall be "The State of North Dakota." It must be addressed to the defendant and be signed by the justice and shall contain:

1. The name of the county and the title of the court in which the action is commenced and the names of the parties thereto.

2. A direction that the defendant appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff before the justice at his office at a time and place therein specified.

3. A sufficient statement of the cause of action to apprise the defendant of the nature thereof.

4. A notice that unless the defendant shall so appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment against him for a sum stated or other relief specified in the summons.

§ 6639. Time for defendant's appearance. The time specified in the summons for the appearance of the defendant shall be not less than three nor more than fifteen days from the date on which it is issued. §§ 15, 38, Jus. C.
am'd.
§ 1, c. 139, 1885.
am'd.

§ 6640. Summons, how served. The summons may be served by a sheriff, constable or any other person not a party to the action, and must be served and returned with proof of service in the manner prescribed for personal service of summons by the code of civil procedure unless service is made by publication as provided in this code. § 17, Jus. C.
§ 1, c. 34, Sp.
§ 2, c. 138, 1885.
am'd.

§ 6641. Summons in other counties, how served. In every action triable in the county, as prescribed by the first, second and fourth subdivisions of section 6633, the summons may be served in any county of the state. In other actions the summons cannot be served on a defendant out of the county of the justice by whom it was issued except: § 16, Jus. C.

1. When the action is upon the contract or obligation of two or more parties, one of whom resides in the county and is served therein.

2. When an attachment issued in the action is levied on property of the defendant within the county.

§ 6642. Service, how made. Service by delivery of a copy of the summons to the defendant in person within the county must be made at least three days before the time fixed for the appearance of the defendant. Service elsewhere or personal service in any other mode must be made at least seven days before the time fixed for the appearance of the defendant. § 16, Jus. C.

§ 6643. Service by publication. In an action to foreclose or enforce a lien upon chattels or trespassing animals, or an action in which an attachment has been levied on personal property of the defendant within the county, if the summons is returned not served, the plaintiff may at the time therein specified for answering apply for and receive a second summons directing the defendant to appear and answer at a specified time not less than twenty-five nor more than thirty days from the date thereof. Such application must be made upon a verified complaint alleging the lien or levy relied on and demanding that the property be applied to the satisfaction of his claim, and must be supported by affidavit, stating that to the best knowledge, information and belief of the person making it, personal service of the summons cannot be made upon the defendant within the state and stating his post office address or the fact that the same is not known. The summons must be substantially in the following form filling blanks according to the facts: § 17, Jus. C.
§ 2, c. 138, 1885.
am'd.

State of North Dakota, }
 County of..... } ss. In Justice Court,
 C. D., plaintiff, BeforeJ. P. vs.
 E. F., defendant.

The state of North Dakota to said defendant:

By this second summons herein you are directed to appear before me at my office in (designating the place) at.....o'clock ...M. of the....day of.....18...., there to answer the complaint of C. D. against you, alleging (here give a sufficient statement of the cause of action to apprise the defendant of the nature of the plaintiff's claim and the particular property in question), and demanding (here state the demand); and you are notified that unless you so appear and answer the plaintiff will take judgment against you accordingly.

The justice shall indorse on the summons a direction to the effect that it may be served by publication in some newspaper of the county naming it, or in some newspaper elsewhere in the state if none is published in the county. Service of the summons may be made by publication of the same in one issue of said newspaper each week for three successive weeks, the last publication being at least three days before the time at which the defendant is directed to appear, and by forthwith mailing a copy of the summons postage paid and directed to the defendant at his post office address, unless it is stated in the affidavit that his address is unknown. But personal service of the summons on the defendant at any place in or out of the state, if made at least ten days before the time at which he is directed to answer, is equivalent to service by publication and mailing. The proof of service must be made by affidavit of some person having knowledge of the facts.

ARTICLE 2. — APPEARANCE, POSTPONEMENT AND CHANGE OF VENUE.

§ 12, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6644. Appearance, in person or by attorney. In a justice's court the parties may appear and act in person or by attorney and any person may act as attorney except a practicing attorney, or other person occupying the same room in which the justice has his office, or a person employed in serving the summons or venire.

§ 18, Jus. C.

§ 6645. One hour for appearance. The parties are entitled to one hour in which to appear after the time stated in the summons or any time fixed for further proceedings in the action and neither party is bound to wait longer for the other.

§ 44, Jus. C.

§ 6646. Trial, when commenced. If neither party appears within the time limited by the preceding section, the action shall be deemed discontinued and there shall be no further proceedings therein unless by the consent of both parties; if both parties appear, the case may be called when they appear, but if only one or more of the parties appear, the case shall not be called until the expiration of the hour and in either case shall be disposed of as hereinafter prescribed.

§ 100, Jus. C.

§ 6647. Other justice called, when. In case of the sickness or other disability or necessary absence of a justice, on a return of a summons or at the time appointed for a trial, another justice of the same township or county may at his request attend in his behalf, and thereupon is vested with the power for the time being of the justice before whom the summons was returnable. In that case the proper entry of the proceedings before the attending justice subscribed by him must be made in the docket of the justice before whom the summons was returnable. If the case is adjourned, the justice before whom the summons was returnable may resume jurisdiction.

§ 6648. Postponements. The court may of its own motion or on application of a party postpone the hearing or trial: § 45, Jus. C.
am'd.

1. For not exceeding one day if at the time specified in the summons or order of the court, the justice is sick or engaged in the trial of another action.

2. For not exceeding two days, if by amendment of a pleading or allowance of time to plead or amend, a postponement is rendered necessary.

3. For not exceeding three days, when a jury is required for the trial of an issue of fact.

4. For not exceeding thirty days, when a second summons is issued as prescribed by section 6643 of this code.

§ 6650. Postponement by application. The trial may be postponed upon the application of either party for a period not exceeding sixty days: § 47, Jus. C.
1. c. 86, 1885.

1. The party making the application must prove by his own oath or otherwise, that he cannot for want of material testimony, which he expects to procure, safely proceed to trial and must show in what respect the testimony expected is material and that he has used due diligence to procure it and has been unable to do so.

2. The party making the application must, if required by the adverse party, consent that the testimony of any witness of such adverse party, who is in attendance, may be then taken by deposition before the justice and that the testimony so taken may be read on the trial with the same effect and subject to the same objections as if the witness was produced; but the court may require the party making the application to state upon affidavit the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party thereupon admits that such evidence would be given and agrees that it be considered as actually given on the trial or offered and overruled as improper, the trial must not be postponed.

3. If the trial is postponed, the depositions of witnesses residing out of the county or state may be taken either upon commission issued by the justice or upon notice to take depositions in the same manner as is provided by the code of civil procedure; and such depositions shall, when completed, be directed to the justice and be published by the justice in the same manner as depositions are published by the clerk of the district court.

§ 6651. Postponement, time of. No postponement shall be granted as prescribed in the preceding section for more than five days, unless the party applying for the postponement files an undertaking executed by a sufficient surety approved by the justice to the effect that he will pay to the adverse party all costs which he shall recover in the action. If the application is made by the defendant in an §§ 38, 48, Jus. C.

action of forcible detainer, the undertaking must be to the effect that the surety will pay to the plaintiff whatever sum he shall recover in the action including all rents and profits that shall accrue to him during the postponement.

§ 5, Jus. C.

§ 6652. Change of venue. The court may at any time before the trial, on motion, change the place of trial in the following cases:

1. When it appears to the satisfaction of the justice before whom the action is pending by affidavit of either party that such justice is a material witness for either party.

2. When either party makes and files an affidavit that he believes he cannot have a fair and impartial trial before such justice by reason of the interest, prejudice or bias of the justice.

3. When from any cause the justice is disqualified from acting.

4. When the justice is sick or unable to act.

§ 6, Jus. C.

§ 6653. Place of trial. One change. The place of trial cannot be changed on motion of the same party more than once. When the court orders the place of trial to be changed, the action must be transferred for trial to a justice's court the parties may agree upon, and if they do not so agree, then to the next nearest justice's court in the same county.

§ 9, Jus. C.

§ 6654. Proceedings on change of trial. Jurisdiction. From the time the order changing the place of trial is made, the court to which the action is thereby transferred has the same jurisdiction over it as though it had been commenced in such court. After an order has been made transferring the action for trial to another court the following proceedings must be had:

1. The justice ordering the transfer must immediately transmit to the justice of the court to which it is transferred, on payment by the party applying of one dollar for the transcript, all the papers in the action together with a certified transcript from his docket of the proceedings therein.

2. Upon the receipt by him of such papers the justice of the court to which the case is transferred must issue a notice stating when and where the trial will take place, which notice must be served upon the parties at least one day before the time fixed for trial, unless such notice is waived by consent of the parties entered on the docket.

ARTICLE 3.—PLEADINGS AND ISSUES.

§ 19, Jus. C.

§ 6655. Pleadings, what constitute. A pleading in a justice's court is not required to be in any particular form, but must be so expressed as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. The pleadings may be oral or written and need not be verified unless otherwise specially prescribed.

§ 20, Jus. C.

§ 6656. Pleadings, order of. The pleadings are as follows:

1. The complaint of the plaintiff.
2. The demurrer of the defendant to the complaint.
3. The answer of the defendant to the complaint.
4. The demurrer of the plaintiff to the answer.
5. The reply of the plaintiff.
6. The demurrer of the defendant to the reply.

§ 19, Jus. C.

§ 6657. Issues, how classified. An issue arises upon the pleadings when a fact or conclusion of law is maintained by one party and controverted by the other. Issues are of two kinds:

1. Of law; and,
2. Of fact.

§ 6658. Issues of law. An issue of law arises upon a demurrer to the complaint, answer or reply or to some part thereof. § 50, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6659. Issues of law, determined by court. Issues of law must be determined by the court and be disposed of in the order in which they are presented before the trial of an issue of fact. § 52, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6660. Complaint. The complaint is a concise statement of the facts constituting the plaintiff's cause of action with a demand for judgment, specifying the sum of money or the relief claimed. § 21, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6661. Demurrer, when. The defendant may before answering demur to the complaint or to any cause of action therein alleged upon one or more of the grounds enumerated in section 5268 of the code of civil procedure. When any of the matters therein enumerated do not appear upon the face of the complaint, the objection may be taken by answer. § 22, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6662. Proceedings after demurrer. If a demurrer to the complaint or to any cause of action therein is sustained, the plaintiff may amend within such time not exceeding two days as the court allows. If the demurrer is overruled, the defendant must answer forthwith. § 25, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6663. Answer. The answer may contain a general denial of each allegation of the complaint or any distinct cause of action therein, or a specific denial of one or more of the material allegations thereof. It may also state in a plain and direct manner new matter constituting one or more defenses or counterclaims cognizable in a justice's court. § 23, Jus. C.

§ 6664. Demurrer to answer. The plaintiff may demur to the answer, or to the new matter alleged therein because it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense or counterclaim, as the case may be. § 24, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6665. Proceedings after demurrer. If the demurrer is sustained, the defendant may amend his answer within such time not exceeding two days as the court allows. If the demurrer is overruled the plaintiff may reply forthwith but no reply is necessary except to a counterclaim. § 25, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6666. Amendments, when allowed. Either party may be allowed to amend his pleading at any time before the conclusion of the trial or on appeal, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby, but when an amendment is offered after issue joined and it appears to the satisfaction of the court that a postponement will become necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, the court shall allow the amendment only upon payment of costs to the adverse party in such sum as may be deemed just. § 26, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6667. Demurrer to amended pleading. When a pleading is amended the adverse party may demur, answer or reply forthwith, or within such time not exceeding two days, as the court allows. § 27, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6669. Pleadings to be in writing; when to be verified. The pleadings must be in writing, and in an action of forcible detainer or an action to recover damages for an injury to real property must be verified. No issue arises upon an allegation of title or boundary set forth in the complaint in such action unless the same is specifically denied in the answer.

§ 6670. Title to real estate. A question of title or boundary to real estate cannot be determined in a justice's court and when such question arises upon a material issue joined as prescribed in the preceding section, the justice must order a dismissal of the complaint and render judgment against the plaintiff for costs. When the question is not disclosed by the issue, but is manifested by controversy in the evidence as to a fact which is material to the plaintiff's case under a denial in the answer, the justice must discontinue the trial and order a dismissal of the complaint, specifying the reason for such dismissal and give judgment against the plaintiff for costs, to which end he may take the case from a jury if necessary.

§ 10, Jus. C.

§ 6671. Title to real estate. District court. The defendant may, with or without other matter of defense, set forth in a verified answer facts showing that the title or boundary to real estate will come in question as a defense to the action or any distinct cause of action alleged in the complaint and may thereupon have the same transferred to the district court for the purpose of enabling him to maintain his defense by paying the justice a fee of one dollar for making a transcript and filing an undertaking executed by sufficient sureties to be approved by the justice, to the effect that he will pay all costs that may be adjudged against him in the district court not exceeding one hundred dollars. When the foregoing requirements are complied with the justice must immediately transfer the action accordingly and certify the pleadings and other papers with a transcript of his docket showing the reason of such transfer to the district court of his county, but if the action is transferred in part only, he must retain copies of the original papers. The district court acquires jurisdiction from the time when the papers are filed with the clerk and the action is deemed to be at issue therein ten days after the docketing. In other respects the proceedings therein shall be the same as if the action was originally commenced in that court.

ARTICLE 4. — PROVISIONAL REMEDIES.

§ 28, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6672. Attachment, writ of, when issued. In a case mentioned in section 5352 of the code of civil procedure, a writ to attach the personal property of the defendant may be issued by the justice at the time of or after issuing the summons and before answer on receiving an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff, stating the same facts as are required to be stated by the affidavit specified in section 5356 of the code of civil procedure.

§ 29, Jus. C.

§ 6673. Undertaking for attachment. Before issuing the writ the justice must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff with two or more sufficient sureties, in a sum not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars to the effect that if the defendant recovers judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

§ 6674. Requisites of the writ. The writ may be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county and must require him to attach and safely keep all the personal property of the defendant within his county not exempt from execution, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, the amount of which must be stated in conformity with the complaint, unless the defendant gives him security by the undertaking of two sufficient sureties in an amount sufficient to satisfy such demand besides costs, in which case to take such undertaking. § 30, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6675. Service and return of writ. The writ may be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which it is issued and returned in the same manner as warrants of attachment are served and returned in actions in the district court and with the same force and effect. § 31, Jus. C.

§ 6676. Claim and delivery, proceedings in. In an action to recover possession of personal property the plaintiff may, at the time of issuing the summons or at any time thereafter before answer, claim the delivery of such property to him; and article 2 of chapter 9 of the code of civil procedure is applicable to such claim when made in justices' court, the powers therein given and duties imposed on sheriffs being extended to constables and the word "justice" substituted for "judge."

ARTICLE 5.—FORCIBLE DETAINER.

§ 6677. Forcible detainer, when maintainable. This action is maintainable: § 34, Jus. C.

1. When a party has by force, intimidation, fraud or stealth entered upon the prior actual possession of real property of another and detains the same.

2. When a party after entering peaceably upon real property turns out by force, threats or menacing conduct the party in possession; or,

3. When he by force, or by menaces and threats of violence unlawfully holds and keeps the possession of any real property whether the same was acquired peaceably or otherwise; or,

4. When a lessee in person or by subtenant holds over after the termination of his lease or expiration of his term, or fails to pay his rent for three days after the same shall be due; or,

5. When a party continues in possession after a sale of the real property under mortgage, execution, order or any judicial process after the expiration of the time fixed by law for redemption and after the execution and delivery of a deed.

6. When a party continues wrongfully in possession after a judgment in partition or after a sale under an order or decree of a county court.

§ 6678. Notice to quit. In all cases arising under subdivisions 4, 5 and 6 of the preceding section, three days' written notice to quit must be given to the lessee, subtenant or party in possession before proceedings can be instituted, and may be served and returned in like manner as a summons is served and returned. § 35, Jus. C.

am'd. § 6680. No joinder of action. Counterclaim. An action under the provisions of this article cannot be brought in connection with any other except for rents and profits accrued or damages arising by reason of the defendant's possession. No counterclaim can be interposed except as a set-off to a demand made for damages or rents and profits.

ARTICLE 6.—TRIAL OF ISSUES OF FACT.

§ 51, Jus. C.
am'd. § 6681. Issues of fact. An issue of fact arises:
1. Upon a material allegation in the complaint controverted by the answer, or,

2. Upon new matter in the answer not admitted in the reply; or,

3. Upon new matter in the reply.

§ 53, Jus. C.
am'd. § 6682. Issue of fact, how tried. Issues of fact must be tried by jury unless a jury is waived. When a jury is waived, the court must try the issues, hear the allegations and proofs of the respective parties and render judgment thereon.

§ 55, Jus. C.
am'd. § 6683. Trial, commences when. Subject to the provisions of article 2 of this chapter the trial must commence as soon as the issues are joined or as soon as the jury is impaneled, and continue until concluded without an intermission for more than twenty-four hours at any one time; if either party fails to appear at the time fixed for the trial, it may proceed at the request of the adverse party.

§ 54, Jus. C.
am'd. § 6684. Jury, how waived. A jury is waived:
1. If neither party before the commencement of the trial demands a jury as prescribed in the next section.

2. If either party fails to appear at the time fixed for the trial.

§ 56, Jus. C.
§ 1, c. 33, 1879.
am'd. § 6685. Jury, deposit for. When an issue of fact is joined, either party may demand a trial by jury on depositing with the justice a sum sufficient to pay the jurors their fees for one day's attendance.

§ 56, Jus. C.
§ 1, c. 33, 1879.
am'd. § 6686. Jury, how composed. The jury shall be composed of six residents of the county having the qualifications of jurors or of any number less than six if the parties so agree, who shall be selected, summoned and impaneled as hereinafter prescribed.

§ 56, Jus. C.
am'd. § 6687. Jury, how drawn. Unless the persons to be summoned are named in the agreement of the parties, the justice shall write down the names of eighteen residents of the county competent to sit as jurors, and from the list so prepared, the parties alternately, beginning with the party demanding the jury, shall strike out one name each until there remains only the number required to constitute the jury. If either party refuses to strike out a name the justice shall act for him. The justice shall thereupon issue his venire to the sheriff or any constable of the county commanding him to summon the persons so selected or agreed upon, as the case may be, to appear forthwith or at a fixed time and place stated therein, to serve as jurors in the trial of the action.

§ 6688. Jury, venire how served. The officer shall, without unnecessary delay, serve the venire upon each of the persons therein named by reading the same to him and shall state in his return the name of each person served and the name of each person who cannot be found. A person disobeying a venire may be compelled to appear or be punished for a failure to appear in the same manner as a witness who disobeys a subpoena.

§ 6689. Talesmen. If the persons so summoned do not all appear at the proper time, the justice must require the absentees to be brought in or cause others to be substituted or if any person appearing as a juror is excused for legal cause before the jurors are sworn to try the issue, others must be substituted until the required number of jurors is obtained. The persons so required must be selected and summoned forthwith as hereinbefore prescribed from a list containing three times as many names as there are jurors to be substituted. § 57, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6690. Jurors, examination of. Upon the appearance of a sufficient number, the jurors must at the request of either party be first sworn to answer truly all questions that may be propounded to them by the court or by the parties as to their qualifications to sit as jurors in the trial of the action and may thereupon be examined accordingly. § 57, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6691. Challenges, how tried. Challenges to individual jurors are allowed for the same causes as in a civil action in the district court, but must be taken before the jurors are sworn to try the issue, and every challenge must be tried in a summary manner by the justice on the examination of the juror or other witnesses under oath. § 57, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6692. Oath of jury. As soon as a sufficient number are secured and accepted, the justice shall administer to the jurors the following oath: "You, and each of you, do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be) that you will well and truly try the matters in issue between the plaintiff and defendant and a true verdict rendered according to the evidence." § 59, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6693. Duty of jury. After the jurors are sworn to try the issue, they must sit together and hear the allegations and proofs of the parties, which must be delivered in public in the presence of the justice and as nearly as may be in accordance with the practice in the district court. § 119, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6694. Jury, when discharged. The jury cannot be discharged after they are sworn until they have agreed upon and returned their verdict, unless for good cause the court sooner discharges them. § 124, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6695. Questions of law, how decided. The justice must decide all questions of law arising in the progress of the trial, but must not instruct the jury upon the law of the case, nor express an opinion as to any matters of fact in controversy therein. § 120, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6696. Oath to officer. After hearing the proofs and allegations, the jury may decide in court or may retire for consideration. If they do not immediately agree, an officer must be sworn to the following effect:

You do swear that you will keep this jury together in some quiet and convenient place; that you will not permit any person to speak to them nor speak to them yourself unless by order of the court, or to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict; and that you will return them into court when they have so agreed or when ordered by the court. § 121, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6697. Verdict of jury. The verdict of the jury must be in writing, and be signed by all the jurors or by one of them as foreman. When they have agreed upon their verdict they must render it publicly to the justice and it must be entered in the docket immediately, but if the verdict is not in proper form, the justice may inform the jury accordingly and require them to correct the same. § 122, Jus. C. am'd.

1. In an action to recover possession of personal property, to the effect that the jury find the plaintiff or defendant entitled to possession or if not in possession, to a delivery of the property therein described, specifying its value article by article and to damages, if claimed for its detention, in a sum therein stated as assessed by the jury. If the finding is in favor of the plaintiff as to part of the property, the verdict shall contain a like finding in favor of the defendant as to the residue.

2. In an action of forcible detainer when in favor of the plaintiff, to the effect that he is entitled to a delivery of possession and to rents, profits and damages if claimed, in a sum assessed by the jury. If in favor of the defendant a finding to that effect is sufficient.

3. In other actions, when in favor of the plaintiff or plaintiffs to the effect that the jury find for him or them and assess the amount of the recovery at a sum therein stated in dollars and cents; or if there are several defendants, to the effect that the jury find for the plaintiff and assess his recovery at a sum stated as against all or against one or more of the defendants by name as the case requires. When in favor of the defendant or one of several defendants, to the effect that the jury find for him or them designating each by name if necessary, and assessing the amount of his recovery, if determined in his favor, upon a counterclaim.

4. When the plaintiff is entitled to satisfaction of the amount expressed in the verdict out of personal property of the defendant by virtue of a mortgage or other lien, the verdict shall contain a further finding to that effect with a particular description of the property.

§ 125, Jus. C.

§ 6699. Proceedings when jury disagree. If the jurors are discharged without rendering a verdict or because they cannot agree, the court shall proceed again to trial as in the first instance until a verdict is rendered.

§ 6700. Motion in arrest of judgment not entertained. No motion in arrest of judgment or to set aside a verdict can be entertained in a justice's court.

ARTICLE 7. — JUDGMENT AND COSTS.

§ 62, Jus. C.

§ 6701. Judgment by confession. Judgments upon confession may be entered in any justice's court specified in the confession.

§ 42, Jus. C.

§ 6702. Judgment by default. When the defendant fails to appear and answer or demur at the time specified in the summons or within one hour thereafter, then upon proof of service of the summons the following proceedings must be had:

1. If the action is based upon a contract and is for the recovery of money or damages only, the court must render judgment in favor of plaintiff for the sum specified in the summons.

2. In all other actions the court must hear the evidence offered by the plaintiff and must render judgment in his favor for such a sum not exceeding the amount stated in the summons, as appears by such evidence to be just.

§ 43, Jus. C.

§ 6703. Judgment in certain cases. In the following cases judgment must be rendered in favor of the plaintiff in like manner as upon failure of the defendant to answer or demur:

1. When the complaint has been amended and the defendant fails to answer it as amended within the time allowed by the court.

2. When a demurrer to the complaint has been overruled and the defendant fails to answer forthwith.

3. When a demurrer to the answer has been sustained and the defendant fails to amend the answer within the time allowed by the court.

§ 6704. Judgment affecting personal property. When service of the summons has been made under the provisions of section 6643 of this code and the defendant has not appeared, no money judgment shall be rendered, but the court shall find the amount due and the particular property liable therefor and render judgment for the satisfaction of said amount out of said property by execution.

§ 6705. Judgment of dismissal. Judgment that the action be dismissed without prejudice to another action may be entered with costs to the defendant in the following cases: § 63, Jus. C. am'd.

1. When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted.

2. When he fails to appear at the time specified in the summons or to which the action has been postponed or within one hour thereafter.

3. When a demurrer to the complaint has been sustained and the plaintiff fails to amend within the time allowed by the court.

4. When it appears at the trial that the action is brought in the wrong county.

§ 6706. Judgment, how set aside. The court may relieve either party from a judgment taken against him by reason of his failure to appear or plead or amend. Application for such relief must be made within thirty days after the entry of such judgment upon affidavit showing good cause therefor and after three days' notice to the opposite party. If the application is granted, the court shall set aside the judgment and fix a new day for further proceedings in the action and cause notice thereof to be given to the other party if he is not present at the hearing, which notice may be served either personally or by mail. The court may in its discretion before setting aside the judgment require the applicant to pay the costs of the action which have already accrued.

§ 6708. Judgment by court, when entered. When the trial is by the court, judgment must be entered at the close of the trial. § 65, Jus. C.

§ 6709. Excess of judgment remitted. When the amount found due to either party exceeds the sum for which the justice is authorized to enter judgment, such party may remit the excess and judgment may be rendered for the residue. § 67, Jus. C.

§ 6710. Judgment in claim and delivery. In actions to recover the possession of personal property the judgment must be entered substantially in the form required by section 5484, code of civil procedure. § 66, Jus. C.

§ 6711. Judgment in attachment. The judgment in an action, in which specific personal property is held liable to the plaintiff's demand by reason of a lien or the levy of an attachment thereon, shall state what particular property is liable, and why, and the judgment operates as a lien on the property so designated.

§ 39, Jus. C.
§ 1, c. 87, 1881.
am'd.

§ 6712. Judgment in forcible detainer. A judgment in favor of the plaintiff in an action of forcible detainer shall be for delivery of possession to the plaintiff and for the amount of rents and profits and damages found in his favor when claimed by the complaint.

§ 68, Jus. C.

§ 6713. Offer of judgment, costs. If the defendant at any time before the trial offers in writing to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specific sum, the plaintiff may upon producing and filing such offer with the justice immediately have judgment therefor with the costs then accrued, but if he does not accept such offer before the trial and fails to recover in the action a sum greater than the offer, he cannot recover costs, but costs must be adjudged against him and if he recovers, be deducted from his recovery. The offer and failure to accept it cannot be given in evidence nor affect the recovery otherwise than as to costs.

§ 69, Jus. C.

§ 6714. Costs taxed. The justice must tax and include in the judgment the costs allowed by law to the prevailing party.

§ 6715. Costs, when not allowed. A party cannot recover as costs any expenses by him incurred for the service of summons or other process by any person not an officer. The party demanding a jury cannot recover any costs thereby incurred:

1. In an action for the recovery of specific personal property when the value of the property which he recovers is less than twenty-five dollars.

2. In any other action if he is the plaintiff and recovers judgment for less than twenty-five dollars exclusive of costs, or if he is the defendant and the sum which he recovers if any exclusive of costs together with the sum demanded by the plaintiff is less than twenty-five dollars. But this subdivision does not apply to an action of forcible detainer.

am'd.

§ 6716. Attorney's fees. When the party entitled to costs has appeared in the action by an attorney duly authorized to practice in the courts of this state, but not otherwise, there shall be allowed for his reimbursement and included in the costs a sum to be ascertained as follows:

1. In an action of forcible detainer, to either party recovering judgment, ten dollars.

2. In any other action, to the plaintiff if he recovers twenty-five dollars or less, a sum equal to twenty per cent of the judgment exclusive of costs; if he recovers more than twenty-five dollars and not more than fifty dollars, five dollars; if he recovers more than fifty dollars, a sum equal to ten per cent of the judgment exclusive of costs; or,

3. The defendant recovering judgment, a sum determined in like manner upon the judgment demanded by the plaintiff.

4. In an action for the recovery of personal property the value of the property as determined in the action shall be deemed part of the judgment recovered or demanded for the purposes of this section.

§ 70, Jus. C.

§ 6717. Abstract of judgment. Form. Fee. The justice, on demand of a party recovering judgment and payment of a fee of one dollar, must deliver to him a certified abstract of the judgment to be filed in the district court, if there is outstanding no execution issued thereon. A minute of the delivery of the abstract must be entered in the docket and thereafter no execution shall be issued by the justice. Such abstract may be in the following form, filling blanks according to the facts:

State of North Dakota, }	In Justice Court,
County of } ss.	Before..... J. P.
C. D., plaintiff,
vs.
E. F., defendant.

Judgment entered (giving date thereof) in favor of plaintiff (or defendant) and against defendant (or plaintiff) for dollars, and costs taxed at dollars, of which dollars remains unsatisfied. I certify that the foregoing is a true and correct abstract of the judgment in said action (as appears upon the docket of said justice now in my custody).

(Date of certificate and official signature of justice.)

ARTICLE 8.—STAY OF EXECUTION.

§ 6718. Stay of execution. Execution upon a judgment for money only may be stayed in the manner hereinafter provided for a period of time from and after the date of the judgment, determined as follows:

1. For two months if the amount of the judgment including costs, does not exceed fifty dollars.
2. For four months if the amount of the judgment including costs, exceeds fifty and does not exceed one hundred dollars.
3. For six months if the amount of the judgment including costs, exceeds one hundred dollars.

But no stay is allowed under the provisions of this section without the consent of the owner and holder of the judgment when it is rendered for wages of a mechanic or laborer or for moneys received in a fiduciary capacity or for breach of any official duty or against a corporation or awards execution against specific personal property.

§ 6719. Stay, how effected. The stay is effected by an undertaking on the part of the judgment defendant entered on the docket of the justice and signed by one or more sufficient sureties of the county having the qualifications of bail in civil actions and justifying thereto to the effect that in consideration of the stay allowed by law, each acknowledges himself indebted to the plaintiff by virtue of the judgment for the amount of the same including costs, and undertakes that payment thereof will be made at or before the expiration of such stay. Such stay operates to suspend the execution of the judgment if executed within ten days after the rendition thereof, but not otherwise.

the judgment debtor and the surety in said undertaking, describing him as such, with the same effect as though the judgment was against all. The officer receiving the execution shall certify in his return the amount if any collected or received from the surety; and thereupon after five days' notice to the principal debtor the surety may, on motion, have judgment entered by the justice in his favor for the amount so certified against said debtor, unless he files an affidavit stating that he has a valid defense or counterclaim against the surety making the application, but no judgment shall be so entered after the expiration of three months from the return of the execution.

§ 6722. No appeal, when. A party cannot appeal after taking a stay of execution as herein provided.

ARTICLE 9.—EXECUTION.

§ 71, Jus. C.

§ 6723. Execution, when issued. The judgment of a justice's court is enforced by process of execution. When the process is not stayed or suspended by any provision of this code, execution may issue at any time within five years after entry of judgment, but not afterwards, on application of the party in whose favor it was rendered or his legal representative to the justice who entered the same or his successor in office, or other justice who has custody of the docket.

§ 6724. Execution for money. No execution shall be issued upon a judgment for the recovery of money until after the expiration of ten days from the time of the entry of judgment, unless there is filed with the justice before the issuance of the execution an affidavit made by the judgment creditor, his agent or attorney, stating that unless an execution is issued before the expiration of such ten days the judgment creditor is in danger of losing the amount of his claim.

§ 72, Jus. C.

§ 6725. Execution, requisites of. The execution must be directed to the sheriff or any constable within the county and must be subscribed by the justice and bear the date of its delivery to the officer. It must intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the names of the parties thereto, in whose favor, against whom, the time when, the county where and the name of the justice before whom the judgment was rendered; and it must be made returnable to the justice within thirty days after its date.

§ 73, Jus. C.

§ 6726. Execution, contents of. An execution issued upon a judgment for a sum of money must state in the body thereof the sum actually due on the judgment and must substantially require the officer to satisfy the same, together with interest and costs out of the personal property of the debtor, and bring the money before the justice by the return day of the execution.

§ 74, Jus. C.

§ 6728. Execution for personal property. An execution issued upon a judgment for the delivery of the possession of personal property shall substantially require the officer to deliver the possession of the same particularly describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and may at the same time require the officer to satisfy any costs or damages recovered by the judgment out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was recovered to be specified therein, if a delivery cannot be had.

§ 6729. Execution in forcible detainer. An execution issued upon a judgment in favor of the plaintiff in an action of forcible detainer shall substantially require the officer to deliver possession of the premises, particularly describing them, to the plaintiff, and may at the same time require the officer to satisfy the money judgment and costs as in other cases. The process must be executed as respects the delivery of possession only in the day time. § 75, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6730. Execution for specific property. An execution, which describes the specific personal property liable for the satisfaction of the judgment, may be levied on other property of the debtor not exempt, when for any cause it appears that full satisfaction cannot be obtained from the property so described.

§ 6731. Sale of personal property under execution. The provisions of chapter 11 of the code of civil procedure, relating to the levy and sale or delivery of personal property so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, apply to and govern the levy, sale and delivery of personal property under an execution issued by a justice of the peace. And the constable when the execution is directed to him is vested for that purpose with all the powers of the sheriff; provided, that notice shall not be published in a newspaper but shall be given by posting for ten days in five public places within the county, one of which shall be at the office of the justice issuing the execution. § 77, Jus. C.

§ 6732. Renewal of execution. An execution may at the request of the judgment creditor be renewed before the expiration of the time fixed for its return by the word "renewed" written thereon, with the date thereof and subscribed by the justice. Such renewal has the effect of an original issue and may be repeated as often as necessary. If an execution is returned unsatisfied, another may be afterwards issued. § 76, Jus. C.

§ 6733. Justice receives money collected. A justice of the peace must receive all moneys collected by the sheriff, constable or other officer upon any process or order issued from his court and must pay the same over to the parties or persons entitled thereto without delay.

CHAPTER 4.

CONTEMPTS IN JUSTICES' COURTS.

§ 6734. Contempts, acts constituting. A justice may punish as for contempt, persons guilty of the following acts and no other: § 78, Jus. C.

1. Disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior toward the justice while holding the court tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding.

2. A breach of the peace, boisterous conduct or violent disturbance in the presence of the justice or in the immediate vicinity of the court held by him, tending to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceeding.

3. Disobedience or resistance to the execution of a lawful order or process made or issued by him.

4. Disobedience to a subpoena duly served or refusing to be sworn or to answer as a witness.

5. Rescuing any person or property in the custody of an officer by virtue of an order or process of the court held by him.

§ 80, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6735. Trial for contempt. When the act or omission is not committed in the immediate view and presence of the justice, an affidavit alleging the facts may be filed and a warrant of arrest may thereupon issue on which the person accused may be arrested and brought before the justice immediately, when he must be given a reasonable opportunity to employ counsel and excuse or defend against the alleged contempt and after hearing the allegations and proofs the justice may discharge him or adjudge him guilty and direct that he be punished accordingly.

§ 81, Jus. C.

§ 6736. Punishment for contempt. A justice may punish for contempts by fine or imprisonment or both; such fine not to exceed in any case, one hundred dollars, and such imprisonment, one day.

§ 82, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6737. Conviction, entered on docket. The conviction, specifying particularly the offense and the judgment thereon, must be entered by the justice in his docket.

CHAPTER 5.

PROCEDURE IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

§ 104, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6738. Criminal action, how prosecuted. A criminal action, which a justice's court is empowered to hear, try and determine, may be prosecuted in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter upon a complaint entered before any justice of the peace of the county in which the offense is laid.

§ 109, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6739. Proceedings entered on docket. All proceedings in the action must be entered by the justice in his docket as nearly as may be in the manner and form prescribed in a civil action with the modifications prescribed by this chapter.

§ 106, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6740. Complaint. The complaint must be in writing and must state the facts constituting the offense in ordinary and concise language with sufficient certainty and with such particulars of time, place, person and property as will enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended and authorize the court to pronounce judgment.

§ 107, Jus. C.

§ 6741. Complaint, sworn to. The complaint must be sworn to before the justice, who may, if he deems proper, examine the complainant or other persons under oath concerning the grounds of the accusation; and if the justice is satisfied that sufficient grounds exist for the prosecution, he shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

§ 6742. Complaint, form of. A complaint may be substantially in the following form: State of North Dakota, county of (naming it), in justice court, before (name of justice.) The state of North Dakota against (name of accused.) Complaint. (Name of complainant), being first duly sworn, says that on the (time of offense), at said county, the above named defendant did (here state the offense), against the peace and dignity of the state of North Dakota. Wherefore complainant prays that said defendant may be arrested and dealt with according to law. (Signature of complainant.) Subscribed and sworn to before me (giving date.) (Official signature of the justice.)

§ 6743. Warrant, form of. A warrant may be substantially in the following form, filling blanks according to the facts: The state of North Dakota to the sheriff or any constable of county. Complaint upon oath having been made before me (name of justice), a justice of the peace of said county, by (name of complainant), accusing (name of defendant) of the commission of a public offense, to-wit: (here designate the offense by name or general description); you are therefore commanded to arrest said (name of defendant) forthwith, and bring him before me at (stating the place), there to be dealt with according to law. Witness my hand this day of, 18... (Official signature of the justice.)

§ 107, Jus. C.

§ 6744. Duty of officer. An officer who receives a warrant must execute the same with diligence by taking the defendant into his custody and bringing him without unnecessary delay before the justice who issued the same.

§ 6745. Warrant, how served. The warrant may be served in any other county in the manner prescribed by articles 5 and 6 of chapter 6 of the code of criminal procedure.

§ 108, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6746. Counsel for defendant. When the defendant is brought before the justice, he must be allowed a reasonable time and opportunity to procure counsel.

§ 6747. Postponement of trial. A reasonable postponement of the hearing or trial may also be ordered at any time to enable the complainant or defendant to procure the attendance or testimony of a witness or for any other good cause.

§ 114, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6748. Bail. The defendant at any time before conviction may be admitted to bail by giving an undertaking with sufficient surety in an amount to be fixed by the justice for his appearance before the justice to answer the complaint.

§ 134, Jus. C.

§ 6749. Change of venue. When the defendant before the trial commences files an affidavit in writing, stating that he has reason to believe and does believe that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial of the action before the justice about to try the same by reason of the bias or prejudice of said justice, the action must be transferred to a justice of the county agreed upon by or in behalf of the parties, or if there is no such agreement, to the next nearest justice within the county and an order must be made transferring the same accordingly. But the place of trial cannot be changed more than once under the provisions of this section.

§ 1, c. 82, 1887.
§ 1, c. 81, 1891.
am'd.

§ 6750. Duty of justice when venue changed. When a change of the place of trial is ordered, the justice must forthwith attach to the original papers a certified copy of his docket entries in the action and deliver the same to an officer, who must execute the order without delay by taking the defendant before the justice named and delivering to him the papers so received.

§ 113, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 113, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6751. Jurisdiction of justice. The justice to whom the action is transferred as provided in the last section, must proceed with the trial in the same manner as in an action originally commenced before him.

§ 6752. Complaint to be read. Before the trial commences the complaint must be distinctly read to the defendant and he must be asked if he is designated therein by his right name and be required to plead.

§ 6753. Name of defendant. If the defendant objects that he is wrongly named in the complaint and gives his right name, the proceedings shall be amended accordingly. If he does not give his right name, he is thereafter precluded from making any objections on the grounds that he is not designated by his right name.

§ 110, Jus. C.

§ 6754. Plea, oral and entered on docket. The defendant may make the same pleas as to an information or indictment. His plea may be oral and must be entered in the docket. If he refuses to plead, a plea of "not guilty" must be entered.

§ 110, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6755. Plea of guilty. Duty of justice. If the defendant pleads guilty, the court before accepting the plea may examine witnesses to ascertain the gravity of the offense; and if it appears from the testimony that the offense committed is of a higher grade than that charged in the complaint, the court may refuse to accept the plea and direct a complaint to be filed charging the offense accordingly and proceed with a preliminary examination of the defendant as prescribed in the code of criminal procedure.

§ 111, Jus. C.

§ 6756. Issue, when tried. When the defendant makes any plea other than a plea of guilty, the issue shall be tried by the court unless a jury is demanded; but if either party demands a jury before the court hears any testimony, the issue must be tried by a jury of twelve persons.

§ 116, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6757. Jury, how formed. The provisions of article 6 of chapter 3 of this code apply to the formation of the jury and the conduct of the trial except as otherwise prescribed by this chapter.

§ 117, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6758. Challenges. Challenges may be taken by either party to individual jurors for the same causes as on a trial in the district court for a criminal offense.

§ 118, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6759. Oath to jury. The court must administer to the jury the following oath: You do swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try this issue between the state of North Dakota and A. B., the defendant, and a true verdict render according to the evidence. So help you God.

§ 115, Jus. C.

§ 6760. Defendant present. The defendant must be personally present during the progress of the trial.

§ 122, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6761. Verdict of jury. The verdict of the jury on a plea of not guilty must be to the effect that the jury find the defendant "guilty," or "not guilty," as the case may be. On any other plea the verdict must be "for the state," or "for the defendant."

§ 123, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6762. Verdict, when several defendants. When several defendants are tried together, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree on which a judgment must be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

§ 6764. Defendant discharged. When the defendant is acquitted by the court or by a verdict of "not guilty" or, "for the defendant," a judgment of acquittal must be rendered and if the defendant is not detained on legal process for any other cause, he must be immediately discharged. §§ 128, 130, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6765. Conviction of defendant, judgment. When the defendant is convicted by the court or by a verdict of "guilty" or a verdict "for the state" which does not also find the defendant not guilty, the court shall render judgment that he be punished by a fine or by imprisonment in the county jail or by both fine and imprisonment, specifying the amount of the fine or time of imprisonment. A judgment of fine only may also direct that the defendant be imprisoned until the same is satisfied. In a case in which the court has a discretion as to the extent of the punishment, it may, upon the suggestion of either party before rendering judgment, hear testimony as to circumstances proper to be considered in aggravation or mitigation of punishment. § 126, Jus. C.

§ 6766. Right of appeal. If the defendant is convicted, the justice when he renders judgment must inform him of his right to appeal and prescribe the amount in which he may give bail for his appearance in the district court in case of an appeal.

§ 6767. Judgment, how enforced. A judgment, which imposes a fine without directing that the defendant be imprisoned until the same is satisfied, may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action and execution shall issue accordingly at the request of the state's attorney. § 127, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6768. Judgment of imprisonment. A judgment of imprisonment must be executed by delivering the defendant into the custody of the sheriff or other officer in charge of the county jail, who shall safely keep him therein until the expiration of the time specified in the judgment charged. A judgment of fine which directs that the defendant be imprisoned until the fine is paid must be executed in like manner except that the time of imprisonment shall be at the rate of one day for each two dollars of the fine and the defendant must be discharged on payment of the fine. § 132, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6769. Certified copy of judgment. A copy of the judgment duly certified by the justice is a sufficient warrant for the doing of every act necessary or proper in the due execution thereof as prescribed in the preceding section by an officer receiving the same. The officer shall upon discharging the defendant return such copy to the justice with an account of his doings indorsed thereon and must at the same time pay over to the justice all money which he may have received from the defendant in payment of the fine. § 131, Jus. C. am'd.

§ 6770. Fines paid. Duty of justice. When the fine is paid, the justice must apply the money in payment of the legal costs and expenses of the prosecution and pay over the residue if any to the county treasurer. § 133, Jus. C. § 2, c. 111, 1885. am'd.

CHAPTER 6.

APPEALS.

ARTICLE 1.—APPEALS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

§ 6771. Appeals to district court. Any party dissatisfied with a judgment rendered in a civil action in a justice's court whether the same was rendered on default or after a trial, may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county or subdivision at any time within thirty days after the rendition of the judgment. The appeal is taken by serving the notice of appeal on the adverse party or his attorney and by filing the notice of appeal together with the undertaking required by law with the clerk of the district court of the county to which the appeal is taken.

§ 6772. Undertaking on appeal. To render an appeal effectual for any purpose, an undertaking must be executed on the part of the appellant by sufficient surety to the effect that the appellant will pay all costs which may be awarded against him on the appeal not exceeding one hundred dollars, which undertaking shall be approved by and filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county to which the appeal is taken.

§ 6773. Stay of execution on appeal. If the appellant desires a stay of execution an undertaking must be executed on his part by sufficient surety to the effect, that if the appeal is dismissed, the appellant will pay the amount of the judgment appealed from and all costs or if judgment is rendered against him in the appellate court, that he will pay the amount of such judgment and all costs not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least one hundred dollars and not less than twice the amount of the judgment appealed from; or, if the judgment appealed from is for the recovery of specific personal property, an undertaking must be executed on the part of the appellant by sufficient surety to the effect that if the appeal is dismissed or if judgment is rendered against the appellant in the appellate court, the appellant will deliver the property described in the judgment and pay the damages awarded for the taking or detention thereof and all costs or pay the sum fixed by the judgment as the value of the property together with the damages awarded for the taking or detention thereof and all costs. Such undertaking shall be approved and filed as provided in the last section.

§ 6775. Money in lieu of undertaking. When the appellant is required under any provision of this article to give an undertaking, he may in lieu thereof deposit with the clerk of the district court in whose office the notice of appeal is required to be filed, who shall give a receipt therefor, a sum of money equal to the amount for which such undertaking is required to be given and in lieu of the service of such undertaking serve a notice of the making of such deposit. Such deposit and notice shall have the same effect as the service of the required undertaking and be held to answer the event of the appeal upon the terms prescribed for the undertaking in lieu of which the same is deposited.

§ 6776. Sufficiency of sureties excepted to. The undertaking given on appeal and appellant's pleading, if the judgment appealed from was taken by default, must be served with the notice of appeal. The adverse party may except to the sufficiency of the surety upon any undertaking on appeal within five days after its service upon him. Thereupon the surety must justify upon like notice and in like manner as bail upon an arrest; or a new undertaking must be given with new surety and thereupon the same proceedings may be had as upon the original undertaking. Unless such surety justifies or a new undertaking with new surety is given and justifies, if required, the appeal must on motion of the respondent be dismissed; but the liability of the surety upon any undertaking given on appeal shall not be thereby released.

§ 6777. Appeal filed with clerk. Proceedings on. Upon the filing of the notice of appeal and undertaking, or the making of the deposit prescribed in section 6775 in the office of the clerk of the district court, such clerk shall immediately mail to the justice of the court in which the judgment appealed from was rendered a written notice thereof, specifying the court in which the judgment was rendered, the names of the parties, the date and amount of the judgment appealed from and stating whether the undertaking filed or deposit made entitles the appellant to a stay of execution and requiring such justice to transmit to such clerk the record required by law. Such justice must within ten days after the receipt of such notice transmit to the clerk of the district court a record which shall contain a certified copy of the justice's docket, the pleadings, all notices, motions and other papers filed in the cause. The justice may be compelled by the district court by order entered upon motion to transmit such record and may be fined for neglect or refusal so to do. A certified copy of such order may be served on the justice by the party or his attorney.

§ 6778. Execution stayed by appeal. If an execution has been issued, the justice must, if the written notice received from the clerk states that the undertaking filed or deposit made entitles the appellant to a stay of execution, by order direct a stay of all proceedings on the same. The officer in whose hands such execution may be must upon payment of his fees for services rendered upon the execution relinquish all property levied upon and deliver the same to the judgment debtor together with all moneys collected from sales or otherwise. If his fees are not paid the officer may retain so much of the property or proceeds thereof as may be necessary to pay the same.

§ 6779. Action tried in district court. The action shall be tried anew in the district court in the same manner as actions originally commenced therein. No notice of trial and note of issue shall be required to be served or filed in order to bring the case upon the trial calendar in the district court but the record of such appeal shall be filed by the clerk of the district court and the action entered upon the calendar.

§ 6780. Appeal dismissed, proceedings. When an appeal to the district court is dismissed and no appeal is taken to the supreme court from the judgment for costs rendered in the district court upon the dismissal thereof, a certified copy of the order dismissing the same shall be filed in the justice's court in which the judgment was rendered and thereafter the judgment appealed from shall have the same force and validity, and may be enforced in the same manner as if no appeal had been taken. In case an appeal is taken to the supreme court after a certified copy of the order aforesaid is filed in the justice's court, the judgment therein shall be suspended until the further order of the district court.

ARTICLE 2. — APPEALS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

§ 6781. Appeal. Time. Bond. A defendant in a criminal action may appeal from the judgment of a justice of the peace at any time within thirty days by giving notice of the appeal and giving bail for his appearance in the district court as prescribed in this article.

§ 6782. Appeals as in civil actions. The notice may be given by stating orally to the justice at the time of rendering judgment that the defendant appeals, or by filing with the justice a written notice of appeal and serving a copy thereof on the state's attorney of the county within the prescribed time.

§ 6783. Bond required. Bail must be given in the sum fixed by the justice to the effect that the defendant shall appear in the district court on the first day of the next term convening within the county there to answer the complaint and abide the further orders of the court. Such bail may be given by the written undertaking of one or more sufficient sureties approved by the justice or by a deposit of money in lieu of sureties.

§ 6784. Approval of bond. If the justice refuses to approve the undertaking, it may be approved by the clerk of the district court and filed with the justice with the same effect as if approved by him.

§ 6785. Witnesses placed under bond. When an appeal is taken, the justice must, if application is made by the state's attorney, cause all material witnesses on behalf of the prosecution to enter into an undertaking in like manner as in a case when a defendant is held to answer on a preliminary examination.

§ 6786. Justice transmits appeal. The justice must within five days after an appeal is taken transmit to the clerk of the district court a certified copy of his docket and all papers relating to the case as on appeal in a civil action, and may be compelled to do so or make a further return in like manner. If money has been deposited in lieu of bail it must accompany the return.

§ 6787. Appeal. New trials. Proceedings. An appeal duly perfected transfers the action to the district court for trial anew regardless of any ruling or decision of the justice. But the defendant may move to dismiss the complaint on the ground that the justice did not have jurisdiction of the offense. He may also demur to the complaint because more than one offense is charged therein or because the facts stated do not constitute a public offense. If he does not object to the complaint for the causes above specified or if his objections are overruled he must be required to plead as to an indictment or information without regard to any plea entered before the justice. In other respects the proceedings shall be the same as in criminal actions originally commenced in the district court and judgment shall be rendered and carried into effect accordingly.

§ 6788. Appeal not dismissed. No appeal from the judgment of a justice of the peace in a criminal action shall be dismissed. But if the appeal was not taken in time or if the defendant fails to appear in the district court when his presence is required, the judgment of the justice shall be summarily affirmed and entered as the judgment of the district court and carried into effect as such.

§ 142, Jus. C.
am'd.

CHAPTER 7.

ACCOUNTING BY JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

§ 6789. Quarterly reports by justice. Every justice of the peace shall, on the first Monday of January, April, July and October in each year, make to the county commissioners of his county a full report under oath of all his doings in actions or proceedings in which the county or state is a party or is in any manner interested.

§ 1, c. 3, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6790. Contents of report. Such report shall contain the names of the parties to each action or proceeding and a statement of the final order or judgment of the justice therein and of all orders relating to costs, an itemized statement of all fees taxed or allowed as costs in each action or proceeding and the names of the persons or officers entitled thereto, including all costs of the prosecution or defense in a criminal proceeding which are payable by the county, also a statement of each payment made on such judgment and the disposition thereof made by the justice.

§ 2, c. 3, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6791. Pay moneys to county treasurer. Each justice of the peace shall at the time of making his report pay over to the county treasurer of his county all fines or other moneys collected or received by him in behalf of the county or state and remaining in his hands, but whenever the amount of money so collected and received exceeds one hundred dollars, he must pay the same over to the treasurer forthwith.

§ 3, c. 3, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6792. Penalty for failure. Any justice of the peace violating any of the provisions of this act shall be liable to a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars to be recovered in a civil action by the county.

§ 4, c. 3, Jus. C.
am'd.

§ 6793. Violation, a crime. If any justice of the peace shall neglect or refuse to make such report or neglect or refuse to pay over the aforesaid moneys collected by him, or shall refuse to allow the county commissioners or any of them to examine the records in regard to such matters, he shall be deemed guilty of willful and corrupt misconduct in office.

§ 5, c. 3, Jus. C.
am'd.

CHAPTER 8.

BOARDS OF CONCILIATION.

MODE OF PROCEDURE.

§ 1, c. 22, 1895. § 6794. Election of commissioners. There shall be elected at the same time and in the same manner as the justices of the peace in each town, incorporated village and city by the qualified voters thereof four commissioners of conciliation whose term of office shall be two years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

§ 1, c. 22, 1895. § 6795. Term of office. The time of commencement of their term of office shall be the same as that prescribed for justices of the peace.

§ 2, c. 22, 1895. § 6796. Proceedings before commissioners. At the time of issuing the summons in any civil action begun before a justice of the peace or at any time afterwards before the return day of such summons and only on the request of either party and by the consent of both parties in said action, the justice shall issue a subpoena summoning two of the commissioners of conciliation elected for the town, village or city where the action is brought and the defendant or the plaintiff as the case may require, to appear before him at some time prior to the hour designated in the summons, which subpoena shall be served in the same manner as a summons is required to be served in actions in the district court and may be served by the party obtaining it issued and at any time before its return day. If either party fails to appear at the time designated in the subpoena it shall be so certified to the justice of the peace by the commissioners before the return hour of the summons in said action. If both parties appear they shall then go before the two commissioners summoned, as aforesaid, and state their differences, which statements or so much thereof as is necessary to show the issue between the parties, shall be reduced to writing and shall constitute the pleadings in the case. The parties may then introduce evidence in the order and under the restrictions prescribed by the commissioners and it shall be discretionary with the commissioners whether or not the witness shall be sworn before testifying, and if so required, one of the commissioners may administer the oath. After hearing all the evidence offered it shall be the duty of the commissioners to the best of their ability to persuade the parties to agree to an amicable settlement of their differences on such terms as to them appear just and equitable. If an agreement is reached it shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties, certified to the justice, by him entered on his docket of the case and shall then be a judgment of the court of said justice therein.

§ 2, c. 22, 1895. § 6797. Agreement, parties, attorneys. No agreement shall be entered unless it can be put in the form of a judgment now authorized by law to be entered by justices of the peace. At the hearing before the commissioners each party must appear in person except in the case of nonresident parties or for cause, when a party may appear by an agent duly authorized in writing. No attorney except as such agent, nor the justice of the peace before whom the action is pending shall be allowed to appear or in any way act in the hearing before the commissioners. If at such hearing the parties fail to agree, it shall be so certified to the justice before the return hour of the summons, who may then proceed to trial and judgment as though no such hearing had been had therein and the parties may be allowed to file amended pleadings.

§ 6798. Compensation of commissioners. The commissioners shall receive the same mileage and per diem as jurors in justices courts. All fees and costs shall be included in the settlement and paid by the party designated therein, but in cases when the parties thereto fail to agree the costs shall be paid jointly by both parties unless otherwise agreed to. If a commissioner disobeys the subpoena of the justice, he shall be proceeded against in the same manner as a juror who fails to appear when summoned by him. § 3, c. 22, 1895.

§ 6799. Proceedings not evidence at subsequent trial. No part of the proceedings had before the commissioners shall be admitted as evidence or considered at the trial of the case before the justice, nor shall any of the commissioners who took part in such hearing before them be allowed to testify therein. § 4, c. 22, 1895.

PENAL CODE.

CHAPTER 1.

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS.

§ 6800. Title. This act shall be known as the penal code of the state of North Dakota. § 1. Pen. C.

§ 6801. What acts criminal. Under what law punishable. No act or omission begun after the beginning of the day on which this code takes effect as a law shall be deemed criminal or punishable except as prescribed or authorized by this code or other statutes of this state, or by some of the statutes which this code specifies as continuing in force and as not affected by its provisions, or by some ordinance or municipal, county or township regulation passed or adopted under any such statutes. Any act or omission begun prior to the beginning of the day on which this code takes effect as a law, may be inquired of, prosecuted and punished in the same manner as if this code had not been enacted. § 2. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6802. Crime defined. Punishments enumerated. A crime or public offense is an act committed or omitted in violation of a law forbidding or commanding it, and to which is annexed, upon conviction, either of the following punishments: § 3. Pen. C. am'd.

1. Death.
2. Imprisonment.
3. Fine.
4. Removal from office.
5. Disqualification to hold or enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under this state.
6. Other penal discipline.

§ 6803. Crimes, how divided. Crimes are divided into: § 4. Pen. C.

1. Felonies.
2. Misdemeanors.

§ 6804. Felony and misdemeanor defined. A felony is a crime which is or may be punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary; every other crime is a misdemeanor. When a crime punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary is also punishable by fine or imprisonment in a county jail, in the discretion of the court or jury, it is, except when otherwise specially declared by law § 5, 6. Pen. C. am'd.

to be a felony, a misdemeanor for all purposes after a judgment imposing a punishment other than imprisonment in the penitentiary.

§ 7. Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 6805. Scope of penal code. This code specifies the classes of persons who are deemed capable of crimes and liable to punishment therefor; and defines the nature of the various crimes, and prescribes the kind and measure of punishment to be inflicted for each. The manner of prosecuting and convicting criminals is regulated by the provisions of this code and the code of criminal procedure.

§ 8. Pen. C.

§ 6806. Conviction before punishment. The punishments prescribed by this code can be inflicted only upon a legal conviction in a court having jurisdiction.

§ 9. Pen. C.

§ 6807. Jury find degree of crime. Whenever a crime is distinguished into degrees, the jury, if they convict the prisoner, shall find the degree of the crime of which he is guilty.

§ 10. Pen. C.

§ 6808. Rule of construction. The rule of the common law that penal statutes are to be strictly construed, has no application to this code. All its provisions are to be construed according to the fair import of their terms, with a view to effect its objects and to promote justice.

§ 11. Pen. C.

§ 6809. Duty of court to determine punishment. Exception. Except as limited in cases where the jury is authorized to determine the punishment, the several sections of this code which declare certain crimes to be punishable as therein mentioned, devolve a duty upon the court authorized to pass sentence, to determine and impose the punishment prescribed.

§ 12. Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 6810. Jury when authorized, otherwise court determines limit. Whenever in this code the punishment for a crime is left undetermined between certain limits, the punishment to be inflicted in a particular case must be determined by the jury, when so authorized, or by the court authorized to pass sentence, within such limits as may be prescribed by this code.

§ 13. Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 6811. Punishments of felonies. Natural persons. Corporations. Except in cases where a different punishment is prescribed by this code or by some existing provision of law, every offense declared to be a felony is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. In all cases where a corporation is convicted of an offense for the commission of which a natural person would be punishable as for a felony, and there is no other punishment prescribed by law, such corporation is punishable by a fine of not less than five hundred and not exceeding five thousand dollars.

§ 14. Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 6812. Misdemeanors. Except in cases where a different punishment is prescribed by this code or by some existing provisions of law, every offense declared to be a misdemeanor is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 2.

PERSONS LIABLE TO PUNISHMENT FOR CRIME.

§ 6813. Persons liable to punishment. The following persons are liable to punishment under the laws of this state: § 15, Pen. C. am'd.

1. All persons who commit, in whole or in part, any crime within this state.

2. All persons who commit larceny or robbery as defined in this code, out of this state and bring to, or are found with the property stolen within this state.

3. All persons who, being out of this state, abduct or kidnap, by force or fraud, any person, contrary to the laws of the place where such act is committed, and bring, send or convey such person within the limits of this state, and are afterwards found therein.

4. All persons who, being out of this state, cause or aid, advise or encourage another person to commit a crime within this state, and are afterwards found therein.

5. All persons who, being out of this state and with intent to cause within it a result contrary to the laws of this state, do an act which, in its natural and usual course, results in an act or effect contrary to its laws.

1. Children under the age of seven years.

2. Children over the age of seven years but under the age of fourteen years, in the absence of clear proof that at the time of committing the act or neglect charged against them, they knew its wrongfulness.

3. Idiots.

4. Lunatics, insane persons and all persons of unsound mind, including persons temporarily or partially deprived of reason, upon proof that at the time of committing the act charged against them they were incapable of knowing its wrongfulness.

5. Persons who commit an act or make an omission, otherwise criminal or punishable, through misfortune or by accident, or under an ignorance or mistake of fact, which disproves any criminal intent. But ignorance of the law does not excuse from punishment for its violation.

6. Persons who commit an act or make an omission, otherwise criminal or punishable, without being conscious thereof.

7. Persons who commit an act or make an omission, otherwise criminal or punishable, while under involuntary subjection to the power of superiors.

No act committed by a person while in a state of voluntary intoxication, shall be deemed less criminal by reason of his having been in such condition. But whenever the actual existence of any particular purpose, motive or intent, is a necessary element to constitute any particular species or degree of crime, the jury may take into consideration the fact that the accused was intoxicated at the time, in determining the purpose, motive or intent, with which he committed the act.

- § 18. Pen. C. § 6816. Morbid propensity, no defense. A morbid propensity to commit prohibited acts, existing in the mind of a person who is not shown to have been incapable of knowing the wrongfulness of such acts, forms no defense to a prosecution therefor.
- § 19. Pen. C. § 6817. Acquitted for insanity. Court may commit. When a jury has returned a verdict acquitting a defendant upon the ground of insanity, the court may thereupon, if the defendant is in custody, and it deems his discharge dangerous to the public safety, order him to be committed to the state hospital for the insane, or to the care of such person or persons as the court may direct till he becomes sane.
- § 20. Pen. C. § 6818. Superior power exonerates. Duress. Coverture. The involuntary subjection to the power of a superior which exonerates a person charged with a criminal act or omission from punishment therefor, arises either from:
1. Duress; or,
 2. Coverture.
21. Pen. C. § 6819. What superior power excuses. The duress which excuses a person from punishment who has committed a prohibited act or omission must be an actual compulsion by use of force or fear.
- § 22. Pen. C. § 6820. Superior power inferred. Exceptions. A subjection sufficient to excuse from punishment may be inferred in favor of a wife, from the fact of coverture, whenever she committed the act charged in the presence and with the assent of her husband, except when such act is a participation in:
1. Treason.
 2. Murder.
 3. Manslaughter.
 4. Maiming.
 5. An attempt to kill.
 6. Rape.
 7. Abduction.
 8. Abuse of children.
 9. Seduction.
 10. Abortion, either upon herself or another female.
 11. Concealing the death of an infant, whether her own or that of another.
 12. Fraudulently producing a false child, whether as her own or that of another.
 13. Bigamy.
 14. Incest.
 15. The crime against nature or sodomy.
 16. Indecent exposure.
 17. Obscene exhibitions of books and prints.
 18. Keeping a bawdy or other disorderly house.
 19. Misplacing a railway switch; or,
 20. Obstructing a railway track.
- § 23. Pen. C. § 6821. Duress. When not inferred. In case of the crimes enumerated in the last section, the wife is not excused from punishment by reason of her subjection to the power of her husband, unless the facts proved show a case of duress as defined in section 6819.
- § 24. Pen. C. § 6822. Inference from coverture, may be rebutted. The inference of subjection arising from the fact of coverture may be rebutted by any facts showing that in committing the act charged the wife acted freely.

§ 6823. Public ministers exempt. Embassadors and other public ministers from foreign governments accredited to the president or the government of the United States, and recognized by it according to the laws of the United States, with their secretaries, messengers, families and servants are not liable to punishment in this state. § 25, Pen. C. am'd.

CHAPTER 3.

PARTIES TO CRIME.

§ 6824. Parties to crime classified. The parties to crime are classified as: § 26, Pen. C.

1. Principals; and,
2. Accessories.

§ 6825. Principals, who are. All persons concerned in the commission of a crime, whether it is a felony or a misdemeanor, and whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense, or aid and abet in its commission, or not being present, have advised and encouraged its commission, and all persons counseling, advising or encouraging children under the age of fourteen years, lunatics or idiots, to commit any crime, or who by fraud, contrivance or force, occasion the drunkenness of another for the purpose of causing him to commit any crime, or who by threats, menaces, command or coercion, compel another to commit any crime, are principals in any crime so committed. § 27, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6826. Accessories, who are. All persons who, after the commission of any felony, conceal or aid the offender, with knowledge that he has committed a felony, and with intent that he may avoid or escape from arrest, trial, conviction or punishment, are accessories. § 28, Pen. C.

§ 6827. Misdemeanors. No accessories. In misdemeanor there are no accessories. § 29, Pen. C.

§ 6828. Accessories, how punished. Except in cases when a different punishment is prescribed by law, an accessory to a felony is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. § 30, Pen. C. am'd.

CHAPTER 4.

CRIMES AGAINST RELIGION AND CONSCIENCE.

- § 31. Pen. C. § 6829. Blasphemy defined. Blasphemy consists in wantonly uttering or publishing words, casting contumelious reproach or profane ridicule upon God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Ghost, the holy scriptures, or the christian religion.
- § 32. Pen. C. § 6830. Serious discussion not blasphemy. If it appears beyond reasonable doubt that the words complained of were used in the course of serious discussion, and with intent to make known or recommend opinions entertained by the accused, such words are not blasphemy.
- § 33. Pen. C. § 6831. Misdemeanor. Blasphemy is a misdemeanor.
- § 34. Pen. C. § 6832. Profane swearing defined. Profane swearing consists in any use of the name of God, or Jesus Christ, or the Holy Ghost, either in imprecating divine vengeance upon the utterer or any other person, or in light, trifling or irreverent speech.
- § 35. Pen. C. § 6833. Punishment of. Every person guilty of profane swearing is punishable by a fine of one dollar for each offense.
- § 36. Pen. C. § 6834. Summary conviction for. Whenever any profane swearing is committed in the presence and hearing of any justice of the peace or other magistrate, while holding a court, or under any other circumstances such as in the opinion of the magistrate amount to a gross violation of public decency, such magistrate may, in his discretion, immediately convict the offender, without any other proof.
- § 37. Pen. C. § 6835. Penalties, how collected. Commitment for. If the offender does not forthwith pay the penalties incurred, with the costs, or give security for their payment within six days, he shall be committed by warrant to the county jail for every offense, or for any number of offenses whereof he was convicted at one and the same time, for not less than one nor more than three days; there to be confined in a room separate from all other prisoners.
- § 1 c. 87, 1883.
am'd. § 6836. Obscene language. Public place. Any person who shall utter or speak any obscene or lascivious language or words, in any public place, or in the presence of females, or of children under ten years of age, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of this state, or before a county court exercising increased jurisdiction, as provided in section 111 of the constitution of this state, shall be liable to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.
- § 38. Pen. C. § 6837. First day of week. Acts prohibited. The first day of the week being by general consent set apart for rest and religious uses, the law prohibits the doing on that day of certain acts hereinafter specified.
- § 39. Pen. C. § 6838. Sabbath breaking defined. Any violation of the foregoing prohibition is Sabbath breaking.
- § 40. Pen. C. § 6839. Day defined. Under the term "day," as employed in the phrase "first day of the week," in the seven sections following, is included all the time from midnight to midnight.
- § 41. Pen. C.
am'd. § 6840. Acts of Sabbath breaking enumerated. The following are the acts forbidden to be done on the first day of the week, the doing of any of which is Sabbath breaking:

1. Servile labor.
2. Public sports.
3. Trades, manufactures and mechanical employments.
4. Public traffic.
5. Serving process.

§ 6842. Defense, other day observed. It is a sufficient defense in proceedings for servile labor on the first day of the week, to show that the accused uniformly keeps another day of the week as holy time, and does not labor upon that day, and that the labor complained of was done in such manner as not to interrupt or disturb other persons in observing the first day of the week as holy time. § 44, Pen. C.

§ 6845. Public traffic prohibited. All manner of public selling, or offering or exposing for sale publicly, of any commodities upon the first day of the week, is prohibited, except that meats, milk and fish may be sold at any time before nine o'clock in the morning, and except that food may be sold to be eaten upon the premises where sold, and drugs and medicines and surgical appliances may be sold at any time of the day. § 47, Pen. C.

§ 6846. Serving process prohibited. All service of legal process of any description whatever, upon the first day of the week, is prohibited, except in cases of breach of the peace or apprehended breach of the peace, or when sued out for the apprehension of a person charged with crime, or except when such service shall be specially authorized by law. § 48, Pen. C.

§ 6847. Sabbath breaking, how punished. Every person guilty of Sabbath breaking is punishable by a fine of one dollar for each offense. § 49, Pen. C.

§ 6848. Fines, how collected. No exemption. The fines prescribed in this chapter for profane swearing and for Sabbath breaking, may be collected in the manner prescribed by law, for the collection of debts; but no property shall be exempt from execution which has been taken to satisfy any such fines and costs. § 50, Pen. C.

§ 6849. Maliciously serving process. Whoever maliciously procures any process in a civil action to be served on Saturday upon any person who keeps Saturday as holy time, and does not labor on that day, or serves upon him any process returnable on that day, or maliciously procures any civil action to which such person is a party to be adjourned to that day for trial, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 51, Pen. C.

§ 6850. Compelling form of belief. Any willful attempt, by means of threats or violence, to compel any person to adopt, practice or profess any particular form of religious belief, is a misdemeanor. § 52, Pen. C.

§ 6851. Preventing religious act. Every person who willfully prevents, by threats or violence, another person from performing any lawful act enjoined upon or recommended to such person by the religion which he professes, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 53, Pen. C.

§ 54, Pen. C.

§ 6852. Disturbing religious meeting. Every person who willfully disturbs, interrupts or disquiets any assemblage of people met for religious worship, by any of the acts or things hereinafter enumerated, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 55, Pen. C.

§ 6853. Acts deemed to be, enumerated. The following are the acts deemed to constitute disturbance of a religious meeting:

1. Uttering any profane discourse, committing any rude or indecent act, or making any unnecessary noise, either within the place where such meeting is held or so near it as to disturb the order and solemnity of the meeting.

2. Exposing to sale or gift any ardent or distilled liquors, or keeping open any huckster shop within one mile of the place where any religious society or assembly shall be actually convened for religious worship, and in any other place than such as shall have been duly licensed and in which the person accused shall have actually resided or carried on business.

3. Exhibiting, within the like distance, any shows or plays without a license by the proper authority.

4. Engaging in, or aiding or promoting, within the like distance, any racing of animals or gaming of any description.

5. Obstructing in any manner, without authority of law, within the like distance, the free passage along any highway to the place of such meeting.

§ 6854. Time for prosecution limited. No prosecution for any of the offenses mentioned in this chapter shall be maintained unless commenced within thirty days next after the commission thereof.

CHAPTER 5.

CRIMES AGAINST THE ELECTIVE FRANCHISE.

§ 56, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 6855. Elector. Giving or receiving bribe. Every person, who, by force, threats, bribery or by offering to give or by giving a bribe to any elector, or by any corrupt means whatever, either directly or indirectly, attempts to influence or influences any such elector in giving his vote at any election; or who attempts to deter or deters him from giving his vote at such election, or attempts by any means whatever to awe, restrain, hinder or disturb any elector in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, or defrauds any elector at any such election by deceiving and causing such elector to vote for a different person for any office than he intended or desired to vote for, or who, being an inspector, member of the board of election, judge or poll clerk of any election, while acting as such or during the continuance of an election, induces or attempts to induce any elector, either by menaces, or reward or promises thereof, to vote differently from what such elector intended or desired to vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and not less than one hundred dollars and by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year and not less than three months.

§ 6856. Elector. Illegal influence. Every person offering, giving or loaning to another any money or other thing of value, to induce him to influence any elector to vote in a particular way or for any person at any such election, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. § 57, Pen. C.

§ 6857. Betting upon election, how punished. Every person who makes, offers or accepts any bet or wager upon the result of any election, or upon the success or failure of any person or candidate, or upon the number of votes to be cast either in the aggregate or for any particular candidate, or upon the vote to be cast by any particular person or persons, or upon the decision to be made by any inspector of election, board of election or any member thereof, or any canvasser, board of canvassers or other election officers, or any question arising in the course of an election, or upon any event whatever depending upon the conduct or result of an election or upon the conduct or decision of any officer of an election or board of such officers, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 58, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6858. Offers of office, how punished. Every person who, being a candidate at any election, offers or agrees to appoint or procure the appointment of any particular person or persons to office, as an inducement or consideration to any person to vote for, or to procure or aid in procuring the election of such candidate, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 59, Pen. C.

§ 6859. Communicating same. Every person who, not being a candidate, communicates any offer made in violation of the last section, to any person, with intent to induce him to vote for or to procure or aid in procuring the election of the candidate making the offer, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 60, Pen. C.

§ 6860. Contributing money for elections, how punished. Exceptions. Every person who, with intent to promote the election, either of himself or of any other person or candidate, either: § 61, Pen. C.

1. Furnishes, or engages to pay or deliver any money or property, for the purpose of procuring the attendance of voters at the polls, or for the purpose of compensating any person for procuring attendance of voters at the polls, except for the conveyance of voters who are sick, poor or infirm; or,

2. Furnishes, or engages to pay or deliver any money or property, for any purpose intended to promote the election of any candidate, except for the expenses of holding and conducting public meetings for the discussion of public questions, and of printing and circulating ballots, handbills and other papers, previous to such election, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6861. Defrauding elector in his vote. Every person who fraudulently alters the ballot of any elector or substitutes one ballot for another, or furnishes any elector with a ballot otherwise than as provided and authorized by law, or with a ballot containing more than the proper number of names, or who intentionally practices any fraud upon any elector to induce him to deposit a ballot as his vote and to have the same thrown out and not counted, or otherwise to defraud him of his vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 62, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6862. Obstructing elector. Every person who willfully and without lawful authority obstructs, hinders or delays any elector on his way to any poll where an election shall be held, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 63, Pen. C.

- § 64, Pen. C. § 6863. Double voting or offer. Every person who votes more than once at any election, or who offers to vote after having once voted, either in the same or in another election precinct or district, shall be punished by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year.
- § 65, Pen. C. § 6864. Unqualified voting. Every person knowing himself not to be a qualified voter, who votes or offers to vote at any election, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months.
- § 66, Pen. C. § 6865. Procuring unqualified vote. Every person who procures, aids, assists, counsels or advises another to give his vote, knowing that such person is disqualified, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, nor less than fifty dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year.
- § 67, Pen. C. § 6866. Advising unqualified voting. Every person who procures or counsels another to enter any town, ward or election precinct or district for the purpose of giving his vote at an election, knowing that such person is not entitled so to vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 68, Pen. C. § 6867. Voting in wrong precinct or district. Every person who, at any election, knowingly votes or offers to vote in any election precinct or district in which he does not reside, or in which he is not authorized by law to vote, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 741, Pen. C. § 6868. Voting unlawfully at town meeting. Every person who votes at any annual township meeting, in a township in which he does not reside, or who offers to vote at any annual township meeting after having voted at an annual township meeting held in another township within the same year, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 69, Pen. C. § 6869. Convicted felon. Denied vote. Every person who, having been convicted of any bribery or felony, thereafter offers to vote at any election without having been pardoned and restored to all the rights of a citizen, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 70, Pen. C. § 6870. Unauthorized registration, how punished. Every person who causes his name to be registered as that of an elector, upon any registry of voters authorized by law to be kept in any town, city or election precinct or district of this state, knowing that he is not a qualified voter within the territorial limits covered by such registry, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year.
- § 71, Pen. C. § 6871. Personating registered voter. Every person who, within any city, town or election precinct or district in this state in which a registry of qualified voters is by law authorized to be kept, falsely personates a registered voter, and in such personating offers to vote at any election, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year.
- § 72, Pen. C. § 6872. False statement, preventing registration. Every person who, at the time of requesting his name to be registered as that of a qualified voter, upon any registry of voters authorized by law to be kept in any city, town or election precinct or district of this state, or at the time of offering his vote at any election, knowingly makes any false statement or employs any false representation or false pretense or token, to procure his name to be registered or his vote to be received, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6873. Constructive false statements. A false statement, representation, or token, made or used in the presence and to the knowledge of a person requesting his name to be registered or offering his vote, is to be deemed made by himself, if it appears that it was made or used in support of his claim to be registered or to vote, that he knew it to be false and suffered it to pass uncontradicted. § 73, Pen. C.

§ 6874. Disturbance of public meeting. Every person who willfully disturbs or breaks up any public meeting of electors and others, lawfully being held for the purpose of considering public questions, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 74, Pen. C.

§ 6875. Preventing public meeting of electors. Every person who, by threats, intimidation or unlawful violence, willfully hinders or prevents electors from assembling in public meeting for the consideration of public questions, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 75, Pen. C.

§ 6877. Intimidating and bulldozing electors. Every person who willfully, by unlawful arrest, by force and violence or by threats or intimidation, prevents or endeavors to prevent an elector from freely giving his vote at any election, or employs either of such means to hinder him from voting, or to cause him to vote for any person or candidate, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and not less than fifty dollars. § 77, Pen. C.

§ 6878. Violence, threats, etc., of electors. Every person who procures or endeavors to procure the vote of any elector, or the influence of any person or other electors, at any election, for himself or for or against any candidate, by means of violence, threats of violence, or threats of withdrawing custom or dealings in business or trade, or enforcing the payment of debts, or bringing a suit or criminal prosecution, or any other threat of injury to be inflicted by him or by his means or procurement, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months. § 78, Pen. C.

§ 6880. Violence disturbing election. Every person who is guilty of any riotous conduct, or causes any disturbance or breach of the peace, or uses any disorderly violence or threats of violence, whereby any elector is impeded or hindered, or whereby the lawful proceedings of any inspector or judge of election or poll clerk or other officer of election or election officer, or board of election or canvasser at such election, in the discharge of his or their duty, are interfered with, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 80, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6881. Disobedience. Summary arrest therefor. Whenever, at an election, any person refuses to obey the lawful command of an inspector or judge of election, or of a board of election or other officer of election or election officer or board of canvassers, or by any disorderly conduct in his or their presence interrupts or disturbs his or their proceeding, he or they may make an order directing the sheriff or any constable of the county, or one or more special constables to be appointed by him or them, to take the person so offending into custody and detain him until the final canvass of the votes shall be completed. But such order shall not prohibit the person taken into custody from voting at such election.

§ 83, Pen. C. § 6883. Destroying ballots or boxes. Every person who willfully breaks or destroys, on the day of an election or before the canvass is completed, any ballot box used or intended to be used at such election, or defaces, injures, destroys or conceals any ballot which has been deposited in any ballot box at an election, and has not already been counted or canvassed, or any poll list used or intended to be used at such election, is guilty of a felony.

§ 31, c. 66, 1893, am'd. § 6884. False certificates. Suppressing certificate. Every person who falsely makes, or makes oath to or fraudulently destroys any certificate of nomination or any part thereof, or files or receives for filing any certificate of nomination, knowing the same or any part thereof to be falsely made, or suppresses any certificate of nomination which has been duly filed, or any part thereof, or forges or falsely makes the official indorsement on any ballot, or willfully neglects properly to indorse said ballot shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years.

§ 32, c. 66, 1893, am'd. § 6885. Destroying supplies, lists or cards. Every person who, during an election, willfully removes or destroys any of the supplies or other conveniences placed in the booths or compartments for the purpose of enabling the voter to prepare his ballot, or prior to or on the day of an election willfully defaces or destroys any list of candidates posted in accordance with the provisions of law, or any copy of the printed ticket so posted, or who, during an election, tears down or defaces the cards printed for the instruction of voters, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

§ 84, Pen. C. am'd. § 6886. False poll list. Every poll clerk or clerk of the poll at any election, who willfully keeps a false poll list, or who knowingly inserts in his poll list any false statement, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 85, Pen. C. am'd. § 6887. Misconduct of judges. Challenges. Every inspector or judge of an election, who willfully excludes any vote duly tendered, knowing that the person offering the same is lawfully entitled to vote at such election, or who willfully receives a vote from any person who has been duly challenged in relation to his right to vote at such election, without exacting from such person such oath or other proof of qualification as may be required by law, or who willfully omits to challenge any person offering to vote, whom he knows or suspects not to be duly entitled to vote, and who has not been challenged by any other person, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 86, Pen. C. am'd. § 6888. Falsely canvassing or certifying. Every inspector or judge of election, member of any board of election or of canvassers, poll clerk, messenger or other officer authorized to take part in or perform any duty in relation to any canvass or official statement of votes cast at any election, who willfully makes any false canvass of such votes, or makes, signs, publishes or delivers any false returns of such election, knowing the same to be false, or willfully defaces, destroys or conceals any statement or certificate intrusted to his care, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6889. Bribing election officers. Every person who gives or offers a bribe to any inspector, judge, clerk, canvasser or other officer of any election, or of any board of election, as a consideration for some act done or omitted to be done, contrary to his official duty in relation to such election, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months. § 57, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6890. Penalty, disfranchised. Any person guilty of either of the offenses mentioned in sections 6855 and 6856 shall thereafter be forever disfranchised and rendered ineligible to any office of trust or profit within the state, including that of representative to congress. § 58, Pen. C.

§ 6891. Witness not excused, not punished. No person shall be excused from testifying upon a prosecution for an offense mentioned in section 6856 upon the ground that his statement might tend to criminate himself, but any person so testifying against the other party shall thereafter be exempt from punishment for such offense mentioned in said section. § 59, Pen. C.

§ 6892. Election defined. The word "election," as used in this chapter, designates only elections had within this state for the purpose of enabling electors, as such, to choose some public officer or officers under the laws of this state, or of the United States. § 60, Pen. C.

§ 6893. Irregularities no defense. Irregularities or defects in the mode of noticing, convening, holding or conducting an election authorized by law, form no defense to a prosecution for a violation of the provisions of this chapter. § 61, Pen. C.

§ 6894. Rights. Lawful interference. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the punishment of any person who, by authority of law, may interfere to prevent or regulate an election which has been unlawfully noticed or convened, or is being or is about to be unlawfully conducted. § 62, Pen. C.

§ 6896. Good faith. Given in evidence. Upon any prosecution for procuring, offering or casting an illegal vote, the accused may give in evidence any facts tending to show that he honestly believed upon good reason that the vote complained of was a lawful one; and the jury may take such facts into consideration in determining whether the acts complained of were knowingly done or not. § 64, Pen. C.

§ 6897. Selling liquors on election day. Every person who sells, gives away or disposes of any intoxicating liquors as a beverage, on the day of any general election or special or local election, in the town, city or county where held, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed twenty days, and by fine not exceeding one hundred and not less than fifty dollars. § 65, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6898. Unlawful voting at caucus. Every person who is not a qualified elector of the ward or election precinct in which any caucus or primary meeting is held and having for its object either immedi- § 1, c. 28, 1887. am'd.

ately or ultimately, the nomination or selection of any delegate, or of any candidate for a public office to be voted for at any election in this state, who in any manner votes upon any question or issue pending before or submitted to such caucus or primary meeting, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

am'd.

§ 6899. Political convention, who may use proxy at. Every person who, at a political convention or a convention of a political character, called, convened or held within this state, uses or attempts to use the proxy of a delegate sent or elected thereto from a political subdivision designated or recognized as the unit of representation therein, unless he is an actual resident of such political subdivision, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by a fine of not less than twenty and not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days and not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

CHAPTER 6.

CRIMES BY AND AGAINST THE EXECUTIVE POWER OF THE STATE.

§ 96, Pen. C.

§ 6900. Exercising office without having qualified. Every person who executes any of the functions of a public office without having taken and duly filed the required oath of office, or without having executed and duly filed the required security, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor, he forfeits his right to the office.

§ 97, Pen. C.

§ 6901. Acts of officer de facto. The last section shall not be construed to affect the validity of acts done by a person exercising the functions of a public office in fact, when other persons than himself are interested in maintaining the validity of such acts.

§ 98, Pen. C.

§ 6902. Usurping or falsely assuming office. Every person who shall falsely assume or pretend to be any state, county or township officer, or who shall knowingly take upon himself to act as such, or to require any person to act as such, or assist him in any matter pertaining to such office, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail, not more than two years nor less than three months, and by fine not exceeding five hundred nor less than fifty dollars.

§ 99, Pen. C.

§ 6903. Giving or offering bribes. Every person who gives or offers any bribe to an executive officer of this state, with intent to influence him in respect to any act, decision, vote, opinion or other proceedings of such officer, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both.

§ 100, Pen. C.

§ 6904. Asking or receiving bribes. Every executive officer or person elected or appointed to an executive office who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion or action upon any matter then pending or which may by law be brought before him in his official capacity, shall be influenced thereby, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both; and in addition thereto, forfeits his office and is forever disqualified from holding any public office under this state.

§ 6905. Preventing officer's duty. Every person who attempts, by means of any threat or violence, to deter or prevent any executive officer from performing any duty imposed upon such officer by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 101. Pen. C.

§ 6906. Resisting officer. Every person who knowingly resists, by the use of force or violence, any executive officer in the performance of his duty, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 102. Pen. C.

§ 6907. Taking unlawful fees. Every executive officer who asks or receives any emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise of any emolument, gratuity or reward, excepting such as may be authorized by law, for doing any official act, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 103. Pen. C.

§ 6908. Omitting or delaying official acts for reward. Every executive officer who asks or receives any emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise of any emolument, gratuity or reward, for omitting or deferring the performance of any official duty, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 104. Pen. C.

§ 6909. Fees for services not rendered. Advance fees. Every executive officer who asks or receives any fee or compensation for any official service which has not been actually rendered, except in cases of charges for prospective costs, or of fees demandable in advance in the cases allowed by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 105. Pen. C.

§ 6910. Taking unlawful reward. Fugitives from justice. Every officer of this state who asks or receives any compensation, fee or reward of any kind, for any service rendered or expense incurred in procuring from the governor of this state a demand upon the executive authority of a state or territory of the United States, for the surrender of a fugitive from justice, or of any service rendered or expense incurred in procuring the surrender of such fugitive, or of conveying him to this state or for detaining him therein, except upon an employment by the governor of this state, and upon an account duly audited and paid out of the state treasury, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 106. Pen. C.

§ 6911. Buying appointments to office. Every person who gives or agrees or offers to give any gratuity or reward in consideration that himself or any other person shall be appointed to any public office, or shall be permitted to, or to exercise, perform or discharge the prerogatives or duties of any office, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or both. § 107. Pen. C.

county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, or by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or both.

§ 109, Pen. C.

§ 6913. Rewards for appointment or deputation. Every public officer who, for any gratuity or reward, appoints another person to a public office, or permits another person to exercise, perform or discharge any of the prerogatives or duties of his office, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months nor more than two years, and by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; and in addition thereto he forfeits his office.

§ 110, Pen. C.

§ 6914. Unlawful appointments void. Acts valid. Every grant or deputation made contrary to the provisions of the two preceding sections is void; but official acts done before a conviction for any offense prohibited by those sections, shall not be deemed invalid in consequence of the invalidity of such grant or deputation.

§ 111, Pen. C.

§ 6915. Exercising functions after term. Every person who having been an executive officer, willfully exercises any of the functions of his office after his term of office has expired and a successor has been duly elected or appointed, and has qualified in his place, and he has notice thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 112, Pen. C.

§ 6916. Refusal to surrender seal or books. Every person who having been an executive officer of this state, wrongfully refuses to surrender the official seal or any of the books and papers appertaining to his office, to his successor, who has been duly elected or appointed, and has duly qualified, and has demanded the surrender of the books and papers of such office, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 113, Pen. C.

§ 6917. Administrative officers included. The various provisions of this chapter which relate to executive officers apply in relation to administrative officers in the same manner as if administrative and executive officers were both mentioned together.

§ 81, Const.

§ 6918. Governor receiving bribes. Menacing. Appointing to or removing from office. Every person being governor of this state, who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe, upon any understanding that his official opinion, judgment or action shall be influenced thereby, or who gives or offers or promises his official influence, in consideration or upon condition that any member of the legislative assembly, or either house thereof, shall give his official vote or influence on any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity; or who menaces any member of the legislative assembly or either house thereof, by the threatened use of his veto power; or who offers or promises any member of the legislative assembly or either house thereof, that he, the said governor, will nominate for appointment or appoint any particular person or persons to any office created, or thereafter to be created, in consideration or upon condition that any such member shall give his official vote or influence on any matter pending or thereafter to be introduced into either house of the legislative assembly; or who threatens any member of the legislative assembly or either house thereof, that he, the said governor, will remove any person or persons from any office or position held by such person or persons under the laws of this state, with intent in any manner to influence the action of said member, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both, and upon conviction of any or either of the offenses mentioned in this section shall forfeit any and all right to hold any office of trust or honor in this state.

CHAPTER 7.

CRIMES AGAINST THE LEGISLATIVE POWER.

§ 6919. Preventing meeting of legislative assembly. § 114, Pen. C.
Every person who willfully and by force or fraud prevents the legis- am'd.
lative assembly of this state, or either of the houses composing it, or any of the members thereof, from meeting or organizing, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years, or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than two thousand dollars, or both.

§ 6920. Disturbing the legislative assembly. Every per- § 115, Pen. C.
son who willfully disturbs the legislative assembly of this state, or am'd.
either of the houses composing it, while in session, or who commits any disorderly conduct in the immediate view and presence of either house of the legislative assembly, tending to interrupt its proceedings or impair the respect due to its authority, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6921. Compelling adjournment. Every person who will- § 116, Pen. C. fully and by force or fraud compels or attempts to compel the legislative assembly of this state or either of the houses composing it, to adjourn or disperse, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years, or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars, or both.

§ 6922. Intimidating members. Every person who willfully, § 117, Pen. C. by intimidation or otherwise, prevents any member of the legislative assembly of this state from attending any session of the house of which he is a member, or any committee thereof, or from giving his vote upon any question which may come before such house, or from performing any other official act, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6923. Compelling either house to perform or omit act. § 118, Pen. C.
Every person who willfully compels or attempts to compel either of the houses composing the legislative assembly of this state to pass, amend or reject any bill or resolution, or to grant or refuse any petition, or to perform or omit to perform any other official act, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years, or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars, or both.

§ 6924. Altering draft of bill. Every person who fraudu- § 119, Pen. C. lently alters the draft of any bill or resolution which has been presented to either of the houses composing the legislative assembly, to be passed or adopted, with intent to procure it to be passed or adopted by either house, or certified by the presiding officer of either house, in language different from that intended by such house, is guilty of a felony.

§ 120, Pen. C.

§ 6925. Altering engrossed copy. Every person who fraudulently alters the engrossed copy or enrollment of any bill which has been passed by the legislative assembly of this state, with intent to procure it to be approved by the governor or certified by the secretary of state, or printed or published by the printer of the statutes in language different from that in which it was passed by the legislative assembly, is guilty of a felony.

§ 121, Pen. C.

§ 6926. Giving or offering bribes to members. Every person who gives or offers to give a bribe to any member of the legislative assembly, or attempts directly or indirectly, by menace, deceit, suppression of truth or any other corrupt means, to influence a member in giving or withholding his vote, or in not attending the house of which he is a member, or any committee thereof, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both.

§ 122, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 6927. Members receiving bribes. Every member of either of the houses composing the legislative assembly of this state, who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe upon any understanding that his official vote, opinion, influence, judgment or action shall be influenced thereby, or shall be given in any manner or upon any particular side of any question or matter upon which he may be required to act in his official capacity, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both.

§ 6928. Members. Solicitation of bribery defined. Punishment. Every person elected to either house of the legislative assembly, who shall offer or promise to give his official vote or influence, in favor of or against any measure or proposition pending, or proposed to be introduced into the legislative assembly, or either house thereof, in consideration or upon condition that any other person elected to the same legislative assembly or either house thereof, will give or will promise or assent to give, his vote or influence in favor of, or against any other measure or proposition pending, or proposed to be introduced into such legislative assembly or house, shall be deemed guilty of solicitation of bribery and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both, and shall not thereafter be eligible to the legislative assembly or either house thereof.

§ 40, Const.

§ 6929. Members. Vote in consideration of vote. Bribery. Every member of the legislative assembly or either house thereof, who shall give his vote or influence for or against any measure or proposition pending or proposed to be introduced into such legislative assembly or either house thereof, or offer or promise or assent so to do, upon condition that any other member will give, promise or assent to give his vote or influence in favor of or against any other such measure or proposition, pending or proposed to be introduced into such legislative assembly or house, or in consideration that any other member has given his vote or influence for or against any other measure or proposition in such legislative assembly or house, shall be deemed guilty of bribery, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both, and shall not thereafter be eligible to the legislative assembly or either house thereof.

Every person elected to either house of the legislative assembly who gives, or offers or promises to give his official vote or influence in favor of or against any measure or proposition pending or proposed to be introduced into, or that has already passed or been passed by either house of the legislative assembly, in consideration or upon condition that any person, being governor of this state, shall approve or disapprove, veto or sign or agree to approve or disapprove, veto or sign any such measure or proposition, or any measure, proposition, bill or act or proposed law that has already passed or been passed by said legislative assembly, or either house thereof, or in consideration or upon condition that any person, being or acting governor of this state, shall nominate for appointment or appoint or remove any person or persons to or from any office or position under the laws of this state, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both, and upon conviction of any or either of the offenses mentioned in this section, shall forfeit any and all right to hold or exercise any office of trust or honor in this state.

Every person elected to the senate of this state who shall offer or agree to give his official vote or influence for or against the confirmation of any person or persons nominated or to be nominated for appointment or appointed or to be appointed to any office in this state, in consideration or upon condition that the person being governor of this state shall nominate for appointment or appoint or refuse to appoint or nominate for appointment any person or persons to or for any office or position in this state, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both, and upon conviction of any or either of the offenses mentioned in this section shall forfeit any and all right to hold or exercise any office of trust or honor in this state.

being duly summoned to attend as a witness before either house of the legislative assembly, or any committee thereof authorized to summon witnesses, refuses or neglects without lawful excuse to attend pursuant to such summons, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6933. Refusing to testify. Every person who, being present § 124, Pen. C.
before either house of the legislative assembly, or any committee thereof authorized to summon witnesses, willfully refuses to be sworn or affirmed, or to answer any material and proper question, or to produce upon reasonable notice any material and proper books, papers or documents in his possession or under his control, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

conviction of a member of the legislative assembly of either of the crimes defined in this chapter, involves as a consequence, in addition to the punishment prescribed by this code, a forfeiture of his office, and disqualifies him from ever afterwards holding any office under this state.

CHAPTER 8.

CRIMES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE, BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION.

§ 126, Pen. C. § 6935. Bribes to judges, jurors, referees, etc. Every person who gives or offers to give a bribe to any judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator, umpire or assessor, or to any person who may be authorized by law to hear or determine any question or controversy, with intent to influence his vote, opinion or decision upon any matter or question which is or may be brought before him for decision, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both.

§ 127, Pen. C. § 6936. Judicial officers receiving bribes. Every judicial officer of this state who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion or decision upon any matter or question which is or may be brought before him for decision, shall be thereby influenced, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both; and in addition thereto forfeits his office and is forever disqualified from holding any public office under this state.

§ 128, Pen. C. § 6937. Jurors, referees and others receiving bribes. Every juror, referee, arbitrator, umpire or assessor, and every person authorized by law to hear or determine any question or controversy, who asks, receives or agrees to receive any bribe upon any agreement or understanding that his vote, opinion or decision upon any matter or question which is or may be brought before him for decision, shall be thereby influenced, is guilty of felony.

§ 129, Pen. C. § 6938. Misconduct by jurors and others. Every juror or person drawn or summoned as a juror or chosen arbitrator or umpire, or appointed referee, who, either:

1. Makes any promise or agreement to give a verdict for or against any party; or,

2. Willfully permits any communication to be made to him, or receives any book, paper, instrument or information relative to any cause pending before him, except according to the regular course of proceeding upon the trial of such cause,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 130, Pen. C. § 6939. Judicial officers accepting gifts. Every judicial officer, juror, referee, arbitrator or umpire, who accepts any gift from any person, knowing him to be a party in interest or the attorney or counsel of any party in interest to any action or proceeding then pending or about to be brought before him, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 131, Pen. C. § 6940. Gift defined. The word "gift," in the foregoing section shall not be taken to include property received by inheritance, by will or by gift in view of death.

§ 132, Pen. C. § 6941. Attempts to influence jurors and others. Every person who attempts to influence a juror or any person summoned or drawn as a juror, or chosen an arbitrator or appointed a referee, in respect to his verdict or decision of any cause or matter pending, or about to be brought before him, either:

1. By means of any communication, oral or written, had with him except in the regular course of proceedings upon the trial of the cause;

2. By means of any book, paper or instrument exhibited otherwise than in the regular course of proceedings upon the trial of the cause;

3. By means of any threat or intimidation;

4. By means of any assurance or promise of any pecuniary or other advantage; or,

5. By publishing any statement, argument or observation relating to the cause,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 133, Pen. C.

§ 6942. Drawing jurors fraudulently. Every person authorized by law to assist at the drawing of any jurors to attend any court, who willfully puts or consents to the putting upon any list of jurors as having been drawn, any name which shall not have been drawn for that purpose in the manner prescribed by law; or, who omits to place on such list any name that shall have been drawn in the manner prescribed by law; or, who signs or certifies any list of jurors as having been drawn which was not drawn according to law; or, who is guilty of any other unfair, partial or improper conduct in the drawing of any such list of jurors, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 134, Pen. C.

§ 6943. Misconduct of officer in charge of jury. Every officer to whose charge any jury is committed by any court or magistrate, who negligently or willfully permits them or any of them, either:

1. To receive any communication from any person;

2. To make any communication to any person;

3. To obtain or receive any book or paper or refreshment; or,

4. To leave the jury room without the leave of such court or magistrate first obtained,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 9.

RESCUES.

§ 6944. Rescuing persons from custody. Every person who by force or fraud rescues or attempts to rescue, or aids another person in rescuing or in attempting to rescue any prisoner from any officer or other person having him in lawful custody, is punishable as follows:

§ 135, Pen. C.

1. If such prisoner was in custody upon a charge or conviction of felony, by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than ten years.

2. If such prisoner was in custody otherwise than upon a charge or conviction of felony, by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 136, Pen. C. § 6945. Injuring. Retaking goods from custody. Every person who willfully injures or destroys, takes or attempts to take, or assists any other person in taking or attempting to take from the custody of any officer or person, any personal property which such officer or person has in charge under any process of law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 10.

ESCAPES AND AIDING THEREIN.

§ 137, Pen. C.
am'd. § 6946. Persons in custody escaping. Rearrest. Imprisonment. Every person, in custody under sentence of imprisonment for any crime, who escapes from custody, may be recaptured and imprisoned for a term equal to that portion of his original term of imprisonment which remained unexpired upon the day of his escape.

§§ 138, 140,
Pen. C.
am'd. § 6947. Escaping from custody. Punishment. Every person who, being confined in the penitentiary or other prison, or being in the lawful custody of an officer or other person, by force or fraud escapes from such prison or custody, is guilty of a felony if such custody is upon a charge, arrest, commitment or conviction for a felony; and of a misdemeanor, if such custody or confinement is upon a charge, arrest, commitment or conviction for a misdemeanor.

§ 139, Pen. C. § 6948. Attempts to escape from penitentiary. Every person confined in the penitentiary for a term less than for life, who attempts by force or fraud, although unsuccessfully, to escape from such prison, is guilty of a felony.

§ 141, Pen. C. § 6949. Attempts to escape from other prisons. Every person confined in any prison other than the penitentiary, who attempts by force or fraud, although unsuccessfully, to escape therefrom, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year.

§ 142, Pen. C.
am'd. § 6950. Assisting person in prison to escape. Every person who willfully, by any means whatever, assists any person confined in any prison to escape therefrom, is punishable as follows:

1. If the person assisted was held or confined upon a charge, arrest, commitment or conviction of felony, by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

2. If the person assisted was held or confined otherwise than upon a charge, arrest, commitment or conviction of felony, by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or both.

am'd. § 6951. Aiding escape by information, disguise, weapon. Every person who, with intent to effect or facilitate the escape of a prisoner, whether the escape is effected or attempted or not, enters a prison, or conveys to a prisoner any information, or sends into a prison any disguise, instrument, weapon or other thing, is punishable as follows:

1. If such prisoner is held or confined upon a charge, arrest, commitment or conviction for felony, by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

2. If such prisoner is held or confined otherwise than upon a charge, arrest, commitment or conviction for felony, by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine of five hundred dollars.

§ 6952. Assisting escape from officer. Every person who aids or assists a prisoner in escaping or attempting to escape from the lawful custody of a sheriff or other officer or person, is guilty of a felony, if the prisoner is held under arrest, commitment or conviction for a felony, or upon a charge thereof; and of a misdemeanor, if the prisoner is held under arrest, commitment or conviction for a misdemeanor, or upon a charge thereof. § 145. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6953. Officer permitting escape. Every sheriff or other officer or person, who allows a prisoner, lawfully in his custody, in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, or in any prison under his charge or control, to escape or go at large, except as permitted by law, or connives at or assists such escape, or omits an act or duty whereby such escape is occasioned or contributed to or assisted, is:

1. If he corruptly and willfully allows, connives at or assists the escape, guilty of a felony.

2. In any other case, he is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6954. Punishment for permitting escape. Every officer who is convicted of the offense specified in the first subdivision of the last section, forfeits his office, and is forever disqualified to hold any office or place of trust, honor or profit under the laws of this state.

§ 6955. Concealing escaped prisoner. Every person who knowingly or willfully conceals or harbors for the purpose of concealment, a person who has escaped or is escaping from custody, is guilty of a felony if the prisoner is held upon a charge or conviction of felony, and of a misdemeanor if the person is held upon a charge or conviction of misdemeanor. § 144. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 6956. Prison defined. The term "prison," in this chapter includes the penitentiary, county jails, and every place designated by law for the keeping of persons held in custody under process of law or under any lawful arrest. § 146. Pen. C.

§ 6957. Prisoner defined. The term "prisoner," in this chapter includes every person held in custody under process of law issued from a court of competent jurisdiction, whether civil or criminal, or under any lawful arrest. § 147. Pen. C.

§ 6958. Escaping from penitentiary. Prosecution. Expense, how paid. Whenever a prosecution takes place, of any person for any crime or public offense committed by, or charged against him while such person was, or is under sentence to be or is confined in the penitentiary, the clerk of the district court, where such trial is had, shall make out a detailed statement of all the costs incurred by the county for the trial of such person, including his preliminary examination, and for keeping and guarding him, and the judge of said court shall certify that the same is correct. The said clerk shall thereupon transmit said certified statement to the state auditor, and said state auditor shall audit said expenses and statement and draw his warrant in favor of the treasurer of the county for the amount allowed, to be paid out of the state treasury.

CHAPTER 11.

FORGING, STEALING, MUTILATING AND FALSIFYING JUDICIAL AND PUBLIC RECORDS.

- § 148, Pen. C. § 6959. Larceny. Destruction of public records by officer. Every clerk, register or other officer having the custody of any record, map or book, or of any paper or proceeding of any court of justice, filed or deposited in any public office, who is guilty of stealing, willfully destroying, mutilating, defacing, altering or falsifying, or fraudulently removing or secreting such record, map, book, paper or proceeding, or who permits any other person so to do, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, and in addition thereto forfeits his office.
- § 149, Pen. C. § 6960. Same by others. Every person not an officer such as is mentioned in the last section, who is guilty of any of the acts specified in that section, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
- § 150, Pen. C. § 6961. Offering forged or false instruments for record. Every person who knowingly procures or offers any false or forged instrument to be filed, registered or recorded in any public office within this state, which instrument, if genuine, might be filed or registered or recorded under any law of this state, or of the United States, is guilty of felony.

CHAPTER 12.

PERJURY AND SUBORNATION OF PERJURY.

- § 151, Pen. C. § 6962. Perjury. Every person who, having taken an oath that he will testify, declare, depose or certify truly before any competent tribunal, officer or person, in any of the cases in which such an oath may by law be administered, willfully and contrary to such oath, states any material matter which he knows to be false, is guilty of perjury.
- § 152, Pen. C. § 6963. Oath defined. The term "oath," as used in the last section, includes an affirmation, and every other mode of attesting the truth of that which is stated, which is authorized by law.
- § 153, Pen. C. § 6964. Oath of office excepted. So much of an oath of office as relates to the future performance of official duties is not such an oath as is intended by the preceding sections of this chapter.
- § 154, Pen. C. § 6965. Irregularities no defense. It is no defense to a prosecution for perjury that the oath was administered or taken in an irregular manner.

§ 6966. Incompetency no defense. It is no defense to a § 155, Pen. C. prosecution for perjury that the accused was not competent to give the testimony, deposition or certificate of which falsehood is alleged.
It is sufficient that he actually was required to give such testimony or made such deposition or certificate.

§ 6967. Materiality not necessary. It is no defense to a § 156, Pen. C.
prosecution for perjury that the accused did not know the materiality of the false statement made by him; or that it did not in fact affect the proceeding in or for which it was made. It is sufficient that it was material, and might have been used to affect such proceeding.

§ 6968. When deposition complete. The making of a depo- § 157, Pen. C. sition or certificate is deemed to be complete, within the provisions of this chapter, from the time when it is delivered by the accused to any other person with intent that it be uttered or published as true.

§ 6969. False statement. An unqualified statement of that § 158, Pen. C. which one does not know to be true is equivalent to a statement of that which one knows to be false.

§ 6970. False list under oath, perjury. Every person who § 13, c. 28, willfully makes or gives under oath or affirmation a false list of his taxable property, or a false list of the taxable property in his use or possession or under his control and required by law to be listed by him, is guilty of perjury. Pol. C.
am'd.

§ 6971. Perjury, how punished. Perjury is punishable by § 159, Pen. C. imprisonment in the penitentiary as follows: am'd.

1. When committed on the trial of an information or indictment for felony, by imprisonment not less than ten years.

2. When committed on any other trial or proceeding in a court of justice, by imprisonment for not less than one and not more than ten years.

3. In all other cases by imprisonment not less than one and not more than five years.

§ 6972. Summary committal of witness for perjury. § 160, Pen. C.
Whenever it appears probable to any court of record that any person who has testified in any action or proceeding in such court has committed perjury, such court may immediately commit such person, by an order or process for that purpose, to prison, or take an undertaking with sureties for his appearing and answering to an information or indictment for perjury. am'd.

§ 6973. Witness to perjury bound over to appear. Such § 161, Pen. C. court shall thereupon bind over the witnesses to establish such perjury to appear at the proper court to testify upon the trial in case an information or an indictment is filed or found for such perjury, and shall also cause immediate notice of such commitment or undertaking with the names of the witnesses so bound over, to be given to the state's attorney of the county. am'd.

§ 6974. Papers. Documents retained. If, upon the hear- § 162, Pen. C.
ing of such action or proceeding in which such perjury has probably been committed, any papers or documents produced by either party shall be deemed necessary to be used on the prosecution for such perjury, the court may by order detain such papers or documents from the party producing them, and direct them to be delivered to the state's attorney.

§ 6975. Subornation of perjury defined. Every person who § 163, Pen. C. willfully procures another person to commit any perjury, is guilty of subornation of perjury.

- § 164. Pen. C. § 6976. Subornation, punishment of. Every person guilty of subornation of perjury is punishable in the same manner as he would be if personally guilty of the perjury so procured.
- § 165. Pen. C. § 6977. Same, conviction of, disqualifies. No person who has been convicted of perjury or of subornation of perjury, shall thereafter be received as a witness in any action, proceeding or matter whatever upon his own behalf; nor in any action or proceeding between adverse parties, against any person who shall object thereto, until the judgment against him has been reversed. But when such person has been actually received as a witness contrary to the provisions of this section, his incompetency shall not prejudice the rights, innocently acquired, of any other person claiming under the proceeding in which such person was so received.

CHAPTER 13.

FALSIFYING EVIDENCE.

- § 166. Pen. C. § 6978. Offering false evidence. Every person who, upon any trial, proceeding, inquiry or investigation whatever, authorized by law, offers in evidence, as genuine, any book, paper, document, record or other instrument in writing, knowing the same to have been forged or fraudulently altered, is punishable in the same manner as the forging or false alteration of such instrument is made punishable by the provisions of this code.
- § 167. Pen. C. § 6979. Deceiving a witness. Every person who practices any fraud or deceit, or knowingly makes or exhibits any false statement, representation, token or writing, to any witness or person about to be called as a witness, upon any trial, proceeding, inquiry or investigation whatever, proceeding by authority of law, with intent to affect the testimony of such witness, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 168. Pen. C. § 6980. Preparing false evidence. Every person guilty of falsely preparing any book, paper, record, instrument in writing or other matter or thing, with intent to produce it or allow it to be produced as genuine, upon any trial, proceeding or inquiry whatever, authorized by law, is guilty of a felony.
- § 169. Pen. C. § 6981. Destroying evidence. Every person who, knowing that any book, paper, record, instrument in writing or other matter or thing, is about to be produced in evidence upon any trial, proceeding, inquiry or investigation whatever, authorized by law, willfully destroys the same, with intent thereby to prevent the same from being produced, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 170. Pen. C. § 6982. Preventing witness attending. Every person who willfully prevents or dissuades any person who has been duly summoned or subpoenaed as a witness from attending, pursuant to the command of the summons or subpoena, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 6983. Same. Contemplated witness. Every person who willfully prevents or dissuades any person who is or may become a witness, from attending upon any trial, proceeding or inquiry, authorized by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6984. Bribing witness. Every person who gives or offers § 171, Pen. C. or promises to give, to any witness or person about to be called as a witness, any bribe, upon any understanding or agreement that the testimony of such witness shall be thereby influenced, or who attempts by any other means fraudulently to induce any witness to give false testimony or to withhold true testimony, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 14.

OTHER OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC JUSTICE.

§ 6985. Injury to records and embezzlement. Every § 172, Pen. C. sheriff, coroner, clerk of a court, constable or other ministerial officer, and every deputy or subordinate of any ministerial officer, who either:

1. Mutilates, destroys, conceals, erases, obliterates or falsifies any record or paper appertaining to his office; or,

2. Fraudulently appropriates to his own use or to the use of another person, or secretes with intent to appropriate to such use, any money, evidence of debt or other property intrusted to him in virtue of his office,

Is guilty of a felony.

§ 6986. Permitting escapes by officer. Every sheriff, cor- § 173, Pen. C. oner, clerk of a court, constable or other ministerial officer, and every deputy or subordinate of any ministerial officer, who either:

1. Allows any person lawfully held by him in custody to escape or go at large, except as may be permitted by law; or,

2. Receives any gratuity or reward, or any security or promise of one, to procure, assist, connive at or permit any prisoner in his custody to escape, whether such escape is attempted or not; or,

3. Commits any unlawful act tending to hinder justice,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6987. Refusing to receive prisoner. Every officer who, § 174, Pen. C. in violation of a duty imposed upon him by law as such officer to receive into his custody any person as a prisoner, willfully neglects or refuses so to receive such person into his custody, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 6989. Arrest or seizure without lawful authority. § 176, Pen. C. Every public officer or person pretending to be a public officer, who under the pretense or color of any process or other legal authority, arrests any person, or detains him against his will, or seizes or levies upon any property, or dispossesses any one of any lands or tenements without due and legal process, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

- § 177. Pen. C. § 6990. Misconduct executing search warrant. Every peace officer who, in executing a search warrant, willfully exceeds his authority, or exercises it with unnecessary severity, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 178. Pen. C. § 6991. Refusing to aid officer. Every person who, after having been lawfully commanded to aid any officer in arresting any person or in retaking any person who has escaped from legal custody, or in executing any legal process, willfully neglects or refuses to aid such officer, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 179. Pen. C. § 6992. Refusing to make arrest. Every person who, after having been lawfully commanded by any magistrate to arrest another person, willfully neglects or refuses so to do, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 180. Pen. C. § 6993. Insurrection. Resisting execution of process. Every person who, after proclamation issued by the governor declaring any county to be in a state of insurrection, resists or aids in resisting the execution of process in the county declared to be in a state of insurrection, or who aids or attempts the rescue or escape of another from lawful custody or confinement, or who resists or aids in resisting a force ordered out by the governor to quell or suppress an insurrection, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two years.
- § 181. Pen. C. § 6994. Obstructing officer in duty. Every person who willfully delays or obstructs any public officer in the discharge or attempt to discharge any duty of his office, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 182. Pen. C. § 6995. Extra judicial oaths. Every person who takes an oath before an officer or person authorized to administer judicial oaths, except when such oath is required or authorized by law, or is required by the provisions of some contract as the basis of or in proof of a claim, or when the same has been agreed to be received by some person as proof of any fact, in the performance of any contract, obligation or duty, instead of other evidence, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 183. Pen. C. § 6996. Administering same. Every officer or other person who administers an oath to another person, or who makes and delivers any certificate that another person has taken an oath, except when such oath is required by the provisions of some contract as a basis of or proof of a claim, or when the same has been agreed to be received by some person as proof of any fact in the performance of any contract, obligation or duty, instead of other evidence, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 184. Pen. C. § 6997. Compounding crimes. Every person who, having knowledge of the actual commission of a crime or violation of statute, takes any money or property of another or any gratuity or reward, or any engagement or promise therefor, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal such crime or violation of statute, or to abstain from any prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, is punishable as follows:
1. By imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, when the crime compounded is one punishable either by death or by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life.
 2. By imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years, or in a county jail not exceeding six months, when the crime compounded was punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any other term than for life.

3. By imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment, when the crime or violation of statute compounded is a crime punishable by imprisonment in the county jail or by a fine, or is a misdemeanor or violation of statute for which a pecuniary or other penalty or forfeiture is prescribed,

§ 6998. Compounding prosecution. Every person who takes any money or property of another or any gratuity or reward, or any engagement or promise therefor, upon any agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound, discontinue or delay any prosecution then pending for any crime or violation of statute, or to withhold any evidence in aid thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 185, Pen. C.

§ 6999. Attempting to intimidate officers. Every person who, directly or indirectly, utters or addresses any threat or intimidation to any judicial or ministerial officer, to any juror, referee, arbitrator, umpire or assessor or other person authorized by law to hear or determine any controversy, with intent to induce him either to any act not authorized by law, or to omit or delay the performance of any duty imposed upon him by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 186, Pen. C.

§ 7000. Suppressing evidence. Every person who maliciously practices any deceit or fraud, or uses any threat, menace or violence, with intent to prevent any party to an action or proceeding from obtaining or producing therein any book, paper or other matter or thing which might be evidence, or from procuring the attendance or testimony of any witness therein, or with intent to prevent any person having in his possession any book, paper or other matter or thing which might be evidence in such suit or proceeding, or to prevent any person being cognizant of any fact material thereto from producing or disclosing the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 187, Pen. C.

§ 7001. Buying lands in suit. Every person who takes any conveyance of any lands or tenements, or of any interest or estate therein, from any person not being in the possession thereof, while such lands or tenements are the subject of controversy, by suit in any court, knowing the pendency of such suit, and that the grantor was not in possession of such lands or tenements, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 188, Pen. C.

§ 7002. Buying pretended titles. Every person who buys or sells or in any manner procures, or makes or takes any promise or covenant to convey any pretended right or title to any lands or tenements, unless the grantor thereof or the person making such promise or covenant has been in possession, or he and those by whom he claims have been in possession of the same, or of the reversion and remainder thereof, or have taken the rents and profits thereof for the space of one year before such grant, conveyance, sale, promise or covenant made, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 189, Pen. C.

§ 7003. Does not prohibit mortgaging. The last two sections shall not be construed to prevent any person having a just title to lands, upon which there shall be an adverse possession, from executing a mortgage upon such lands. § 190, Pen. C.

§ 7004. Common barratry defined. Common barratry is the practice of exciting groundless judicial proceedings. § 191, Pen. C.

§ 7005. Misdemeanor. Common barratry is a misdemeanor. § 192, Pen. C.

- § 193, Pen. C. § 7006. Proof required. No person can be convicted of common barratry, except upon proof that he has excited suits or proceedings at law, in at least three instances, and with a corrupt or malicious intent to vex and annoy.
- § 194, Pen. C. § 7007. Accused interested, not a defense. Upon prosecution for common barratry, the fact that the accused was himself a party in interest or upon the record to any proceedings at law complained of, is not a defense.
- § 195, Pen. C. § 7008. Attorneys buying demands or suits. Every attorney who, either directly or indirectly, buys or is interested in buying any evidence of debt or thing in action, with intent to bring suit thereon, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 196, Pen. C. § 7009. Justice or constable buying same. Every justice of the peace and every constable, who, directly or indirectly, buys or is interested in buying any evidence of debt or thing in action, for the purpose of commencing any suit thereon before a justice, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 197, Pen. C. § 7010. Loans on claims for collection. Every attorney, justice of the peace or constable, who, directly or indirectly, lends or advances any money or property, or agrees for or procures any loan or advance, to any person, as a consideration for or inducement toward committing any evidence of debt or thing in action to such attorney, justice, constable or any other person, for collection, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 198, Pen. C. § 7011. Forfeiture of office. Every person convicted of a violation of either of the three preceding sections, in addition to the punishment by fine and imprisonment, prescribed therefor by this code, forfeits his office.
- § 199, Pen. C. § 7012. Receiving claims allowable. Nothing in the four preceding sections shall be construed to prohibit the receiving in payment, of any evidence of debt or thing in action, for any estate, real or personal, or for any services of any attorney actually rendered, or for a debt antecedently contracted, or the buying or receiving of any evidence of debt or thing in action for the purpose of remittance, and without any intent to violate such sections.
- § 200, Pen. C. § 7013. Application of previous sections. The provisions of sections 7008, 7010 and 7012 relative to the buying of claims by an attorney, with intent to prosecute them, or to the lending or advancing of money by an attorney in consideration of a claim being delivered for collection, shall apply to every case of such buying a claim, or lending or advancing money, by any person prosecuting a suit or demand in person.
- § 201, Pen. C. § 7014. Witnesses' privilege. No person shall be excused from testifying in any civil action, to any fact showing that an evidence of debt or thing in action has been bought, sold or received contrary to law, upon the ground that his testimony might tend to convict him of a crime. But no evidence derived from the examination of such person shall be received against him upon any criminal prosecution.
- § 202, Pen. C. § 7015. Criminal contempts. Every person guilty of any contempt of court of the following kinds, is guilty of a misdemeanor:
1. Disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior, committed during the sitting of any court of justice, in immediate view and presence of the court, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, or to impair the respect due to its authority.

2. Behavior of the like character, committed in the presence of any referee or referees, while actually sitting for the trial of a cause, or upon any inquest or other proceeding authorized by law.

3. Any breach of the peace, noise or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of any court.

4. Willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court.

5. Resistance willfully offered by any person to the lawful order or process of any court.

6. The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness; or, when so sworn, the like refusal to answer any material question.

7. The publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of the proceedings of any court. But no person can be punished, as for contempt, in publishing a true, full and fair report of any trial, argument, decision or proceeding had in court.

§ 7016. Grand juror acting after challenge allowed. § 204, Pen. C.
Every grand juror who, with knowledge that a challenge interposed against him by a defendant, has been allowed, is present at or takes part, or attempts to take part, in the consideration of the charge against the defendant who interposed the challenge, or the deliberations of the grand jury thereon, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7017. Magistrate. Clerk disclosing deposition. § 205, Pen. C.
Every magistrate or clerk of any magistrate, who willfully permits any deposition taken on a complaint against or examination of a defendant before such magistrate and remaining in the custody of such magistrate or clerk, to be inspected by any person except a judge of a court having jurisdiction of the offense, the United States attorney, attorney general, state's attorney of the county and his assistants, and the defendant and his counsel, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7018. Clerk of court. Disclosing same. § 206, Pen. C.
Every clerk of any court who willfully permits any deposition returned by any grand jury with a presentment made by them, and filed with such clerk, to be inspected by any person except the court, the deputies or assistants of such clerk, and the state's attorney and his assistants, until after the arrest of the defendant, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7019. Fraudulent concealment. Disclosure. § 207, Pen. C.
Every person who, having been called upon by the lawful order of any court, to make a true exhibit of his real and personal effects, either:

1. Willfully conceals any of his estate or effects, or any books or writing relative thereto; or,

2. Willfully omits to disclose to the court any debts or demands which he has collected, or any transfer of his property which he had made after being ordered to make an exhibit thereof,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7020. Racing near court. § 208, Pen. C.
Every person concerned in any racing, running or other trial of speed between any horses or other animals, within one-half mile of the place where any court is actually sitting, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7021. Selling liquor in court house or jail. § 209, Pen. C.
Every person who sells any spiritous or intoxicating liquor within, or brings with intent to sell or offer or expose for sale therein, any such liquor into, either:

1. Any building established as a court house for the holding of courts of record, while any session of such court is being held therein: or,

2. Any building established as a jail or prison; or,

3. Any building or shed, out-house, porch, yard or curtilage appertaining to any building which, or any part of which, is at the time occupied or used for holding the polls at an election of any public officer of this state, or for canvassing votes cast at such election.

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 210, Pen. C. § 7022. Misconduct of attorneys. Every attorney who, whether as attorney or as counselor, either:

1. Is guilty of any deceit or collusion or consents to any deceit or collusion, with intent to deceive the court or any party; or,

2. Willfully delays his client's suit, with a view to his own gain; or,

3. Willfully receives any money or allowance for or on account of any money which he has not laid out or become answerable for,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor; and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor by this code, he forfeits to the party injured treble damages, to be recovered in a civil action.

§ 211, Pen. C. § 7023. Permitting name to be used. If any attorney knowingly permits any person, not being his general law partner or a clerk in his office, to sue out any process or to prosecute or defend any action in his name, except as authorized by the next section, such attorney and every person who shall so use his name, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 212, Pen. C. § 7024. Exception. In what case lawful. Whenever an action or proceeding is authorized by law to be prosecuted or defended in the name of the state or of any public officer, board of officers or municipal corporation, on behalf of another party, the attorney general or state's attorney or attorney of such public officer or board or corporation may permit any proceeding therein to be taken in his name by an attorney to be chosen by the party in interest.

§ 214, Pen. C. § 7026. Substituting child. Every person to whom an infant has been confided for nursing, education or any other purpose, who, with intent to deceive any parent or guardian of such child, substitutes or produces to such parent or guardian another child in the place of the one so confided, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding seven years.

§ 215, Pen. C. § 7027. Omission of duty by officer of vessel. Every owner, master or commander of any vessel arriving from a port without this state, who knowingly lands, or permits to land, at any port, city or place within this state any passenger or hand who is a foreign convict of any crime which, if committed in this state, would be punishable therein, without giving notice thereof to the mayor of such city or other principal municipal officer of such place or port, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7028. Public officer. Duty omitted. Punishment. When § 216. Pen. C.
any duty is or shall be enjoined by law upon any public officer, or upon any person holding any public trust or employment, every willful omission to perform such duty when no special provisions shall have been made for the punishment of such delinquency, is punishable as a misdemeanor.

§ 7029. Doing prohibited act. Punishment. When the § 217. Pen. C. performance of an act is prohibited by any statute and no penalty for the violation of such statute is imposed in any statute, the doing of such act is a misdemeanor.

§ 7030. Disclosing presentment. Indictment. Every § 218. Pen. C.
grand juror, state's attorney, clerk, judge or other officer, who, excepting by the issuing or in the executing of a warrant to arrest the defendant, willfully discloses the fact of a presentment or indictment having been made for a felony, until the defendant has been arrested, is guilty of a misdemeanor. am'd.

§ 7031. Disclosing jury's proceedings. Every grand juror, § 219. Pen. C. who, except when required by a court, willfully discloses any evidence adduced before the grand jury or anything which he himself or any other member of the grand jury may have said, or in what manner he or any other grand juror may have voted on a matter before them, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7032. Action in a false name. Every person who mali- § 220. Pen. C. ciously institutes or prosecutes any action or legal proceeding, or makes or procures any arrest in the name of a person who does not exist or has not consented that it be instituted or made, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7033. Maliciously procuring search. Every person who § 221. Pen. C. maliciously and without probable cause, procures a search warrant to be issued and executed, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7034. Communicating with inmate of penitentiary. § 222. Pen. C.
Every person who, not being authorized by law or by consent of the warden, deputy warden or other person in charge of the penitentiary, communicates with any inmate of the penitentiary or brings into, or conveys out of, the penitentiary any letter or printing, to or from any such inmate, is guilty of a misdemeanor. am'd.

§ 7035. County Auditor. Neglect to canvass returns. § 223. Pen. C.
Every county auditor who willfully refuses or neglects to canvass the election returns of his county, or neglects to make proper abstracts thereof and forward the same to the proper officer, as is or may hereafter be provided by law, or fails to issue certificates of election to the persons lawfully entitled thereto, is punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for each refusal or neglect.

§ 7036. False certificates. Every public officer who, being § 224. Pen. C. authorized by law to make or give any certificate or other writing, knowingly makes and delivers as true any such certificate or writing containing any statement which he knows to be false, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 15.

CONSPIRACY.

§ 225, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7037. Criminal conspiracies defined. If two or more persons conspire, either:

1. To commit a crime; or,
2. Falsely and maliciously to indict another for a crime, or to procure another to be complained of or arrested for a crime; or,
3. Falsely to institute or maintain an action or special proceeding; or,
4. To cheat and defraud another out of property, by any means which are in themselves criminal or which, if executed, would amount to a cheat, or to obtain money or any other property by false pretenses; or,
5. To prevent another from exercising a lawful trade or calling or doing any other lawful act, by force, threats, intimidation, or by interfering or threatening to interfere with tools, implements or property belonging to or used by another, or with the use or employment thereof; or,
6. To commit any act injurious to the public health, to public morals or to trade or commerce, or for the perversion or obstruction of justice, or of the due administration of the laws; each of them is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 226, Pen. C.

§ 7038. Out of state, against peace of state. If two or more persons, being out of this state, conspire to commit any act against the peace of this state, the commission or attempted commission of which, within this state, would be treason against the state, they are punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 7039. Limitation. Peaceable assemblies. No conspiracy is punishable criminally unless it is one of those enumerated in the last two sections, and the orderly and peaceable assembling or co-operation of persons employed in any calling, trade or handicraft for the purpose of obtaining an advance in the rate of wages or compensation, or of maintaining such rate, is not a conspiracy.

§ 227, Pen. C.

§ 7040. Overt act necessary. Exceptions. No agreement except to commit a felony upon the person of another, or to commit arson or burglary amounts to a conspiracy, unless some act beside such agreement is done to effect the object thereof, by one or more of the parties to such agreement.

§ 23, Const.

§ 7041. Hindering citizen to obtain employment. Every person, corporation, or agent thereof, who maliciously interferes or hinders, in any way, any citizen of this state from obtaining employment or enjoying employment already obtained, from any other person or corporation, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 212, Const.

§ 7042. Black list. Punishment. Every corporation, officer, agent or employee thereof, and every person of any corporation on behalf of such corporation, who exchanges with or furnishes or delivers to any other corporation or any officer, agent, employee or person thereof, any "black list," is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 16.

TREASON AND MISPRISION OF TREASON.

§ 7043. Treason defined. Witnesses. Punishment. Every person owing allegiance to this state who levies war against it, or adheres to its enemies or gives them aid or comfort within this state or elsewhere, is guilty of treason. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the evidence of two witnesses to the same overt act, or his confession thereof in open court. Every person guilty of treason shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by death, or, at the discretion of the court, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than five years and be forever incapable of holding any office under this state. § 19, Const.

§ 7044. Misprision of treason. Every person owing allegiance to this state and having knowledge of any treason against it, who conceals and does not, as soon as may be, disclose the same and make the same known to the governor or the attorney general, or to some judge of this state or of some district thereof, or to the state's attorney of some county, or a magistrate thereof, is guilty of misprision of treason and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years.

CHAPTER 17.

SUICIDE.

§ 7046. Attempting suicide. Every person who, with intent to take his own life, commits upon himself any act dangerous to human life, or which if committed upon or toward another person and followed by death as a consequence, would render the perpetrator chargeable with homicide, is guilty of attempting suicide. § 24, Pen. C.

§ 7047. Advising and aiding suicide. Every person who willfully, in any manner, advises, encourages, abets or assists another person in taking his own life, is guilty of aiding suicide. § 24, Pen. C.

§ 7049. Aiding attempt. Every person who willfully aids another in attempting to take his own life, in any manner which by the preceding sections would have amounted to aiding suicide if the person assisted had actually taken his own life, is guilty of aiding an attempt at suicide. § 23, Pen. C.

- § 234, Pen. C. § 7050. Incapacity, no defense. It is no defense to a prosecution for aiding suicide or aiding an attempt at suicide, that the person who committed or attempted to commit the suicide was not a person deemed capable of committing crime.
- § 235, Pen. C. § 7051. Aiding suicide. Punishment. Every person guilty of aiding suicide is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than seven years.
- § 236, Pen. C. § 7052. Attempting suicide. Punishment. Every person guilty of attempting suicide or of aiding an attempt at suicide, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding two years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

CHAPTER 18.

HOMICIDE.

- § 237, Pen. C.
am'd. § 7053. Homicide defined. Homicide is the destruction of the life of one human being by the act, agency, procurement or culpable omission of another.
- § 238, Pen. C. § 7054. Homicides classified. Homicide is either:
1. Murder.
 2. Manslaughter.
 3. Excusable homicide; or,
 4. Justifiable homicide.
- § 239, Pen. C.
am'd. § 7055. Corpus delicti, how proved. Confession. No person can be convicted of murder or manslaughter or of aiding suicide, unless the death of the person alleged to have been killed and the fact of the killing by the accused as alleged, are each established as independent facts; the former by direct proof and the latter beyond a reasonable doubt; but in no case upon a plea of not guilty, shall the confession or admission of the accused, in writing or otherwise, be admissible to establish the death of the person alleged to have been killed.
- § 240, Pen. C. § 7056. Petit treason abolished. The rules of the common law, distinguishing the killing of a master by his servant, and of a husband by his wife, as petit treason, are abolished, and these offenses are deemed homicides, punishable in the manner prescribed by this chapter.
- § 241, Pen. C. § 7057. Confidential or domestic relation. Whenever the grade or punishment of homicide is made to depend upon its having been committed under circumstances evincing a depraved mind or unusual cruelty or in a cruel manner, the jury may take into consideration the fact that any domestic or confidential relation existed between the accused and the person killed, in determining the moral quality of the acts proved.
- § 242, Pen. C. § 7058. Murder defined. Homicide is murder in the following cases:
1. When perpetrated without authority of law, and with a premeditated design to effect the death of the person killed or of any other human being.

2. When perpetrated by any act imminently dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind, regardless of human life, although without any premeditated design to effect the death of any particular individual.

3. When perpetrated without any design to effect death by a person engaged in the commission of any felony.

§ 7059. Felony used in last section defined. The word "felony," in the last section imports any act or omission declared or defined to be a felony by any law of this state or by this code without regard to the effect thereon of the punishment actually imposed.

§ 7060. Design to effect death inferred. A design to effect death is inferred from the fact of killing, unless the circumstances raise a reasonable doubt whether such design existed. § 243, Pen. C.

§ 7061. Premeditation. A design to effect death sufficient to constitute murder, may be formed instantly before committing the act by which it is carried into execution. § 244, Pen. C.

§ 7062. Anger or intoxication no defense. Homicide committed with a design to effect death is not the less murder because the perpetrator was in a state of anger or voluntary intoxication at the time. § 245, Pen. C.

§ 7063. Act imminently dangerous to others. Homicide perpetrated by an act imminently dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind regardless of human life, is not the less murder because there was no actual intent to injure others. § 246, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7064. Murder divided into two degrees. According to the facts and circumstances attending the killing, or as specially declared by law, murder is deemed, either:

1. Murder in the first degree; or.
2. Murder in the second degree.

§ 7065. Degrees of murder defined. Every murder perpetrated by means of poison, or by lying in wait, or by torture, or by other willful, deliberate or premeditated killing, or in committing or attempting to commit any sodomy, rape, mayhem, arson, robbery or burglary, shall be deemed murder in the first degree; all other kinds of murder shall be deemed murder in the second degree.

§ 7066. Manslaughter defined. Homicide, not excusable or justifiable, but perpetrated in a manner not constituting murder, is manslaughter.

§ 7067. Manslaughter divided into two degrees. According to the facts and circumstances attending the killing, or as specially declared by law, manslaughter is, either:

1. Manslaughter in the first degree; or,
2. Manslaughter in the second degree.

§ 7068. Punishment for murder in first degree. Every person convicted of murder in the first degree shall suffer death or be imprisoned in the penitentiary for life. § 249, Pen. C. §§ 1, 2, c. 9, 1883. am'd.

§ 7069. Punishment for murder in second degree. Every person convicted of murder in the second degree shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than ten and not exceeding thirty years.

§ 7070. Punishment for manslaughter in first degree. Every person convicted of manslaughter in the first degree shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five and not exceeding fifteen years. § 253, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 261, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7071. Punishment for manslaughter in second degree.

Every person convicted of manslaughter in the second degree shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7072. Jury determines degree of murder. The jury before whom any person prosecuted for murder is tried, shall, if they find such person guilty thereof, determine by their verdict, whether it is of murder in the first degree or of murder in the second degree.

§§ 1, 2, c. 9, 1883.
am'd.

§ 7073. Jury must determine punishment. The jury before whom any person prosecuted for murder is tried, shall if they find such person guilty thereof, fix and determine by their verdict, the punishment to be inflicted, within the limits prescribed by law, as for example: if they find such person guilty of murder in the first degree, they must designate in their verdict whether he shall be punished by death or imprisonment in the penitentiary for life; or, if they find such person guilty of murder in the second degree, they must designate in their verdict the term of his imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than ten and not exceeding thirty years.

§ 7074. Court to enter judgment according to verdict. Exception. Whenever any person is convicted of murder by the verdict of a jury, it shall be the duty of the court to enter judgment against such person, in accordance with such verdict, or otherwise as provided by section 8247 of the code of criminal procedure.

§ 7075. Manslaughter. Jury. Degree. Punishment. Court. The jury before whom any person is prosecuted for murder, may, according to the facts and circumstances disclosed by the evidence, find such person guilty of manslaughter. Whenever the jury finds any person guilty of manslaughter, either upon a prosecution for murder or a prosecution for manslaughter, they shall determine by their verdict whether it is of manslaughter in the first degree or of manslaughter in the second degree, and shall also fix and determine by their verdict the punishment to be inflicted, within the limits prescribed by law, and it shall be the duty of the court to enter judgment against such person in accordance with such verdict, or otherwise as provided by section 8247 of the code of criminal procedure.

§ 7076. Murder. Manslaughter. Plea. Guilty. Court. Whenever any person prosecuted for murder or manslaughter pleads guilty, he shall, in his plea, designate whether he is guilty of murder in the first degree or in the second degree, or of manslaughter in the first degree or in the second degree, and the court shall, if said plea is accepted, determine the punishment to be inflicted therefor within the limits prescribed by law, and enter judgment against such person in accordance with such determination. But the court may, in its discretion, examine witnesses to aid in the determination of the punishment to be inflicted or submit the same to a jury to determine the punishment, or, at its discretion, may refuse to receive a plea of guilty and submit the whole case to a jury.

§ 7077. Treason. Murder. Death. Time of execution. Whenever the court or jury shall designate that a person convicted of treason or of murder in the first degree shall be punished by death, it shall be the duty of the court entering judgment to fix the day of the execution thereof, which day shall not be less than three months after the day on which the judgment and sentence are entered and not longer than six months.

§ 7078. Duel. Killing in state. Murder. Second degree. Every person who by previous appointment or engagement fights a duel within the jurisdiction of this state and in so doing inflicts a wound upon any person, whereof the person so injured dies, is guilty of murder in the second degree.

§ 7079. Second, surgeon at duel. Manslaughter first degree. Every person who acts as a second or surgeon at any such duel as is mentioned in the preceding section and is present when the wound is inflicted whereof death ensues, is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

§ 7080. Duel. Killing without state, murder second degree. Every person, being an inhabitant or resident of this state, who, by previous appointment or engagement made within the same, fights a duel without the jurisdiction of this state, and in so doing inflicts a mortal wound upon a person, whereof he afterwards dies within this state, shall be deemed guilty of murder in the second degree within this state, and may be tried, convicted and sentenced in the county where the death happens. § 247, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7081. Second, surgeon, at duel. Manslaughter first degree. Every person, being an inhabitant of this state, who acts as a second or surgeon at any such duel as is mentioned in the preceding section and is present when a wound is inflicted whereof death ensues, is guilty of manslaughter in the first degree.

§ 7082. Conviction. Acquittal in other state, defense. A person prosecuted under the last two preceding sections may plead a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense in any other state or country, and such plea, if admitted or established, shall be a bar to all further or other proceedings against him for the same offense within this state.

§ 7083. Homicide in forcibly taking mine. Murder. If any person or persons shall associate and agree to enter or attempt to enter by force of numbers, and the terror such numbers is calculated to inspire, or by force and violence, or by threats of violence against any person or persons in the actual possession of any lode, gulch or placer claim, and upon such entry or attempted entry, any person or persons shall be killed, said persons and all and each of them so entering or attempting to enter, shall be deemed guilty of murder in the second degree, and punished accordingly. Upon the trial of such cases, any person cognizant of such entry or attempted entry, who shall be present and aiding, assisting or in anywise encouraging such entry or attempted entry, shall be deemed a principal in the commission of said offense. § 248, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7084. Homicide, when manslaughter in first degree. § 250, Pen. C. Homicide is manslaughter in the first degree in the following cases:

1. When perpetrated without a design to effect death by a person while engaged in the commission of a misdemeanor.

2. When perpetrated without a design to effect death, and in a heat of passion, but in a cruel and unusual manner or by means of a dangerous weapon, unless it is committed under such circumstances as constitute excusable or justifiable homicide.

3. When perpetrated unnecessarily either while resisting an attempt by the person killed to commit a crime or after such attempt shall have failed.

- § 251, Pen. C. § 7085. Abortion. Killing unborn quick child. The willful killing of an unborn quick child by an injury committed upon the person of the mother of such child, and not prohibited in the next following section, is manslaughter in the first degree.
- § 252, Pen. C. § 7086. Abortion by administering drugs. Instruments. Every person who administers to any woman pregnant with a quick child, or who prescribes for such woman, or advises or procures any such woman to take any medicine, drug or substance whatever or who uses or employs any instrument or other means with intent thereby to destroy such child, unless the same shall have been necessary to preserve the life of such mother, is guilty in case the death of the child or of the mother is thereby produced, of manslaughter in the first degree.
- § 254, Pen. C. § 7087. Manslaughter in second degree defined. Every killing of one human being by the act, agency, procurement or culpable negligence of another, which, under the provisions of this chapter, is not murder nor manslaughter in the first degree, nor excusable nor justifiable homicide, is manslaughter in the second degree.
- § 255, Pen. C. § 7088. Owner of mischievous animal. If the owner of a mischievous animal, knowing its propensities, willfully suffers it to go at large, or keeps it without ordinary care, and such animal, while so at large or not confined, kills any human being who has taken all the precautions which the circumstances permitted, to avoid such animal, the owner is deemed guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.
- § 256, Pen. C. § 7089. Negligently navigating vessel. Overloading. Every person navigating any vessel for gain who willfully or negligently receives so many passengers or such a quantity of other lading on board such vessel that by means thereof such vessel sinks, or is upset or injured, and thereby any human being is drowned or otherwise killed, is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.
- § 257, Pen. C. § 7090. Steamboat. Passengers. Negligence. Racing. Every captain or other person having charge of any steamboat used for the conveyance of passengers or of the boilers or engines thereof, who, from ignorance or gross neglect, or for the purpose of excelling any other boat in speed, creates or allows to be created, such an undue quantity of steam as to burst or break the boiler or other apparatus in which it shall be generated or any apparatus or machinery connected therewith, by which bursting or breaking any person is killed, is deemed guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.
- § 258, Pen. C. § 7091. Engineer. Negligence. Producing death. Every engineer or other person having charge of any steam boiler, steam engine or other apparatus for generating or employing steam, employed in any manufactory, railway or other mechanical works, who willfully or from ignorance or gross neglect creates or allows to be created, such an undue quantity of steam as to burst or break the boiler, engine or apparatus, or to cause any other accident whereby the death of a human being is produced, is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.
- § 259, Pen. C. § 7092. Physician. Intoxication. Producing death. Every physician who, being in a state of intoxication, without a design to effect death, administers any poison, drug or medicine, or does any other act as such physician, to another person, which produces the death of such other person, is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree.

§ 7093. Keeping gunpowder. Other explosives. Every person guilty of making or keeping gunpowder, saltpeter, guncotton, nitroglycerine or dynamite or any compound of the same, or any fulminate or substance which is intended to be used by exploding or igniting the same, in order to produce a force to propel missiles or to rend apart substances, within any city or village, in any quantity or amount prohibited by law, or by any ordinance of said city or village, in consequence whereof any explosion occurs whereby any human being is killed, is guilty of manslaughter in the second degree. § 280, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7094. Setting spring gun, trap or device. Every person who sets any spring or other gun or trap or device operating by the firing or exploding of gunpowder or any other explosive, and leaves or permits the same to be left, except in the immediate presence of some competent person, shall be deemed to have committed a misdemeanor; and the killing of any person by the firing of a gun or other device so set shall be deemed to be manslaughter in the first degree.

§ 7095. Arson. Night time. Destroying life. Every person who willfully and maliciously burns, in the night time, the dwelling house of another or of which he is a lessee or tenant, whereby the life of any person is destroyed, or who, in the night time, willfully and maliciously sets fire to any other building, owned by himself or another, by the burning whereof such dwelling house shall be burnt in the night time, whereby the life of any person is destroyed, shall be deemed guilty of murder in the second degree.

§ 7096. Killing. Death within one year. Aiding suicide. To make the killing either murder or manslaughter in prosecutions for homicide, it is requisite that the party dies within a year and a day after the stroke received or the cause of death administered, in the computation of which the whole of the day on which the act was done shall be reckoned the first. No prosecution for aiding suicide shall be maintained unless the death of the person aided ensues within one year, computed as above.

§ 7097. Homicide, when excusable. Homicide is excusable § 282, Pen. C. in the following cases:

1. When committed by accident and misfortune, in lawfully correcting a child or servant or in doing any other lawful act, by lawful means, with usual and ordinary caution and without any unlawful intent.

2. When committed by accident and misfortune in the heat of passion, upon any sudden and sufficient provocation or upon a sudden combat; provided, that no undue advantage is taken, nor any dangerous weapon used and that the killing is not done in a cruel or unusual manner.

§ 7098. Homicide by officers, when justifiable. Homicide § 283, Pen. C. is justifiable when committed by public officers and those acting by their command in their aid and assistance, either:

1. In obedience to any judgment of a competent court; or,
2. When necessarily committed in overcoming actual resistance to the execution of some legal process or to the discharge of any other legal duty; or,
3. When necessarily committed in retaking felons who have been rescued or who have escaped, or when necessarily committed in arresting felons fleeing from justice.

§ 264. Pen. C. § 7099. Homicide by others, when justifiable. Homicide is also justifiable when committed by any person in either of the following cases:

1. When resisting any attempt to murder such person or to commit any felony upon him or her, or upon or in any dwelling house in which such person is; or,

2. When committed in the lawful defense of such person or of his or her husband, wife, parent, child, master, mistress or servant, when there is a reasonable ground to apprehend a design to commit a felony or to do some great personal injury, and imminent danger of such design being accomplished; or,

3. When necessarily committed in attempting, by lawful ways and means, to apprehend any person for any felony committed; or in lawfully suppressing any riot; or in lawfully keeping and preserving the peace.

§ 7100. Homicide. Excusable. Justifiable. Defendant acquitted. Whenever any person is prosecuted for a homicide, and upon his trial the killing shall be found to have been excusable or justifiable, the jury shall find such person not guilty and he shall be fully acquitted and discharged.

CHAPTER 19.

MAIMING.

§ 265. Pen. C. § 7101. Maiming defined. Every person who, with premeditated design to injure another, inflicts upon his person any injury which disfigures his personal appearance or disables any member or organ of his body or seriously diminishes his physical vigor, is guilty of maiming.

§ 266. Pen. C. § 7102. Maiming one's self. Every person who, with design to disable himself from performing any legal duty, existing or anticipated, inflicts upon himself any injury whereby he is so disabled, is guilty of maiming.

§ 267. Pen. C. § 7103. Maiming one's self. Exciting sympathy. Every person who inflicts upon himself any injury such as if inflicted upon another would constitute maiming, with intent to avail himself of such injury, to excite sympathy or to obtain alms or any charitable relief, is guilty of maiming.

§ 268. Pen. C. § 7104. Maiming. Instrument. Manner immaterial. To constitute maiming it is immaterial by what means or instrument, or in what manner the injury was inflicted.

§ 269. Pen. C. § 7105. Maiming by disfigurement described. Limited. To constitute maiming by disfigurement the injury must be such as is calculated, after healing, to attract observation. A disfigurement which can only be discovered by close inspection does not constitute maiming.

§ 270. Pen. C. § 7106. Design to maim inferred. A design to injure, disfigure or disable, is inferred from the fact of inflicting an injury which is calculated to disfigure or disable, unless the circumstances raise a reasonable doubt whether such design existed.

§ 7107. Premeditated design sufficient. A premeditated design to injure, disfigure or disable, sufficient to constitute maiming, may be formed instantly before inflicting the wound. § 271, Pen. C.

§ 7108. Subsequent recovery. Conviction. When it appears, upon a trial for maiming another person, that the person injured has, before the time of trial, so far recovered from the wound that he is no longer by it disfigured in personal appearance, or disabled in any member or organ of his body or affected in physical vigor, no conviction for maiming shall be had; but the accused may be convicted of assault and battery, with or without a special intent, according to the proof. § 272, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 20.

KIDNAPING.

§ 7110. Kidnaping defined. Defense. Exception. Every person who, without lawful authority, forcibly seizes and confines another or inveigles or kidnaps another, with intent, either: § 274, Pen. C.

1. To cause such other person to be secretly confined or imprisoned in this state against his will; or,

2. To cause such other person to be sent out of this state against his will; or,

3. To cause such person to be sold as a slave or in any way held to service against his will,

Is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years. Upon any trial for a violation of this section, the consent thereto of the person kidnaped or confined shall not be a defense, unless it appears satisfactorily to the jury, that such person was above the age of twelve years, and that such consent was not extorted by threat or by duress.

§ 7111. Selling services of other persons. Every person who, within this state or elsewhere, sells or in any manner transfers, for any term, the services or labor of any black, mulatto or other person of color, who has been forcibly taken or inveigled or kidnaped from his state, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years. § 275, Pen. C.

§ 7112. Removing from state persons held to service. Every person claiming that he or another is entitled to the service of a person alleged to be held to labor or service in a state or territory of the United States who, except as authorized by law, takes or removes § 276, Pen. C.

or willfully does any act tending toward removing from this state any such person, is guilty of felony, and punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, and by a penalty of five hundred dollars, recoverable in a civil action by the party aggrieved.

§ 277, Pen. C.

§ 7113. Judge. Officer. Warrant. Exception. Penalty.

Every judge or other public officer of this state, who grants or issues any warrant, certificate or other process in any proceeding for the removal from this state of any person claimed as held to labor or service in a state or territory of the United States, except in pursuance of positive enactment, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and in addition to the punishment therefor prescribed by law, he forfeits five hundred dollars to the party aggrieved, recoverable in a civil action.

CHAPTER 21.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL.

§ 278, Pen. C.

§ 7114. Administering poison. Every person who, with intent to kill, administers or causes or procures to be administered to another, any poison, which is actually taken by such other, but by which death is not caused, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than ten years.

§ 279, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7115. Shooting. Assault. Deadly weapon. Every person who shoots or attempts to shoot at another, with any kind of firearm, air gun or other means whatever with intent to kill any person, or who commits any assault and battery upon another by means of any deadly weapon, or by such other means or force as was likely to produce death, with intent to kill any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 280, Pen. C.

§ 7116. Other assaults with intent to kill. Every person who is guilty of an assault with intent to kill any person, the punishment for which is not prescribed by the foregoing section, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 22.

ROBBERY.

§ 281, Pen. C.

§ 7117. Robbery defined. Robbery is a wrongful taking of personal property in the possession of another, from his person or immediate presence and against his will, accomplished by means of force or fear.

§ 7118. How force or fear employed. To constitute robbery, the force or fear must be employed either to obtain or retain possession of the property, or to prevent or overcome resistance to the taking. If employed merely as a means of escape, it does not constitute robbery. § 282, Pen. C.

§ 7119. Degree of force immaterial. When force is employed in either of the ways specified in the last section, the degree of force employed is immaterial. § 283, Pen. C.

§ 7120. What fear necessary, described. The fear which constitutes robbery may be either: § 284, Pen. C.

1. The fear of an unlawful injury, immediate or future, to the person or property of the person robbed, or of any relative of his or member of his family; or,

2. The fear of an immediate and unlawful injury to the person or property of any one in the company of the person robbed, at the time of the robbery.

§ 7121. Value of property taken immaterial. When property is taken under the circumstances required to constitute robbery, the fact that the property was of trifling value does not qualify the offense. § 285, Pen. C.

§ 7122. Taking secretly not robbery. The taking of property from the person of another is not robbery, when it clearly appears that the taking was fully completed without his knowledge. § 286, Pen. C.

§ 7123. Two degrees of robbery, defined. Robbery, when accomplished by the use of force, or of putting the person robbed in fear of some immediate injury to his person, is robbery in the first degree. When accomplished in any other manner, it is robbery in the second degree. § 287, Pen. C.

§ 7124. Punishment robbery, first degree. Every person guilty of robbery in the first degree is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year. § 288, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7125. Punishment robbery, second degree. Every person guilty of robbery in the second degree is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years. § 289, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7126. Robbery by two or more conjointly. Whenever two or more persons conjointly commit a robbery, or when the whole number of persons conjointly committing a robbery and persons present and aiding such robbery, amount to two or more, each and either of such persons is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one year. § 290, Pen. C. am'd.

CHAPTER 23.

ASSAULTS WITH INTENT TO COMMIT FELONY OTHER THAN ASSAULTS WITH INTENT TO KILL.

§ 7127. Shooting. Assault. Deadly weapon. Punishment. Every person who shoots or attempts to shoot at another with any kind of firearm, air gun or other means whatever, or commits any assault or battery upon another by means of any deadly § 291, Pen. C.

weapon, or by such other means or force as was likely to produce death, with intent to commit any felony other than assault with intent to kill, or in resisting the execution of any legal process, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 292, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7128. Other assaults. Intent. Exception. Punishment. Every person who is guilty of an assault with intent to commit any felony, except an assault with intent to kill, the punishment for which assault is not prescribed by the preceding section, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 293, Pen. C.

§ 7129. Administering drugs. Intent. Felony. Every person guilty of administering to another any chloroform, ether, laudanum or other intoxicating, narcotic or other anesthetic agent, with intent thereby to enable or assist himself or any other person to commit any felony, is guilty of felony.

CHAPTER 24.

DUELS AND CHALLENGES.

§ 294, Pen. C.

§ 7130. Duel defined. A duel is any combat with deadly weapons, fought between two persons by previous agreement or upon a previous quarrel.

§ 295, Pen. C.

§ 7131. Punishment for fighting. Every person guilty of fighting any duel, although no death or wound ensues, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 296, Pen. C.

§ 7132. Incapacity to hold office. Every person convicted of fighting a duel is thereafter incapable of holding or being elected or appointed to any office, place or post of trust or emolument, civil or military, under this state.

§ 297, Pen. C.

§ 7133. Seconds. Aids. Surgeons. Every person who is present at the time when any duel is fought, either as second, aid or surgeon, or who advises or gives any countenance to any duel, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding seven years.

§ 298, Pen. C.

§ 7134. Challenges. Punishment. Every person who challenges another to fight a duel; every person who accepts any such challenge; and every person who knowingly forwards, carries or delivers any such challenge, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding seven years.

§ 299, Pen. C.

§ 7135. Challenge defined. Any words, spoken or written, or any signs uttered or made to any person, expressing or implying or intended to express or imply a desire, request, invitation or demand, to fight a duel, or to meet for the purpose of fighting a duel, are deemed a challenge.

§ 7136. Attempts to induce challenge. Every person guilty of sending, uttering or making to another any words or signs whatever, with intent to provoke or induce such person to give or receive any challenge to fight a duel, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 300, Pen. C.

§ 7137. Posting for not fighting. Every person who posts or publishes another for not fighting a duel or for not sending or accepting a challenge to fight a duel, or who uses any reproachful or contemptuous language, verbal, written or printed, to or concerning another for not sending or accepting a challenge to fight a duel or with intent to provoke a duel, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 301, Pen. C.

§ 7138. Leaving state to evade laws. Every person who leaves this state with intent to evade any of the provisions of this chapter and to commit any act out of the state such as is prohibited by this chapter, and who does any act although out of this state which would be punishable by said provisions, if committed within this state, is punishable in the same manner as he would have been, in case such act had been committed within this state. § 302, Pen. C.

§ 7140. No privilege against testifying. No person shall be excused from testifying or answering any question upon any investigation or trial for a violation of either of the provisions of this chapter, upon the ground that his testimony might tend to convict him of a crime. But no evidence given upon any examination of a person so testifying shall be received against him in any criminal prosecution or proceeding. § 304, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 25.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

§ 7141. Assault defined. An assault is any willful and unlawful attempt or offer, with force or violence, to do a corporal hurt to another. § 305, Pen. C.

§ 7142. Battery defined. A battery is any willful and unlawful use of force or violence upon the person of another. § 306, Pen. C.

§ 7143. When force not unlawful. To use or to attempt or to offer to use force or violence upon or toward the person of another is not unlawful in the following cases: § 307, Pen. C.
am'd.

1. When necessarily committed by a public officer in the performance of any legal duty, or by any other person assisting him or acting by his direction.

2. When necessarily committed by any person in arresting one who has committed any felony, and delivering him to a public officer competent to receive him in custody.

3. When committed either by the party about to be injured or by any other person in his aid or defense, in preventing or attempting to prevent an offense against his person, or any trespass or other unlawful interference with real or personal property in his lawful possession; provided, the force or violence used is not more than sufficient to prevent such offense.

4. When committed by a parent or the authorized agent of any parent, or by any guardian, master or teacher, in the exercise of a lawful authority to restrain or correct his child, ward, apprentice or scholar; provided, restraint or correction has been rendered necessary by the misconduct of such child, ward, apprentice or scholar, or by his refusal to obey the lawful command of such parent or authorized agent or guardian, master or teacher, and the force or violence used is reasonable in manner and moderate in degree.

5. When committed by a carrier of passengers, or the authorized agents or servants of such carrier, or by any person assisting them, at their request, in expelling from any carriage, railroad car, vessel or other vehicle, any passenger who refuses to obey a lawful and reasonable regulation prescribed for the conduct of passengers, if such vehicle has first been stopped and the force and violence used is not more than is sufficient to expel the offending passenger, with a reasonable regard to his personal safety.

6. When committed by any person preventing an idiot, lunatic, insane person or other person of unsound mind, including persons temporarily or partially deprived of reason, from committing an act dangerous to himself or to another, or enforcing such restraint as is necessary for the protection of his person or for his restoration to health, during such period only as shall be necessary to obtain legal authority for the restraint or custody of his person.

§ 308, Pen. C.

§ 7144. How punished. Assault or assault and battery shall be punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding thirty days, or by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or both at the discretion of the court.

§ 309, Pen. C.

§ 7145. Assault with dangerous weapon. Every person who, with intent to do bodily harm and without justifiable or excusable cause, commits any assault or assault and battery upon the person of another, with any sharp or dangerous weapon, or who without such cause, shoots or attempts to shoot at another, with any kind of firearm or air gun or other means whatever, with intent to injure any person, although without intent to kill such person or to commit any felony, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

CHAPTER 26.

LIBEL.

§ 7146. Defined. Any malicious publication, by writing, printing, picture, effigy, sign or otherwise than by mere speech, which exposes any living person or the memory of any person deceased, to hatred, contempt, ridicule or obloquy, or which causes or tends to cause any person to be shunned or avoided, or which has a tendency to injure any person, corporation or association of persons, in his or their business or occupation, is a libel. § 310. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7147. Is misdemeanor. Every person who publishes a libel, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 311. Pen. C.

§ 7149. Publication of libel defined. To sustain a charge of publishing a libel, it is not necessary that the matter complained of should have been read or seen by another. It is enough that the accused knowingly displayed it, or parted with its immediate custody under circumstances which exposed it to be read or seen or understood by another person than himself. § 314. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7150. Liability of editors and others. Every editor or proprietor of a book, newspaper or serial publication, and every manager of a partnership or incorporated association, by which a book, newspaper or serial publication is issued, is chargeable with the publication of any matter contained in such book, newspaper or serial. But in every prosecution for libel the accused may show in his defense that the matter complained of was published without his knowledge or fault and against his wishes, by another who had no authority from him to make the publication, and whose act was disavowed by him as soon as known. § 315. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7151. Publishing true report of public official proceedings. A prosecution for libel cannot be maintained against a reporter, editor, publisher or proprietor of a newspaper, for the publication therein, of a fair and true report of any judicial, legislative or other public and official proceeding, or of any statement, speech, argument or debate in the course of the same, without proving actual malice in making the report. § 316. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7152. Qualification of last section. The last section does not apply to a libel contained in the heading of the report, or in any other matter added by any other person concerned in the publication, or in the report of anything said or done at the time and place of the public and official proceeding, which was not a part thereof. § 317. Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7153. Other privileged communications. A communication made to a person entitled to or interested in the communication, § 318. Pen. C. am'd.

by one who was also entitled to or interested or who stood in such relation to the former as to afford a reasonable ground for supposing his motive innocent, is not presumed to be malicious, and is called a privileged communication.

§ 319, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7154. Threatening to publish libel. Every person who threatens another with the publication of a libel, concerning the latter or concerning any parent, husband, wife, child or other member of the family of the latter, and a person who offers to prevent the publication of a libel upon another person upon the condition of the payment of, or with intent to extort money or other valuable consideration from any person, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7155. Furnishing libelous information. Every person who willfully states, delivers or transmits by any means whatever to any manager, editor, publisher, reporter or other employee of a publisher of any newspaper, magazine, publication, periodical or serial, any statement concerning any person or corporation, which if published therein would be a libel, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 27.

RAPE, ABDUCTION, CARNAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN AND SEDUCTION.

§ 320, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7156. Rape defined. Rape is an act of sexual intercourse, accomplished with a female not the wife of the perpetrator, under either of the following circumstances:

1. When the female is under the age of sixteen years.
2. When she is incapable, through lunacy or any other unsoundness of mind, whether temporary or permanent, of giving legal consent.
3. When she resists, but her resistance is overcome by force or violence.
4. When she is prevented from resisting, by threats of immediate and great bodily harm, accompanied by apparent power of execution.
5. When she is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating, narcotic or anesthetic agent, administered by or with the privity of the accused.
6. When she is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act, and this is known to the accused.
7. When she submits under a belief that the person committing the act is her husband, and this belief is induced by artifice, pretense or concealment practiced by the accused, with intent to induce such belief.

§ 321, Pen. C.

§ 7157. Accused under fourteen. No conviction for rape can be had against one who was under the age of fourteen years at the time of the act alleged, unless his physical ability to accomplish penetration is proved as an independent fact and beyond a reasonable doubt.

§ 7158. When crime complete. The essential guilt of rape § 322, Pen. C. consists in the outrage to the person and feeling of the female. Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete the crime.

§ 7159. Rape in first degree defined. Rape committed upon § 323, Pen. C. a female under the age of ten years, or incapable, through lunacy or any other unsoundness of mind, of giving legal consent, or accomplished by means of force overcoming her resistance, is rape in the first degree.

§ 7160. Rape in second degree defined. In all other cases § 324, Pen. C. rape is of the second degree; but no conviction can be had in case the female is over the age of ten years and the male under the age of twenty years at the time of the act of intercourse, and it appears to the satisfaction of the jury that the female was sufficiently matured and informed to understand the nature of the act and consented thereto.

§ 7161. Punishment for first degree. Rape in the first § 325, Pen. C. degree is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than ten years.

§ 7162. Punishment for second degree. Rape in the sec- § 326, Pen. C. ond degree is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than five years.

§ 7163. Compelling woman to marry. Every person who § 327, Pen. C. takes any woman against her will, and by force, menace or duress, compels her to marry him or to marry any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than ten years.

§ 7164. Intent to compel marriage or defilement. Every § 328, Pen. C. person who takes any woman unlawfully against her will, with the intent to compel her by force, menace or duress to marry him, or to marry any other person, or to be defiled, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 7165. Inveigling into house of prostitution. Every per- § 329, Pen. C. son who inveigles or entices any unmarried female of previous chaste character under the age of twenty years, into any house of ill fame or of assignation or elsewhere, for the purpose of prostitution, and every person who aids or assists in such abduction for such purpose, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7166. Abduction for prostitution. Every person who § 330, Pen. C. takes away any female under the age of eighteen years, from her father, mother, guardian or other person having the legal charge of her person, without the consent of such father, mother, guardian or other person having the legal charge of her person, either for the purpose of concubinage or prostitution, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

§ 7167. Seduction under promise of marriage. Every male § 331, Pen. C. person over twenty-one years of age who, under promise of marriage, seduces and has illicit connection with an unmarried female under twenty years of age and of previous chaste character, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

§ 332, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7168. Subsequent marriage or offer of. If the parties marry each other at any time before the conviction of the defendant, no prosecution shall take place, or, if begun, it shall be dismissed, or if the defendant, at any time after the illicit connection and before the case is submitted to the jury, in good faith offers to marry the female seduced and the jury so finds from the evidence, the defendant must be acquitted. But the benefits of this section shall not apply to a defendant who was in fact married at the time of committing the offense; provided, that no person who was married at the time of committing the offense, and the fact of the marriage was known to the female shall be held liable for the offense defined in section 7167.

CHAPTER 28.

ADULTERY AND UNLAWFUL COHABITATION.

§ 333, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7169. Adultery defined. Limitation. Adultery is the voluntary sexual intercourse of a married person with a person other than the offender's husband or wife and when the intercourse is between a married woman and a man that is unmarried the man is also guilty of adultery. No prosecution for adultery shall be commenced except on the complaint of the husband or of the wife, and no such prosecution shall be commenced after one year from the time of the committing of the offense.

§ 334, Pen. C.

§ 7170. How punished. Every person convicted of the crime of adultery is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both.

§ 16, c. 91, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7171. Unlawful cohabitation. Punishment. Every person who lives openly and notoriously and cohabits as husband or wife with a person of the opposite sex without being married to such person, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days and not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not less than one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER 29.

ABANDONMENT AND NEGLECT OF CHILD OR WIFE.

§ 7172. Abandoning under six years. Every parent of any child under the age of six years, and every person to whom any such child has been confided for nurture or education, who deserts such child in any place whatever, with intent wholly to abandon it, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding seven years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year. § 335, Pen. C.

§ 7174. Abandoning or refusing to support minor child. Every person who, either: § 1, c. 168, 1890. am'd.

1. Willfully abandons and leaves his minor child in a destitute condition; or who,

2. Is of sufficient ability to provide such child's support; or,

3. Is able to earn the means of such child's support, unreasonably refuses or neglects to provide for such minor child,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7175. Abandoning or refusing to support wife. Every husband who, either: § 1, c. 168, 1890. am'd.

1. Willfully abandons and leaves his wife in a destitute condition; or,

2. Is of sufficient ability to provide such wife's support; or,

3. Is able to earn the means of such wife's support, unreasonably refuses or neglects to provide for such wife,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7176. Punishment. Every person convicted of any of the offenses mentioned in the two last sections is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days and not exceeding six months. § 1, c. 168, 1890. am'd.

CHAPTER 30.

ABORTION AND CONCEALING DEATH OF CHILDREN.

§ 7177. Procuring an abortion. Every person who administers to any pregnant woman, or who prescribes for any such woman, or advises or procures any such woman to take any medicine, drug or substance, or uses or employs any instrument or other means whatever, with intent thereby to procure the miscarriage of such woman, unless the same is necessary to preserve her life, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year. § 337, Pen. C.

§ 338. Pen. C.

§ 7178. Soliciting or submitting to attempt at. Every woman who solicits of any person any medicine, drug or substance whatever and takes the same, or who submits to any operation or to the use of any means whatever, with intent thereby to procure a miscarriage, unless the same is necessary to preserve her life, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

§ 339. Pen. C.

§ 7179. Concealing still birth or death of bastard. Every woman who endeavors either by herself or by the aid of others to conceal the still birth of an issue of her body, which if born alive would be a bastard, or the death of any such issue under the age of two years, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

CHAPTER 31.

CHILD STEALING.

§ 340. Pen. C.

§ 7180. Defined. Punishment. Every person who maliciously, forcibly or fraudulently takes or entices away any child under the age of twelve years, with intent to detain and conceal such child from its parent, guardian or other person having the lawful charge of such child, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 32.

BIGAMY, INCEST AND SODOMY.

§ 341. Pen. C.

§ 7181. Bigamy defined. Every person who, having been married to another who remains living, marries any other person, except in the cases specified in the next section, is guilty of bigamy.

§ 342. Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7182. Exception to last section. The last section does not extend:

1. To any person by reason of any former marriage, whose husband or wife has been absent for five successive years without being known to such person within that time to be living; nor,

2. To any person by reason of any former marriage, whose husband or wife by such marriage has absented himself or herself from his wife or her husband and has been continually remaining without the United States for the space of five years together; nor,

3. To any person by reason of any former marriage which has been pronounced void, annulled or dissolved by the judgment of a competent court; nor,

4. To any person by reason of any former marriage with a husband or wife who has been sentenced to imprisonment for life.

§ 7184. Unlawful marriages defined. Every person who knowingly marries the husband or wife of another, in any case in which such husband or wife would be punishable according to the foregoing provisions, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. § 344, Pen. C.

§ 7185. Incest defined. Persons who, being within the degrees of consanguinity within which marriages are, by the laws of this state, declared incestuous and void, intermarry, cohabit or have sexual intercourse with such other so related person, knowing him or her to be within said degree of relationship shall be deemed guilty of incest, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years. § 345, Pen. C.

§ 7186. Sodomy defined. Every person who carnally knows in any manner any animal or bird; or carnally knows any male or female person by the anus or by or with the mouth; or voluntarily submits to such carnal knowledge; or attempts sexual intercourse with a dead body, is guilty of sodomy and is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years or in the county jail not more than one year. § 346, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7187. When crime complete. Any sexual penetration, however slight, is sufficient to complete the crime specified in the last section. § 347, Pen. C. am'd.

CHAPTER 33.

VIOLATING SEPULTURE AND THE REMAINS OF THE DEAD.

§ 7188. Right to dispose of one's own body. Every person has the right to direct the manner in which his body shall be disposed of after his death, and to direct the manner in which any part of his body which becomes separated therefrom during his lifetime shall be disposed of. The provisions of this chapter do not apply where such person has given directions for the disposal of his body or any part thereof inconsistent with these provisions. § 348, Pen. C.

§ 7189. Duty of burial. Except in the cases in which a right to dissect a dead body is expressly conferred by law, every dead body of a human being lying within this state must be decently buried within a reasonable time after the death. § 349, Pen. C.

- § 350, Pen. C. § 7190. Right to transport dead body. The last section does not affect the right to carry the dead body of a human being through this state or to remove from this state the body of a person dying within it, for the purpose of burying the same in another state or territory.
- § 351, Pen. C. § 7191. Dissection, when allowed. The right to dissect the dead body of a human being exists in the following cases:
1. In the cases authorized by positive enactment of the legislative assembly of this state.
 2. Whenever the death occurs under circumstances in which a coroner is authorized by law to hold an inquest upon the body, and a coroner authorizes such dissection for the purposes of the inquest.
 3. Whenever any husband or next of kin of a deceased person, being charged by law with the duty of burial, authorizes such dissection for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of death.
- § 352, Pen. C. § 7192. Unlawful dissection, misdemeanor. Every person who makes or procures to be made any dissection of the body of a human being, except by authority of law, or in pursuance of a permission given by the deceased, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 353, Pen. C. § 7193. Remains after dissection. In all cases in which a dissection has been made, the provisions of this chapter requiring the burial of a dead body, and punishing interference with or injuries to a dead body, apply equally to the remains of the body dissected, as soon as the lawful purposes of such dissection have been accomplished.
- § 354, Pen. C. § 7194. Dead limb or member of body. All provisions of this chapter requiring the burial of a dead body or punishing interference with or injuries to a dead body apply equally to any dead limb or member of a human body, separated therefrom during life-time.
- § 355, Pen. C. § 7195. Whose duty to bury. The duty of burying the body of a deceased person devolves upon the persons hereinafter specified:
1. If the deceased was a married woman, the duty of burial devolves upon her husband.
 2. If the deceased was not a married woman but left any kindred, the duty of burial devolves upon the person or persons in the same degree nearest of kin to the deceased, being of adult age and within this state, and possessed of sufficient means to defray the necessary expenses.
 3. If the deceased left no husband nor kindred, answering the foregoing description, the duty of burial devolves upon the coroner conducting an inquest upon the body of the deceased, if any such inquest is held; if none, then upon the persons charged with the support of the poor in the locality in which the death occurs.
 4. In case the person upon whom the duty of burial is cast by the foregoing provisions omits to make such burial within a reasonable time, the duty devolves upon the person next specified; and if all omit to act, it devolves upon the tenant, or, if there is no tenant, upon the owner of the premises or master, or, if there is no master, upon the owner of the vessel in which the death occurs or the body is found.
- § 356, Pen. C. § 7196. Neglect of burial, misdemeanor. Every person upon whom the duty of making burial of the remains of a deceased person is imposed by law, who omits to perform that duty within a reasonable time, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor, is liable to pay to the person performing the duty in his stead, treble the expenses incurred by the latter in making the burial, to be recovered in a civil action.

§ 7197. Who entitled to custody of body. The person § 357, Pen. C. charged by law with the duty of burying the body of a deceased person is entitled to the custody of such body for the purpose of burying it; except that in the case in which an inquest is required by law to be held upon a dead body by a coroner, such coroner is entitled to its custody until such inquest has been completed.

§ 7198. Unlawful removal of dead body. Every person § 358, Pen. C. who removes any part of the dead body of a human being from any grave or other place where the same has been buried, or from any place where the same is deposited while awaiting burial, with intent to sell the same or to dissect it without the authority of law, or from malice or wantonness, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7199. Purchasing body forbidden. Every person § 359, Pen. C. who purchases or who receives, except for the purpose of burial, any dead body of a human being, knowing that the same has been removed contrary to the last section, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7200. Unlawfully opening place of burial. Every person § 360, Pen. C. who opens any grave or any place of burial, temporary or otherwise, or who breaks open any building wherein any dead body of a human being is deposited while awaiting burial, with intent, either:

1. To remove any dead body of a human being for the purpose of selling the same or for the purpose of dissection; or,
2. To steal the coffin, or any part thereof or anything attached thereto or connected therewith, or the vestments or other articles buried with the same,

Is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding two years, or in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7201. When body removable from cemetery. When § 361, Pen. C. ever a cemetery or other place of burial is lawfully authorized to be removed from one place to another, the right and duty to disinter, remove and rebury the remains of bodies there lying buried, devolves upon the persons named in section 7195, in the order in which they are named, and if they all fail to act, then upon the lawful custodians of the place of burial so removed. Every omission of such duty is punishable in the same manner as other omissions to perform the duty of making burial are made punishable by section 7196.

§ 7202. Arresting or attaching dead body. Every person § 362, Pen. C. who arrests or attaches any dead body of a human being upon any debt or demand whatever, or detains or claims to detain it for any debt or demand or upon any pretended lien or charge, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7203. Disturbing funerals. Every person who willfully § 363, Pen. C. disturbs, interrupts or disquiets any assemblage of people met for the purpose of any funeral, or who, without authority of law, obstructs or detains any persons engaged in carrying or accompanying any dead body of a human being to a place of burial, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 364, Pen. C.

§ 7204. Injury to cemetery or tomb. Every person who shall willfully destroy, mutilate, deface, injure or remove any tomb, monument or gravestone or other structure placed in any cemetery or private burying ground, or any fence, railing or other work for the protection or ornament of such cemetery or place of burial of any human being, or tomb, monument or gravestone, memento, or memorial or other structure aforesaid, or of any lot within a cemetery, or shall willfully destroy, cut, break or injure any tree, shrub or plant, within the limits thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punishable by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 365, Pen. C.

§ 7205. Other laws against dissection. Every person who violates any provision of any enactment of the legislative assembly of this state now in force or that hereafter may be enacted, not provided for in this code relative to dissection, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 34.

INDECENT EXPOSURE, OBSCENE EXHIBITIONS, BOOKS AND PRINTS, AND BAWDY AND OTHER DISORDERLY HOUSES.

§ 366, Pen. C.

§ 7206. Indecent exposure. Exhibitions. Pictures. Every person who willfully and lewdly, either:

1. Exposes his person or the private parts thereof, in any public place, or in any place where there are present other persons to be offended or annoyed thereby; or,

2. Procures, counsels or assists any person so to expose himself, or to take any part in any model artist exhibition, or to make any other exhibition of himself to public view or to the view of any number of persons, such as is offensive to decency, or is adapted to excite to vicious or lewd thoughts or acts; or,

3. Writes or composes, stereotypes, prints, publishes, sells, distributes or keeps for sale, or exhibits any obscene or indecent writing, paper or book, or designs or copies, draws or engraves, paints or otherwise prepares any obscene or indecent picture or print of any description, or molds, cuts, casts or otherwise makes any obscene or indecent figure or form,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 367, Pen. C.

§ 7207. Seizure of indecent articles. Every person who is authorized or enjoined to arrest any person for a violation of subdivision 3 of the last section, is equally authorized and enjoined to seize any obscene or indecent writing, paper, book, picture, print or figure found in possession or under the control of the person so arrested, and to deliver the same to the magistrate before whom the person so arrested is required to be taken.

§ 7208. Summary disposition of same. The magistrate to whom any obscene or indecent writing, paper, book, picture, print or figure is delivered pursuant to the foregoing section, shall, upon the examination of the accused, or if the examination is delayed or prevented, without awaiting such examination, determine the character of such writing, paper, book, picture, print or figure, and if he finds it to be obscene or indecent, he shall cause the same to be destroyed or to be delivered to the state's attorney of the county in which the accused is liable to indictment or trial, as the interests of justice in his judgment require. But not more than two copies of any one writing, paper, book, picture, print or figure, shall be delivered to the state's attorney. § 368, Pen. C.

§ 7210. Keeping bawdy house. Every person who keeps any bawdy house, house of ill fame, of assignation or of prostitution, or any other house or place for persons to visit for unlawful sexual intercourse or for any other lewd, obscene or indecent purpose, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 370, Pen. C.

§ 7211. Disorderly house. Every person who keeps any disorderly house or any house of public resort by which the peace, comfort or decency of the immediate neighborhood is habitually disturbed, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 371, Pen. C.

§ 7212. Letting building for unlawful purposes. Every person who lets any building or portion of any building knowing that it is intended to be used for any purpose declared punishable by this chapter, or who otherwise permits any building or portion of a building to be so used, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 372, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 35.

SALE OF OBSCENE LITERATURE TO MINORS.

§ 7213. Delivery of obscene literature to children. Every person who, either: §§ 1, 2, 3, c. 103, 1890, am'd.

1. Sells, lends, gives away or shows to a child; or,
2. Has in his possession with intent to sell, lend, give away or show to a child; or,
3. Advertises or otherwise offers for loan, gift or distribution to a child; or,
4. Exhibits upon any street or highway or in any place within the view of a child; or,
5. Hires, uses or employs a child to sell, give away or in any manner to distribute; or,

6. Having the care, custody or control of a child, permits such child to sell, give away or in any manner to distribute:

Any work, pamphlet, magazine, newspaper, story paper or other print or publication devoted to the dissemination or principally made up of criminal news, police reports or accounts of criminal deeds, or pictures and accounts or stories of deeds of bloodshed, lust or crime, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 3, c. 103, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7214. Same. Punishment. Every person convicted of any of the offenses mentioned in the last section is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or both.

§ 1, c. 84, 1895.

§ 7215. Bringing obscene literature into state. Every person who shall bring or cause to be brought into the state, or shall buy, sell or cause to be sold, or shall advertise, lend, give away, offer, show or exhibit, or shall have in his possession with intent to sell, lend, give away, offer, show, exhibit, distribute or cause to be distributed, or shall design, copy, draw, photograph, print, etch or engrave, cut, carve, make, publish or otherwise prepare or assist in preparing, or shall receive subscriptions for any indecent or obscene book, pamphlet, paper, picture, print, drawing, figure, image or other engraved, printed or written matter, or any article or instrument of immoral use, or any book, pamphlet, magazine or other paper devoted principally or wholly to the publication of criminal news or pictures or stories of deeds of bloodshed or crime, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in a county jail not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7216. Child defined. The term "child," employed in this chapter, imports any person not exceeding eighteen years of age.

CHAPTER 36.

LOTTERIES.

§ 373, Pen. C.

§ 7217. Lottery defined. A lottery is any scheme for the disposal or distribution of property by chance among persons who have paid or promised or agreed to pay any valuable consideration for the chance of obtaining such property or a portion of it, or for any share of or interest in such property, upon any agreement, understanding or expectation that it is to be distributed or disposed of by lot or chance, whether called a lottery, a raffle or a gift enterprise, or by whatever name the same may be known.

§ 374, Pen. C.

§ 7218. Lottery a public nuisance. Every lottery is unlawful and a common public nuisance.

§ 375, Pen. C.

§ 7219. Drawing lotteries. Punishment. Every person who contrives, prepares, sets up, proposes or draws any lottery, is punishable by a fine equal to double the amount of the whole sum or value for which such lottery was made, and if such amount cannot be ascertained, then by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding two years, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7220. Selling lottery tickets. Every person who sells, § 376, Pen. C. gives or in any manner whatever furnishes or transfers to or for any other person, any ticket, chance, share or interest, or any paper, certificate or instrument, purporting or represented or understood to be or to represent any ticket, chance, share or interest in or depending upon the event of any lottery, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7221. Buying lottery tickets. Every person who buys, or § 377, Pen. C. in any manner whatever accepts or receives for himself or another any ticket, chance, share or interest, or any paper, certificate or instrument purporting or represented or understood to be or to represent any ticket, chance, share or interest in or depending upon the event of any lottery, forfeits ten dollars, to be recovered by the county superintendent of common schools of the county in which the offense was committed, for the use of common schools in said county.

§ 7222. Advertising lotteries. Every person who, by writing § 378, Pen. C. or printing, by circulars or letters or in any other way, advertises or publishes any account of any lottery, stating when or where the same is to be or has been drawn, or what are the prizes or any of them therein, or the price of a ticket or of any share or interest or where it may be obtained, or in any way aiding or assisting the same or adapted to induce persons to adventure therein, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7223. Offering property by means of lottery. Every § 379, Pen. C. person who offers for sale, distribution or disposition in any way, any real or personal property or things in action, or any interest therein, to be determined by lot or chance, that shall be dependent upon the drawing of any lottery within or out of this state, and every person who sells, furnishes or procures or causes to be sold, furnished or procured in any manner whatsoever, any chance or share or any interest whatever in any property offered for sale, distribution or disposition in violation of this section, or any ticket or other evidence of any chance, share or interest in such property, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7224. Keeping lottery office. Every person who opens, sets § 380, Pen. C. up or keeps, by himself or by any other person or persons, any office or other place for registering the numbers of any ticket in any lottery, or for making, receiving or registering any bets or wagers upon the drawing, determination or result of any lottery, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

§ 7225. Advertising lottery offices. Every person who, by § 381, Pen. C. writing or printing, by circulars or letters or in any other way, advertises or publishes any account of the opening, setting up or keeping of any office or other place for either of the purposes prohibited by the last section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7226. Insuring lottery tickets. Every person who insures § 382, Pen. C. or receives any consideration for insuring for or against the drawing of any ticket, share or interest in any lottery or for or against the drawing of any number or ticket or number of any ticket in any lottery: and every person who receives any valuable consideration upon any agreement to pay any sum, or to deliver any property or thing in action in the event that any ticket, share or interest in any lottery, or any number or ticket or number of any ticket in any lottery shall

- prove fortunate or unfortunate, or shall be drawn or not drawn on any particular day or in any particular order; and every person who promises, agrees or offers to pay any sum of money or to deliver any property or thing in action, or to do or forbear to do anything for the benefit of any other person, with or without consideration, upon any event whatever connected with any lottery, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 383, Pen. C. § 7227. Advertising same. Every person who, by writing or printing, by circulars or letters or in any other way, advertises or publishes any offer, notice or proposal for any violation of the last section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 384, Pen. C. § 7228. Property offered. Forfeited. All property offered for sale, distribution or disposition, in violation of the provisions of this chapter, is forfeited to the state, as well before as after the determination of the chance on which the same was dependent. And it is the duty of the respective state's attorneys, to demand, sue for and recover, in behalf of this state, all property so forfeited, and to cause the same to be sold when recovered, and to pay the proceeds of the sale of such property, and any moneys that may be collected in any such suit, into the county treasury for the benefit of common schools.
- § 385, Pen. C. § 7229. Letting building for lottery. Every person who lets or permits to be used any building or portion of any building, knowing that it is intended to be used for any of the purposes declared punishable by this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 386, Pen. C. § 7230. Lotteries out of state. The provisions of this chapter apply in respect to lotteries drawn or to be drawn out of this state whether authorized or not by the laws of the state where they are drawn or to be drawn, in the same manner as to lotteries drawn or to be drawn within this state.
- § 387, Pen. C. § 7231. Advertisement. The provisions of sections 7222 and 7225 are applicable wherever the advertisement was published, or the letter or circular sent or delivered through or in this state, notwithstanding the person causing or procuring the same to be published, sent or delivered, was out of this state at the time of so doing.

CHAPTER 37.

GAMING.

- § 388, Pen. C. § 7232. Keeping gambling apparatus. It is unlawful to maintain or keep any table, cards, dice or any article or apparatus whatever, useful or intended to be used in playing any game of cards or faro or other game of chance, upon which money is usually wagered.
- § 389, Pen. C. § 7233. Misdemeanor. Punishment. Every person who knowingly violates the last section is guilty of misdemeanor.
- § 390, Pen. C. § 7234. Apparatus a nuisance. Every article or apparatus maintained or kept in violation of section 7232, is a common and public nuisance.

§ 7235. Exacting payment. Every person who exacts or receives from another, directly or indirectly, any valuable consideration, by reason of the same having been won by playing at cards, faro or any other game at chance, or any bet or wager whatever upon the hands or sides of players, forfeits five times the value of the consideration so exacted or received, to be recovered in a civil action, by the county superintendent of common schools of the county in which the offense was committed, for the benefit of common schools in said county. § 391. Pen. C.

§ 7236. No witness' privilege. No person shall be excused from giving any testimony or evidence upon any investigation or proceeding for a violation of this chapter, upon the ground that such testimony would tend to convict him of a crime; but such testimony or evidence shall not be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding. § 392. Pen. C.

§ 7237. Keeping place for gambling. Every person who keeps any building or part of any building, or any vessel or float, to be used or occupied for gambling, and every owner, agent or superintendent of any such place, who knowingly lets the same or allows it to be used or occupied for gambling, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 393. Pen. C.

§ 7238. Keeping conveniences for gambling. Every person who, for gambling purposes, keeps or exhibits any gambling table, establishment, device or apparatus, or is guilty of dealing faro, or banking for others to deal faro, or acting as lookout or gamekeeper for the game of faro, or any other banking game where money or property is dependent upon the result, or who sells or vends what are commonly called lottery policies, or any writing, card, paper or document in the nature of a bet, wager or insurance upon the drawing or drawn numbers of any public or private lottery, or indorses a book or any other document for the purpose of enabling others to sell or vend lottery policies, is deemed a common gambler, and is punishable as for a misdemeanor. § 394. Pen. C.

§ 7239. Seizure of implements authorized. Every person who is authorized or enjoined to arrest any person for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, is equally authorized and enjoined to seize any table, cards, dice or other article or apparatus, suitable to be used for gambling purposes, found in the possession or under the control of the person so arrested, and to deliver the same to the magistrate before whom the person so arrested is required to be taken. § 395. Pen. C.

§ 7240. Summary disposition of implements. The magistrate to whom anything suitable to be used for gambling purposes is delivered, pursuant to the foregoing section, shall, upon the examination of the accused, or if such examination is delayed or prevented, without awaiting such examination, determine the character of the thing so delivered to him and whether it was actually employed by the accused in violation of the provisions of this chapter; and if he finds that it is of a character suitable to be used for gambling purposes and that it has been used by the accused in violation of this chapter, he shall cause it to be destroyed or to be delivered to the state's attorney of the county in which the accused is liable to indictment or trial, as the interests of justice in his judgment require. § 396. Pen. C.

§ 7241. Destruction of implements. Upon the conviction of the accused such state's attorney shall cause any such thing suitable to be used for gambling purposes, in respect whereof the accused stands convicted, and which remains in the possession or under the control of such state's attorney, to be destroyed.

§ 398, Pen. C. § 7242. Persuading to visit gambling places. Every person who persuades another to visit any building or part of a building or any vessel or float used or occupied for the purpose of gambling, in consequence whereof such other person gambles therein, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor, is liable to such other person in an amount equal to any money or property lost by him at play at such place, to be recovered in a civil action.

§ 399, Pen. C. § 7243. Duty of sheriff and officers. It is the duty of all sheriffs, police officers, constables and prosecuting or state's attorneys, to inform against and prosecute all persons whom they have credible reason to believe are offenders against the provisions of this chapter, and any omission so to do is punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§ 400, Pen. C. § 7244. Duty of master of vessel. If any commander, owner or lessee of any vessel or float, knowingly permits any gambling for money or property on board such vessel or float, and does not upon his knowledge of the fact, immediately prevent the same, he is punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and in addition thereto is liable to any party losing any money or property by means of any gambling permitted in violation of this section, in a sum equal to the money or property, to be recovered in a civil action.

§ 401, Pen. C. § 7245. Racing of animals for wager. All racing or trial of speed between horses or animals for any bet, stake or reward, except such as is allowed by special laws, is a common nuisance, and every person acting or aiding therein, or making or being interested in any such bet, stake or reward, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and in addition to the penalty prescribed therefor, he forfeits all title or interest in any animal used with his privity in such race or trial of speed, and in any sum of money or other property betted or staked upon the result thereof.

CHAPTER 38.

PAWNBROKERS.

§ 402, Pen. C. § 7246. Doing business without license. Every person who carries on the business of a pawnbroker, by receiving goods in pledge for loans at any rate of interest above that allowed by law, except by authority of a license from a municipal corporation empowered to grant licenses to pawnbrokers, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 403, Pen. C. § 7247. Refusing to exhibit stolen goods. Every pawnbroker or person carrying on the business of a pawnbroker, and every junk dealer, who having received any goods which have been embezzled or stolen, refuses or omits to exhibit them, upon demand, during the usual business hours, to the owner of said goods or his agent authorized to demand an inspection thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7248. Selling before default. Every pawnbroker who sells any article received by him in pledge, before the time to redeem the same has expired, and every pawnbroker who willfully refuses to disclose the name of the purchaser and the price received by him for any article received by him in pledge and subsequently sold, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 401, Pen. C.

§ 7249. Peddling without license. Any person who shall pursue the business of trading as a peddler or traveling merchant without license, or who refuses to produce his license for examination upon the request of any resident or officer of the county in which he is carrying on such business, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable in the discretion of the court, by a fine of not exceeding fifty dollars or by imprisonment in the jail of the county in which the offense is committed not exceeding thirty days. § 5, c. 85, 1895.

CHAPTER 39.

OTHER INJURIES TO PERSONS.

§ 7250. Physician being intoxicated. Every physician who, being in a state of intoxication, administers any poison, drug or medicine or does any other act as such physician, to another person, by which the life of such other is endangered, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 405, Pen. C.

§ 7251. Willfully poisoning food. Every person who willfully mingles any poison with any food, drink or medicine, with intent that the same shall be taken by any human being to his injury, and every person who willfully poisons any spring, well or reservoir of water, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. § 406, Pen. C.

§ 7252. Overloading passenger vessel. Every person navigating any vessel for gain, who willfully or negligently receives so many passengers, or such a quantity of other lading on board such vessel, that by means thereof such vessel sinks or is upset or injured, and thereby the life of any human being is endangered, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 407, Pen. C.

§ 7253. Mismanagement of steamboats. Every captain or other person having charge of any steamboat used for the conveyance of passengers, or of the boilers and engines thereof, who, from ignorance or gross neglect, or for the purpose of excelling any other boat in speed, creates or allows to be created such an undue quantity of steam as to burst or break the boiler or other apparatus in which it shall be generated, or any apparatus or machinery connected therewith, by which bursting or breaking human life is endangered, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 408, Pen. C.

§ 7254. Engineer. Steam boilers. Every engineer or other person having charge of any steam boiler, steam engine or other apparatus for generating or employing steam, employed in any manufactory, railway or other mechanical works, who willfully or from ignorance or gross neglect, creates or allows to be created such an undue quantity of steam as to burst or break the boiler or engine or apparatus or cause any other accident whereby human life is endangered, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 410, Pen. C.

§ 7255. Fictitious partnership name. Every person transacting business in the name of a person as a partner who is not interested in his firm, or transacting business under a firm name in which the designation "and company," or "& Co." is used without representing an actual partner, except in the cases in which the continued use of a copartnership name is authorized by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 411, Pen. C.

§ 7256. Counterfeiting trade-mark. Every person who willfully forges, counterfeits or procures to be forged or counterfeited any trade-mark usually affixed by any person to any goods of such person, with intent to pass off any goods to which such forged or counterfeit trade-mark is affixed or intended to be affixed, as the goods of such person, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 412, Pen. C.

§ 7257. Keeping dies of trade-mark. Every person who, with intent to defraud, has in his possession any die, plate or brand, or any imitation of the trade-mark of any person, for the purpose of making any counterfeit or imitation of any description whatever of such trade-mark, or of selling the same when made, or affixing the same to any goods, and selling or offering the same for sale or disposal as the original goods of any other person, and every person who so uses or sells the same, or who fraudulently uses the genuine trade-mark of another with intent to sell or offer for sale or disposal, any goods not the goods of the person to whom such trade-mark properly belongs, as genuine and original, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

2. Uses or causes to be used any second hand sack, box, barrel, can, package or other article on which has been placed any brand, mark, name, print, designation or description, the property of another, for purposes of deception or profit, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by fine of not less than one hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars.

§ 413, Pen. C.

§ 7259. Selling goods bearing counterfeit. Every person who sells or keeps for sale any goods upon which any counterfeit trade-mark has been affixed, and intended to represent such goods as the genuine goods of another, knowing the same to be counterfeited, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 414, Pen. C.

§ 7260. Colorable imitations. Every person who, with intent to defraud, affixes or causes to be affixed to any goods or to any bottle, case, box or other package containing any goods, any description of label, stamp, brand, imprint, printed wrapper, label or mark, which designates such goods by any word or token which is wholly or in part the same to the eye or to the ear, as the word or any of the words or tokens used by any other person as his trade-mark, and every person who knowingly sells or keeps or offers for sale, any such bottle, case, box or other package, with any such label, stamp, brand, imprint, printed wrapper, ticket or mark affixed to or upon it, in case the person affixing or causing to be affixed such mark, or so selling or exposing or offering for sale such bottle, case, box or other package, was not the first to employ or use such words as his trade-mark, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor is liable to the party aggrieved in the penal sum of one hundred dollars for each and every offense, to be recovered by him in a civil action.

§ 7261. Trade-mark defined. The words "trade-mark," as § 415, Pen. C. used in the sections preceding, includes every description of word, letter, device, emblem, stamp, imprint, brand, printed ticket, label or wrapper, usually affixed by any mechanic, manufacturer, druggist, merchant or tradesman, to denote any goods to be goods imported, manufactured, produced, compounded or sold by him, other than any name, word or expression generally denoting any goods to be of some particular class or description.

§ 7262. Goods defined. The word "goods," as used in the § 416, Pen. C. sections preceding, includes every kind of goods, wares, merchandise, compound or preparation, which may be lawfully kept or offered for sale.

§ 7263. Affixing defined. When crime complete. The § 417, Pen. C. offense of affixing a false trade-mark to goods is equally complete within the meaning of sections 7256, 7259 and 7260, whether such mark is affixed to the goods themselves, or to any box, bale, barrel, bottle, case, cask, wrapper or other package or vessel, or any cover or stopper thereof, in which such goods are put up.

§ 7264. Refilling or selling bottles. Whenever any per- § 418, Pen. C. son engaged in manufacturing, bottling or selling in bottles, soda, mineral waters, porter, ale, cider or small beer, has filed and published, in the manner authorized by law, a description of a name, mark or label, usually stamped by him in the bottles containing such beverage, every other person who, without the written consent of such manufacturer or dealer, refills with any beverage, whether genuine or otherwise, with the intent to sell the same, any bottles stamped with such name, mark or label, and every person who sells, disposes of, purchases or traffics in such bottles, is liable to a penalty of fifty cents for each and every bottle so filled, sold, bought, disposed of or trafficked in, for the first offense, and five dollars for each and every bottle so filled, bought, disposed of or trafficked in, for every subsequent offense.

§ 7265. Keeping bottles with intent to refill. Every per- § 419, Pen. C. son who keeps any bottles such as are designated in the last section, without the written consent of the manufacturer so to do, unless it appears that they were not kept with intent to refill or use or sell them in violation of the last section, is liable to the penalty therein prescribed.

§ 7266. Complaint. Search. Penalty. Whenever any man- § 420, Pen. C. ufacturer or dealer designated by section 7264, or his agent, shall make oath or affirmation before any magistrate that he has reason to believe and does believe, that any of his bottles stamped and registered as mentioned in said section are being unlawfully used by any person or persons selling or manufacturing mineral water or other beverages, or that any junk dealer or vender of bottles, has any of such bottles secreted in any place, such magistrate shall thereupon issue a search warrant to discover and obtain the same under the provisions of the law upon search warrants, which are hereby declared to relate fully to the purposes of this chapter; and the magistrate may summarily bring or cause to be brought before him the person in whose possession the bottles are found, to examine into the circumstances of his possession, and if such magistrate on summary examination finds that such person has been guilty of a violation of section 7264, such magistrate shall proceed to impose the fine therein prescribed, and if the same is not paid, to commit such person to prison for a term not exceeding fifteen days.

CHAPTER 40.

CRIMES AGAINST THE PUBLIC HEALTH AND SAFETY.

§ 7287. Public nuisance defined. A public nuisance is a crime against the order and economy of the state, and consists in unlawfully doing any act or omitting to perform any duty required by the public good, which act or omission, either: § 431, Pen. C.

1. Annoys or injures the comfort, repose, health or safety of any considerable number of persons; or,

2. Offends public decency; or,

3. Unlawfully interferes with, obstructs or tends to obstruct, any lake or any navigable river, bay, stream, canal or basin, or any public park, square, street or highway; or,

4. In any way renders life or the use of property uncomfortable.

§ 7288. Unequal damage. An act which affects a considerable number of persons in either of the ways specified in the last section, is not less a nuisance because the extent of the damage is unequal. § 432, Pen. C.

§ 7289. Maintaining nuisance. Misdemeanor. Every person who maintains or commits any public nuisance, the punishment for which is not otherwise prescribed, or who willfully omits to perform any legal duty relating to the removal of a public nuisance, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 433, Pen. C.

§ 7290. Keeping explosives. Every person who makes or keeps gunpowder, saltpeter, gun cotton, nitroglycerine or dynamite or any compound of the same, or any fulminate or substance which is intended to be used by exploding or igniting the same, in order to produce a force to propel missiles or to rend apart substances, within any city, town or village, and any person who carries any of such explosives through the streets thereof, in any quantity or manner prohibited by law or by any ordinance, by-law or regulation of said city, town or village, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 434, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 435, Pen. C. § 7291. Fouling waters with gas tar. Every person who throws or deposits any gas tar or refuse of any gas house or factory, into any public waters, river or stream, or into any sewer or stream emptying into any such public waters, river or stream, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 436, Pen. C. § 7292. Violation of quarantine laws. Every master of a vessel subject to quarantine or visitation of the health officer, by the provisions of any law of this state, now in force or that hereafter may be enacted, arrives in any port or at the boat landing of any city or town in this state, who refuses or omits, either:

1. To proceed with and anchor or land his vessel at the place assigned for quarantine, at the time of his arrival; or,

2. To submit his vessel, cargo and passengers to the examination of the health officer, and to furnish all necessary information to enable that officer to determine to what length of quarantine and other regulations they ought respectively to be subject; or,

3. To remain with his vessel at quarantine, during the period assigned for her quarantine and while at quarantine, to comply with the directions and regulations prescribed by law, and with such as any of the officers of health, by virtue of the authority given them by law, shall prescribe in relation to his vessel, his cargo, himself, his passengers or crew, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both.

§ 437, Pen. C. § 7293. Offenses by master of vessel. Every master of a vessel hailed by a pilot, or such officer as may be specified by law, who either:

1. Give false information to such pilot or other officer, relative to the condition of his vessel, crew or passengers, or the health of the place or places from whence he came, or refuses to give such information as shall be lawfully required; or,

2. Lands any person from his vessel, or permits any person, except a pilot or such officer specified by law, to come on board of his vessel, or unloads or tranships any portion of his cargo before his vessel has been visited and examined by the proper health officers; or,

3. Approaches with his vessel nearer any city or town within this state than the place of quarantine to which he may be directed, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which the offense was committed, not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 438, Pen. C. § 7294. Landing before visit of health officers. Every person who, being on board any vessel at the time of her arrival at any port within this state, under the provisions of section 7292, lands from such vessel, or unloads or tranships, or assists in unloading or transshipping any portion of her cargo, before such vessel has been visited and examined by the health officers, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both.

§ 439, Pen. C. § 7295. Other visitations. Every person who goes on board of or has any communication, intercourse or dealing with any vessel at quarantine, or with any of the crew or passengers of such vessel, without the permission of the health officer, and every person who, without such authority enters the quarantine grounds or anchorage, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both: and in addition thereto he may be detained at quarantine so long as the health officers shall direct, not exceeding twenty days. And in case such person shall be taken sick of any infectious, contagious or pestilential disease, during such twenty days, he may be detained for such further time and at such place as the health officer shall direct.

§ 7296. Violating quarantine orders. Every person who, § 40, Pen. C.
having been lawfully ordered by any health officer to be detained in quarantine, and not having been discharged, leaves the quarantine grounds or anchorage, or willfully violates any quarantine law or regulation, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7297. Obstructing health officer. Every person who will- § 41, Pen. C.
fully opposes or obstructs any health officer or physician charged with the enforcement of the health laws, in performing any legal duty, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7298. Violation of health laws. Every person who will- § 42, Pen. C.
fully violates any provision of the health laws, the punishment for violating which is not otherwise prescribed by those laws or by this code, and every person who willfully violates or refuses or omits to comply with any lawful order, direction, prohibition or regulation prescribed by any board of health or health officer, or any regulation lawfully made or established by any public officer under authority of the health laws, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars, or both.

license as pilot under the laws of this state, or under the laws of either of the states of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa or Nebraska, who pilots or offers to pilot any steamboat to or from any port within this state, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7300. Last section limited. The last section applies only § 44, Pen. C.
to vessels propelled by steam while engaged in conveying freight and passengers or either, on the Missouri river.

§ 7301. Assuming to act as port warden. Every person § 45, Pen. C.
who, not being a port warden, assumes or undertakes to act as such, under or by the provisions of any law of this state now in force or that may hereafter be enacted, and every person who issues any certificate of a survey on vessels, materials or goods damaged, with the intent to avoid the provisions of the law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

apothecary or druggist, and every person employed as clerk or salesman by an apothecary or druggist, or otherwise carrying on business as a dealer in drugs or medicines, who, in putting up any drugs or medicines, willfully, negligently or ignorantly omits to label the same, or puts any untrue label, stamp or other designation of contents upon any box, bottle or other package containing any drugs or medicines, or substitutes a different article for any article prescribed or ordered, or puts up a greater or less quantity of any article than that prescribed or ordered, or otherwise deviates from the terms of the prescription or order which he undertakes to follow, in consequence of which human life or health is endangered, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7303. Record of poison sold. Label. No druggist, apothecary or other person dealing or trafficking in drugs or medicines, and § 47, Pen. C.
no person employed as clerk or salesman by any apothecary or drug- am'd.

gist, shall sell or give away any poison or poisonous substances, except to practicing physicians, in their ordinary practice of medicine, without recording in a book, to be kept for that purpose, the name of the person or persons receiving such poison, and his, her or their residence, excepting upon the written order or prescription of some practicing physician whose name must be attached to such order or prescription. No person shall sell, give away or dispose of any poisonous substance without attaching to the phial, box or parcel containing such poisonous substance a label with the word "poison," printed or written upon it, in plain and legible characters.

§ 448, Pen. C. § 7304. Violation, misdemeanor. Any person violating any of the provisions of section 7303 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 449, Pen. C. § 7305. Record subject to inspection. Every person whose duty it is by section 7303 to keep any book for recording the sale or gift of poisons, who willfully refuses to permit any person to inspect said book upon reasonable demand made during business hours, is punishable by fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

§ 450, Pen. C. § 7306. Laying out poison. Exception. Every person who shall lay out strychnine or other poison, within the limits of any town, or within one mile of any dwelling house or any barn, stable or outbuilding, used at the time for the keeping or shelter of horses, cattle, sheep or swine, or within one half mile of any traveled thoroughfare, on the ceded lands of this state, is guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the putting out at any time of poisoned grain, for the purpose of killing gophers.

§ 451, Pen. C. § 7307. Omitting to mark baled hay. Every person who, in putting up or pressing any bundle of hay for market, omits to put the number of pounds in each bundle or bale so put up, for which he sells or offers to sell it, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 452, Pen. C. § 7308. Fraudulently increasing weight. Every person who, in putting up in any bag, bale, box, barrel or other package, any hops, cotton, hay or other goods usually sold in bags, bales, barrels or packages, by weight, puts in or conceals therein anything whatever for the purpose of increasing the weight of such bag, bale, box, barrel or package, is punishable by a fine of twenty-five dollars for each offense.

§ 453, Pen. C. § 7309. Adulterating food or medicines. Every person who adulterates or dilutes any article of food, drink, drug, medicine, strong, spirituous or malt liquor or wine, or any article useful in compounding either of them, whether one useful for mankind or for animals, with a fraudulent intent to offer the same, or cause or permit it to be offered for sale as unadulterated or undiluted, and every person who fraudulently sells or keeps or offers for sale the same as unadulterated or undiluted, knowing it to have been adulterated or diluted, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 454, Pen. C. § 7310. Knowingly selling tainted food. Every person who knowingly sells, or keeps or offers for sale or otherwise disposes of any article of food, drink, drug or medicine, knowing that the same has become tainted, decayed, spoiled or otherwise unwholesome or unfit to be eaten or drank, with intent to permit the same to be eaten or drank by any person or animal, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 455, Pen. C. § 7311. Manufacturing slung shot. Every person who manufactures or causes to be manufactured, or sells or offers or keeps for sale or gives or disposes of any instrument or weapon of the kind usually known as slung shot, or of any similar kind, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7312. Carrying or using slung shot. Every person who carries upon his person, whether concealed or not, or uses or attempts to use against another, any instrument or weapon of the kind usually known as slung shot, or of any similar kind, is guilty of a felony. § 456, Pen. C.

§ 7313. Carrying concealed weapons. Every person who carries concealed about his person any description of firearms, being loaded or partly loaded, or any sharp or dangerous weapon, such as is usually employed in attack or defense of the person, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 457, Pen. C.

§ 7314. Willfully firing prairies and marshes. Every person who shall willfully set on fire, or cause to be set on fire, any woods, marshes or prairies, with intention to injure the property of another, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable for all damages done by such fire. § 458, Pen. C.

§ 7315. Negligently firing same. Every person who negligently or carelessly sets on fire or causes to be set on fire, any woods, marshes or prairies, or who, having set the same on fire or caused it to be done, negligently or carelessly or without full precaution or efforts to prevent, permits it to spread beyond his control, shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than ten dollars, and shall be liable to injured parties for all damages occasioned thereby. One-half of such fine shall, when collected, go to the informer. § 459, Pen. C.

§ 7316. Refusing to aid at fires. Every person who, at any burning of a building, is guilty of any disobedience to lawful orders of any public officer or fireman, or of any resistance to or interference with the lawful efforts of any fireman or company of firemen to extinguish the same, or of any disorderly conduct calculated to prevent the same from being extinguished, or who forbids, prevents or dissuades others from assisting to extinguish the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 460, Pen. C.

§ 7317. Unlicensed ferry. Every person who maintains any ferry for profit or hire upon any waters within this state, without having first obtained a license as provided by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor. And any license or lease granted by the board of county commissioners of the proper county shall be exclusive to the lessee or licensee for a distance of two miles from the place where such ferry is located, up and down such stream either way; and any person who shall ferry, transport or carry or attempt to ferry, transport or carry any passengers, goods, chattels or merchandise, or who shall have, keep or maintain any scow, skiff or boat for the purpose of ferrying, transporting or carrying any passengers, goods, chattels or merchandise upon any water of this state within a distance of two miles of any licensed ferry, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or thirty days imprisonment in the county jail, or by both fine and imprisonment: when such ferry is upon waters dividing two counties, the offenders may be prosecuted in either county. § 461, Pen. C.

§ 7318. Violating ferry bond. Every person who, having entered into a bond or obligation, as provided by his ferry charter or any general law on the subject of ferries, to keep and attend a ferry, § 462, Pen. C.

violates the condition of such bond or obligation, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 463, Pen. C. § 7319. Failure to ring locomotive bell. Every person in charge, as engineer, of a locomotive engine, who omits to cause a bell to ring or a steam whistle to sound at the distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the track crosses, on the same level, any traveled public way, is punishable by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding sixty days.

§ 464, Pen. C. § 7320. Intoxicated engineer or conductor. Every person who, while in charge as engineer, of a locomotive engine, or while acting as conductor or driver upon a railroad train or car, whether propelled by steam or drawn by horses, is intoxicated, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 465, Pen. C. § 7321. Railroad employee's neglect of duty. Every engineer, conductor, brakeman, switchtender or other officer, agent or servant, of any railroad company, who is guilty of any willful violation or omission of his duty as such officer, agent or servant, by which human life or safety is endangered, the punishment for which is not otherwise prescribed, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 466, Pen. C. § 7322. Guards at ice cutting. All persons and incorporated companies cutting ice in or upon any waters within the boundaries of this state, for the purpose of removing such ice for sale, shall surround the cuttings and openings made, with fences or bushes or other guards sufficient to warn all persons of such cuttings and openings.

§ 467, Pen. C. § 7323. How long maintained. Such fences or guards must be erected at or before the time of commencing such cuttings or openings, and must be maintained until ice has again formed in such openings to the thickness of at least six inches.

§ 468, Pen. C. § 7324. Violations, misdemeanor. Every person who violates the provisions of the last two sections is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 469, Pen. C. § 7325. Obstructing navigation. Every person who in any manner obstructs the free navigation of any navigable water course within this state, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 470, Pen. C. § 7326. Exposing person with contagious disease. Every person who willfully exposes himself or another person, being affected with any contagious disease, in any public place or thoroughfare, except in his necessary removal in a manner not dangerous to the public health, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 471, Pen. C. § 7327. Frauds to affect market price. Every person who willfully makes or publishes any false statement, spreads any false rumor or employs any other false or fraudulent means or device, with intent to affect the market price of any kind of property, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 472, Pen. C. § 7328. False statements to increase newspaper sales. Every editor or proprietor of any newspaper who willfully publishes in such newspaper as true, any statement which he has not good reason to believe to be true, with intent to increase thereby the sales of copies of such paper, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 473, Pen. C. § 7329. Eavesdropping. Every person guilty of secretly loitering about any building, with intent to overhear discourse therein and to repeat or publish the same to vex, annoy or injure others, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 474, Pen. C. § 7330. Racing upon highways. Every person driving any conveyance drawn by horses upon any public road or way, who causes or suffers his horses to run, with intent to pass another conveyance or to prevent such other from passing his own, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 1, c. 31, 1895.

§ 7337. Adulterating cigarettes. Punishment. Any person within this state who manufactures, sells, gives to any one or uses any cigarette containing any substance foreign to tobacco and deleterious to health, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or imprisonment in a county jail for not more than thirty days.

§ 2, c. 31, 1895.

§ 7338. Selling to minors, prohibited. Any person within this state who sells or gives to or in any way furnishes to any person under the age of seventeen years, any cigarettes, cigars or tobacco of any kind, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or imprisonment in a county jail for not more than thirty days.

CHAPTER 43.

CRIMES AGAINST THE PUBLIC PEACE.

§ 475, Pen. C.

§ 7339. Disturbing lawful meeting. Every person who, without authority of law, willfully disturbs or breaks up any assembly or meeting, not unlawful in its character, other than such as are mentioned in sections 6852, 6874 and 7203 of this code, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 476, Pen. C.

§ 7340. Riot defined. Any use of force or violence, or any threat to use force or violence if accompanied by immediate power of execution, by three or more persons acting together and without authority of law, is riot.

§ 477, Pen. C.

§ 7341. Punishment of riot. Every person guilty of participating in any riot is punishable as follows:

1. If any murder, maiming, robbery, rape or arson was committed in the course of such riot, such person is punishable in the same manner as a principal in such crime.

2. If the purpose of the riotous assembly was to resist the execution of any statute of this state or of the United States, or to obstruct any public officer of this state or of the United States, in the performance of any legal duty or in serving or executing any legal process, such person is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years and not less than two.

3. If such person carried, at the time of such riot, any species of firearms or other deadly or dangerous weapon, or was disguised, he is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years and not less than two.

4. If such person directed, advised, encouraged or solicited other persons, who participated in the riot, to acts of force or violence, he is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than three years.

5. In all other cases such person is punishable as for a misdemeanor.

§ 7342. Rout defined. Whenever three or more persons, acting together, make any attempt to do any act toward the commission of an act which would be riot if actually committed, such assembly is a rout. § 478, Pen. C.

§ 7343. Unlawful assembly defined. Misdemeanor. § 479, Pen. C.
Whenever three or more persons assemble with intent or with means and preparations to do an unlawful act which would be riot if actually committed, but do not act toward the commission thereof, or whenever such persons assemble without authority of law, and in such a manner as is adapted to disturb the public peace or excite public alarm, such assembly is an unlawful assembly.

§ 7344. Rout or unlawful assembly, misdemeanor. §§ 480, 481, Pen. C.
Every person who participates in any rout or unlawful assembly, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and every person remaining present at the place of any riot, rout or unlawful assembly, after the same has been lawfully warned to disperse, except public officers and persons assisting them in attempting to disperse the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7345. Remaining after unlawful purpose disclosed. § 482, Pen. C.
When three or more persons assemble for a lawful purpose, and afterwards proceed to commit an act that would amount to riot if it had been the original purpose of the meeting, every person who does not retire when the change of purpose is made known, except public officers and persons assisting them in attempting to disperse the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7346. Refusing to arrest rioter. § 483, Pen. C.
Every person present at any riot, and lawfully commanded to aid the magistrate or officers in arresting any rioter, who neglects or refuses to obey such command, is deemed one of the rioters, and punishable accordingly.

§ 7347. Resisting execution of process. § 484, Pen. C.
Every person who resists, or enters into a combination with any other person to resist the execution of any legal process, under circumstances not amounting to a riot, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

§ 7348. Engaging in prize fight. § 485, Pen. C.
Every person who engages in, instigates, encourages or promotes, any ring or prize fight or any other premeditated fight or contention, whether as principal, aid, second, umpire, surgeon or otherwise, although no death or personal injury ensues, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 486, Pen. C.

§ 7349. Challenge to prize fight. Every person who challenges another to engage in any such fight as is specified in the last section; every person who accepts any such challenge; every person who knowingly forwards, carries or delivers any such challenge; and every person who bets, stakes or wagers any money or property upon the result of any such fight, or who undertakes to hold any money or property so betted, staked or wagered, to be delivered to or for the benefit of the winner thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 487, Pen. C.

§ 7350. Acts constituting challenge. Any words spoken or written or any signs uttered or made to any person, expressing or implying or intended to express or imply, a desire, request, invitation or demand to engage in any fight, such as is mentioned in section 7348, are deemed a challenge within the meaning of the last section.

§ 488, Pen. C.

§ 7351. Leaving state to engage in prize fight. Every person who leaves this state with the intent to elude any of the provisions of the last three sections, and to commit any act out of this state such as is prohibited by them, and who does any act which would be punishable under such provisions, if committed within this state, is punishable in the same manner as he would have been in case such act had been committed within this state.

§ 489, Pen. C.

§ 7352. Place of trial. Such person may be prosecuted and tried in any county within this state.

§ 490, Pen. C.

§ 7353. Duty of peace officers regarding prize fights. It is the duty of all sheriffs, constables, policemen and watchmen, who have reasonable grounds to believe that any offense specified in section 7348 is about to be committed within their jurisdiction, to make complaint under the provisions of this chapter to some magistrate within their jurisdiction.

§ 491, Pen. C.

§ 7354. Neglect a misdemeanor. Every sheriff, constable, policeman or watchman, who willfully neglects the duty prescribed by the last section, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor, he forfeits his office.

§ 492, Pen. C.

§ 7355. Forcible entry or detainer of lands. Every person guilty of using or procuring, encouraging or assisting another to use any force or violence in entering upon or detaining any lands or other possessions of another, except in the cases and manner allowed by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 493, Pen. C.

§ 7356. Returning to lands after removal. Every person who has been removed from any lands by process of law, or who has removed from any lands pursuant to the lawful adjudication or direction of any court, tribunal or officer, and who afterward, without authority of law, returns to settle or reside upon such lands, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 494, Pen. C.

§ 7357. Unlawful intrusions upon lots. Every person who intrudes or squats upon any lot or piece of land within the bounds of any incorporated city or village, without license or authority from the owner thereof, or who erects or occupies thereon any hut, hovel, shanty or other structure whatever, without such license or authority; and every person who places, erects or occupies within the bounds of any street or avenue of such city or village, any hut, hovel, shanty or other structure whatever, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7358. Unlawful discharge of firearms. Every person § 495, Pen. C. who willfully discharges any species of firearm, air gun or other weapon, or throws any other missile in any public place or in any place where there is any person to be endangered thereby, although no injury to any person shall ensue, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7359. No privilege from testifying. No person shall be § 496, Pen. C. excused from giving any evidence upon any investigation or prosecution for any of the offenses specified in this chapter, upon the ground that such testimony or evidence might tend to convict him of a crime.
But such answer or evidence shall not be received against him upon any criminal proceeding or prosecution.

CHAPTER 44.

CRIMES AGAINST THE REVENUE AND PROPERTY OF THE STATE.

§ 7360. Embezzlement and false accounts by officers. § 497, Pen. C.
Every public officer, and every deputy or clerk of any such officer, and every other person receiving any moneys on behalf of or for account of this state, or of any department of the government of this state, or of any bureau or fund created by law, and in which this state or the people thereof, are directly or indirectly interested, who either:

1. Appropriates to his own use, or to the use of any person not entitled thereto, without authority of law, any money received by him as such officer, clerk or deputy or otherwise, on behalf of this state or the people thereof, or in which they are interested; or, sioner, sheriff, coroner or county superintendent of common schools, who willfully fails or refuses to perform the duties of his office according to law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 3, c. 129, 1885.
am'd.

§ 7364. Agreement for false assessment. Every assessor, or county commissioner who enters into any contract, agreement or understanding with the owner of any personal property or his agent, whereby and pursuant to which such property is to be assessed at less than its cash value, in consideration that the owner of such property or his agent, shall remove or cause to be removed, said property, for the purpose of taxation, into the county, district or township of such assessor or commissioner, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 3, c. 129, 1885.
am'd.

§ 7365. Same by owner. Every owner of personal property or his agent, who enters into any contract, agreement or understanding such as is mentioned in the last section and every person aiding or abetting the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 3, c. 129, 1885.
am'd.

§ 7366. Punishment. Every person convicted of violating any of the provisions of the last two sections is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three and not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by both.

§ 501, Pen. C.

§ 7367. Obstructing collection of revenue. Every person who willfully obstructs or hinders any public officer from collecting any revenue, taxes or other sums of money in which, or in any part of which the people of this state are directly or indirectly interested, and which such officer is by law empowered to collect, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 502, Pen. C.

§ 7368. Provisions of section 7363 extended to other officers. The provisions of section 7363 shall also apply to county treasurers, justices of the peace and all other county and precinct officers.

§ 503, Pen. C.

§ 7369. Refusal of state officers to perform duty. Every state auditor, state treasurer, superintendent of public instruction for this state or any other state officer who willfully neglects or refuses to perform the duties of his office, as prescribed by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 504, Pen. C.

§ 7370. Auctioneer to have but one place. No auctioneer in any town or county of this state, shall at one time have more than one place for carrying on the general business of an auctioneer.

§ 505, Pen. C.

§ 7371. What not to sell at other place. No such auctioneer shall expose to sale by public auction any articles liable to auction duties at any other place than that so designated, except goods sold in original packages, as imported pictures, household furniture, libraries, stationery and such bulky articles as have usually been sold in warehouses, or in the public streets or on the wharves.

§ 506, Pen. C.

§ 7372. Punishment. A violation of either of the last two sections is punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars for each offense.

§ 507, Pen. C.

§ 7373. Fraud by selling damaged goods. Every person carrying on, interested in or employed about the business of selling property or goods by auction, who sells any goods or property in a damaged condition, which he offers as sound or in a good condition, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 508, Pen. C.

§ 7374. Must sell in day time. Exceptions. All sales of goods by public auction by a licensed auctioneer shall be made in the day time between sunrise and sunset, unless otherwise authorized by the law under which he holds his license, excepting:

1. Books, prints, pictures or stationery.

2. Goods sold in the original packages as imported, according to a printed catalogue, of which samples shall have been opened and exposed to public view at least one day previous to the sale. Every person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor; and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor by law, is forever disqualified after his conviction therefor, from being licensed to act as an auctioneer within this state.

§ 7375. Failure to render account. Every auctioneer, and § 509. Pen. C.
every partner or clerk of an auctioneer, and every person whatever in any way connected in business with an auctioneer, who willfully omits to render any semiannual or other account by law required to be rendered, at the time or in the manner prescribed by law, or who willfully omits to pay over any duties legally payable by him at the time and in the manner prescribed by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7376. Fraud committed by auctioneer. Every auctioneer, § 510. Pen. C.
and every partner or clerk of any auctioneer, and every person whatever in any way connected in business with an auctioneer, who commits any fraud or deceit, or by any fraudulent means whatever seeks to evade or defeat the provisions of the laws of this state relating to auctions, now in force or that may hereafter be enacted, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and in addition to the punishment prescribed therefor is liable in treble damages to any party injured thereby.

may be to deliver to any collector of tolls upon any canal that hereafter may be constructed and owned by this state, a bill of lading of any property transported upon any such canal, who knowingly delivers a false bill of lading as true, or makes or signs a false bill of lading intending to be delivered as true, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five times the value of any property omitted in such bill, or both.

master upon any canal that may hereafter be constructed and owned by this state and every clerk of such weighmaster, who knowingly makes a false entry of the weight of any boat or cargo of any boat navigating such canal, or who knowingly makes a false certificate of the light weight of any boat, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7379. Injuring public buildings. Every person who will- § 513. Pen. C.
fully burns, destroys or injures any public building or improvement in this state, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years.

§ 7380. Seizing military stores. Every person who enters § 514. Pen. C.
any fort, magazine, arsenal, armory, arsenal yard or encampment, and seizes or takes away any arms, ammunition, military stores or supplies belonging to the state, and every person who enters any such place with intent so to do, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 7381. False statement regarding taxes. Every person § 515. Pen. C.
who, in making any statement, oral or written, which is required or authorized by law to be made as the basis of imposing any tax or assessment, or of an application to reduce any tax or assessment, willfully states any material matter which he knows to be false, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 45.

ARSON.

- § 516, Pen. C. § 7382. Arson defined. Arson is the willful and malicious burning of a building, with intent to destroy it.
- § 517, Pen. C. § 7383. Building defined. Any house, edifice, structure, vessel or other erection, capable of affording shelter for human beings, or appurtenant to or connected with an erection so adapted, is a "building," within the meaning of the last section.
- § 518, Pen. C. § 7384. Inhabitable building defined. Any building is deemed an "inhabitable building," within the meaning of this chapter, any part of which has usually been occupied by any person lodging therein at night.
- § 519, Pen. C. § 7385. Night time defined. The words "night time," in this chapter include the period between sunset and sunrise.
- § 520, Pen. C. § 7386. Burning defined. To constitute a burning within the meaning of section 7382 it is not necessary that the building set on fire should be destroyed. It is sufficient that the fire is applied so as to take effect upon the substance of the building.
- § 521, Pen. C. § 7387. Ownership defined. To constitute arson it is not necessary that another person than the accused should have had ownership in the building set on fire. It is sufficient that at the time of the burning another person was rightfully in the possession of, or was actually occupying, such building or any part thereof.
- § 522, Pen. C. § 7388. Immaterial variance in proof. An omission to designate, or error in designating in an information or indictment for arson, the owner or occupant of a building, shall not prejudice the proceedings thereupon, if it appears that upon the whole description given of the building, it is sufficiently identified to enable the accused to prepare his defense.
- § 523, Pen. C. § 7389. Malice, when inferred. Malice sufficient to constitute arson is inferred from proof that the accused committed an act of burning a building, and that some other person was rightfully in possession of or actually occupying any part thereof. It is not necessary that the accused should have had actual knowledge of such possession or occupancy or should have intended to injure any person.
- § 524, Pen. C. § 7390. Burning without intent to destroy. But the burning of a building under circumstances which show beyond a reasonable doubt that there was no intent to destroy it, is not arson.
- § 525, Pen. C. § 7391. Contiguous buildings. When any appurtenance to any building is so situated with reference to such building, or when any building is so situated with reference to another building that the burning of one will manifestly endanger the other, a burning of the one is deemed a burning of the other, within the foregoing definition of arson, and as against any person actually participating in the original setting fire, as of the moment when the fire from the one shall communicate to and burn the other.
- § 526, Pen. C. § 7392. Degrees of arson. Arson is distinguished into four degrees.
- § 527, Pen. C. § 7393. In first degree. Maliciously burning in the night time an inhabited building, in which there is at the time some human being, is arson in the first degree.

§ 7394. Exception. Appurtenance to building. No warehouse, barn, shed or other outhouse, is a subject of arson in the first degree, unless it is immediately connected with, and forms part of an inhabited building. § 528, Pen. C.

§ 7395. Arson in second degree. Maliciously burning in the daytime an inhabited building, in which there is at the time some human being, is arson in the second degree. § 529, Pen. C.

§ 7396. When burning in nighttime is. Maliciously burning in the nighttime a building, not an inhabited building, but adjoining to or within the curtilage of an inhabited building in which there is at the time some human being, so that such inhabited building is endangered, even though it is not in fact injured by such burning, is arson in the second degree. § 530, Pen. C.

§ 7397. Arson in third degree. Maliciously burning in the daytime a building, the burning of which in the nighttime would be arson in the second degree, is arson in the third degree. § 531, Pen. C.

§ 7398. When burning in nighttime is. Maliciously burning in the nighttime any building, not the subject of arson in the first or second degree, including any house for public worship, school-house or public building belonging to the state, or to any county, city, town or village, any building in which have usually been deposited the papers of any public officer, and any barn, mill or manufactory, is arson in the third degree. § 532, Pen. C.

§ 7399. Arson in fourth degree. Maliciously burning in the daytime any building, the burning of which in the nighttime would be arson in the third degree, is arson in the fourth degree. § 533, Pen. C.

§ 7400. Punishment for arson. Arson is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary as follows: § 534, Pen. C.

1. Arson in the first degree, for any term not less than ten years.
2. Arson in the second degree, not exceeding ten years and not less than seven years.
3. Arson in the third degree, not exceeding seven years and not less than four years.
4. Arson in the fourth degree, not exceeding four years and not less than one year, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

CHAPTER 46.

BURGLARY AND HOUSE BREAKING.

§ 7401. Burglary in first degree defined. Every person who breaks into and enters in the nighttime, the dwelling house of another, in which there is at the time some human being, with intent to commit some crime therein, either: § 535, Pen. C.

1. By forcibly bursting or breaking the wall, or an outer door, window or shutter of a window of such house, or the lock or bolt of such door, or the fastening of such window or shutter; or,

2. By breaking in any other manner, being armed with a dangerous weapon, or being assisted or aided by one or more confederates, then actually present; or,

3. By unlocking an outer door by means of false keys, or by picking the lock thereof,

Is guilty of burglary in the first degree.

§ 536, Pen. C.

§ 7402. In second degree defined. Every person who breaks into any dwelling house in the daytime under such circumstances as would have constituted the crime of burglary in the first degree if committed in the nighttime, is guilty of burglary in the second degree.

§ 537, Pen. C.

§ 7403. Same. Breaking inner door. Every person who, having entered the dwelling house of another in the nighttime, through an open outer door or window or other aperture not made by such person, breaks any inner door, window, partition or other part of such house, with intent to commit any crime, is guilty of burglary in the second degree.

§ 538, Pen. C.

§ 7404. Same. Every person who, being lawfully in any dwelling house, breaks in the nighttime any inner door of the same house with intent to commit any crime, is guilty of burglary in the second degree.

§ 539, Pen. C.

§ 7405. Burglary in third degree. Every person who breaks into any dwelling house in the nighttime, with intent to commit a crime, but under such circumstances as do not constitute the offense of burglary in the first degree, is guilty of burglary in the third degree.

§ 540, Pen. C.

§ 7406. Same. Other buildings. Every person who breaks and enters, in the day or in the nighttime, either:

1. Any building within the curtilage of a dwelling house, but not forming a part thereof; or,

2. Any building or any part of any building, booth, tent, railroad car, vessel or other structure or erection in which any property is kept, with intent to steal therein or to commit any felony,

Is guilty of burglary in the third degree.

§ 541, Pen. C.

§ 7407. Burglary in fourth degree. Every person who breaks and enters the dwelling house of another, by day or by night, in such manner as not to constitute any burglary specified in the preceding section, with intent to commit a crime, is guilty of burglary in the fourth degree.

§ 542, Pen. C.

§ 7408. Same. Breaking out. Every person who, having committed any crime in the dwelling house of another, breaks in the nighttime, any outer door, window shutter or other part of such house, to get out of the same, is guilty of burglary in the fourth degree.

§ 543, Pen. C.

§ 7409. Punishment for burglary. Burglary is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary as follows:

1. Burglary in the first degree, for any term not less than ten years.

2. Burglary in the second degree, not exceeding ten years and not less than five.

3. Burglary in third degree, not less than one and not exceeding five years.

4. Burglary in the fourth degree, not less than one and not exceeding three years.

§ 544, Pen. C.

§ 7410. Having burglar's implements in possession. Every person who, under circumstances not amounting to any felony, has in his possession in the nighttime any dangerous offensive weapon or instrument whatever, or any picklock, crow, key, bit, jack, jimmy, nippers, pick, betty or other implement of burglary, with intent to break and enter any building, booth, tent, railroad car, vessel or other structure or erection, and to commit any felony therein, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7411. Unlawfully entering building. Every person who, under circumstances not amounting to any burglary, enters any building or part of any building, booth, tent, warehouse, railroad car, vessel or other structure or erection with intent to commit any felony, larceny or malicious mischief, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 545, Pen. C.

§ 7412. Dwelling house defined. The term "dwelling house," as used in this chapter, includes every house or edifice, any part of which has usually been occupied by any person lodging therein at night, and any structure joined to and immediately connected with such a house or edifice. § 546, Pen. C.

§ 7413. Nighttime defined. The word "nighttime," in this chapter includes the period between sunset and sunrise. § 547, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 47.

FORGERY AND COUNTERFEITING.

§ 7414. Forgery in first degree. Every person who, with intent to defraud, forges, counterfeits or falsely alters: § 548, Pen. C.

1. Any will or codicil of real or personal property, or any deed or other instrument being or purporting to be the act of another, by which any right or interest in real property is or purports to be transferred, conveyed or in any way charged or affected; or,

2. Any certificate or indorsement of the acknowledgment by any person of any deed or other instrument which by law may be recorded or given in evidence, made or purporting to have been made by any officer duly authorized to make such certificate or indorsement; or,

3. Any certificate of the proof of any deed, will, codicil or other instrument which by law may be recorded or given in evidence, made or purporting to have been made by any court or officer duly authorized to make such certificate,

Is guilty of forgery in the first degree.

§ 7415. Same. Public securities. Every person who, with intent to defraud, forges, counterfeits or falsely alters: § 549, Pen. C.

1. Any certificate or other public security, issued or purporting to have been issued under the authority of this state by virtue of any law thereof, by which certificate or other public security, the payment of any money absolutely or upon any contingency is promised, or the receipt of any money or property acknowledged; or,

2. Any certificate of any share, right or interest in any public stock created by virtue of any law of this state issued or purporting to have been issued by any public officer, or any other evidence of any debt or liability, of the state, either absolute or contingent, issued or purporting to have been issued by any public officer; or,

3. Any indorsement or other instrument transferring or purporting to transfer the right or interest of any holder of any such certicate, public security, certificate of stock, evidence of debt or liability, or of any person entitled to such right or interest,

Is guilty of forgery in the first degree.

§ 550, Pen. C.
am'd.

§ 7416. Second degree. Public and corporate seals.

Every person who, with intent to defraud, forges or counterfeits the great seal of this state, the seal of any public office authorized by law, the seal of any court of record, including the seal of the judge of the county court, or the seal of any corporation created by the laws of this state, or of any state, government or country, or any public seal authorized or recognized by the laws of this state or of any other state, government or country, or who falsely makes, forges or counterfeits any impression, purporting to be the impression of any such seal, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 551, Pen. C.

§ 7417. Same. Records and official returns. Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely alters, destroys, corrupts or falsifies:

1. Any record of any will, codicil, conveyance or other instrument, the record of which is, by law, evidence; or,
2. Any record of any judgment in a court of record, or any enrollment of any decree of a court of equity; or,
3. The return of any officer, court or tribunal to any process of any court,

Is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 552, Pen. C.

§ 7418. Same. Entry in record. Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, forges or alters, any entry in any book of records, or any instrument purporting to be any record or return specified in the last section, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 553, Pen. C.

§ 7419. Same. False certificates. If any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment or proof of any conveyance of real property, or of any other instrument which by law may be recorded, knowingly and falsely certifies that any such conveyance or instrument was acknowledged by any party thereto, or was proved by any subscribing witness, when in truth such conveyance or instrument was not acknowledged or proved as certified, he is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 554, Pen. C.

§ 7420. Same. False plates. Every person who makes or engraves, or causes or procures to be made or engraved, any plate in the form or similitude of any promissory note, bill of exchange, draft, check, certificate of deposit or other evidence of debt, issued by any banking corporation or association, or individual banker, incorporated or carrying on business under the laws of this state or of any other state, government or country, without the authority of such bank, or has or keeps in his custody or possession any such plate, without the authority of such bank, with intent to use or permit the same to be used for the purpose of taking therefrom any impression, to be passed, sold or altered, or has or keeps in his custody or possession, without the authority of such bank, any impression taken from any such plate, with intent to have the same filled up and completed for the purpose of being passed, sold or altered; or makes or causes to be made, or has in his custody or possession, any plate upon which are engraved any figures or words, which may be used for the purpose of falsely altering any evidence of debt issued by any such bank, with the intent to use the same, or to permit them to be used for such purpose, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 7421. When plates deemed imitation. Every plate specified in the last section shall be deemed to be in the form and similitude of the genuine instrument imitated, in either of the following cases:

1. When the engraving on such plate resembles and conforms to such parts of the genuine instrument as are engraved; or,
2. When such plate is partly finished, and the part so finished resembles and conforms to similar parts of the genuine instrument.

§ 7422. Selling forged instruments. Every person who sells, exchanges or delivers for any consideration any forged or counterfeited promissory note, check, bill, draft or other evidence of debt or engagement for the payment of money absolutely, or upon any contingency, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, with intent to have the same uttered or passed, or who offers any such note or other instrument for sale, exchange or delivery for any consideration, with the like knowledge and intent, or who receives any such note or other instrument upon a sale, exchange or delivery for any consideration with the like knowledge and intent, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 7423. Having same in possession. Every person who, with intent to defraud, has in his possession any forged, altered or counterfeited negotiable note, bill, draft or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any corporation or company duly authorized for that purpose by the laws of this state or of any other state, government or country, the forgery of which is hereinbefore declared to be punishable, knowing the same to be forged, altered or counterfeited, with intent to utter the same as true or as false, or to cause the same to be so uttered, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 7424. Forgery in fourth degree. Every person who has in his possession any forged or counterfeited instrument, the forgery of which is hereinbefore declared to be punishable, other than such as are enumerated in the last section, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited or falsely altered, with intent to injure or defraud by uttering the same as true or as false, or by causing the same to be so uttered, is guilty of forgery in the fourth degree.

§ 7425. Second degree. Issuing false certificates. Every officer, and every agent of any corporation or joint stock association formed or existing under or by virtue of the laws of this state, or of any other state, government or country, who, within this state, willfully signs or procures to be signed, with intent to issue, sell or pledge or to cause to be issued, sold or pledged, or who willfully issues, sells or pledges or causes to be issued, sold or pledged, any false or fraudulent certificate or other evidence of the ownership or transfer of any share or shares of the capital stock of such corporation or association, whether of full paid shares or otherwise, or of any interest in its property or profits, or of any certificate or other evidence of such ownership, transfer or interest, or any instrument purporting to be a certificate or other evidence of such ownership, transfer or interest, the signing, issuing, selling or pledging of which has not been duly authorized by the board of directors or other managing body of such corporation or association having authority to issue the same, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 7426. Same. Reissuing canceled certificates. Every officer, and every agent of any corporation or joint stock association formed or existing under or by virtue of the laws of this state, or of any other state, government or country, who, within this state, willfully reissues, sells or pledges, or causes to be reissued, sold or pledged, any surrendered or canceled certificate, or other evidence of the ownership or transfer of any share or shares of the capital stock of such corporation or association, or of an interest in its property or profits, with intent to defraud, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 561, Pen. C.

§ 7427. Same. False evidence of debt. Every officer, and every agent of any corporation, municipal or otherwise, of any joint stock association formed or existing under or by virtue of the laws of this state, or of any other state, government or country, who, within this state, willfully signs or procures to be signed with intent to issue, sell or pledge, or to cause to be issued, sold or pledged, or who willfully issues, sells or pledges, or causes to be issued, sold or pledged, any false or fraudulent bond or other evidence of debt against such corporation or association, or any instrument purporting to be a bond or other evidence of debt against such corporation or association, the signing, issuing, selling or pledging of which has not been duly authorized by the board of directors or common council or other managing body or officers of such corporation having authority to issue the same, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 562, Pen. C.

§ 7428. Same. Counterfeiting coin. Every person who counterfeits any gold or silver coin, whether of the United States or of any foreign government or country, with intent to sell, utter, use or circulate the same as genuine, within this state, is guilty of forgery in the second degree.

§ 563, Pen. C.

§ 7429. Same. Counterfeiting coin for export. Every person who counterfeits any gold or silver coin, whether of the United States or of any foreign country or government, with intent to export the same, or permit them to be exported to injure or defraud any foreign government, or the subjects thereof, is guilty of forgery in the third degree.

§ 564, Pen. C.

§ 7430. Third degree. Forging process of court. Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, alters, forges or counterfeits:

1. Any instrument in writing, being or purporting to be any process issued by any competent court, magistrate or officer, or being or purporting to be, any pleading, proceeding, bond or undertaking filed or entered in any court, or being or purporting to be, any certificate, order or allowance by any competent court or officer, or being or purporting to be, any license or authority authorized by any statute; or,

2. Any instrument or writing, being or purporting to be the act of another, by which any pecuniary demand or obligation is, or purports to be created, increased, discharged or diminished, or by which any rights or property whatever, are or purport to be transferred, conveyed, discharged, diminished or in any manner affected, the punishment of which is not hereinbefore prescribed, by which false making, altering, forging or counterfeiting, any person may be affected, bound or in any way injured in his person or property,

Is guilty of forgery in the third degree.

§ 565, Pen. C.

§ 7431. Same. False entries in public books. Every person who, with intent to defraud, makes any false entry or falsely alters any entry made in any book of accounts kept in the office of the auditor of this state, or in the office of the treasurer of this state, or of any county treasurer, by which any demand or obligation, claim, right or interest, either against or in favor of this state, or any county or town, or any individual, is or purports to be, discharged, diminished, increased, created or in any manner affected, is guilty of forgery in the third degree.

who, with intent to defraud, forges, counterfeits or falsely alters any ticket, check or other paper or writing, entitling or purporting to entitle the holder or proprietor thereof to a passage upon any railroad or in any vessel or other public conveyance; and every person who, with like intent, sells, exchanges or delivers, or keeps or offers for sale, exchange or delivery, or receives upon any purchase, exchange or delivery, any such ticket, knowing the same to have been forged, counterfeited or falsely altered, is guilty of forgery in the third degree.

person who forges, counterfeits or alters any postage or revenue stamp of the United States, or who sells or offers or keeps for sale, as genuine or as forged, any such stamp, knowing it to be forged, counterfeited or falsely altered, is guilty of forgery in the third degree.

§ 7434. Same. False entries in corporate books. Every § 568, Pen. C. person who with intent to defraud, makes any false entry, or falsely alters any entry made in any book of accounts kept by any corporation within this state, or in any book of accounts kept by any such corporation or its officers, and delivered or intended to be delivered, to any person dealing with such corporation, by which any pecuniary obligation, claim or credit is or purports to be discharged, diminished, increased, created or in any manner affected, is guilty of forgery in the third degree.

§ 7435. Fourth degree. False entries by corporate officers. § 569, Pen. C.
Every person who, being a member or officer, or in the employment of any corporation, association or partnership, falsifies, alters, erases, obliterates or destroys any account or book of accounts or records belonging to such corporation, association or partnership or appertaining to their business, or makes any false entries in such account or book, or keeps any false account in such business, with intent to defraud his employers, or to conceal any embezzlement of their money or property, or any defalcation or other misconduct, committed by any person in the management of their business, is guilty of forgery in the fourth degree.

§ 7436. Same. Counterfeit coin. Every person who has in § 570, Pen. C.
his possession any counterfeit of any gold or silver coin, whether of the United States, or of any foreign country or government, knowing the same to be counterfeited, with intent to sell, utter, use, circulate or export the same as true or as false, or by causing the same to be so uttered or passed, is guilty of forgery in the fourth degree.

§ 7437. Punishment of forgery. Forgery is punishable by § 571, Pen. C.
imprisonment in the penitentiary as follows:

1. Forgery in the first degree, by imprisonment not less than ten years.
2. Forgery in the second degree, not exceeding ten years and not less than five.
3. Forgery in the third degree, not less than one and not exceeding five years.

4. Forgery in the fourth degree, by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding two years, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year.

§ 572, Pen. C. § 7438. Uttering forged instrument or coin. Every person who, with intent to defraud, utters or publishes as true, any forged, altered or counterfeited instrument, or any counterfeit gold or silver coin, the forging, altering or counterfeiting of which is hereinbefore declared to be punishable, knowing such instrument or coin to be forged, altered or counterfeited, is guilty of forgery in the same degree as if he had forged, altered or counterfeited the instrument or coin so uttered, except as in the next section specified.

§ 573, Pen. C. § 7439. Exception. Receipt in good faith. If it appears on the trial of the information or indictment, that the accused received such forged or counterfeited instrument or coin from another, in good faith, and for a good and valuable consideration, without any circumstances to justify a suspicion of its being forged or counterfeited, the jury may find the defendant guilty of forgery in the fourth degree.

§ 574, Pen. C. § 7440. Signing own as name of another. Every person who, with intent to defraud, makes or subscribes any instrument in his own name, intended to create, increase, discharge, defeat or diminish any pecuniary obligation, right or interest, or to transfer or affect any property whatever, and utters or passes such instrument, under the pretense that it is the act of another who bears the same name, is guilty of forgery in the same degree as if he had forged the instrument of a person bearing a different name from his own.

§ 575, Pen. C. § 7441. Indorsing own as name of another. Every person who, with intent to defraud, indorses any negotiable instrument in his own name, and utters or passes such instrument, under the fraudulent pretense that it is indorsed by another person who bears the same name, is guilty of forgery in the same degree as if he had forged the indorsement of a person bearing a different name from his own.

§ 576, Pen. C. § 7442. Erasures and obliterations. The total or partial erasure or obliteration of any instrument or writing, with intent to defraud, by which any pecuniary obligation, or any right, interest or claim to property is or is intended to be created, increased, discharged, diminished or in any manner affected, is forgery in the same degree as the false alteration of any part of such instrument or writing.

§ 577, Pen. C. § 7443. Writing and written defined. Every instrument partly printed and partly written, or wholly printed with a written signature thereto, and every signature of an individual, firm or corporation, or of any officer of such body, and every writing purporting to be such signature, is a writing or a written instrument, within the meaning of the provisions of this chapter.

§ 578, Pen. C. § 7444. Fictitious name to instrument. The false making or forging of an evidence of debt purporting to have been issued by any corporation and bearing the pretended signature of any person as an agent or officer of such corporation, is forgery in the same degree as if such person was at the time an officer or agent of such corporation; notwithstanding such person may never have been an officer or agent of such corporation, or notwithstanding there never was any such person in existence.

CHAPTER 48.

LARCENY.

§ 7445. Larceny defined. Larceny is the taking of personal property accomplished by fraud or stealth, and with intent to deprive another thereof. § 580, Pen. C.

§ 7446. Same. Appropriating lost property. One who finds lost property under circumstances which give him knowledge or means of inquiry as to the true owner, and who appropriates such property to his own use, or to the use of another person who is not entitled thereto, without having first made such effort to find the owner and restore the property to him as the circumstances render reasonable and just, is guilty of larceny. § 581, Pen. C.

§ 7447. Degrees of larceny. Larceny is divided into two degrees: the first of which is termed grand larceny, the second petit larceny. § 582, Pen. C.

§ 7448. Grand and petit larceny defined. Grand larceny is larceny committed in either of the following cases: § 583, Pen. C.

1. When the property taken is of value exceeding twenty dollars.
2. When such property, although not of value exceeding twenty dollars in value, is taken from the person of another.

Larceny in other cases is petit larceny.

§ 7449. Punishment of grand larceny. Grand larceny is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years. § 584, Pen. C.

§ 7450. Punishment of petit larceny. Petit larceny shall be punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. § 2, c. 25, 1879.

§ 7451. Grand larceny in house or vessel. When it appears upon the trial of an information or indictment for grand larceny that the larceny alleged was committed in any dwelling house or vessel, the offender may be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding eight years. § 586, Pen. C.

§ 7452. Larceny in night time from person. When it appears upon such trial, that such larceny was committed by stealing in the night time, from the person of another, the offender may be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years. § 587, Pen. C.

§ 7453. Larceny of written instruments. Value. If the thing stolen consists of any evidence of debt or other written instrument, the amount of money due thereupon, or secured to be paid thereby, and remaining unsatisfied, or which in any contingency might be collected thereon, or the value of the property the title to which is shown thereby, or the sum which might be recovered in the absence thereof, as the case may be, shall be deemed the value of the thing stolen. § 588, Pen. C.

§ 7454. Value of passage ticket. If the thing stolen is any ticket, or other paper or writing entitling or purporting to entitle the holder or proprietor thereof to a passage upon any railroad, or in any vessel or other public conveyance, the price at which tickets entitling a person to a like passage are usually sold by the proprietors of such conveyance, shall be deemed the value of such ticket.

§ 590, Pen. C. § 7455. Value. Securities never issued. All the provisions of this chapter shall apply when the property taken is an instrument for the payment of money, evidence of debt, public security or passage ticket, completed and ready to be issued or delivered, though the same has never been issued or delivered by the makers thereof to any person as a purchaser or owner.

§ 591, Pen. C. § 7456. Larceny of part of realty. All the provisions of this chapter shall apply when the thing taken is any fixture or part of the realty, and is severed at the time of the taking, in the same manner as if such thing had been severed by another person at some previous time.

§ 592, Pen. C. § 7457. Larceny of wrecked goods. Every person who takes away any goods from any stranded or wrecked steamboat or other vessel, or any goods floating on the water, or goods cast by the water upon the shore, or goods lodged upon drifts, snags or other obstructions in a water course, or goods found in any creek, or who knowingly becomes possessed of any such, and does not deliver the same within forty-eight hours thereafter, to the sheriff or the coroner of the county where the same is found, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 593, Pen. C. § 7458. Buying or receiving stolen property. Every person who buys or receives, in any manner, upon any consideration, any personal property of any value whatsoever, that has been stolen from any other, knowing the same to have been stolen, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 594, Pen. C. § 7459. Fraudulent consumption of gas. Every person who, with intent to defraud, makes or causes to be made, any pipe or other instrument or contrivance, and connects the same or causes it to be connected, with any pipe laid for conducting illuminating gas, so as to conduct gas to a point where the same may be consumed without its passing through the meter provided for registering the quantity consumed, or in any other manner so as to evade paying therefor, and every person who with like intent injures or alters any gas meter or obstructs its action, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 595, Pen. C. § 7460. Stealing without, and bringing into state. Every person who steals the property of another in any other state or country, and brings the same into this state, may be convicted and punished in the same manner as if such larceny had been committed in this state; and such larceny may be charged to have been committed in any county into or through which such stolen property has been brought.

CHAPTER 49.

EMBEZZLEMENT.

§ 7461. Embezzlement defined. Embezzlement is the fraudulent appropriation of property by a person to whom it has been entrusted. § 596. Pen. C.

§ 7462. Fraudulent appropriation by officer of corporation. If any person, being an officer, director, trustee, clerk, servant or agent of any association, society or corporation, public or private, fraudulently appropriates to any use or purpose not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, any property which he has in his possession or under his control in virtue of his trust, or secretes it with a fraudulent intent to appropriate it to such use or purpose, he is guilty of embezzlement. § 597. Pen. C.

§ 7463. When carrier guilty of. If any carrier or other person having under his control personal property for the purpose of transportation for hire, fraudulently appropriates it to any use or purpose inconsistent with the safe-keeping of such property and its transportation according to his trust, he is guilty of embezzlement, whether he has broken the package in which such property is contained, or has otherwise separated the items thereof or not. § 598. Pen. C.

§ 7464. Fraudulent appropriation by trustee. If any person being a trustee, banker, merchant, broker, attorney, agent, assignee in trust, receiver, executor, administrator or collector, or being otherwise entrusted with or having in his control property for the use of any other person, or for any public or benevolent purpose, fraudulently appropriates it to any use or purpose not in the due and lawful execution of his trust, or secretes it with a fraudulent intent to appropriate it to such use or purpose, he is guilty of embezzlement. § 599. Pen. C.

§ 7465. Fraudulent conversion by bailee. If any person being entrusted with any property as bailee, or with any power of attorney for the sale or transfer thereof, fraudulently converts the same or the proceeds thereof to his own use, or secretes it or them with a fraudulent intent to convert to his own use, he is guilty of embezzlement, whether he has broken the package or otherwise determined the bailment or not. § 600. Pen. C.

§ 7466. Fraudulent appropriation by clerk or servant. If any clerk or servant of any private person or partnership or corporation, except apprentices and persons within the age of eighteen years, fraudulently appropriates to his own use, or secretes with a fraudulent intent to appropriate to his own use, any property of any other person which has come into his control or care by virtue of his employment as such clerk or servant, he is guilty of embezzlement. § 601. Pen. C.

§ 7467. Distinct taking not necessary. A distinct act of taking is not necessary to constitute embezzlement, but any fraudulent appropriation, conversion or use of property, coming within the above prohibitions is sufficient. § 602. Pen. C.

§ 7468. Evidence of debt. Any evidence of debt, negotiable by delivery only, and actually executed, is equally the subject of embezzlement whether it has been delivered or issued as a valid instrument or not. § 603. Pen. C.

§ 7469. Claim of title. Good faith. Upon any information or indictment for embezzlement it is a sufficient defense that the § 604. Pen. C.

property was appropriated openly and avowedly, and under a claim of title preferred in good faith even though such claim is untenable. But this provision shall not excuse the retention of the property of another, to offset or pay a demand held against him.

§ 605, Pen. C.

§ 7470. Intent to restore no defense. The fact that the accused intended to restore the property embezzled, is no ground of defense or of mitigation of punishment, if it has not been restored before a complaint has been laid before a magistrate, charging the commission of the offense.

§ 606, Pen. C.

§ 7471. Mitigation of punishment. Whenever it is made to appear that prior to any complaint laid before a magistrate charging the commission of embezzlement, the person accused voluntarily and actually restored or tendered restoration of the property alleged to have been embezzled or any part thereof, such fact is not a ground of defense to the information or indictment, but it authorizes the court to mitigate punishment in its discretion.

§ 607, Pen. C.

§ 7472. Punishment of embezzlement. Every person guilty of embezzlement is punishable in the manner prescribed for feloniously stealing property of the value of that embezzled. And when the property embezzled is an evidence of debt or right in action, the sum due upon it or secured to be paid by it, shall be taken as its value.

CHAPTER 50.

EXTORTION.

§ 608, Pen. C.

§ 7473. Extortion defined. Extortion is the obtaining of property from another with his consent, induced by a wrongful use of force or fear, or under color of official right.

§ 609, Pen. C.

§ 7474. Threats constituting extortion. Fear such as will constitute extortion, may be induced by a threat, either:

1. To do an unlawful injury to the person or property of the individual threatened, or to any relative of his or member of his family; or,
2. To accuse him, or any relative of his or member of his family, of any crime; or,
3. To expose, or impute to him or them, any deformity or disgrace; or,
4. To expose any secret affecting him or them.

§ 610, Pen. C.

§ 7475. Punishment of extortion. Every person who extorts any money or other property from another, under circumstances not amounting to robbery, by means of force or any threat such as is mentioned in the last section, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years.

§ 611, Pen. C.

§ 7476. Same under official right. Every person who commits any extortion under color of official right, in cases for which a different punishment is not prescribed by this code, or by some of the statutes which it specifies as continuing in force, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 612, Pen. C.

§ 7477. Obtaining signature. Every person who, by any extortionate means, obtains from another his signature to any paper or instrument, whereby, if such signature were freely given, any property would be transferred, or any debt, demand, charge or right of action created, is punishable in the same manner as if the actual delivery of such property or payment of the amount of such debt, demand, charge or right of action were obtained.

§ 7478. Sending threatening letters. Every person who, § 613. Pen. C.
with intent to extort any money or other property from another, sends to any person any letter or other writing, whether subscribed or not, expressing or implying or adapted to imply, any threat such as is specified in section 7474, is punishable in the same manner as if such money or property were actually obtained by means of such threat.

§ 7479. Attempts to extort money. Every person who un- § 614. Pen. C.
successfully attempts, by means of any verbal threat, such as is specified in section 7474, to extort money or other property from another, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

any kind, and who enters into any contract, agreement, understanding or combination with any other person, not his partner, who is a like dealer or buyer, either:

1. For the pooling of the price of grain, hogs, cattle or stock, of any kind, between himself and such other person, or others; or,

2. For the division between them of the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings or profits of such dealers or buyers or any portion thereof; or,

3. For fixing or establishing the price which such dealers or buyers shall pay or offer for grain, hogs, cattle or stock of any kind,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7481. Combinations to fix prices. Every person who § 1, c. 174, 1890.
creates, enters into or becomes a member of or party to any pool, am'd.
trust, combination or confederation, or makes or enters into any contract, agreement or understanding therefor, with another person, either:

1. To limit or fix the price of any commodity, article or merchandise; or,

2. To limit or fix the amount or quantity of any commodity, article or merchandise to be manufactured, mined, produced or sold in this state.

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

ness in this state, and every partnership or association of individuals so doing business, which shall violate any of the provisions of the last two sections, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by a fine of not less than one and not exceeding twenty per centum of the capital stock of such corporation or of the amount invested in such company, firm or association.

§ 3, c. 174, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7483. Violations by corporate officers. Every person who, as president, manager, director, stockholder, receiver or agent or other person of any corporation, on behalf of such corporation as is mentioned in the last section, or as a member of any partnership or association of individuals, violates any of the provisions of this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 2, c. 173, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7484. No privilege from testifying. No person not a defendant on trial shall be excused or claim any immunity from testifying, or producing his records, contracts, books or papers, or the records, contracts, books or papers in his possession or under his control belonging to any other person, partnership, corporation or association, upon the trial of a prosecution for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, but such testimony or evidence shall not be used against the person so testifying or producing records, contracts, books or papers upon a prosecution for violating any of the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER 52.

FALSE PERSONATIONS AND CHEATS.

§ 615, Pen. C.

§ 7485. Falsely personating another. Every person who falsely personates another, and in such assumed character, either:

1. Marries or pretends to marry or to sustain the marriage relation toward another, with or without the connivance of such other person: or,

2. Becomes bail or surety for any party, in any proceeding whatever, before any court or officer authorized to take such bail or surety: or,

3. Subscribes, verifies, publishes, acknowledges or proves, in the name of another person, any written instrument, with intent that the same may be delivered or used as true; or,

4. Does any other act whereby, if it were done by the person falsely personated, he might in any event become liable to any suit or prosecution or to pay any sum of money, or to incur any charge, forfeiture or penalty, or whereby any benefit might accrue to the party personating or to any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 616, Pen. C.

§ 7486. Falsely personating and receiving. Every person who falsely personates another, and in such assumed character receives any money or property, knowing that it is intended to be delivered to the individual so personated, with intent to convert the same to his own use, or to that of another person who is not entitled thereto, is punishable in the same manner and to the same extent as for larceny of the money or property so received.

§ 617, Pen. C.

§ 7487. Personating officer and others. Every person who falsely personates any public officer, civil or military, or any fireman or any private individual having special authority by law to perform any act affecting the rights or interests of another, or assumes, without authority, any uniform or badge by which such are usually distinguished, and in such assumed character does any act whereby another person is injured, defrauded, vexed or annoyed, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7488. Unlawfully wearing grand army badge. Every person who is found wearing the badge of the Grand Army of the Republic, and who is not entitled so to do by being a member thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than ten and not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each and every offense. One-fourth of any fine imposed under the provisions of this section, when collected, shall be paid to the complainant. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction to try and determine complaints hereunder, subject to the right of the defendant to appeal to the district court.

am'd.

§ 7489. Obtaining signature or property by false pretenses. Every person who, with intent to cheat or defraud another, designedly, by color or aid of any false token or writing or other false pretense, obtains the signature of any person to any written instrument, or obtains from any person any money or property, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding three times the value of the money or property so obtained, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 618, Pen. C.

§ 7490. For charitable purposes. Every person who designedly, by color or aid of any false token or writing or other false pretense, obtains the signature of any person to any written instrument, or obtains from any person any money or property for any alleged charitable or benevolent purpose whatever, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding the value of the money or property so obtained, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 619, Pen. C.

§ 7491. Punishment for certain false pretenses. If the false token by which any money or property is obtained, in violation of sections 7489 and 7490, is a promissory note or other negotiable evidence of debt purporting to be issued by or under the authority of any banking company or corporation not in existence, the person guilty of such cheat is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding seven years, instead of by the punishments prescribed by those sections.

§ 620, Pen. C.

§ 7492. When check is false token. The use of a matured check or other order for the payment of money, as a means of obtaining any signature, money or property, such as is specified in the last two sections, by a person who knows that a drawer thereof is not entitled to draw for the sum specified therein, upon the drawee, is the use of a false token within the meaning of those sections, although no representation is made in respect thereto.

§ 621, Pen. C.

§ 7493. Mock auctions. Every person who obtains any money or property from another, or obtains the signature of another to any written instrument, the false making of which would be forgery, by means of any false or fraudulent sale of property or pretended property by auction, or by any of the practices known as mock auctions, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years or in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and, in addition thereto, he forfeits any license he may hold to act as an auctioneer, and is forever disqualified from receiving a license to act as auctioneer within this state.

CHAPTER 53.

FRAUDULENTLY FITTING OUT AND DESTROYING VESSELS.

- § 623, Pen. C. § 7494. Officer willfully destroying vessel. Every captain or other officer or person in command or charge of any vessel, who, within this state, willfully wrecks, sinks or otherwise injures or destroys such vessel, or any cargo in such vessel, or willfully permits the same to be wrecked, sunk or otherwise injured or destroyed, with intent to prejudice or defraud an insurer or any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life.
- § 624, Pen. C. § 7495. Others, same. Every person other than such as are embraced within the last section, who is guilty of an act therein prohibited, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years and not less than three.
- § 625, Pen. C. § 7496. Fitting out vessel with intent to wreck. Every person guilty of fitting out any vessel, or lading any cargo on board of any vessel, with intent to cause or permit the same to be wrecked, sunk or otherwise injured or destroyed, and thereby to prejudice or defraud an insurer or any other person, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years and not less than three.
- § 626, Pen. C. § 7497. Making false manifest. Every person guilty of preparing, making or subscribing, any false or fraudulent manifest, invoice, bill of lading, boat's register or protest, with intent to defraud another, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

CHAPTER 54.

FRAUDULENT DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY INSURED.

- § 627, Pen. C. § 7498. Destroying property insured. Every person who willfully burns or in any other manner injures or destroys any property whatever, which is at the time insured against loss or damage by fire or by any other casualty, with intent to defraud or prejudice the insurer, whether the same is the property of such person or of any other, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding seven years and not less than four.

§ 7499. Presenting false proof of loss. Every person who presents or causes to be presented any false or fraudulent claim, or any proof in support of any such claim, upon any contract of insurance, for the payment of any loss, or who prepares, makes or subscribes any account, certificate, survey, affidavit, proof of loss or other book, paper or writing, with intent to present or use the same, or to allow it to be presented or used in support of any such claim, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding three years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both. § 628, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 55.

FALSE WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

§ 7500. False weights and measures. If any person with intent to defraud, uses a false balance, weight or measure, in the weighing or measuring of anything whatever that is purchased, sold, bartered, shipped or delivered, for sale or barter, or that is pledged or given in payment, he shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than five dollars, or by imprisonment in a county jail not more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall be liable to the injured party in double the amount of damages. § 629, Pen. C.

§ 7501. Retaining same. Every person who retains in his possession any weight or measure, knowing it to be false, unless it appears beyond a reasonable doubt that it was so retained without intent to use it, or permits it to be used in violation of the last section, shall be punished as therein provided. § 630, Pen. C.

§ 7502. Officer may seize same. Every person who is authorized or enjoined by law to arrest another person for a violation of sections 7500 and 7501, is equally authorized and enjoined to seize any false weights or measures found in the possession of the person so arrested, and to deliver the same to the magistrate before whom the person so arrested is required to be taken. § 631, Pen. C.

§ 7503. May be tested and destroyed. The magistrate to whom any weight or measure is delivered, pursuant to the last section, shall, upon the examination of the accused, or if the examination is delayed or prevented, without awaiting such examination, cause the same to be tested by comparison with standards conformable to law; and if he finds it to be false, he shall cause it to be destroyed, or to be delivered to the state's attorney of the county in which the accused is liable to prosecution or trial, as the interests of justice in his judgment may require. § 632, Pen. C.

cask or package, or knowingly sells or offers for sale any cask or package so marked, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 56.

ILLEGAL BRANDING OF STOCK.

- § 1. c. 42, 1891.
am'd. § 7506. Unlawfully branding, or stealing stock. Every person who, willfully, either:
1. Marks, brands, kills or sells; or,
 2. Causes to be marked, branded, killed or sold; or,
 3. Steals, takes, drives or leads away, any horse, mule, cow, calf, sheep, swine or other animal, the property of another, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine of not less than five hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.
- § 2. c. 42, 1891.
am'd. § 7507. Willfully cutting off ears from stock. Every person who, willfully cuts off either or both ears of any horse, colt, mule, cow, calf, ox, sheep or swine, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or by a fine of not less than twenty-five and not exceeding one hundred dollars for each and every animal so maimed.
- § 3. c. 42, 1891.
am'd. § 7508. Willfully driving stock from range. Every person who, willfully drives or causes to be driven, any horses, mules, cattle, sheep or swine from the customary range of such animals, without the permission of the owner thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days and not exceeding six months, or by a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both.
- § 1. c. 41, 1891.
am'd. § 7509. Unlawful branding of stock. Every person who, at any time, between the first day of November and the first day of May following, brands or marks any horse, colt, mule, ass, cow, calf, sheep, swine or other animal that is running at large, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or by a fine of not less than twenty-five and not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both.
- § 1. c. 41, 1891.
am'd. § 7510. Exception. The provisions of the last section shall not be construed to prevent the owner of any such animals as are mentioned therein, from branding them on his own premises at any time in the presence of two or more responsible citizens of this state as witnesses of such branding.

CHAPTER 57.

FRAUDULENT INSOLVENCIES BY INDIVIDUALS.

§ 7511. Fraudulent conveyance. Every person who, being § 635, Pen. C. a party to any conveyance or assignment of any real or personal property or of any interest therein, made or created with intent to defraud prior or subsequent purchasers, or to hinder, delay or defraud creditors or other persons, and every person being privy to or knowing of such conveyance, assignment or charge, who willfully puts the same in use as having been made in good faith, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7512. Removing property to avoid execution. Every § 636, Pen. C.
person who removes any of his property out of any county, with intent to prevent the same from being levied upon by any execution or attachment, or who secretes, assigns, conveys or otherwise disposes of any of his property, with intent to defraud any creditor, or to prevent such property being made liable for the payment of his debts, and every person who receives any such property with such intent, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

who, knowing that his property is insufficient for the payment of all his lawful debts, assigns, transfers or delivers any property for the benefit of any creditor or creditors, upon any trust or condition, that any creditor shall receive a preference or priority over any other, except in the cases in which such preference is expressly allowed to be given by law, or with intent to create such preference or priority, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7514. Frauds in insolvencies. Every person who, upon § 638, Pen. C. making or prosecuting any application for a discharge as an insolvent debtor, under the provisions of any law now in force or that may hereafter be enacted, either:

1. Fraudulently presents, or authorizes to be presented on his behalf such application, in a case in which it is not authorized by law; or,

2. Makes or presents to any court or officer, in support of such application, any petition, schedule, book, account, voucher or other paper or document, knowing the same to contain any false statement; or,

3. Fraudulently makes and exhibits, or alters, obliterates or destroys any account or voucher relating to the condition of his affairs, or any entry or statement in such account or voucher; or,

4. Practices any fraud upon any creditor, with intent to induce him to petition for or consent to such discharge; or,

5. Conspires with or induces any person fraudulently to unite as creditor in any petition for such discharge, or to practice any fraud in aid thereof,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 58.

FRAUDULENT INSOLVENCIES BY CORPORATIONS, AND OTHER FRAUDS IN THEIR MANAGEMENT.

§ 639, Pen. C.

§ 7515. Fictitious subscriptions for stock. Every person who signs the name of a fictitious person to any subscription for or agreement to take stock in any corporation, existing or proposed; and every person who signs to any subscription or agreement, the name of any person, knowing that such person has not means or does not intend in good faith to comply with all the terms thereof, or under any understanding or agreement that the terms of such subscription or agreement are not to be complied with or enforced, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 640, Pen. C.

§ 7516. Fraud in procuring organization. Every officer, agent or clerk of any corporation, or of any persons proposing to organize a corporation, or to increase the capital stock of any corporation, who knowingly exhibits any false, forged or altered book, paper, voucher, security or other instrument of evidence, to any public officer or board authorized by law to examine the organization of such corporation, or to investigate its affairs, or to allow an increase of its capital, with intent to deceive such officer or board in respect thereto, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years.

§ 641, Pen. C.

§ 7517. Unlawful use of names. Every person who, without being authorized so to do, subscribes the name of another to, or inserts the name of another in any prospectus, circular or other advertisement or announcement of any corporation or joint stock association existing or intended to be formed, with intent to permit the same to be published, and thereby to lead persons to believe that the person whose name is so subscribed is an officer, agent, member or promoter of such corporation or association, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 643, Pen. C.

§ 7518. Unlawful loans by bank directors. Every director of any corporation having banking powers, who concurs in any vote or act of the directors of such corporation or any of them, by which it is intended, either:

1. To make any loan or discount, by which the whole amount of the loans and discounts of the corporation is made to exceed three times its capital stock then paid in and actually possessed; or,

2. To make any loan or discount to any director of such corporation, or upon paper upon which any such director is responsible, for an amount greater than is allowed by law,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 644, Pen. C.

§ 7519. Unauthorized loans not invalid. Nothing in the last section shall render any loan made by the directors of any such corporation in violation thereof, invalid.

§ 645, Pen. C.

§ 7520. Sale or pledge of bank notes. Every officer or agent of any corporation having banking powers, who sells or causes or permits to be sold, any bank notes of such corporation, or pledges or hypothecates or causes or permits to be pledged or hypothecated, with any other corporation, association or individual, any such notes as a security for a loan or for any liability of such corporation, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both.

§ 7521. Unlawful issue of bank notes. Every officer or agent of any corporation having banking powers, who issues or puts in circulation, or causes or permits to be issued or put in circulation, the bank notes of such corporation, to an amount, which, together with previous issues, leaves in circulation or outstanding a greater amount of notes than such corporation is allowed by law to issue and circulate, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both. § 546, Pen. C.

§ 7522. Unlawful guarantee or indorsement. Every officer or agent of any banking corporation, who makes or delivers any guarantee or indorsement upon behalf of such corporation, whereby it may become liable upon any of its discounted notes, bills or obligations, in any sum beyond the amount of loans and discounts which such corporation may legally make, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 647, Pen. C.

§ 7523. Bank officer overdrawing account. Every officer, agent, teller, clerk or servant of any bank, banking association or savings bank, who knowingly overdraws his account with such bank, and thereby wrongfully obtains money, notes or funds of such bank, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 648, Pen. C.

§ 7524. Insolvent bank or officer receiving deposit. No bank, banking house, exchange broker or deposit office or firm, company, corporation or party engaged in the banking, broker or deposit business, shall accept or receive on deposit, with or without interest, any moneys, bank bills, or notes or United States notes or United States treasury notes or currency or other notes, bills or drafts circulating as money or currency, when such bank, banking house, exchange broker or deposit office, firm, company or corporation or party is insolvent; and if any such bank, banking house, exchange broker or deposit office, firm, company, corporation or party shall receive or accept on deposit any such deposits as aforesaid when insolvent, any officer, director, cashier, manager, member, party or managing party thereof, knowing of such insolvency, who shall knowingly receive or accept, be accessory or permit or connive at the receiving or accepting on deposit therein or thereby, any such deposit as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by both fine and imprisonment, the fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars. § 1, c. 5, 1879,
am'd.

§ 7525. Omitting to enter receipt of property. Every director, officer or agent of any corporation or joint stock association, who knowingly receives or possesses himself of any property of such corporation or association, otherwise than in payment of a just demand, and who, with intent to defraud, omits to make or to cause or direct to be made, a full and true entry thereof, in the books or accounts of such corporation or association, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 649, Pen. C.

§ 7526. Fraudulent destruction of books. Every director, officer, agent or member of any corporation or joint stock association, who, with intent to defraud, destroys, alters, mutilates or falsifies any of the books, papers, writings or securities belonging to such corporation or association, or makes or concurs in the making of any § 650, Pen. C.

false entry, or omits or concurs in omitting to make any material entry in any book of accounts or other record or document kept by such corporation or association, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding ten years, or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 651, Pen. C.

§ 7527. Publishing false report. Every director, officer or agent of any corporation or joint stock association, who knowingly concurs in making or publishing any written report, exhibit or statement of its affairs or pecuniary condition, containing any material statement which is false, other than as are mentioned in sections 7516 and 7517, or willfully refuses or neglects to make or deliver any written report, exhibit or statement required by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 652, Pen. C.

§ 7528. Refusing to permit inspection of books. Every officer or agent of any corporation having or keeping an office within this state, who has in his custody or control any book, paper or document of such corporation, and who refuses to give to a stockholder or member of such corporation, lawfully demanding, during office hours, to inspect or take a copy of the same or any part thereof, a reasonable opportunity so to do, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 653, Pen. C.

§ 7529. Insolvencies deemed fraudulent. Every insolvency of a moneyed corporation is deemed fraudulent unless its affairs appear, upon investigation, to have been administered fairly and legally, and generally with the same care and diligence that agents receiving a compensation for their services are bound by law to observe.

§ 654, Pen. C.

§ 7530. How fraudulent acts punishable. In every case of a fraudulent insolvency of a moneyed corporation, every director thereof who participated in such fraud, if no other punishment is prescribed therefor by this code, or any of the acts which are specified as continuing in force, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 655, Pen. C.

§ 7531. How violation of duty punishable. Every director of any moneyed corporation who willfully does any act, as such director, which is expressly forbidden by law, or willfully omits to perform any duty expressly imposed upon him as such director, by law, the punishment for which act or omission is not otherwise prescribed by this code, or by some of the acts which it specifies as continuing in force, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 658, Pen. C.

§ 7532. When director deemed to have knowledge. Every director of a corporation or joint stock association is deemed to possess such a knowledge of the affairs of his corporation, as to enable him to determine whether any act, proceeding or omission of its directors, is a violation of this chapter.

§ 659, Pen. C.

§ 7533. When director presumed to have assented. Every director of a corporation or joint stock association who is present at a meeting of the directors at which any act, proceeding or omission of such directors, in violation of this chapter occurs, is deemed to have concurred therein, unless he at the time causes, or in writing requires, his dissent therefrom to be entered in the minutes of the directors.

§ 660, Pen. C.

§ 7534. Same when director was absent from meeting. Every director of a corporation or joint stock association, although not present at a meeting of the directors at which any act, proceeding or omission of such directors in violation of this chapter occurs, is deemed to have concurred therein, if the facts constituting such violation appear on the record or minutes of the proceedings of the board of directors, and he remains a director of the same company for six months thereafter, and does not, within that time, cause or in writing require his dissent from such illegality to be entered in the minutes of the directors.

§ 7535. Foreign corporation, no defense. It is no defense to a prosecution for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, that the corporation was one created by the laws of another state, government or country, if it was one carrying on business or keeping an officer thereof, within this state. § 661. Pen. C.

§ 7536. Director defined. The term "director," as used in this chapter, embraces any of the persons having by law the direction or management of the affairs of a corporation by whatever name such persons are described in its charter, or known by law. § 662. Pen. C.

CHAPTER 59.

REQUISITES OF STEAMBOAT TICKETS.

§ 7537. Delay in departure of vessels. Whenever the departure of any vessel, for a passage on board of which, to a port without this state, any ticket or instrument has been sold, is delayed more than two days after the day of departure mentioned in such ticket, the person holding such ticket is entitled to his board and lodging in such vessel, without any additional charge, from the second day after the day named for departure, until the actual departure of such vessel, and is also entitled to receive from the owners or consignees of such vessel fifty cents per day for each day of such detention. And in case of refusal on the part of the owners, consignees or master of the vessel so detained to comply with this section, the person holding such ticket is entitled to recover back from the owners or consignees the amount of passage paid by him, together with his damages for such detention, not exceeding fifty dollars. § 671. Pen. C.

§ 7538. Passenger ticket. Missouri river. Requisites. Every ticket or instrument issued as evidence of a right of passage upon the Missouri river, from any port in this state to any port of any other state or territory, and every certificate or order issued for the purpose, or under pretense of procuring any such ticket or instrument, and every receipt for money paid for any such ticket or instrument must state the name of the vessel on board of which the passage is to be made, the name of the owners or consignees of such vessel, the name of the company or line, if any, to which such vessel belongs, the place from which such passage is to commence, the place where such passage is to terminate, the day of the month and year upon which the voyage is to commence, the name of the person or persons purchasing such ticket or instrument or receiving such order, certificate or receipt and the amount paid therefor; and such ticket or instrument, order, certificate or receipt, unless sold or issued by the owners or consignees of such vessel, must be signed by their authorized agent. § 672. Pen. C.

§ 673. Pen. C. § 7539. Violation of last section. Punishment. Every person who issues, sells or delivers to another, any ticket, instrument, certificate, order or receipt, which is not made or filled out as prescribed in the last section, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 60.

FRAUDULENT ISSUE OF DOCUMENTS OF TITLES TO MERCHANDISE.

§ 677. Pen. C. § 7540. Bills of lading. Fraudulent. Punishment. Every person being the master, owner or agent of any vessel, or officer or agent of any railroad, express or transportation company or otherwise being or representing any carrier, who delivers any bill of lading, receipt or other voucher, or by which it appears that any merchandise of any description has been shipped on board any vessel or delivered to any railroad, express or transportation company or other carrier, unless the same has been so shipped or delivered, and is at the time actually under the control of such carrier, or the master, owner or agent of such vessel, or of some officer or agent of such company, to be forwarded as expressed in such bill of lading, receipt or voucher, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

§ 678. Pen. C. § 7541. Warehouse receipts. Fraudulent. Punishment. Every person carrying on the business of a warehouseman, wharfinger or other depository of property, who issues any receipt, bill of lading or other voucher for any merchandise of any description which has not been actually received upon the premises of such person, and is not under his actual control at the time of issuing such instrument, whether such instrument is issued to a person as being the owner of such merchandise or as security for any indebtedness, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

§ 679. Pen. C. § 7542. Same. Exceptions. No person can be convicted of any offense under the last two sections by reason that the contents of any barrel, box, case, cask or other vessel or package mentioned in the bill of lading, receipt or other voucher, did not correspond with the description given in such instrument of the merchandise received, if such description corresponded substantially with the marks, labels or brands upon the outside of such vessel or package, unless it appears that the accused knew that such marks, labels or brands were untrue.

§ 680. Pen. C. § 7543. Warehouse receipt. Duplicate. Every person mentioned in sections 7540 and 7541, who issues any second or duplicate receipt or voucher, of a kind specified in those sections, at a time while any former receipt or voucher for the merchandise specified in such second receipt is outstanding and uncanceled, without writing across the face of the same the word "duplicate," in a plain and legible manner, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both.

§ 7544. Selling goods without consent of holder of bill of lading. Every person mentioned in sections 7540 and 7541, who sells, hypothecates or pledges any merchandise for which any bill of lading, receipt or voucher has been issued by him, without the consent in writing thereto of the person holding such bill, receipt or voucher, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both. § 681, Pen. C.

§ 7545. Bill of lading or receipt must be canceled. Every person, such as mentioned in section 7541, who delivers to another any merchandise for which any bill of lading, receipt or voucher has been issued, unless such receipt or voucher bore upon its face the words "not negotiable," plainly written or stamped, or unless such receipt is surrendered to be canceled at the time of such delivery, or unless, in the case of a partial delivery, a memorandum thereof is indorsed upon such receipt or voucher, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both. § 682, Pen. C.

§ 7546. When last two sections do not apply. The last two sections do not apply when property is demanded by virtue of process of law. § 683, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 61.

ishable, upon conviction of the misdemeanor, by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars; and upon conviction of the felony, by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years.

§ 3, c. 62, 1895.

§ 7591. Conjointly committed. Punishment. Whenever two or more persons conjointly commit any such malicious trespass, the aggregate value of the materials taken away and removed by each shall be considered in determining the amount in which any such property may have been damaged, and each person shall be considered as having committed such malicious trespass to the extent of the aggregate damage done by all.

§ 4, c. 62, 1895.

§ 7592. How value determined. Whenever one or more persons have committed any acts of malicious trespass, as provided in section 7589, and shall have entered upon the real estate several times and carried away such materials a little at a time, in determining the value that such improvements have been damaged, all the material carried away by any such person being tried, shall be taken into consideration, providing it shall have been taken, carried away and destroyed within one year from the date of his arrest under this chapter.

CHAPTER 63.

PROHIBITION, UNLAWFUL DEALING IN INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

§ 7593. Penalty for manufacturing or sale. Who may sell. Any person, association or corporation, who shall, within this state, directly or indirectly manufacture any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or other intoxicating liquor, or shall import any of the same for sale or gift as a beverage, or shall keep for sale, or sell or offer for sale or gift, barter or trade, any of such intoxicating liquors as a beverage, shall for the first offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than two hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year; and for the second and every successive offense, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years and not less than one year; provided, that registered pharmacists under the laws of this state may sell intoxicating liquors for medicinal, mechanical, scientific, and wine for sacramental purposes, as hereinafter provided.

§ 2, c. 110, 1890.

am'd.
§ 1, c. 72, 1895.

§ 7594. Druggist's permit, how obtained. Application to be published. Bond and approval. Appeal. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to sell or barter, for medicinal, scientific or mechanical purposes, any malt, vinous, spirituous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors, without first having procured a druggist's permit therefor from the county judge of the county wherein such druggist may be doing business at the time; and such county judge is hereby authorized in his discretion to grant a druggist permit for the period of one year, to any person of good moral character who is a registered pharmacist under the laws of this state, and lawfully and in good faith engaged in the business of a druggist in his county, and who in his judgment can be entrusted with the responsibility of selling such liquors for the purposes aforesaid in the manner hereinafter provided. In order to obtain a druggist permit under this act, the applicant shall file in the office of the county judge of the county wherein he is doing business, not less than thirty days prior to the hearing thereof, a petition signed by the applicant and twenty-five reputable freeholders, having the qualifications of electors of the town, village, township or ward of any city, and twenty-five reputable women over twenty-one years of age, who are residents of the town, village, township or city wherein such business is located; provided, however, that when the number of freeholders having the qualifications of electors residing within the town, village, township or ward shall not exceed forty, and when the number of reputable women over twenty-one years of age, who are residents of the town, village, township or city, shall not exceed forty, then the petition of the applicant signed by seventy per cent of such number of qualified men and women as reside within the town, village, township or ward, shall entitle the applicant to the permit. All petitions shall set forth:

1. The town, village, city or township, and particular place therein wherein such business is located, and that the applicant is a person of good moral character, and does not use intoxicating liquors as a beverage, and can be entrusted with the responsibility of selling the same.

2. That said applicant is a pharmacist as aforesaid, and is lawfully and in good faith engaged personally in the business of a druggist, as the proprietor thereof, at the place designated in the petition, and well versed in the profession.

3. That said applicant has, in his said business, exclusive of intoxicating liquors and fixtures, a stock of drugs, if in any city, of the value of at least one thousand dollars, and if elsewhere, of the value of at least five hundred dollars.

Before any such petition shall be heard, or any permit issued to such applicant, he shall publish for at least thirty days next prior thereto, a notice in some newspaper in the town, village, township or city where such business is located, or if none is published therein, then in some paper of general circulation in the county, stating the time and place set by said judge for the hearing of such petition. The applicant shall be required to prove the truthfulness of each and every statement contained in such petition, and the state's attorney of such county shall, and any other citizen of the county may appear and cross-examine the witnesses of the applicant, and may introduce evidence in rebuttal of the evidence offered by the applicant. If satisfied that the signatures of such petition were signed by such persons, and that such petitioners are freeholders or citizens of such town, village, township, city or ward as above expressed, and that the statements in such petition are true, the county judge may in his discretion grant a permit to the applicant to sell intoxicating liquors for medicinal, mechanical and scientific purposes only; and such permit shall be recorded upon the journal of the county court, and a certified copy thereof shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the store wherein said business is carried on before it shall be of any validity. Before such permit shall be of any validity, such druggist shall file with the county judge, to be approved by him, a good and sufficient bond to the state of North Dakota, in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that such applicant and any one in his employ will neither use, sell, barter or give away any intoxicating liquors in violation of law, and on violation of the provisions of said bond the same shall thereby become forfeited; and the conviction of said pharmacist or any one in his employ shall be deemed prima facie evidence of such violation.

Any applicant or any citizen feeling himself aggrieved by the decisions of the county judge may, within ten days thereafter, upon filing a bond, made payable to the state of North Dakota, in the sum of fifty dollars, to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that he will prosecute the same to a speedy determination, and pay the costs occasioned by such appeal if the order of the county judge shall be sustained, prosecute the cause upon appeal to the district court. The procedure in any case taken on appeal to the district court from the order of the county judge shall be as prescribed by article 9 of chapter 3 of the probate code, so far as applicable, and a statement of the case with exceptions may be made, signed and certified by the county judge. If the district court shall find that the county judge has abused his discretion, it shall have power to cause the county judge to comply with its judgment, otherwise the order of the county judge shall be by the district court affirmed. No appeal shall be allowed from the order of the district court. If the order of the county judge shall be reversed, the costs shall be paid by the county. If at any time there shall be filed with the county judge a petition stating that any druggist, naming him, who has a permit to sell intoxicating liquors, is not in good faith conforming to the provisions of this chapter, verified by the affidavit of at least one of the petitioners hereinafter named, and signed by twenty-five reputable men and twenty-five reputable women, all of whom reside in the town, village, township, city or ward in which the business of said druggist is carried on, requesting that the permit of such druggist be canceled, the county judge shall immediately issue an order citing such druggist to appear before him on a day named, not more than ten days from the issuing of such order, at which time the question of cancellation of such permit shall be considered. Such examination shall be conducted in the same manner in all respects as herein provided for the hearing of the original petition for granting such permit, and such county judge shall, if there are reasonable grounds for believing such druggist is not in good faith carrying out all the provisions of this chapter, cancel such permit. An appeal may be had from the decision of such county judge to the district court as herein provided for appeals from the application for a permit; provided, the permit of such druggist shall be inoperative till such appeal is finally decided. If any county judge shall issue a permit to any person not registered as a pharmacist, or shall knowingly grant the same to a person in the habit of becoming intoxicated, or not in good faith engaged in the business of a druggist as a proprietor thereof, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; and if any person shall sign a petition, as provided herein, of any applicant known by such person to be in the habit of becoming intoxicated, or not in good faith engaged in the business of a druggist, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction tion shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. Before the petition of a druggist for a permit to sell intoxicating liquors shall be heard by the county judge the applicant shall pay a fee of five dollars to the county judge, who shall pay the same into the county treasury on or before the first day of the following month for the benefit of the general revenue fund.

§ 7595. Physician may prescribe, under what conditions. § 3, c. 110, 1890.

Any physician who is lawfully and regularly engaged in the practice of his profession as a business, and who, in case of actual need, shall deem any intoxicating liquors necessary for the health of his patients, may give such patient a written or printed prescription therefor, stating in said prescription the particular disease for which it is given, or may administer the same himself; but no such prescription shall be given or liquors administered, except in cases of actual need, and when, in his judgment, the use of intoxicating liquors is necessary. And every physician who shall give such prescription or administer such liquors in violation of this chapter, and every physician who shall give to or write for any person a prescription for intoxicating liquors for the purpose of enabling or assisting any person to evade any of the provisions of this chapter, or for the purpose of enabling or assisting any person to obtain any intoxicating liquors for use as a beverage, or to be sold or disposed of in any manner, in violation of the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than three hundred, nor more than eight hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

§ 7596. Druggist sale regulated. Affidavits. Oaths. § 4, c. 110, 1890.

Blanks furnished. Sales recorded. Penalty. Any druggist having a permit to sell intoxicating liquors under the provisions of this chapter, may sell the same only by himself in person, or by a clerk who is a registered pharmacist or assistant pharmacist under the laws of this state, for medical purposes only, upon the printed or written affidavit of the applicant, setting forth the particular medical purposes for which such liquor is required, the kind and quantity desired; that it is necessary and actually needed for the particular purpose, by the patient to be named; and that it is not intended for a beverage, nor to sell or give away; that the applicant is over twenty-one years of age; which affidavits shall be in the following form and subscribed by the applicant in ink:

And there shall be but one sale and one delivery on any one affidavit, but no druggist shall permit the drinking on his premises, nor in any apartment connected therewith and under his control, any of the intoxicating liquors purchased by affidavit or otherwise: provided, such druggist shall be permitted to sell any of the liquors mentioned herein, in quantities not less than one gallon, to any other druggist within the state holding a permit as provided in this chapter. The affidavits provided for in this section shall be made before the pharmacist or assistant pharmacist making sale of such liquors upon proper printed blanks, which it is hereby made the duty of the county auditor of the county in which such sales are made to furnish to such druggist at a cost equal to the actual and necessary outlay made therefor by him. Such blanks shall be in series of 100 each, numbered from 1 to 100 consecutively, and bound in book form, each series being of uniform style throughout, except that no two blanks of the same series shall be of the same number. It shall be the duty of the county auditor to indorse each such book with the date of delivery and to whom made, to sign such indorsement and attest to the same with his official seal, and to keep two exact printed copies, except as to numbers, of the blanks of each series, one of which shall be filed in his office and one in the office of the county judge: he shall also keep a record of the series, and of the number of each series, of such blanks furnished to each druggist, and shall, within ten days after the same are delivered to such druggist, file a copy thereof, together with a copy of the blank affidavits, in the office of the county judge of his county. For such services the county auditor shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents for each series of blanks so furnished to be paid by the druggist obtaining such blanks.

All pharmacists and assistant pharmacists are hereby empowered to administer oaths for the purposes of this chapter, and no such affidavit shall be received by any pharmacist or assistant pharmacist until it shows on its face that it has been properly subscribed and sworn to by the applicant. The affidavits provided for in this section shall be retained by the druggist in the original book form, and on or before the first day of each month shall, together with the affidavit of such druggist that the liquors therein mentioned are all the intoxicating liquors sold by him during the month, except the liquors sold to other druggists, be filed in the office of the county judge who issued his permit, where they shall be safely kept for the period of two years from the date of filing. Before said affidavits shall be received or filed by said county judge, he shall make strict examination of the copies of affidavits and record of numbers thereof furnished him by the county auditor, and ascertain whether such druggist has returned all affidavits furnished him in blank by the county auditor; and if any such affidavit or blank is missing, said county judge shall require such druggist to file instead thereof his affidavit showing as near as he can what has become of such affidavit or blank. And any person having a permit to sell intoxicating liquors under the provisions of this chapter, shall each month, at the time he files the affidavit herein provided for, also file with the county judge an affidavit setting forth the amounts and kinds of liquors, as nearly as can be done, which such person or firm of which he is a member has on hand on the day such affidavit is made, as well as the amounts and kinds of liquors he has purchased or procured during the preceding month and the name or names of the persons, companies or corporations and their place of doing business, from whom, and the dates on which such liquors were purchased or procured.

For each series of affidavits filed under the provisions of this chapter, the county judge shall collect one dollar and fifty cents from the druggist filing the same, or the proportionate part thereof for the number filed, which shall be paid by him on the first day of each month into the county treasury for the benefit of the general county fund. The county judge shall receive no fees for his services under this chapter, except a salary of fifteen dollars per annum for each one thousand inhabitants in such county, the number to be determined by the last census return of such county, but in no case shall such salary exceed in the aggregate the sum of one thousand dollars per annum, to be paid by the county commissioners as other salaries. Every person, whose affidavit so made for the purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquors shall be false in any material matter, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding two years, or in the county jail not less than six months.

Any person who shall subscribe any name or character other than his own name to any affidavit for the purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquors as provided herein, shall be deemed guilty of forgery in the fourth degree, and punished therefor by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years and not less than one year. Any person who shall sell or furnish any intoxicating liquors so obtained by him upon affidavit or certificate, to others as a beverage, or shall use the same as a beverage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. Every such druggist shall keep a book wherein shall be recorded, daily, all sales of intoxicating liquors made by him or his employees, showing the name and residence of the purchaser, the kind and quantity of the liquors sold, the purpose for which it was sold, and the date of the sale. Such record and affidavit shall be open for the inspection of the public at all reasonable times during business hours, and any person so desiring may take memoranda or copies thereof.

§ 7597. False affidavit. Other violations. Penalties. Any druggist or pharmacist, or assistant pharmacist in his employ, who shall fail or neglect to make and keep a record as herein provided of any intoxicating liquors by him sold before the same are delivered, or shall refuse any person an examination of such records or the taking of memoranda or copy therefrom at any time during business hours; or who shall sell, barter or give away any such liquors at any place not designated in his permit, or upon any affidavit other than those herein provided; or shall make any false affidavit as to any sales made by him or his employees, or shall fail to sign the certificate to the signature of any applicant for such liquor prior to the delivery thereof, or shall sign any false certificate to any such affidavit, or shall mutilate or remove any affidavits from the book to him issued as aforesaid; or shall fail to return the same as hereinbefore provided; or shall sell any intoxicating liquor to any person whom he has reason to believe desires the same to use as a beverage, or sell liquor when he has reason to believe the liquor sold is not a remedy for the ailment described in the affidavit therefor; or shall sell, barter or give away any intoxicating liquors to any minor, any person under the influence of liquor or who is in the habit of becoming intoxicated, or who shall allow such liquor sold as a medicine or otherwise, to be drunk on his premises, or premises under his control; or in any other manner omit any act required of him herein, or violate any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year, and shall forfeit his permit issued under the provisions of this chapter, and his right to obtain a permit within five years next thereafter; and in all cases when forfeitures are provided under the provisions of this chapter, the court shall declare the same on rendering judgment in the action.

§ 6, c. 110, 1890.

am'd.

§ 1, c. 74, 1895.

§ 7598. Intoxicating liquors defined. All spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented, or other intoxicating liquors or mixtures thereof, by whatever name called, that will produce intoxication, or any liquors or liquids which are made, sold or offered for sale as a beverage and which shall contain coccus indicus, copperas, opium, cayenne pepper, picric acid, Indian hemp, strychnine, tobacco, darnal seed, extract of logwood, salts of zinc, copper or lead, alum or any of its compounds, methyl alcohol or its derivations, amyl alcohol or any extract or compound of any of the above ingredients, shall be considered and held to be intoxicating liquors within the meaning of this chapter; provided, that fermented and alcoholic liquors and mixtures thereof shall not be deemed intoxicating if they contain less than two per cent of alcohol by volume.

§ 7, c. 110, 1890.

am'd.

§ 1, c. 74, 1895.

§ 7599. Life of permit to sell liquors. A permit to sell intoxicating liquor under this chapter shall continue in force until the same is revoked for cause, unless sooner forfeited under the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that if at any time the number of freeholders and reputable women who signed the petition of the applicant shall fall below the number required by law by removal from the state, county, city or town, or by death, or at the end of any year, by withdrawal of their names from the petition, then the life of said permit shall expire, unless a new petition containing a sufficient number of qualified freeholders and reputable women to bring the entire number up to the requirements of an original petition as provided in section 7594 of this chapter, shall be within three days from the time of such withdrawals, filed anew in the office of the county judge; provided, further, however, that within fifteen days prior to the expiration of each year during the life of the permit, the applicant must obtain from the county judge and post with said permit a certificate stating that the application upon which said permit was issued continues to possess the requisite attributes of an original application.

§ 7600. Duty of all peace officers to apprehend and notify. § 8, c. 110, 1890.

It shall be the duty of every sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, mayor, marshal, police judge and police officer of any city or town having notice or knowledge of any violations of the provisions of this chapter, to notify the state's attorney of the fact of such violation and to furnish him the names of any witnesses within his knowledge by whom such violation can be proven. If any such officer shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section, he shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars; and such conviction shall be a forfeiture of the office held by such person; and the court before whom such conviction is had shall, in addition to the imposition of the fine aforesaid, order and adjudge the forfeiture of his said office. For a failure or neglect of official duty in the enforcement of this chapter, any of the city or county officers herein referred to may be removed by civil action.

§ 7601. Duty of state's attorney. Seizure and arrests. § 9, c. 110, 1890.

Authority of justices of the peace. If the state's attorney of any county shall be notified by any officer or other person or be cognizant himself of any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, it shall be his duty forthwith diligently to inquire into the facts of such violation and for such purpose he is hereby authorized and required to issue his subpoena for such person or persons as he may have reason to believe have any information or knowledge of such violation, to appear before him at a time and place designated in such subpoena, then and there to testify concerning any violation of this chapter; said subpoena shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, and shall be served and returned to such state's attorney in the same manner as subpoenas are served and returned in criminal cases. Each witness shall be sworn by the state's attorney to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and true answer make to all questions which may be propounded to him by such state's attorney touching any violation of the provisions of this chapter. The testimony of every such witness shall be reduced to writing and signed by such witness, as in the taking of depositions in civil cases. For all purposes in this section the state's attorney is hereby authorized and empowered to administer oaths or affirmation to all witnesses, and shall have power to punish any witness for contempt for or on account of any disobedience of a subpoena, a refusal to be sworn or answer as a witness, or to sign his testimony, and may compel the attendance of witnesses by attachment in the same manner and with like effect as provided in the code of civil procedure.

If the testimony so taken shall disclose the fact that an offense has been committed against any of the provisions of this chapter, the state's attorney shall forthwith file such statement, together with his information against the person having committed the offense, in some court of competent jurisdiction, and such statement or testimony, together with the information of such state's attorney when verified by him on information and belief, shall have the same effect as if such information had been verified positively. And thereupon a warrant shall issue for the arrest of the person or persons named in such information, as in other criminal actions, and in addition thereto, shall command the officer to whom it may be directed to seize and take into his custody any and all intoxicating liquors, vessels and bottles containing the same, which he may find in such person's possession, and safely keep the same, subject to the order of the court; provided, the sworn statement of the witness or witnesses, as hereinbefore provided, and the information filed by the state's attorney shall particularly describe the property to be seized and the place where kept; and if upon the trial of such person he shall be convicted of the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, the court shall order as a part of the judgment, in addition to the penalty herein provided, that the officer having the custody thereof shall publicly destroy all such property used and employed for such illegal purpose: provided, the court shall find and adjudge the property so seized was being used and employed by the defendant for such illegal purposes; provided, further, that when the state's attorney has been notified in writing under oath, giving the name of the person violating the law, the place where the unlawful business is carried on and the names of the witness or witnesses by whom the affiant believes that the facts can be proven, and the state's attorney shall fail, neglect or refuse to make an investigation, then the affiant may make affidavit before some justice of the peace of the township, city or county wherein the crime has been committed, giving the name of the violator of the law, the location of the place and the names of the witnesses by whom he believes the offense can be proved, and it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace, and he is hereby empowered with authority to issue his subpoena for the witnesses named or any other witnesses whose names shall be made known by the first witnesses subpoenaed. Such subpoena shall be directed to any sheriff or constable of the county, or marshal or policeman of any city or town in the county, for service and return according to law. Such justice of the peace shall have power to fine for contempt and may compel the attendance of witnesses by attachment, and shall have all the powers for securing and taking the testimony of witnesses heretofore in this section given to the state's attorney. When the evidence is taken by the justice of the peace and reduced to writing, if it should show that a crime has been committed, it shall be certified to the state's attorney by the justice of the peace taking the same, and it shall be the duty of the state's attorney on the receipt of such evidence to file forthwith his information in the same manner as if the evidence had been taken by himself.

§ 7602. Information to be filed. Trial. Penalty if found guilty. If the statement of any witness so taken before the state's attorney or a justice of the peace, as in the last section provided, shall disclose the fact that intoxicating liquors are being kept for unlawful sale or purpose, or are being sold by an unknown person or persons, particularly describing such unknown person or persons, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, at any place, particularly describing the place to be searched and the property to be seized, as hereinafter provided, within such county, it shall be the duty of such state's attorney to file forthwith his information, together with such statements, with some magistrate of the county having jurisdiction, against such place and the unknown keepers thereof, which information, when verified by such state's attorney upon information and belief, together with such statements as aforesaid, shall have the same effect as if such information had been sworn to positively; and thereupon a warrant shall issue, directed to the proper officer, commanding him to search the premises described in the information and to seize all intoxicating liquors and all vessels and bottles containing the same, and arrest the keeper or keepers thereof, and said person or persons so arrested shall be examined and tried in the manner prescribed by law for the examination and trial of persons charged with an indictable offense, and if upon trial are found guilty shall be fined for the first offense not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year; and for the second and every successive offense be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years, and not less than one, and the court before whom such conviction may be had shall also order all the property seized by the officer as aforesaid to be publicly destroyed; provided, said court shall also find and adjudge such property was being used by the defendant at the time of such search and seizure for the purpose of unlawfully selling or bartering intoxicating liquors.

§ 7603. Fees, how paid. Officers shall receive the same fees § 11, c. 110, 1890. and mileage for serving subpoenas issued by the state's attorney and justices of the peace under the provisions of this chapter as provided in criminal cases, and witnesses shall receive the same fees for attendance as provided for witnesses in cases before justices of the peace. Such fees shall be certified to the board of county commissioners by the state's attorney or justice of the peace, and paid by the county as witness fees for attendance before a grand jury. All witnesses shall attend upon the state's attorney or justice of the peace in pursuance to his subpoena, without the payment of any fees in advance. For every conviction under this chapter there shall be allowed an attorney's fee of ten dollars upon each count upon which the defendant shall be convicted, and the same shall be taxed as costs in the case, to be paid into the county treasury as hereinafter provided. If any prosecution begun by the state's attorney, the attorney general or his assistants, or by a citizen with the written consent or approval of the state's attorney or attorney general, under the provisions of this chapter, shall fail, the costs of such prosecution, unless otherwise specified herein, shall be paid by the county in which such prosecution or action was begun.

§ 7604. State's attorney to prosecute. Fines a special fund. Attorney general may prosecute. § 12, c. 110, 1890.
am'd. It shall be the duty of the state's attorneys diligently to prosecute any and all persons violating any of the provisions of this chapter, in their respective counties, and to bring suit upon all bonds or undertakings forfeited, immediately after the happening of such forfeitures, to recover the penalty, and to pay all money so collected, as herein provided, into the treasury of said county, and take the receipt of the treasurer therefor; it shall be the duty of said treasurer to credit said money temporarily, to a special fund, to be designated as the liquor prosecution fund, to be disposed of as hereinafter provided. Said state's attorney is hereby empowered to draw his warrants, in each case separately, upon such fund to pay the expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in securing testimony for and enforcing the provisions of this chapter; provided, however, that no treasurer shall pay any of said warrants so drawn by the state's attorney as aforesaid, until he files with such treasurer an itemized statement of such expenses in each and every case, duly verified by himself to the effect that the same were actually and necessarily incurred to promote the ends above expressed, and that the same have not been paid. Said treasurer shall by proper entries upon his books, specifically designate the action in which such money is received and paid out, and any net balance remaining in each action, after the payment of the necessary expenses incurred in said action, shall be by such treasurer passed to the credit of the school fund as provided by law. If any state's attorney shall fail, neglect or refuse to perform faithfully any duty imposed upon him by this chapter, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days; and such conviction shall operate as a forfeiture of his office, and the court before whom such conviction may be had shall order and adjudge such forfeiture of office in addition to the fine imposed as herein provided. And whenever the state's attorney shall be unable, or shall neglect or refuse to enforce the provisions of this chapter in his county, or for any reason whatever the provisions of this chapter shall not be enforced in any county, it shall be the duty of the attorney general to enforce the same in such county, and for that purpose he may appoint as many assistants as he shall see fit, and he and his assistants shall be authorized to sign, verify or file all such complaints, informations, petitions and papers as the state's attorney is authorized to sign, verify or file, and to do and to perform any act that the state's attorney might lawfully do or perform; and for such services he or his assistant shall receive a fee of ten dollars upon each count upon which the defendant shall be convicted, to be taxed and collected in the same manner, except that in all cases when there shall be a conviction, and the attorney's fees as provided for in this chapter shall not be paid by the defendant within one month after his release from jail, the county where such conviction is had shall then become liable to the attorney general or his assistant prosecuting such case for a fee of ten dollars upon each count upon which the defendant shall have been convicted.

am'd.

§ 7605. Place of sales a nuisance. To be abated. Liquors destroyed. Presumptions. Process. Procedure. Penalties. All places where intoxicating liquors are sold, bartered or given away, in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or where persons are permitted to resort for the purpose of drinking intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or where intoxicating liquors are kept for sale, barter or delivery in violation of this chapter, are hereby declared to be common nuisances; and if the existence of such nuisance is established, either in a criminal or equitable action, upon the judgment of a court or judge having jurisdiction, finding such place to be a nuisance, the sheriff, his deputy or undersheriff or any constable of the proper county or marshal of any city where the same is located, shall be directed to shut up and abate such place, by taking possession thereof, if he has not already done so under the provisions of this chapter, and by taking possession of all such intoxicating liquors found therein together with all signs, screens, bars, bottles, glasses and other property used in keeping and maintaining such nuisance, and such personal property so taken possession of shall, after judgment, be forthwith publicly destroyed by such officer, and the owner or keeper thereof shall, upon conviction be adjudged guilty of maintaining a common nuisance, and shall for the first offense be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year, and for the second and every successive offense be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years and not less than one; and said officer abating such nuisance shall securely close said building, erection or place where such nuisance was located, as against the use or occupation of the same for saloon purposes, and keep the same securely closed for the period of one year (unless sooner released as hereinafter provided), and any person breaking open said building, erection or place or using the premises so ordered to be closed, shall be punished for contempt, as hereinafter provided, in case of violation of injunctions; provided, however, that when leasehold premises are adjudged to be a nuisance, the owner thereof shall have the right to terminate the lease by giving three days' notice thereof, in writing, to the tenant, and when this is done the premises shall be turned over to the owner upon the order of the court or judge. But the release of the property shall be upon condition that the nuisance shall not be continued, and the return of the property shall not release any lien upon said property occasioned by any prosecution of the tenant. If the owner appears and pays all costs of the proceedings and files a bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk in the full value of the property to be ascertained by the court or judge, conditioned that he will immediately abate said nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept therein within the period of one year thereafter, the court, or in vacation the judge may, if satisfied of his good faith, order the premises taken and closed under the order of abatement to be delivered to said owner, and said order of abatement canceled so far as the same may relate to said property, and if the proceeding is an action in equity and bond is given and costs therein paid before judgment and order of abatement, the action shall be thereby abated; provided, however, that the release of the property under the provisions of this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien or penalty or liability to which it may be subject under any other statute or law.

The attorney general, his assistant, state's attorney, or any citizen of the county where such nuisance exists or is kept or is maintained, may maintain an action in the name of the state to abate and perpetually enjoin the same. The injunction shall be granted at the commencement of the action in the usual manner of granting injunctions, except that the affidavit or complaint or both, may be made by the state's attorney, attorney general or his assistant upon information and belief; and no bond shall be required; and if an affidavit shall be presented to the court or judge, stating or showing that intoxicating liquor, particularly describing the same, is kept for sale, or is sold, bartered or given away on the premises, particularly describing the same, where said nuisance is located contrary to law, the court or judge must at the time of granting the injunction issue his warrant commanding the officer serving said writ of injunction, at the time of such service to search diligently the premises and carefully invoice all the articles found therein, used in or about the carrying on of the unlawful business, for which search and invoicing said officer shall receive the sum of ten dollars in addition to the fees now allowed by law for serving an injunction. If such officer upon such search shall find upon such premises any intoxicating liquor or liquors of any kind, he shall take the same into his custody and securely hold the same to abide the final judgment in the action (the expenses for such holding to be taxed as part of the costs in the action); and such officer shall also take and hold possession of all personal property found on such premises, and shall take and hold possession of such premises and keep the same closed until such final judgment.

The finding of such intoxicating liquor or liquors on such premises shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of the nuisance complained of. Any person violating the terms of any injunction granted in such proceedings shall be punished for contempt, for the first offense by a fine of not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year, and for the second and every successive offense of contempt by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years and not less than one in the discretion of the court or judge thereof. In case judgment is rendered in favor of the plaintiff in any action, brought under the provisions of this section, the court or judge rendering the same shall also render judgment for a reasonable attorney's fee in such action in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendants therein; which attorney's fee shall be taxed and collected as other costs therein, and when collected paid to the attorney or attorneys of the plaintiff therein; provided, if such attorney is the state's attorney such attorney's fee shall be paid into the county treasury as in section 7603 provided. In contempt proceedings arising out of the violation of any injunction granted under the provisions of this chapter the court, or in vacation the judge thereof, shall have the power to try summarily and punish the party or parties guilty as required by law. Process shall run in the name of the state of North Dakota. The affidavits upon which the attachment for contempt issues shall make a prima facie case for the state.

The accused may plead in the same manner as to an information or indictment, in so far as the same is applicable. Evidence may be oral or in the form of affidavits, or both; the defendant may be required to make answer to interrogatories, either written or oral, as in the discretion of the court or judge may seem proper; the defendant shall not necessarily be discharged upon his denial of the facts stated in the moving papers; the clerk of the court shall upon the application of either party, issue subpoenas for witnesses, and except as above set forth, the practice in such contempt proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to that adopted by the ninetieth rule of the supreme court of the United States for proceedings in equity in the circuit courts.

§ 7606. Liability for causing intoxication. Every person who shall by the sale, barter or gift of intoxicating liquors cause the intoxication of any other person or persons shall be liable for and compelled to pay a reasonable compensation to any person who may take charge of and provide for such intoxicated person, and five dollars a day in addition thereto for every day such intoxicated person shall be kept in consequence of such intoxication, to be recovered by civil action in any court having jurisdiction.

§ 7607. Right of action. Injured party. Every wife, child, parent, guardian or employer or other person who shall be injured in person or property or means of support, by any intoxicated person, or in consequence of intoxication, habitual or otherwise, of any person, such wife, child, parent or guardian or employer shall have a right of action, in his or her own name, against any person who shall by selling, bartering or giving away intoxicating liquors, have caused the intoxication of such person, for all damages actually sustained as well as for exemplary damages; and a married woman shall have the right to bring suits, prosecute and control the same and the amount recovered, the same as if unmarried; and all damages recovered by a minor under this act shall be paid either to such minor, or his or her parent, guardian or next friend, as the court shall direct; and all suits for damages under this chapter shall be by civil action in any of the courts of this state having jurisdiction thereof. § 15, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7608. Clubhouse prohibited. Penalty. Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, keep or maintain, by himself or by associating or combining with others, or who shall in any manner aid, assist or abet, in keeping or maintaining any clubroom or other place in which any intoxicating liquor is received or kept for the purpose of use, gift, barter or sale as a beverage, or for distribution or division among the members of any club or association by any means whatever; and every person who shall use, barter, sell or give away or assist or abet another in bartering, selling or giving away, any intoxicating liquors so received or kept, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall for the first offense be punished by a fine of not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ninety days nor more than one year, and for every successive offense be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed two years and not less than one. § 16, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7609. Evasions deemed unlawful. The giving away of intoxicating liquor or any shifts or device to evade the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed an unlawful selling within the provisions of this chapter. § 17, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7610. Fines and costs constitute liens. Proviso. All fines and costs assessed against any person or persons for any violation of this chapter, shall be a lien upon the real estate of such person or persons until paid; and in case any person or persons shall let or lease any building or premises or shall permit the same to be used and occupied for the sale of intoxicating liquor, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, the premises so leased and occupied shall be subject to a lien for and may be sold to pay all fines and costs assessed against any such occupant for any violation of this chapter; and such lien may be enforced by civil action in any court having jurisdiction; provided, that the person against whom such fines and costs are assessed shall be committed to the county jail until such fines and costs are paid; provided, that no imprisonment for nonpayment of fines and costs shall exceed the period of six months. § 18, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7611. State's attorneys advise county judge. Informer protected. Whenever application is made to the county judge for a permit to sell intoxicating liquors under the provisions of this chapter, he shall notify the state's attorney thereof, and thereupon such state's attorney shall appear and advise with said county judge, with reference to the issuing of said permit and the approval of the bond. No person who shall inform of offenses under this chapter, or make complaint thereof, shall be liable for the costs incurred in such prosecution, unless the court or jury trying the case shall find and determine that such prosecution was malicious and without probable cause.

§ 7612. Assistance for state's attorney. Any citizen may employ an attorney to assist the state's attorney to perform his duties under this chapter, and such attorney shall be recognized by the state's attorney and the court as associate counsel in the proceedings, and no prosecution shall be dismissed over the objections of such associate counsel until the reasons of the state's attorney for such dismissal, together with the objections thereto of such associate counsel, shall have been filed in writing, argued by counsel and fully considered by the court.

§ 7613. Speedy judgment to be rendered. Exception. The court whose duty it shall be to render judgment in any action or proceeding growing out of a violation of the provisions of this chapter, shall immediately upon the conviction of the defendant render judgment; provided, that for prudential reasons and for the ordinary purposes of perfecting an appeal, judgment and sentence may be suspended for a period not exceeding thirty days, and then only upon the court or judge thereof entering in a public docket to be kept for that purpose, in his own handwriting, the cause of such suspension.

§ 7614. Form of pleading. Presumptive evidence. Government receipt. In prosecutions under this chapter by indictment or otherwise, it shall not be necessary to state the kind or quantity of liquor sold or kept for sale, and shall not be necessary to describe the place where sold or kept for sale, except in prosecutions for keeping and maintaining a common nuisance, and in proceedings for enjoining the same, or when a lien is sought to be established against the place where such liquors are illegally sold or kept for sale; and it shall not be necessary in the first instance for the state to prove that the party charged did not have a permit to sell intoxicating liquors for the excepted purposes; and in any prosecutions for the second or subsequent offense, it shall not be requisite to set forth in the information or affidavit or indictment the record of the former conviction, but it shall be sufficient briefly to allege such conviction; and in all cases the person or persons to whom such intoxicating liquors shall have been sold in violation of this chapter shall be competent witnesses to prove such fact or any other fact tending thereto; and the members, shareholders or associates in any club or association shall be competent witnesses to prove any violation of the provisions of this chapter or any fact tending thereto. In actions or proceedings for the abatement of nuisances under this chapter evidence of the general reputation of the place designated in the complaint shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the existence of such nuisance, and in all cases, other than those when intoxicating liquor is lawfully sold by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, the fact that any person engaged in any kind of business has or keeps posted in or about his place of business a receipt or stamp showing payment of the special tax levied under the laws of the United States upon the business of selling distilled, malt or fermented liquor, or the holding of a license from the government of the United States in the name of any person, persons or corporation to sell intoxicating liquor shall be held and deemed prima facie evidence against such person, persons or corporation, that he or they or it are keeping for sale and selling intoxicating liquors contrary to law. And upon trial of every indictment, information or contempt proceedings for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, proof of the finding of intoxicating liquor in the possession of the accused, in any place except his private dwelling house or its dependencies, or in such dwelling house if the same is a tavern, store, public eating house, grocery or other place of public resort, or in unusual quantities in the private dwelling house or its dependencies of any person keeping a tavern, store, public eating house, grocery or other place of public resort, unless in the possession of one legally authorized to sell the same, shall be received and acted upon by the court or judge as presumptive evidence that such liquor was kept for sale contrary to the provisions hereof. No person shall be excused from testifying touching any offense committed by another against any of the provisions of this chapter by reason of his testimony tending to criminate himself (the witness), but the testimony given by such person shall in no case be used against him.

§ 7615. Court's duty. Special charge to grand jury. It shall be and is hereby made the duty of all courts of this state before whom a grand jury is summoned, to charge such grand jury especially concerning this chapter, and direct said jury to inquire particularly of all violations of any of its provisions. § 23, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7616. When druggist prohibited from selling liquor upon any terms. Whenever the father, mother, brother, sister, wife, husband or guardian or any relative of any person shall notify any druggist that such person, naming him, is in the habit of becoming intoxicated, and shall forbid said druggist from selling, bartering or giving to such person any intoxicating liquors, it shall be unlawful for any such druggist, after such notice, to let such person have any intoxicating liquors upon any terms or conditions whatever. Any druggist who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months. § 24, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7617. Treating minor, penalty for. The treating or giving of any intoxicating liquors to any minor by any person other than the father, mother or guardian of such minor or any physician for medical purposes, shall be unlawful, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall for the first offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for the second and each succeeding offense be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished therefor as provided for unlawfully selling intoxicating liquors. § 25, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7618. Liability of common carrier. Any officer, agent or employee of a railroad company, express company or other common carrier who shall within this state knowingly receive, carry or deliver any intoxicating liquors to or for any person to be sold in violation of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than sixty days.

§ 27, c. 110, 1890.

§ 7619. Bonds forfeited. Actions and liabilities thereon.

In case any person has been arrested for any violation of this chapter and given a bond and the bond has been forfeited, and before the determination of the action on the bond the defendant has been surrendered to the sheriff by his bondsmen, the defendant shall stand committed until all costs to that date accrued on the criminal action are paid; and if he fails to pay the same the bondsmen are required to pay such costs in addition to the costs of the action on the bond and a reasonable attorney's fee, to be fixed by the court, for the prosecution of both the criminal charge and the action on the bond; provided, that no defendant shall be imprisoned for a longer period by virtue of this section than is prescribed for the first offense in section 7602 of this chapter.

§ 7620. Penalty for neglect of duty of attorney, judge or auditor. Every state's attorney, county auditor or county judge who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty required of him under this chapter, the punishment for which is not hereinbefore provided by this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and in addition thereto shall forfeit his right longer to hold his office, and the court before whom such conviction is had shall order and adjudge such forfeiture.

§ 7621. Payments for liquor void. Exception. All payments and compensation for intoxicating liquors sold in violation of this chapter, whether such payments or compensation is in money, goods, land, labor or anything else whatsoever, shall be held to have been received in violation of law and against equity and good conscience, and to have been received upon a valid promise and agreement of the receiver in consideration of the receipt thereof, to pay on demand to the person furnishing such consideration the amount of said money, or the just value of such goods and labor or other thing. All sales, transfers, conveyances, mortgages, liens, attachments, pledges and securities of every kind, which either in whole or in part shall have been made for or on account of intoxicating liquors sold in violation of this chapter, shall be utterly null and void against all persons in all cases, and no rights of any kind shall be acquired thereby, and no action of any kind shall be maintained in any court in this state for intoxicating liquors or the value thereof, sold in any other state or country, contrary to the law of said state or country, or with intent to enable any person to violate any provision of this chapter; nor shall any action be maintained for the recovery or possession of any intoxicating liquors or the value thereof, except in cases when persons owning or possessing such liquor, with lawful intent may have been illegally deprived of the same. Nothing, however, in this section, shall effect in any way negotiable paper in the hands of holders thereof in good faith for valuable consideration without notice of any illegality in its inception or transfer, or the holder of land or other property, who may have taken the same in good faith without notice of any defect in the title of the person from whom the same was taken, growing out of a violation of the provisions of this chapter, and all evidence given in actions brought by or against such holders, shall be in no way affected by the provisions of this chapter.

§ 7622. Giving liquor to Indian. Every person who shall give, barter, sell or in any manner dispose of any intoxicating liquor to any Indian, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. § 724, Pen. C.

§ 7623. Being intoxicated in public place. Every person being found intoxicated in any public place is punishable upon conviction before a justice of the peace by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars nor less than five dollars, and be committed to the county jail until such fine is paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed one day for every one dollar of the fine. § 725, Pen. C.

§ 7624. Selling liquor to pauper. Every person who sells or gives to any person, knowing him to be a pauper or inmate of any poorhouse or almshouse, any strong or spirituous liquor or wine, without authority from the superintendent or physician of such poorhouse or almshouse, is punishable by a fine of twenty-five dollars. § 727, Pen. C.

§ 7625. Selling liquors on boat, Sunday. Every master or other person engaged in navigating any steamboat, who allows any liquors mentioned in the last section to be sold on his boat on Sunday, while stopping at any wharf, landing, city or town in this state, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 729, Pen. C.

CHAPTER 64.

SELLING AND SMOKING OPIUM.

§ 7626. Place for smoking opium deemed a nuisance. Every room, building, cellar or other place or premises used or permitted to be used, for the smoking of opium or any of its preparations, is deemed and hereby declared to be a public nuisance. § 5, c. 121, 1885, am'd.

§ 7627. Unlawfully keeping place for, and smoking opium. Every person who, either: §§ 2, 3, 4, c. 121, 1885, am'd.

1. Lets or permits to be used, any building or portion of a building, knowing that it is intended to be used for committing or maintaining a public nuisance; or,

2. Owns or maintains a place where opium or any of its preparations, is smoked by other persons; or,

3. At any place sells or gives away any opium or its preparations, to be there smoked or otherwise used; or,

4. Visits or resorts to any such place for the purpose of smoking opium or its preparations,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days or by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both.

§ 7628. Jurisdiction of justice of the peace. Any justice of the peace within his county shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court to hear, try and determine any prosecution arising under the provisions of this chapter, and upon conviction to impose the punishment prescribed, subject to defendant's right to appeal to the district court as provided by law. § 6, c. 121, 1885, am'd.

CHAPTER 65.

SPECULATION IN OFFICE.

§§ 1, 2, c. 117, 1890, am'd. § 7629. Unlawful purchases by state treasurer. Every person who while treasurer of this state, or the deputy or clerk of such treasurer, directly or indirectly, buys or traffics in or in anywise becomes a party to the purchase of any state warrant, order or scrip, or any bill, account, claim or evidence of indebtedness against the state, for any sum less than the full face value thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§§ 1, 2, c. 117, 1890, am'd. § 7630. Unlawful purchases by city treasurer. Every person who while treasurer of any city of this state, or the deputy or clerk of such treasurer, directly or indirectly, buys or traffics in or in anywise becomes a party to the purchase of any city warrant, order or scrip, or any bill, account, claim or evidence of indebtedness against his city, for any sum less than the full face value thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§§ 1, 2, c. 117, 1890, am'd. § 7631. Unlawful purchases by county officers. Every person who while an officer of any county of this state, or the deputy or clerk of such officer, directly or indirectly, buys or traffics in or in anywise becomes a party to the purchase of any county warrant, order or scrip, or any bill, account, claim or evidence of indebtedness of his county, for any sum less than the full face value thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§§ 1, 2, c. 117, 1890, am'd. § 7632. Unlawful purchases by school district officers. Every person who while an officer of any school district or corporation, or deputy or clerk of such officer, directly or indirectly, buys or traffics in or in anywise becomes a party to the purchase of any school warrant, order or scrip, or any bill, account, claim or evidence of indebtedness against his school district or corporation, for any sum less than the full face value thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty and not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§ 7633. Jurisdiction of justice of the peace. Any justice of the peace within his county shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court to hear, try and determine any prosecution arising under the provisions of the last four sections, and upon conviction to impose the punishment prescribed, subject to defendant's right to appeal to the district court as provided by law.

§ 6, c. 43, 1883, am'd. § 7634. State's attorney acting contrary to official duty. Every state's attorney who shall receive any fee or reward from or on behalf of any prosecutor or other individual for services or on account of any prosecution or business to which it shall be his official duty to attend, or who shall be concerned as attorney or counsel for either party other than the state or county, in any civil action depending on the same state of facts, or arising out of said facts or any of them, upon which a criminal prosecution commenced but undetermined shall depend, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars and may be removed from his office.

CHAPTER 66.

ALLOWING STALLION, BULL OR RAM TO RUN AT LARGE.

§ 7635. Unlawful permitting stallion, bull or ram to run at large. Every person who permits or allows, either: §§ 1, 2, c. 67, 1890. am'd.

1. A stallion or jack over the age of one year; or,
2. Any bull over the age of eight months; or,
3. Any ram during the months of September, October and November of each year,

To run at large is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of not less than ten, and not exceeding fifty dollars.

§ 7636. Exceptions. The provisions of the last section shall not be construed to include any stallion, jack, bull or ram kept in any herd. § 1, c. 67, 1890. am'd.

§ 7637. Justice's court. Jurisdiction. Appeals. Any justice of the peace within his county shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court to hear, try and determine any prosecution arising under the provisions of this chapter, and upon conviction to impose the punishment prescribed, subject to defendant's right to appeal to the district court as provided by law. § 2, c. 67, 1890. am'd.

§ 7638. Liable in civil action for damages. Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be liable in a civil action to any person, directly or indirectly, injured thereby for all damages resulting therefrom. § 2, c. 67, 1890. am'd.

CHAPTER 67.

ADULTERATED DAIRY PRODUCTS.

§ 7639. Selling imitation of butter without brand. Any person who shall knowingly sell or offer for sale or procure the sale of, or make or manufacture, any article or substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy and made exclusively of milk or cream, but into the composition of which the oil or fat of animals, or melted butter or any oil thereof, enters as a substitute for cream, in tubs, firkins or other original packages and not distinctly, legibly and durably branded, stamped or marked in a conspicuous place with the word "oleomargarine," or "butterine," or "patent butter," as the case may be, in letters not less than one-fourth of an inch in width and one-half of an inch in length, or in retail packages not plainly and conspicuously labeled with said words "oleomargarine," § 1, c. 49, 1895.

or "butterine," or "patent butter," as the case may be, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or shall be confined in the county jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

§ 7640. Imitation butter. "Quinness' patent." Any person or firm who shall sell or offer for sale, or make or manufacture, imitation butter or butter made of part cream and part caseine or other ingredients under what is known as "Quinness' patent," or process or any other similar process, whereby the caseine of milk and other ingredients are made to imitate and resemble genuine butter made from cream, shall stamp upon each package of the same on the top and side with lampblack and oil, the words "patent butter," in letters at least one-fourth of an inch wide and one-half of an inch long. Whoever violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or shall be confined in the county jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

§ 3, c. 49, 1895.

§ 7641. Character of product must be designated. Any person or firm who shall sell or offer for sale, or make or manufacture out of any oleaginous substance or substances, or any compound of the same or compound other than that produced from unadulterated milk, any article designed to take the place of cheese, or any imitation of cheese produced from pure milk, or any article termed "filled cheese," shall stamp upon each package of the same on the top and side with lampblack and oil, the words "filled cheese," or words that shall designate the exact character and quality of the product, in letters at least one-fourth of an inch wide and one-half of an inch long. Whoever violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or shall be confined in the county jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

§ 4, c. 49, 1895.

§ 7642. Patent butter and cheese. Card stating ingredients. Whoever sells or offers for sale any imitation or patent butter or cheese, as described in the foregoing sections of this chapter, shall give to each purchaser of said goods a printed card stating correctly the different ingredients contained in the said compound. Whoever violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished for each offense by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or shall be confined in the county jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

§ 5, c. 49, 1895.

§ 7643. Possession prima facie evidence of guilt. The having in possession by any person or firm, of any article or substance prohibited by this chapter, shall be considered prima facie evidence that the same is kept by such person or firm in violation of its provisions, and the state dairy commissioner shall be authorized to seize upon and take possession of any such article or substance, and upon the order of any court which has jurisdiction, he shall sell the same for any purpose other than to be used for food; the proceeds derived from the sale of imitation butter shall be paid one-half to the informer and one-half into the state treasury, to be placed to the credit of the state dairy commissioner's fund.

§ 7644. Specimens analyzed. Certificate. Evidence. § 6, c. 49, 1895.
Samples or specimens of any article in imitation of butter or suspected of being of a spurious character, shall be analyzed or otherwise satisfactorily tested as to compounds by the chemist of the agricultural college at Fargo, free of expense; and a certificate of the analysis, sworn to by the analyzer, shall be admissible as evidence in all prosecutions under this chapter.

§ 7645. Packages not branded or labeled. The sale or offer for sale of the substance mentioned in the foregoing section in packages not branded, stamped, marked or labeled as in this chapter required, shall be prima facie evidence of knowledge of the character of such substance on the part of the person so selling or offering the same for sale, and his employer. § 7, c. 49, 1895.

§ 7646. Stencils. Names. Reports. Every cheese factory, creamery, or combined cheese factory and creamery, engaged in the manufacture of butter and cheese, shall procure a stencil or brand bearing a suitable device and words which shall clearly designate the quality of the product manufactured and the number and location of the factory, and may contain a special or private brand or name of said factory; every brand shall be used upon the outside of the cheese and also upon the package containing the same, but in the case of butter, on the package only; and shall report annually to the state commissioner of agriculture and labor, who by virtue of his office is state dairy commissioner, the name, location and number of each factory using the said brand, and the name or names of the persons at each manufactory authorized to use the same, together with a copy of each stencil or brand, and the state dairy commissioner shall keep a book in which shall be registered the same. Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, for each and every offense. § 9, c. 49, 1895.

§ 7648. Butter and cheese defined. For the purposes of this chapter the term "butter," or "cheese," shall be understood to mean the product usually known by that name, and which is manufactured exclusively from milk or cream or both. § 8, c. 49, 1895.

CHAPTER 68.

SELLING ADULTERATED AND UNWHOLESOME FOOD OR MEDICINE.

§ 1, c. 64, 1885,
am'd.

§ 7649. Adulterating and selling adulterated food or medicine. Every person who, either:

1. With intent that the same may be used as food, drink or medicine for man, sells or offers or exposes for sale, any article whatever, which to his knowledge is tainted or spoiled, or for any cause unfit to be used as food, drink or medicine; or,

2. Knowingly sells any article intended as food or drink for man which contains a sufficient quantity of any drug or other substance to render such article injurious to health, or compounds the same; or,

3. Adulterates or dilutes so as to render it injurious to health, for the purpose of sale as unadulterated or undiluted, any substance intended as food, drink or medicine for man,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 1, c. 64, 1885,
am'd.

§ 7650. Calf less than four weeks old. Every person who knowingly, either:

1. Kills or causes to be killed, for the purpose of sale as food for man, a calf less than four weeks old; or,

2. Sells or has in his possession with intent to sell as food for man, the meat of any calf killed when less than four weeks old.

Is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days or by fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by both.

am'd.

§ 7651. Meat may be seized. The meat of any calf killed when less than four weeks old and exposed for sale or kept with intent to sell for food, may be seized without warrant and destroyed by any health officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff or peace officer.

§ 2, c. 64, 1885,
am'd.

§ 7652. Magistrate may issue warrant. Procedure. Any magistrate having reasonable cause to believe by complaint on oath made to him, that the meat of any calf killed when less than four weeks old, is kept or concealed within his county by any person, contrary to the provisions of section 7650, may issue his warrant to any peace officer of such county commanding him, in the daytime only, to search for and, if found, to seize such meat and to notify such owner or keeper of such seizure and that he appear forthwith before the magistrate issuing such warrant to show cause why such meat should not be destroyed. If such owner or keeper does not appear, or if upon investigation before such magistrate it is determined that such meat is kept in violation of such section, the magistrate shall issue his warrant to such officer commanding him forthwith to destroy such meat and such officer shall proceed accordingly, or if it is determined that such meat is not kept contrary to the provisions of such section the same shall be returned to the place where seized. The costs of the proceedings, if contested, shall be taxed against the person claiming such meat if defeated and collected upon execution issued against him, as in a civil action, but if such proceedings are not contested the costs shall be taxed and paid by the county wherein such proceedings are had.

CHAPTER 69.

§§ 1, 3, c. 59.
1883.
am'd.

§ 7679. Catching fish restricted. Every person who, either:

1. Takes, catches, kills or destroys any fish of any kind in any of the lakes, streams or other waters of this state, except the Missouri river, in any manner other than by angling with hook and line; or,

2. Between the first day of November and the following first day of May in each year takes, catches, kills or destroys in any manner or by any device in any of the waters of this state, except the Missouri river, any pike, pickerel, perch, bass or muscalonge for any purpose other than for propagating or breeding the same; or,

3. Exposes any such fish for sale during such period,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, is punishable by a fine of not less than five and not exceeding twenty-five dollars, and for every subsequent offense by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or by a fine of not less than ten and not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both.

§ 7680. Fishing within five hundred feet of dam prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch, kill or destroy with hook and line or in any other manner whatever, any fish at any time at any of the milldams, mill races or any of the fishways, sluices or aprons in any of the waters of this state, or within five hundred feet measured from the same up stream, or to cut open the ice and remove any fish from the waters through the opening thus made, or remove fish from any of the waters of this state at any time by means of spearing, seines, nets or any other device or by any other manner, except with hook and line, and in no event shall the number of fish taken, caught or killed by any one person exceed twenty-five fish in any one day. § 3, c. 64, 1895.

§ 7681. Punishment for illegal fishing. Misdemeanor. Whoever shall offend against any of the provisions of the last section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than ten and not more than twenty-five dollars, and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, for each and every fish thus taken, caught, killed or destroyed contrary to the provisions of such section. § 3, c. 64, 1895.

§ 7682. Seines and nets to be destroyed. Every seine, net or other unlawful device used or intended to be used to catch, take, kill or destroy any fish in this state contrary to the laws thereof is forfeited to the state, and it is the duty of every peace officer of this state to seize and destroy any such device whenever the same is being used in the violation of the last section. § 4, c. 64, 1895.

§ 7683. Shipping out of state. Every person who within this state ships or receives for shipment beyond the limits of this state any of the game birds or animals mentioned in section 7677 or any of the fish mentioned in section 7679, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof is punishable by a fine of ten dollars for each game bird or fish so shipped or received and one hundred dollars for each animal so shipped or received. § 1, c. 59, 1887.
§ 5, c. 58, 1887.
am'd.

CHAPTER 73.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§ 7684. Acts punishable in different ways. An act or omission which is made punishable in different ways by different provisions of this code or other penal statute may be punished under either of such provisions except that in the cases specified in sections 7696 to 7699, inclusive when the previous conviction is charged in the information or indictment and found from the evidence by the jury, the punishments therein prescribed are substituted for those prescribed for a first offense, but in no case can it be punished under more than one; and an acquittal or conviction and sentence under either one bars a prosecution for the same act or omission under any other. § 743, Pen. C.

- § 744, Pen. C. § 7685. Acts punishable in another state. An act or omission declared punishable by this code, is not less so because it is also punishable under the laws of another state, government or country, unless the contrary is expressly declared in this code.
- § 745, Pen. C. § 7686. Conviction or acquittal in another state. But whenever it appears upon the trial of an information or indictment that the accused has already been acquitted or convicted upon any criminal prosecution under the laws of another state, government or country founded upon the act or omission in respect to which he is upon trial, it shall be a sufficient defense.
- § 746, Pen. C. § 7687. Contempts punishable as crimes. A criminal act is not the less punishable as a crime because it is also declared to be punishable as a contempt.
- § 747, Pen. C. § 7688. Mitigation of punishment. But when it is made to appear at the time of passing sentence upon a person convicted upon information or indictment, that such person has already paid a fine or suffered an imprisonment for the act of which he stands convicted, under an order adjudging it a contempt, the court authorized to pass sentence may mitigate the punishment to be imposed, in its discretion.
- § 748, Pen. C. § 7689. Aiding in misdemeanor. Whenever an act is declared a misdemeanor, and no punishment for counseling or aiding in the commission of such act is expressly prescribed by law, every person who counsels or aids another in the commission of such act is guilty of a misdemeanor.
- § 7690. Neglect of official duty. Removal from office. In addition to the penalty affixed by express terms to every neglect or violation of official duty on the part of public officers, county, city, town or township, or state officers not liable to impeachment, when it is not so expressly provided, they may, in the discretion of the court, be removed from office.
- § 749, Pen. C. § 7691. When sending letter complete. In the various cases in which the sending of a letter is made criminal by this code, or by any statute of this state, the offense is deemed complete from the time when such letter is deposited in any post office, or in any other place, or delivered to any person with intent that it shall be forwarded; and the party may be prosecuted and tried in any county or judicial district in which said letter is so deposited or delivered, or in which it shall be received by the person to whom it is addressed.
- § 750, Pen. C. § 7692. Failure to perform duty. No person is punishable for an omission to perform an act, when such act has been performed by another person acting in his behalf, and competent by law to perform it.
- § 751, Pen. C.
am'd. § 7693. Attempts to commit crime. An act done with intent to commit a crime and tending but failing to effect its commission, is an attempt to commit that crime. Any person may be convicted of an attempt to commit a crime, although it appears on the trial that the crime intended or attempted was perpetrated by such person in pursuance of such attempt, unless the court, in its discretion, discharges the jury and directs such person to be prosecuted for such crime.
- § 752, Pen. C. § 7694. Attempts. Failures to commit crimes. Punishment. Every person who attempts to commit any crime, and in such attempt does any act toward the commission of such crime but fails, or is prevented or intercepted in the perpetration thereof, is punishable, when no provision is made by law for the punishment of such attempt, as follows:

1. If the offense so attempted is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for four years or more, or by imprisonment in a county jail, the person guilty of such attempt is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary or in a county jail, as the case may be, for a term not exceeding one-half the longest term of imprisonment prescribed upon a conviction for the offense so attempted.

2. If the offense so attempted is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any time less than four years, the person guilty of such attempt is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year.

3. If the offense so attempted is punishable by a fine, the offender convicted of such attempt is punishable by a fine not exceeding one-half the largest fine which may be imposed upon a conviction of the offense so attempted.

4. If the offense so attempted is punishable by imprisonment and by a fine, the offender convicted of such attempt may be punished by both imprisonment and fine, not exceeding one-half the longest term of imprisonment, and one-half the largest fine which may be imposed upon a conviction for the offense so attempted.

§ 7695. Restrictions. The last two sections do not protect a person who, in attempting unsuccessfully to commit a crime, accomplishes the commission of another and different crime, whether greater or less in guilt, from suffering the punishment prescribed by law for the crime committed. § 753, Pen. C.

§ 7696. Second offense, first five years or less. Every person who, having been convicted of any offense punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, commits any crime after such conviction, is punishable therefor as follows: § 754, Pen. C.

1. If the offense of which such person is subsequently convicted is such that upon a first conviction an offender would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any term exceeding five years, such person is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than ten years.

2. If such subsequent offense is such that, upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for five years, or any less term, then the person convicted of such subsequent offense is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years.

3. If such subsequent conviction is for petit larceny, or for any attempt to commit an offense which, if committed, would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, then the person convicted of such subsequent offense is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than one and not exceeding five years.

§ 7697. Attempts to conceal death of child. Every woman who, having been convicted of endeavoring to conceal the birth of any issue of her body, which, if born alive, would be a bastard, or the death of any such issue under the age of two years, subsequently to such conviction endeavors to conceal any such birth or death of issue of her body, is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding five years and not less than two. § 755, Pen. C.

§ 7698. Second offense, first five years or more. Every person who, having been convicted of petit larceny, or of an attempt to commit an offense which, if perpetrated, would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, commits any crime after such conviction, is punishable as follows:

1. If such subsequent offense is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, at the discretion of the court, such person is punishable by imprisonment in such prison during life.

2. If such subsequent offense is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any term less than for life, such person is punishable by imprisonment in such prison for the longest term prescribed upon a conviction for such first offense.

3. If such subsequent conviction is for petit larceny, or for any attempt to commit an offense which, if perpetrated, would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, then such person is punishable by imprisonment in such prison for a term not exceeding five years.

§ 757, Pen. C.

§ 7699. First conviction not in this state. Every person who has been convicted in any other state, government or country of an offense which, if committed within this state, would be punishable by the laws of this state by imprisonment in the penitentiary, is punishable for any subsequent crime committed within this state, in the manner prescribed in the last three sections, and to the same extent as if such first conviction had taken place in a court of this state.

§ 758, Pen. C.

§ 7700. Two or more convictions. Sentences. When any person is convicted of two or more crimes before sentence has been pronounced upon him for either, the imprisonment to which he is sentenced upon the second or other subsequent conviction, must commence at the termination of the first term of imprisonment to which he shall be adjudged, or at the termination of the second or other subsequent term of imprisonment, as the case may be.

§ 759, Pen. C.
am'd.
§ 1, c. 67, 1885.

§ 7701. Imprisonment for life. Whenever any person is declared punishable for a crime by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than any specified number of years, and no limit to the duration of such imprisonment is declared, the court authorized to pronounce judgment upon such conviction may, in its discretion, sentence such offender to imprisonment during his natural life, or for any number of years not less than such as are prescribed.

§ 760, Pen. C.

§ 7702. Time sentence limited to expire. Whenever a person is sentenced to be imprisoned in the penitentiary, for a longer period than one year, it is the duty of the court before which the conviction is had, to limit the time of the sentence so that it will expire, as near as may be, between the month of March and the month of November, unless the exact period of the sentence is fixed by law.

§ 761, Pen. C.

§ 7703. Juvenile offenders. Whenever any person under the age of sixteen years is convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the court before whom such conviction was had may, in its discretion, sentence the person so convicted to imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which such conviction was had.

§ 762, Pen. C.

§ 7704. Fine may be added to imprisonment. Upon a conviction for any crime punishable by imprisonment in any jail or prison, in relation to which no fine is herein prescribed, the court may impose a fine on the offender not exceeding two hundred dollars in addition to the imprisonment prescribed.

§ 7705. When term of imprisonment commences to run. The term of imprisonment fixed by the judgment in a criminal action commences to run only from the time of the sentence of the defendant; but if thereafter, during such term, the defendant escapes or by any legal means is temporarily released from such imprisonment and subsequently returned thereto the time during which he was at large must not be computed as part of such term.

§ 7706. Civil rights suspended. A sentence of imprisonment in the penitentiary for any term less than for life, suspends all the civil rights of the person so sentenced, and forfeits all public offices, and all private trusts, authority or power, during the term of such imprisonment. § 763, Pen. C.

§ 7707. Civil death. A person sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, is thereafter deemed civilly dead. § 764, Pen. C.

§ 7708. Last two sections limited. The provisions of the last two sections must not be construed to render the person therein mentioned incapable of making and acknowledging a sale or conveyance of property.

§ 7709. Person convicted under protection of law. The person of a convict sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary is under the protection of the law, and any injury to his person, not authorized by law, is punishable in the same manner as if he was not convicted or sentenced. § 765, Pen. C.

§ 7710. Conviction does not work forfeiture. No conviction of any person for crime works any forfeiture of any property, except in cases where a forfeiture is expressly imposed by law. § 766, Pen. C.

§ 7711. Testimony. Perjury. Privilege. The various sections of this code which declare that evidence obtained upon the examination of a person as a witness shall not be received against him in any criminal proceeding, do not forbid such evidence being proved against such person upon any proceedings founded upon a charge of perjury committed in such examination. § 767, Pen. C.

§ 7712. Definitions of terms. Wherever the terms mentioned in the following sections are employed in this code, they are deemed to be employed in the senses hereafter affixed to them, except when a different sense plainly appears. § 768, Pen. C.

§ 7713. Willfully defined. The term "willfully," when applied to the intent with which an act is done or omitted implies simply a purpose or willingness to commit the act or omission referred to. § 769, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7714. Negligent. Negligence. The terms "neglect," "negligence," "negligent," and "negligently," when so employed, import a want of such attention to the nature or probable consequences of the act or omission as a prudent man ordinarily bestows in acting in his own concerns. § 770, Pen. C.

§ 7715. Corruptly. The term "corruptly," when so employed, imports a wrongful design to acquire, or cause some pecuniary or other advantage to the person guilty of the act or omission referred to, or to some other person. § 771, Pen. C. am'd.

§ 7716. Malice. Maliciously. The terms "malice," and "maliciously," when so employed, import a wish to vex, annoy or injure another person, or an intent to do a wrongful act, established either by proof or presumption of law. § 772, Pen. C.

§ 7717. Knowingly. The term "knowingly," when so applied, imports only a knowledge that the facts exist which bring the act or § 773, Pen. C.

omission within the provisions of this code. It does not require any knowledge of the unlawfulness of such act or omission.

§ 774, Pen. C. § 7718. Bribe. The term "bribe," signifies any money, goods, right in action, property, thing of value or advantage, present or prospective, or any promise or undertaking to give any, asked, given or accepted, with a corrupt intent to influence unlawfully the person to whom it is given, in his action, vote or opinion, in any public or official capacity.

§ 775, Pen. C. § 7719. Vessel. The word "vessel," when used with reference to shipping, includes ships of all kinds, steamboats, and steamships, canal boats, and every structure adapted to be navigated from place to place.

§ 776, Pen. C. § 7720. Peace officer. The term "peace officer," signifies any sheriff, coroner, constable, policeman, watchman of an incorporation, city or town, and such other officer or officers whose duty it is made to enforce and preserve the public peace.

§ 777, Pen. C.
am'd. § 7721. Magistrate. The term "magistrate," signifies any judge of the supreme court or of the district court, justice of the peace, police magistrate and such other officer or officers as are authorized and empowered to issue warrants for the arrest of persons accused of crime.

§ 778, Pen. C. § 7722. Signature. The term "signature," includes any name, mark or sign, written with intent to authenticate any instrument or writing.

§ 779, Pen. C.
am'd. § 7723. Writing. The term "writing," includes printing and typewriting.

§ 780, Pen. C. § 7724. Real property. The term "real property," includes every estate, interest and right in lands, tenements and hereditaments.

§ 781, Pen. C. § 7725. Personal property. The term "personal property," includes every description of money, goods, chattels, effects, evidences of right in action, and written instruments by which any pecuniary obligation, right or title to property, real or personal, is created or acknowledged, transferred, increased, defeated, discharged or diminished.

§ 782, Pen. C. § 7726. Property. The term "property," includes both real and personal property.

§ 783, Pen. C. § 7727. Person defined. The word "person," includes corporations as well as natural persons.

§ 784, Pen. C. § 7728. Person further defined. When the term "person," is used in this code to designate the party whose property may be the subject of any offense, it includes this state, any other state, government or country which may lawfully own any property within this state, and all public and private corporations or joint associations, as well as individuals.

§ 786, Pen. C. § 7730. Genders. Words used in the masculine gender, comprehend as well the feminine and neuter.

§ 787, Pen. C. § 7731. Present tense. Words used in the present tense include the future, but exclude the past.

§ 788, Pen. C. § 7732. Intent to defraud. Whenever, by any of the provisions of this code an intent to defraud is required in order to constitute any offense, it is sufficient if an intent appears to defraud any person, association or body politic or corporate whatever.

§ 7733. Civil remedies not affected. The omission to specify or affirm in this code, any liability to any damages, penalty, forfeiture or other remedy, imposed by law, and allowed to be recovered or enforced in any civil action or proceeding, for any act or omission declared punishable herein, does not affect any right to recover or enforce the same. § 789, Pen. C.

§ 7734. Proceedings to impeach or remove. The omission to specify or affirm in this code any ground of forfeiture of a public office or other trust or special authority conferred by law, to impeach, remove, depose or suspend any public officer or other person holding any trust, appointment or other special authority conferred by law, does not affect such forfeiture or power, or any proceeding authorized by law to carry into effect such impeachment, removal, deposition or suspension. § 790, Pen. C.

§ 7735. Military or other authorized punishment. This code does not affect any power conferred by law upon any court martial or other military authority or officer to impose or inflict punishment upon offenders; nor any power conferred by law upon any public body, tribunal or officer, to impose or inflict punishment for a contempt; nor any provisions of the laws relating to apprentices, bastards, disorderly persons, Indians and vagrants. § 791, Pen. C.

§ 7736. Fines go to state school fund. All fines, forfeitures and pecuniary penalties, prescribed as a punishment, by any of the provisions of this code, when collected, shall be paid into the treasury of the proper county, to be added to the state school fund. § 792, Pen. C. am'd.
§ 2, c. 111, 1885. am'd.
§ 154, Const.

§ 7737. Costs taxed and collected. In all cases of conviction, the costs of the prosecution shall be taxed against the defendant, and enforced as other judgments in criminal causes. § 793, Pen. C.

§ 7738. Code construed. Continuation of existing statutes. The provisions of this code so far as they are the same as existing statutes, must be construed as continuations thereof and not as new enactments.

§ 7739. This code not retroactive. Exceptions. The provisions of this code shall not apply nor extend to any act done or offense committed prior to the taking effect hereof, except as specially provided herein; but the provisions of law now in force, and applicable to the crime to which this code relates as well in respect to the penalty affixed as in all other respects (except matters of procedure, and any provisions alleviating the punishment to be imposed upon conviction in any case), shall hereafter be and remain in full force and effect as to any such offense committed before the taking effect of this code.

CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

CHAPTER 1.

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS.

§ 7740. Title. This act shall be known as the code of criminal procedure of the state of North Dakota. § 1, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7741. Crime defined. Punishments. A crime or public offense is an act committed or omitted in violation of a law forbidding or commanding it, and to which is annexed, upon conviction, either of the following punishments: § 2, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. Death.
2. Imprisonment.
3. Fine.
4. Removal from office.
5. Disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under this state, or
6. Other penal discipline.

§ 7742. Division of crimes. Crimes or public offenses are divided into: § 3, C. Cr. P.

1. Felonies.
2. Misdemeanors.

§ 7743. Felony defined. Misdemeanor defined. A felony is a crime which is or may be punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary; every other crime is a misdemeanor. When a crime punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary is also punishable by fine or imprisonment in a county jail, in the discretion of the court or jury, it is, except when otherwise specifically declared by law to be a felony, a misdemeanor for all purposes after a judgment imposing a punishment other than imprisonment in the penitentiary. §§ 4, 5, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7744. Punishment only on conviction. No person can be punished for a public offense except upon legal conviction in a court having jurisdiction thereof. § 6, C. Cr. P.

§ 7745. How crimes prosecuted. Exceptions. Every public offense must be prosecuted by information or indictment, except: § 7, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. When proceedings are had for the removal of a civil officer of the state, or an officer of some political subdivision thereof.
2. Breaches of military discipline arising in the militia, when in actual service, and in the land and naval forces in time of war or public danger, or which this state may keep, with the consent of congress, in time of peace.

3. Offenses tried in justices', police and county courts in cases concerning which lawful jurisdiction is or may be conferred upon such courts.

§ 8. C. Cr. P. § 7746. Criminal action defined. The proceeding by which a party charged with a public offense is accused and brought to trial and punishment, is known as a criminal action.

§ 9. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 7747. How prosecution entitled. A criminal action is prosecuted in the name of the state of North Dakota as a party against the party charged with the offense.

§ 10. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 7748. Party defendant. The party prosecuted in a criminal action is designated in this code as the accused or as the defendant.

§ 11. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 7749. Rights of defendant. In all criminal prosecutions the party accused shall have the right:

1. To appear and defend in person and with counsel.
2. To demand and be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation.
3. To meet the witnesses against him face to face.
4. To have the process of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses in his behalf.

5. To a speedy and public trial, and by an impartial jury of the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed or is triable, but subject to the right of the state to have a change of the place of trial for any of the causes for which the party accused may obtain the same.

§ 12. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 7750. Only once prosecuted. No person can be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; nor can any person be subjected to a second prosecution for a public offense for which he has once been prosecuted and convicted or acquitted or put in jeopardy, except as provided by law for new trials.

§ 13. C. Cr. P. § 7751. Witness against self. Restraint, extent of. No person can be compelled in a criminal action to be a witness against himself; nor can a person charged with a public offense be subjected before conviction to any more restraint than is necessary for his detention to answer the charge.

§ 14. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 7752. How conviction can be had. No person can be convicted of a crime or public offense unless by the verdict of a jury, accepted and recorded by the court, or upon a plea of guilty, or upon a judgment against him, his demurrer having been overruled, or upon a judgment of a justice's court, or such other courts as are or may be created by law for cities, incorporated towns and villages, or county courts exercising increased jurisdiction as provided in section 111 of the constitution, in cases in which such judgment may be lawfully given without the intervention of a jury, or by the judgment of a court, a jury having been waived, upon a criminal charge not amounting to a felony.

CHAPTER 2.

COURTS HAVING JURISDICTION IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

§ 7753. Jurisdiction of district court. There is in each of the judicial districts of this state a court denominated the district court, with jurisdiction conferred by the constitution of this state and the laws passed in pursuance thereof, and having, among other things, common law jurisdiction and authority within their respective judicial districts for the redress of all wrongs committed against the laws of this state, affecting persons or property. § 15, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7754. Where district courts held. Each of the said district courts may be held, for the trial of criminal actions, in any organized county or in any judicial subdivision in the same district, as is or may be provided by law. § 16, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7755. Always open. Questions of fact. Terms. The said district courts are always open for the purpose of hearing and determining all questions, motions and applications of every kind and character in criminal actions or proceedings of which they have original or appellate jurisdiction, except issues of fact; and said questions, motions and applications may be heard and determined at any place within the judicial district in which is situated the county or judicial subdivision wherein the action or proceeding is brought or is pending. But issues of fact in all criminal actions or proceedings must be tried at a regular term of the court in the county or judicial subdivision in which the same is legally brought or to which the place of trial is changed as provided by law.

§ 7756. Jurisdiction of district courts specified. Each of the said district courts has and must exercise jurisdiction and authority: § 17, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. To inquire, by the intervention of a grand jury when required by law, of all public offenses committed or triable in the county or judicial subdivision for which the court may be held.

2. To inquire into the cause of the detention of all persons imprisoned in the jail of the county or judicial subdivision, or otherwise detained, and to make an order for their recommitment or discharge, or other disposition, according to law.

3. To hear, try and determine as limited by law, all accusations in writing presented by a grand jury, or otherwise as provided and for the causes specified in section 7824 of this code, against any district, county, township, city or municipal officer or state officer not liable to impeachment, for misconduct, malfeasance, crime or misdemeanor in office or for habitual drunkenness or gross incompetency and upon conviction to enter judgment as prescribed by law.

4. To hear, try and determine, upon information or indictment or otherwise as provided by law, prosecutions for crimes or public offenses committed against the laws of this state, and to issue writs and process and do all other acts therein according to law as may be necessary in the exercise of said jurisdiction and authority, whether original or appellate, and upon conviction of any such crime or public offense, to impose the punishment prescribed by law therefor.

§ 7757. Decisions of district courts reviewable. The final decisions of the district courts in criminal actions, are reviewable and § 18, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 19, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

determinable by the supreme court, according to law, on appeals bringing up for review the record and proceedings therein.

§ 7758. Jurisdiction. Justices. Magistrates. County courts. As limited by law directing the place of exercising their jurisdiction and authority, county, city, township and other justices of the peace, police magistrates and, when authorized by law, the judges of the county courts and the county courts shall have jurisdiction and authority throughout the counties or the judicial subdivisions in which the county, city, township or municipality for which they are respectively elected, are located:

1. To act as committing magistrates under the provisions of this code or other laws of this state conferring the same.

2. To hear, try and determine such petit misdemeanors as, by the constitution of this state and the justices' code or this code or other laws, jurisdiction is now or may hereafter be conferred upon them to punish.

3. To adjudge and impose the punishment prescribed by law, upon conviction, in all cases within their jurisdiction to hear, try and determine.

CHAPTER 3.

PREVENTION OF PUBLIC OFFENSES.

ARTICLE 1.—LAWFUL RESISTANCE.

§ 20, C. Cr. P.

§ 7759. To commission of offense. By whom. Lawful resistance to the commission of a public offense may be made:

1. By the party about to be injured.

2. By other parties.

§ 21, C. Cr. P.

§ 7760. By party about to be injured. Resistance sufficient to prevent the offense may be made by the party about to be injured:

1. To prevent an offense against his person or his family or some member thereof.

2. To prevent an illegal attempt by force to take or injure property in his lawful possession.

§ 22, C. Cr. P.

§ 7761. By other persons. Any other person, in aid or defense of the person about to be injured, may make resistance sufficient to prevent the offense.

ARTICLE 2.—INTERVENTION OF THE OFFICERS OF JUSTICE.

§ 23, C. Cr. P.

§ 7762. Public offenses prevented. Public offenses may be prevented by the intervention of the officers of justice:

1. By requiring security to keep the peace.

2. By forming a police in cities and villages, and by requiring their attendance in exposed places.

3. By suppressing riots.

§ 24, C. Cr. P.

§ 7763. Persons aiding officers justified. When the officers of justice are authorized to act in the prevention of public offenses, other persons who, by their command act in their aid, are justified in so doing.

ARTICLE 3.—SECURITY TO KEEP THE PEACE.

§ 7764. Complaint for threatening, before whom. A complaint may be laid before any of the magistrates mentioned in section 7885, authorized by law to act within the county or judicial subdivision that a person has threatened to commit an offense against the person or property of another. § 25, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7765. Complaint defined. A complaint within the meaning of this article, is a statement in writing, made to a magistrate, that a person has threatened to commit an offense against the person or property of another, and subscribed and sworn to by the complainant.

§ 7766. Magistrate must issue warrant. If it appears from such complaint that there is just reason to fear the commission of the offense threatened, by the person complained of, the magistrate must issue a warrant, directed generally to the sheriff of the county, or any constable, or marshal or policeman of the city or town, reciting the substance of the complaint, and commanding the officer forthwith to arrest the person complained of, and bring him before such magistrate. § 26, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7767. Procedure when charge controverted. When the person complained of is brought before the magistrate, if the charge is controverted, the magistrate must take testimony in relation thereto. The evidence must on demand of the defendant, be reduced to writing and subscribed by the witnesses. § 27, C. Cr. P.

§ 7769. When accused must give undertaking. If, however, there is just reason to fear the commission of the offense, the person complained of may be required to enter into an undertaking, in such sum, not exceeding one thousand dollars, as the magistrate may direct, with one or more sufficient sureties, to abide the order of the next district court of the county, and in the meantime to keep the peace toward the people of this state, and particularly toward the complainant. § 29, C. Cr. P.

§ 7770. When undertaking is or is not given. If the undertaking required by the last section is given the party complained of must be discharged. If he does not give it the magistrate must commit him to prison, specifying in the warrant the requirement to give security, the amount thereof and the omission to give the same. § 30, C. Cr. P.

§ 7771. Accused committed. How discharged. If the person complained of is committed for not giving security, he may upon giving the same, be discharged by any justice of the peace of the county or of the city or township, or by any police magistrate of the county, or by the judge of the county court of the county when authorized to act as a committing magistrate or by the judge of the district court of the county. § 31, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7772. Undertaking transmitted to district court. The undertaking must be transmitted by the magistrate to the next district court of the county. § 32, C. Cr. P.

§ 7773. Assault in presence of court. A person who, in the presence of a court or magistrate, assaults or threatens to assault another or commit an offense against his person or property or who § 33, C. Cr. P.

contends with another with angry words, may be ordered by the court or magistrate to give security, as provided in section 7769, or if he refuses to do so he may be committed as provided in section 7770.

§ 34, C. Cr. P. § 7774. Accused must appear at district court. A person who has entered into an undertaking to keep the peace must appear on the first day of the next term of the district court of the county. If he does not the court may forfeit his undertaking and order it to be prosecuted unless his default is excused.

§ 35, C. Cr. P. § 7775. Complainant not appearing, accused discharged. If the complainant does not appear the person complained of may be discharged, unless good cause to the contrary is shown.

§ 36, C. Cr. P. § 7776. Procedure when parties appear. If both parties appear the court may hear their proofs and allegations, and may either discharge the undertaking or require a new one for a time not exceeding one year.

§ 37, C. Cr. P. § 7777. When undertaking broken. An undertaking to keep the peace is broken on the failure of a person complained of to appear at the district court as provided in section 7774 or upon his being convicted of a breach of the peace.

§ 38, C. Cr. P. § 7778. Action upon undertaking. Upon the state's attorney producing evidence of such conviction to the district court to which the undertaking is returned, that court must order the undertaking to be prosecuted, and the state's attorney must thereupon commence an action upon it in the name of this state.

§ 39, C. Cr. P. § 7779. What alleged in action. In the action the offense stated in the record of conviction must be alleged as the breach of the undertaking, and such record is conclusive evidence thereof.

§ 40, C. Cr. P. § 7780. Limitation. Security to keep the peace or to be of good behavior cannot be required, except as prescribed in this article.

§ 1, c. 38, 1881. § 7781. Costs to be taxed. In all cases of security to keep the peace under this article, the court in addition to the orders mentioned in said article shall tax the costs against the complainant or defendant, or both, as justice may require, and enter judgment therefor, which may be enforced as judgments for costs in criminal cases, and execution may issue therefor.

ARTICLE 4.—POLICE IN CITIES AND VILLAGES, AND THEIR ATTENDANCE AT PUBLIC MEETINGS.

§ 41, C. Cr. P. § 7782. Organization of police. The organization and regulation of the police in the cities and villages of this state are governed by special statutes.

§ 42, C. Cr. P. § 7783. Force to attend public meetings. The mayor or other officer having the direction of the police in a city or village, must order a force sufficient to preserve the peace to attend any public meeting when he is satisfied that a breach of the peace is reasonably apprehended.

ARTICLE 5.—SUPPRESSION OF RIOTS.

§ 43, C. Cr. P. § 7784. Officer may command assistance. When a sheriff or other public officer authorized to execute process, finds or has reason to apprehend that resistance will be made to the execution of the process, he may command as many male inhabitants of his county as he may think proper, and any military company or companies in the county, armed and equipped, to assist him in overcoming the resistance, and if necessary, in seizing, arresting and confining the resisters and their aiders and abettors, to be punished according to law.

§ 7785. Officer must report resisters. The officer must § 44. C. Cr. P. certify to the court from which the process is issued, the names of the resisters and their aiders and abettors, to the end that they may be proceeded against for contempt.

§ 7786. Person commanded refusing, punished. Every § 45. C. Cr. P. person commanded by a public officer to assist him in the execution of process, as provided in section 7784, who without lawful cause, refuses or neglects to obey the command, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7787. Governor may order additional force. If it § 46. C. Cr. P.
appears to the governor that the power of the county is not sufficient to enable the sheriff to execute process delivered to him, or to suppress riots and to preserve the peace, he must on the application of the sheriff or the judge, order such a force from any other county or counties as is necessary, and all persons so ordered or summoned by the governor or acting governor, are required to attend and act; and any such persons who without lawful cause, refuse or neglect to obey the command, are guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7788. Governor may ask aid of the United States. § 47. C. Cr. P.
Under the facts and circumstances mentioned in the last section and when the civil power of the county is not deemed sufficient, it shall be the duty of the governor to apply to the military authorities of the United States for a force sufficient to execute the laws and to prevent resistance thereto, to suppress riots, execute process and preserve the peace.

§ 7789. Unlawful assemblage. When any number of per- § 48. C. Cr. P.
sons, whether armed or not, are unlawfully or riotously assembled, the sheriff of the county and his deputies, the officials governing the city or town, or the justices of the peace and marshals and constables and police thereof, or any of them, must go among the persons assembled or as near to them as possible, and command them in the name of the state immediately to disperse.

§ 7790. Procedure if rioters do not disperse. If the per- § 49. C. Cr. P.
sons assembled do not immediately disperse, the magistrates and officers must arrest them or cause them to be arrested, that they may be punished according to law, and for that purpose may command the aid of all persons present or within the county.

§ 7791. Who deemed rioters. If a person so commanded to § 50. C. Cr. P. aid the magistrates and officers neglects to do so, he is deemed one of the rioters, and is punishable accordingly.

§ 7792. Negligence of officers is a misdemeanor. If a § 51. C. Cr. P.
magistrate or officer having notice of an unlawful or riotous assembly mentioned in section 7789, neglects to proceed to the place of the assembly, or as near thereto as he can with safety, and to exercise the authority with which he is invested for suppressing the same and arresting the offenders, he is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 7793. When officers may disperse assembly. If the § 52. C. Cr. P.
persons assembled and commanded to disperse do not immediately disperse, any two of the magistrates or officers mentioned in section 7789, may command the aid of a sufficient number of persons, and may proceed in such manner as in their judgment is necessary to disperse the assembly and arrest the offenders.

§ 53, C. Cr. P. § 7794. Endeavors before endangering life. Every endeavor must be used, both by the magistrates and civil officers and by the officer commanding the troops, which can be made consistently with the preservation of life, to induce or force the rioters to disperse before an attack is made upon them by which their lives may be endangered.

§ 54, C. Cr. P. § 7795. Penalty for resisting. A person who after the publication of a proclamation by the governor or acting governor, or who after lawful notice as aforesaid to disperse and retire, resists or aids in resisting the execution of process in a county declared to be in a state of riot or insurrection, or who aids or attempts the rescue or escape of another from lawful custody or confinement, or who resists or aids in resisting a force ordered out by the governor or any civil officer as aforesaid, to quell or suppress an insurrection or riot, is guilty of a felony, and is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two years.

CHAPTER 4.

PROCEEDINGS FOR THE REMOVAL OF PUBLIC OFFICERS.

ARTICLE 1. — REMOVAL BY IMPEACHMENT.

§ 7796. Impeachments. What officers liable to and for what. The governor and other state and judicial officers of the state, except county judges, justices of the peace and police magistrates, shall be liable to and may be impeached for habitual drunkenness, crimes, corrupt conduct or malfeasance or misdemeanor in office. The articles of impeachment may contain charges and specifications, or either, predicated upon or on account of any crime, corrupt conduct, malfeasance or misdemeanor in office committed by the accused during any previous term of the same office.

§ 7797. Commencement. Trial. Presiding officer. The sole power of impeachment is vested in the house of representatives and a concurrence of a majority of all the members is necessary to the exercise thereof. All impeachments shall be tried by the senate sitting for that purpose, and the senators shall be upon oath or affirmation, to do justice according to law and the evidence. When the governor or lieutenant governor is on trial, the chief justice of the supreme court shall preside, or in case he is disqualified or unable to preside, then some other judge of said court to be selected by the senate. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators elected.

§ 7798. How originated. Prosecution. Articles. Every impeachment must be originated by resolution adopted by the house of representatives, and the prosecution thereof conducted by at least five managers selected therefor by the house. Said managers, or a committee of the house, must prepare the articles of impeachment in accordance with the resolution of the house and submit them to the house for approval, and when approved the managers must present the same at the bar of the senate and immediately deliver them to the presiding officer thereof. The house may authorize the managers to employ counsel to assist them in the preparation and prosecution of the articles of impeachment.

§ 7799. Form of articles and specifications. The articles of impeachment shall be divided into separate charges and specifications thereunder. The charges shall be numbered consecutively by themselves and each shall set forth in a general way the facts claimed to constitute one of the offenses named in section 7796 of this code. The specifications under each charge shall immediately follow it and be consecutively numbered, and each shall set forth the facts claimed to constitute an offense of the kind named in the charge under which it is placed. There may be as many charges and as many specifications under each as the circumstances may require. No objection shall be made on account of the form of the articles of impeachment, and the same shall be deemed sufficient in substance if their allegations enable the accused to understand the nature of the accusations against him, and to make his defense.

§ 7800. Day for hearing. Notice to accused. The senate must whenever articles of impeachment are presented to it by or on behalf of the house of representatives, assign a day for the hearing of the impeachment and inform such house thereof. The day so assigned shall not be earlier in the session than that at which the completion of the business of the legislative assembly may be effected. But all steps and preparations necessary may be taken and made from time to time during the session to enable the trial to begin immediately upon the completion of the business of the legislative assembly. The president of the senate or other person presiding therein, must cause a copy of the articles of impeachment with a notice to answer the same, at the time and place appointed, to be served upon the accused not less than twenty days before the day set for the trial.

§ 7801. Service of notice. The service must be made upon the accused personally, or if he cannot upon diligent inquiry be found within the state, the senate upon proof of that fact may order the notice to be served by publication or otherwise in such manner as it may deem proper; and the notice as published must require the accused to appear at the specified time and place to answer the articles of impeachment. When the notice to the accused is served by publication or otherwise than personally within the state, the articles of impeachment may be served upon the accused by mail or otherwise as the senate may deem proper.

§ 7802. Procedure after notice. If the accused does not appear the senate upon proof of service of the notice and articles of impeachment in any manner provided in the last two sections, as the circumstances may require, may, of its own motion or for cause shown, assign another day for the hearing of the accused, or may proceed in the absence of the accused to trial and judgment.

§ 7803. Impeachment suspends officer. No officer shall exercise the duties of his office after he shall have been impeached and before his acquittal. Whenever upon the impeachment of an officer there is no one authorized by law to perform the duties of the office, and the senate shall by resolution declare that the public service may suffer by reason thereof, the governor shall designate some suitable person to perform the duties of the office until the end of the trial upon the articles of impeachment, and the person so designated shall receive the same salary, fees and emoluments as such officer during his incumbency. If the accused is acquitted, he shall thereby, be immediately restored to the office, but if he is convicted, the office shall be deemed vacant and be immediately filled as provided by law.

§ 7804. Organization of court. Powers. It shall be the duty of the senate and each member thereof, unless excused for cause, to meet at the senate chamber on the day assigned to hear the impeachment and organize as a court for the trial of the same, and such organization shall be held and deemed to be perfected when the presiding officer of the senate and all members thereof, not excused, shall have taken the oath or affirmation prescribed. No member shall sit in the trial, or give his vote upon such trial, until he shall have taken such oath or affirmation. The oath or affirmation, shall be administered by the secretary of the senate to the presiding officer thereof, and by the presiding officer, to each of the members of the senate. The senate sitting as a court upon the trial of an impeachment shall have the same power to compel the attendance of its members as when engaged in the ordinary business of legislation.

§ 7805. Counsel for accused. If the accused appears and is unable to procure the assistance of counsel, it is the duty of the president of the senate, or other person presiding, to appoint some suitable person to assist him in his defense. If he is served by publication and fails to appear, it is the duty of the president of the senate, or other person presiding, to appoint some person as counsel to appear in his behalf and make defense for him.

§ 7806. How accused may answer. When the defendant appears he may in writing object to the sufficiency of the articles of impeachment, or he may answer the same by an oral plea of not guilty. Such plea must be entered upon the journal, and puts in issue every material allegation of the articles of impeachment and the specifications thereunder; or the accused may answer the articles in writing.

§ 7807. Objections to the articles. Procedure. If the accused makes objections to the sufficiency of the articles of impeachment and such objections are sustained by a majority of the members of the senate, the decision shall be entered on the journal and no further proceedings be had upon the articles, but if such objections are not sustained by a majority of the members of the senate, the accused must be ordered forthwith to answer the articles.

§ 7808. Objections overruled. Further proceedings. If the accused upon the overruling of his objections as provided in the last section, then pleads guilty to any or all of the charges or specifications, the senate must render judgment of conviction against him, but if he pleads not guilty or refuses to plead, the senate must at such time as it may appoint proceed to try the impeachment.

§ 7809. Duty of secretary of senate. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the senate in all cases of impeachment to keep a full and correct record of all proceedings and said record shall be held and become a public record. The secretary of the senate shall also have power to administer all requisite oaths and affirmations.

§ 7810. Subordinate officers of the court. The senate sitting as a court of impeachment shall have power, from time to time, to appoint such subordinate officers, clerks and reporters as may be necessary for the convenient transaction and dispatch of business, and may at any time remove such officers or any of them.

§ 7811. Process for witnesses. The managers selected by the house of representatives and the person impeached and his counsel, shall, severally, be entitled to process for compelling the attendance of persons and witnesses, or the production of papers or records required for the trial of the impeachment.

§ 7812. Senate may make rules. Subpoenas. The senate sitting as a court of impeachment shall have full power and authority to establish such rules and regulations for the trial of the accused as may be necessary, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time and dissolve when its work is concluded, and to compel obedience to its process and orders. Its process including subpoenas shall run into every part of the state and may be served by the same officers as other process, or by any person authorized by the presiding officer of the court to serve the same, and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas from district courts in criminal actions.

§ 7813. Privileges of court. Imprisonment. The senate, while sitting as a court of impeachment shall have all the powers and privileges conferred upon it by the constitution as a house of the legislative assembly or the laws passed in pursuance thereto, provided imprisonment shall not extend beyond the dissolution of the court of impeachment.

§ 7814. Vote on charge. Conviction. The vote upon the charges and specifications shall be taken by yeas and nays, beginning with the first specification under the first charge and continuing until all the specifications under the first charge have been disposed of. A vote shall be taken in the same way upon each specification and all specifications and other charges in the articles of impeachment until they are all disposed of. If two-thirds of the members elected concur in favor of a conviction upon any of the charges or specifications the accused must be convicted, otherwise he shall be acquitted.

§ 7815. Upon conviction, judgment entered by resolution. If the accused is convicted the senate must, at such time as it may appoint, pronounce judgment in the form of a resolution entered upon the journal of the senate.

§ 7816. Adoption of resolution. On the adoption of the resolution by a majority of the members present who voted on the question of acquittal or conviction, it becomes the judgment of the senate.

§ 7817. Extent of judgment of conviction. The judgment may be that the defendant be removed from office, or that he be removed from office and disqualified to hold any office of trust or profit in the state.

§ 7818. Effect of such judgment. If a judgment of conviction is given, the defendant shall be disqualified from exercising any of the functions of the office, and from receiving the salary, fees or emoluments thereof, and the office shall be filled for the remainder of the term as upon a vacancy.

§ 7819. Lieutenant governor impeached. If the lieutenant governor is impeached, notice of the impeachment must be immediately given to the senate by the house of representatives, that another president may be chosen.

§ 7820. Impeachment does not bar prosecution. If the offense for which the defendant is impeached or convicted is also the subject of an information or indictment, the information or indictment is not barred thereby.

§ 7821. Compensation. Members. Counsel. Payment. The presiding officer, except the chief justice when presiding, and members of the senate while sitting as a court of impeachment, and of the house of representatives, shall each receive their regular per diem and mileage while attending the court of impeachment, and the compensation of the secretary of the senate, sergeant-at-arms and all subordinate officers, clerks and reporters of the court and counsel employed to assist the managers, shall be such amount as shall be determined upon by a vote of the members of such court. The state auditor upon presentation of a certificate or certificates signed by the presiding officer and secretary of the senate, shall draw his warrants upon the state treasurer to pay the expense of the senate, and the compensation of the officers, clerks and reporters and counsel under the provisions of this article.

§ 7822. Compensation. Officers. Witnesses. Payment. The same fees shall be allowed to witnesses, officers and other persons serving process or orders as are allowed for like services in criminal actions, but no fees can be demanded in advance. Such fees shall be certified and paid as provided in the preceding section for the payment of the senate, officers, clerks, reporters and counsel, but subject to the right of the senate to disallow all fees and charges which it shall deem unreasonable or unnecessary.

ARTICLE 2.—REMOVAL BY JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.

§ 55, C. Cr. P.

§ 7823. Additional proceedings. Removal from office. In addition to the proceedings mentioned in chapter 24 of the code of civil procedure and article 2, chapter 6 of the political code, and apart and distinct from any other criminal action or proceedings, the following provisions are adopted to obtain a judgment of removal from office.

§§ 56, 67,
C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7824. Accusation. Causes for removal. An accusation in writing against any district, county, township, city or municipal officer, or state officer not liable to impeachment, except representative in congress and members of the legislative assembly, for misconduct, malfeasance, crime or misdemeanor in office, or for habitual drunkenness or gross incompetency, may be presented by the grand jury to the district court of the county in or for which the officer accused is elected or appointed; provided, that when such proceedings are against a state officer not liable to impeachment, the accusation may be presented by the grand jury of the county or judicial subdivision in which such officer resides or in which he has his place of office for the transaction of his official business.

§ 57, C. Cr. P.

§ 7825. Form of accusation. The accusation must state the offense charged in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

§ 58, C. Cr. P.

§ 7826. Duty of judge. State's attorney. After receiving the accusation the judge to whom it is delivered must forthwith cause it to be transmitted to the state's attorney of the county or subdivision, except when he is the officer accused, who must cause a copy thereof to be served upon the defendant, and require by written notice of not less than five days that he appear before the district court of the county or subdivision, and answer the accusation at a specified time. The original accusation must then be filed with the clerk of the court.

§ 7827. Defendant must appear. The defendant must appear at the time appointed in the notice and answer the accusation, unless for sufficient cause, the court assigns another day for that purpose. If he does not appear, the court may proceed to hear and determine the accusation in his absence. § 59, C. Cr. P.

§ 7828. Defendant's answer. The defendant may answer the accusation either by objecting to the sufficiency thereof or of any article therein, or by denying the truth of the same. § 60, C. Cr. P.

§ 7829. Objections for insufficiency. If he objects to the legal sufficiency of the accusation, the objection must be in writing but need not be in any specific form, it being sufficient if it presents intelligibly the ground of the objection. § 61, C. Cr. P.

§ 7830. Denial may be oral. If he denies the truth of the accusation, the denial may be oral and without oath and must be entered upon the minutes. § 62, C. Cr. P.

§ 7831. Objections overruled. Answer. If an objection to the sufficiency of the accusation is not sustained, the defendant must answer the accusation forthwith. § 63, C. Cr. P.

§ 7832. Conviction on plea or trial. If the defendant pleads guilty the court must render judgment of conviction against him. If he denies the matters charged or refuses to answer the accusation, the court must immediately or at such time as it may appoint proceed to try the accusation. § 64, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7834. Judgment on conviction. Upon a conviction the court must pronounce judgment that the defendant be removed from office. But to warrant a removal the judgment must be entered upon the minutes, assigning therein the causes of removal. § 66, C. Cr. P.

§ 7835. Process for witnesses. The state's attorney or other person appointed to prosecute and the defendant are respectively entitled to such process as may be necessary to enforce the attendance of witnesses, as upon a trial of an information or indictment.

§ 7836. Appeal from judgment of removal. From a judgment of removal an appeal may be taken to the supreme court in the same manner as from a judgment in a civil action; but until such judgment is reversed the defendant is suspended from his office, and pending the appeal the office must be filled as in case of vacancy.

§ 7837. Proceedings to remove state's attorney. The same proceedings may be had on like grounds for the removal of a state's attorney, except that the accusation must be delivered by the judge to the clerk, and by him to such person as may be appointed by the judge to act as prosecuting officer in the matter, who is authorized and required to conduct the proceedings. § 69, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7838. Other accusation and proceedings thereon. When an accusation in writing and verified by the oath of any person is presented to the district court, alleging that an officer within the jurisdiction of the court has been guilty of charging and collecting illegal fees for services rendered or to be rendered in his office, or has refused or neglected to perform the official duties pertaining to his office, or has rendered himself incompetent to perform his said duties § 70, C. Cr. P. am'd.

by reason of habitual drunkenness or other cause, the judge of the court to whom it is delivered must forthwith cause it to be transmitted to the state's attorney of the county, or in case it is against the state's attorney of the county, the accusation must be delivered by the judge to the clerk of the court and by him to such person as may be appointed by the judge to act as prosecuting officer in the matter, and the state's attorney of the county or person appointed to prosecute, must cause a copy of said accusation to be served upon the accused and, by written notice, require him to appear before the court at a time specified, not more than twenty days nor less than five days from the time the accusation was presented, and answer said accusation. On the day named in said notice, or on some subsequent day not more than thirty days from that on which the accusation was presented, to be fixed by the judge, the court must proceed to hear the accusation and evidence offered in support of the same and the answer, if any is made, and the evidence offered by the party accused. The court may try and determine the issues unless the accused requires that they be submitted to a jury. If a jury is required the court must forthwith in a summary manner cause a jury to be impaneled and the matter submitted to them. Challenges shall be allowed and the trial conducted in the same manner as a trial by jury in a civil action. If the charge is tried by the court it shall proceed as a civil action tried by the court. The decision of the court or the verdict of the jury shall be "guilty," or "not guilty." Costs shall be awarded as in a civil action. If the accused is found guilty either by the decision of the court or by the verdict of the jury, the court shall render judgment that the accused be removed from his office, and for the costs of the action. A statement of the case may be settled and an appeal taken as provided by law in a civil action. The court may, in its discretion, if the accused is found guilty, award treble costs against him. If the court finds that the accusation was made without probable cause, it must tax the costs of the prosecution and trial against the complainant.

CHAPTER 5.

BASTARDY PROCEEDINGS.

§ 7839. Complaint for bastardy. Form. Any unmarried woman who is delivered of a bastard child, or is pregnant with a child, which, if born alive, may be a bastard, may make a complaint in writing under oath before a justice of the peace or police magistrate against the person who is the father of such child. Such proceedings must be entitled in the name of the state as plaintiff and against the accused as defendant. The complaint shall be in substantially the following form:

State of North Dakota, } ss. Before.....J. P.
 County of..... } (or Police Magistrate.)
 The State of North Dakota, Plaintiff, against

....., Defendant.

.....being first duly sworn on oath says: That she is an unmarried woman and was on the.....day of .....18...delivered of a bastard child (or is pregnant with a child which, if born alive, may be a bastard), begotten by the defendant.....on or about the.....day of.....

18...at.....

Wherefore she asks that a warrant may be issued for the arrest of the defendant.....that he may answer to such charge.

Subscribed and sworn to, etc.

§ 7840. Warrant issued. Form. Service. Upon the filing of the complaint the magistrate shall issue a warrant which, exclusive of the venue and title, shall be in substantially the following form:

The state of North Dakota to any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in the county of Complaint on oath having been made to me by that she is an unmarried woman and has been delivered of a bastard child (or is pregnant with a child which, if born alive, may be a bastard), and accusing the defendant with being the father of such child.

You are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named and, unless he gives an undertaking in the sum of dollars, to be approved by the clerk of the district court of the county where arrested, to bring him before me at or in case of my absence or inability to act before the nearest or most accessible magistrate authorized to act in this county.

Dated at this day of 18....

Justice of the Peace (or Police Magistrate).

The officer to whom such warrant is delivered may execute the same in any part of this state by arresting the defendant and taking him before a magistrate as in such warrant directed. The undertaking required by the warrant shall be conditioned for the defendant's appearance as prescribed in section 7842.

§ 7841. How defendant released. If the defendant shall at any time after his arrest pay or secure to be paid to the complainant such sum of money as she may agree in writing to receive in full satisfaction and as shall be approved by the board of county commissioners of the county in which she resides and shall execute and give an undertaking with sufficient sureties to be approved by such board to the county in which she resides, conditioned to secure and indemnify such county from all charges for the maintenance of such child and shall also pay all expenses incurred by such county for the support of the mother during her lying in or of the child and the costs of prosecution, he shall be discharged.

§ 7842. Undertaking. Amount. Commitment. Upon the arrest of the defendant, unless he complies with the provisions of the last section or gives an undertaking as provided in section 7840, the magistrate before whom the defendant is taken shall require him to execute and give an undertaking in a sum not less than five hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties, payable to the state of North Dakota and conditioned that he will appear at the next term of the district court of such county and from term to term until the final disposition of the proceeding to answer the complaint and abide the judgment and orders of the court therein; if the defendant fails to execute and give such undertaking the magistrate shall make an order committing him as in criminal actions.

§ 7843. How warrant returned. Undertaking. The warrant when executed together with any undertaking given by the defendant shall be returned by the officer making the arrest to the magistrate who issued the warrant, or his successor in office and the magistrate shall transmit any undertaking given by the defendant together with a transcript of his proceedings and all other papers in the case, without delay, to the clerk of the district court of the proper county.

§ 7844. Undertaking after commitment. Any person imprisoned for failure to give such undertaking may be discharged by giving the same with sufficient sureties at any time after his commitment; such undertaking may be taken and approved by the magistrate before whom such proceeding was had or by the judge of the district court before whom the same is pending.

§ 7845. Proceedings for trial. The trial of such proceeding shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be governed by the law regulating civil actions. The clerk shall place such proceeding upon the calendar for trial at the first term of the district court after the papers therein are received by him. No notice of trial and note of issue need be served or filed.

§ 7846. Answer. Trial. By court. By jury. If the defendant answers, denying the charge, the issue shall be tried by the court, unless a jury is demanded by either party, in which case the issue shall be tried by a jury.

§ 7847. Defendant adjudged father. Judgment. If the court or jury finds that the defendant is the father of such child, or if the defendant fails to answer the charge, he shall be adjudged the father of such child and the court shall render such judgment as may seem necessary to secure, with the assistance of the mother, the maintenance and education of such child, until such time as the child is likely to be able to support itself, which judgment shall be docketed by the clerk as judgments in civil actions. Such judgment shall direct the person to whom and the times at which any parts of the same shall be paid and shall also require the defendant to secure the payment thereof by an undertaking executed by him with sufficient sureties and in default thereof the defendant shall be committed to jail until discharged according to law. The court may at any time upon the motion of either party, upon ten days' notice to the other party, vacate or modify such judgment as justice may require.

§ 7848. Imprisoned ninety days. Discharge. Any person who shall have been so imprisoned ninety days may apply for his discharge from imprisonment in the manner provided in the code of civil procedure for the discharge from imprisonment of persons confined in jail upon executions against the person.

§ 7849. Execution may issue. Exemptions. Executions may issue on such judgment whenever any amount is due on the same and shall be executed as an execution on a judgment in a civil action, and no property, except absolute exemptions, shall be exempt from such execution.

§ 7850. Woman failing to prosecute. County commissioners. If any woman mentioned in section 7839 fails to prosecute the father of her child and such child is likely to become a public charge, any member of the board of county commissioners of the county where she resides may apply to a justice of the peace or police magistrate of such county, who shall thereupon examine her under oath as to who is the father of such child, the time when and place where such child was begotten and as to such other circumstances as are deemed necessary; the magistrate shall thereupon issue a warrant for the arrest of the person charged with being the father of the child and the same proceedings shall be had thereon and with like effect as in cases of complaint made by the woman.

§ 7851. Prosecution limited. No proceedings under this chapter shall be instituted unless commenced within one year after the birth of such child, but no time during which the defendant is not an inhabitant of or usually residing within this state is a part of the time limited for the commencement of such proceeding.

§ 7852. Other provisions applicable. The provisions of articles 8 and 9 of chapter 10 of the code of civil procedure relating to exceptions and new trials, and the provisions of chapter 14 of such code relating to appeals are applicable to proceedings under this chapter.

§ 7853. State's attorneys must prosecute. The several state's attorneys within their respective counties shall prosecute all proceedings under this chapter.

§ 7854. Action on undertaking. If the defendant fails to appear in accordance with the terms of the undertaking provided for in section 7842 the state's attorney of the county shall commence an action thereon in the name of the state for the recovery of the full amount specified in such undertaking, which amount is declared to be liquidated damages. The judgment in such action shall direct the payment of such money as provided in section 7847, so far as the same is applicable and the court may also direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the defendant and the provisions of sections 8066 and 8067 of this code, so far as the same are applicable, shall govern the proceedings under such warrant.

§ 7855. Proceedings on undertaking. If at any time after having given the undertaking provided for in section 7847, the defendant shall be in default in the payment of any sum provided for in the judgment, the court may upon motion of the state's attorney, upon ten days' notice to the defendant and his sureties enter up judgment on such undertaking and award execution for the amount of money due upon such judgment at the time such motion is heard.

§ 7856. Deposit instead of undertaking. The defendant instead of giving any undertaking required under the provisions of this chapter may deposit with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such proceeding is commenced, a sum of money equal to the amount for which such undertaking is required to be given. Such deposit shall be held to answer the event of such proceeding to the same extent and upon the same conditions as the undertaking in lieu of which such deposit is made.

CHAPTER 6.

PROCEEDINGS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS PROSECUTED BY INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT, TO THE COMMITMENT INCLUSIVE.

ARTICLE 1.—LOCAL JURISDICTION OF PUBLIC OFFENSES.

- § 71, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 7857. Who punishable in this state. Every person is liable to punishment by the laws of this state, for a crime or public offense committed by him therein, or as otherwise prescribed by the penal code, except when it is by law cognizable exclusively in the courts of the United States.
- § 72, C. Cr. P. § 7858. Commenced without, consummated within. When the commission of a public offense commenced without this state is consummated within its boundaries, the defendant is liable to punishment therefor in this state, though he was out of the state at the time of the commission of the offense charged, if he consummated it in this state through the intervention of an innocent or guilty agent, or by any other means proceeding directly from himself; and in such case, the jurisdiction is in the county or judicial subdivision in which the offense is consummated.
- § 73, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 7859. Duel without, death within state. When an inhabitant or resident of this state, by previous appointment or engagement fights a duel, or is concerned as a second or surgeon therein, out of the jurisdiction of this state, and in the duel a wound is inflicted upon a person, whereof he dies in this state, the jurisdiction of the offense is in the county or judicial subdivision where the death happens.
- § 74, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 7860. Inhabitant leaving to evade law. When an inhabitant or resident of this state leaves the same for the purpose of evading the operation of the provisions of the statutes relating to dueling, and challenges to fight, with the intent or for the purpose of doing any of the acts prohibited therein, the jurisdiction is in the county or judicial subdivision of which the offender was an inhabitant or resident when the offense was committed.
- § 75, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 7861. Part committed in different counties. When a crime or public offense is committed in part in one county or judicial subdivision and in part in another, or the acts or effects thereof, constituting or requisite to the consummation of the offense occur in two or more counties or judicial subdivisions, the jurisdiction is in either or any of said counties or judicial subdivisions.
- § 76, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 7862. Committed near boundary. When a public offense is committed on the boundary of two or more counties or judicial subdivisions, or within five hundred yards thereof, the jurisdiction is in either county or judicial subdivision.
- § 77, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 7863. On board vessel. When an offense is committed in this state on board a vessel navigating a river, lake or canal, or lying therein in the prosecution of her voyage, the jurisdiction is in any county or judicial subdivision through which the vessel is navigated in the course of her voyage, or in the county or judicial subdivision where the voyage terminates.

§ 7864. Certain enumerated cases. The jurisdiction of a criminal action: § 78, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

1. For forcibly and without lawful authority seizing and confining another, or inveigling or kidnaping him, with intent, against his will, to cause him secretly or forcibly to be confined or imprisoned in this state, or to be sent out of this state or from one county to another; or,

2. For maliciously, forcibly or fraudulently taking or enticing away a child under the age of twelve years, with intent to detain and conceal such child from its parents, guardian or other person having lawful charge of the child; or,

3. For inveigling, enticing or taking away any unmarried female of previous chaste character, under the age of twenty years, for the purpose of prostitution, or for aiding or assisting in such abduction, for such purpose; or,

4. For taking away any female under the age of eighteen years, from her father, mother, guardian or other person having the legal charge of her person, without his consent, either for the purpose of concubinage or prostitution;

Is in any county or judicial subdivision in which the offense is committed, or into or out of which the person upon whom the offense was committed, may, in the commission of the offense, have been brought or in which an act was done by the accused in instigating, procuring, promoting, aiding or assisting or in being an accessory to the commission of the offense or in abetting the parties concerned therein.

§ 7865. Proceedings in certain cases. When property taken in one county or judicial subdivision, by burglary, robbery, larceny or embezzlement, has been brought into another, the jurisdiction of the offense is in either. But if before the conviction of the defendant in the latter, he is indicted in the former county or judicial subdivision, the sheriff of the latter must, upon demand, deliver him to the sheriff of the county or judicial subdivision where the indictment was found, upon being served with a certified copy of the indictment and a receipt indorsed thereon, of the delivery of the body of the defendant, and is, on filing the copy of the indictment and the receipt, exonerated from all liability in respect to the custody of the defendant. The sheriff having the custody of the accused shall not surrender him except upon an indictment by a grand jury. § 80, C. Cr. P.

§ 7866. Treason. Overt act without state. The jurisdiction of a criminal action for treason, when the overt act is committed out of this state, is in any county or judicial subdivision of the state.

§ 7867. Jurisdiction of accessory. In the case of an accessory in the commission of a public offense, the jurisdiction is in the county or judicial subdivision where the offense of the accessory was committed, notwithstanding the principal offense was committed in another county or judicial subdivision. § 81, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7868. Conviction or acquittal in another state. When an act charged as a public offense is within the jurisdiction of another state, country or territory as well as in this state, a conviction or acquittal thereof in the former is a bar to a prosecution or indictment therefor in this state. § 82, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7869. Conviction or acquittal in another county. When an offense is in the jurisdiction of two or more counties, a conviction § 83, C. Cr. P.

or acquittal thereof in one county is a bar to a prosecution or indictment thereof in another.

§ 84, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7870. Escaping from penitentiary. The jurisdiction of a criminal action for escaping from or breaking the penitentiary, with intent to escape therefrom, or for attempting by force or violence or in any other manner to escape from said prison, is in the county where the same is located.

§ 84, C. Cr. P.

§ 7871. Escaping from jail. The jurisdiction of a criminal action for breaking or escaping from the jail of any county is in the county where said jail is located.

§ 85, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7872. Bringing stolen property into state. The jurisdiction of a criminal action for stealing in any state, country or territory, the property of another, or receiving it, knowing it to have been stolen, and bringing the same into this state, is in any county or judicial subdivision into which such stolen property has been brought.

§ 86, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7873. Murder or manslaughter. The jurisdiction of a criminal action for murder or manslaughter, when the injury which caused the death was inflicted in one county or judicial subdivision and the party injured dies in another or out of the state, is in the county or judicial subdivision where the injury was inflicted.

§ 87, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7874. Against a principal not present. The jurisdiction of a criminal action against a principal in the commission of a public offense, when such principal is not present at the commission thereof, is in the same county or judicial subdivision in which it would be under this code, if he was so present and aiding and abetting therein.

§ 7875. Violating enumerated sections. The jurisdiction of a criminal action for the violation of any of the provisions of sections 7348, 7349 and 7350 of the penal code is in any county or judicial subdivision, either:

1. In which any act is done toward the commission of the offense; or,
2. Into, out of or through which the offender passed to commit the offense; or,
3. Where the offender is arrested.

ARTICLE 2.—TIME OF COMMENCING CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

§ 88, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7876. For murder not limited. There is no limitation of the time within which a prosecution for murder must be commenced. It may be commenced at any time after the death of the person killed.

§ 89, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7877. For felony other than murder. An information for any other felony than murder must be filed, or an indictment found, within three years after its commission; provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed to bar or prevent a person prosecuted for murder from being found guilty of manslaughter and punished accordingly.

§ 7878. For misdemeanor. An information, or a complaint, for a misdemeanor, except as otherwise specially limited by law, must be filed, or an indictment found, within two years after its commission.

§ 90, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7879. Time of defendant's absence. If when the crime or public offense is committed, the defendant is out of the state, the information may be filed, or the indictment found, within the time herein limited, after his coming within the state, and no time during which the defendant is not an inhabitant of, or usually resident within this state, is part of the limitation.

§ 7880. When action is commenced. An information is filed or an indictment found within the meaning of this article when it is presented, if an information by the state's attorney or person appointed to prosecute, or if an indictment, by the grand jury, in open court and there received and filed; or if a complaint, when filed by a magistrate having jurisdiction to hear, try and determine the action. § 91, C. Cr. P. am'd.

ARTICLE 3.—THE COMPLAINT, INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT AND MAGISTRATES.

§ 7881. Complaint defined. A complaint is a statement in writing made to a magistrate that a person has been guilty of some designated crime or public offense, and subscribed and sworn to by the complainant.

§ 7882. Indictment defined. An indictment is an accusation in writing, presented by a grand jury to a competent court, charging a person with a crime or public offense. § 186, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7883. Information defined. An information is an accusation in writing, in form and substance like an indictment for the same offense, charging a person with a crime or public offense, signed and verified by some person and presented to a police magistrate, or to the district court, and filed by said police magistrate, if presented to him, or if presented to the district court, then in the office of the clerk of said court.

§ 7884. Magistrates defined. A magistrate is an officer authorized by law, to issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with a crime or public offense. § 93, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7885. Who are magistrates. The following officers are magistrates: § 94, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. The judges of the supreme court, with authority to act as such throughout the state.
2. The judges of the district courts, with authority to act as such throughout the judicial districts for which they are respectively elected.
3. As limited by law directing the place of exercising their jurisdiction and authority, county, city, township and other justices of the peace, police magistrates and, when authorized by law, the judges of the county courts, with authority to act as such throughout the counties or the judicial subdivisions in which the county, city, township or municipality for which they are respectively elected are located.

ARTICLE 4.—THE COMPLAINT.

§ 7886. What complaint must state. The complaint must state:

1. The name of the person accused, if known, or if not known and it is so stated, he may be designated by any other name.
2. The county or judicial subdivision in which the offense was committed.
3. The general name of the crime or public offense.
4. The acts or omissions complained of as constituting the crime or public offense named.

5. The person against whom, or against whose property the offense was committed, if known, and,

6. If the offense is against the property of any person, a general description of such property. The complaint must be subscribed and sworn to by the complainant.

§ 7887. Who must make complaint. Every person who has reason to believe that a crime or public offense has been committed, must make complaint against such person before some magistrate having authority to make inquiry of the same.

§ 7888. Magistrate may examine complainant. When a complaint is made before a magistrate, charging a person with the commission of a crime or public offense, such magistrate may examine the complainant, under oath, as to his knowledge of the commission of the offense charged, and he may also examine any other persons.

§ 7889. Accused arrested without warrant. When any officer or other person shall bring any person he has arrested without a warrant, before a magistrate, it is the duty of such officer or person to specify the charge upon which he has made the arrest. It is then the duty of the magistrate or state's attorney to make a complaint of the offense charged, and cause the officer or person, or some other person, to subscribe and make oath to such complaint and file it.

§ 7890. Witnesses other than complainant. Every person making complaint charging the commission of a crime or public offense, must inform the magistrate of all persons, whom he believes to have any knowledge of its commission and the magistrate, at the time of issuing the warrant, may issue subpoenas for such persons, requiring them to attend at a specified time and place as witnesses.

ARTICLE 5. — THE WARRANT OF ARREST.

§ 95, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7891. Issuance of warrant. Justices of the peace.

When a complaint, verified by oath or affirmation, is laid before a magistrate, charging the commission of a crime or public offense, he must, if satisfied therefrom that the offense complained of has been committed, and that there is reasonable ground to believe that the accused committed it, issue a warrant for his arrest; but when the magistrate before whom the complaint is made is a justice of the peace, before issuing the warrant, the complaint, if made by any person other than the state's attorney of the county, and other evidence taken by such magistrate relating to the offense charged, must be submitted to such state's attorney and he must examine into the charge and enter either his approval or disapproval of the issuance of a warrant upon such complaint. If the state's attorney disapproves, no warrant shall be issued, but if he approves the issuance of a warrant such magistrate shall proceed accordingly: provided, however, that in cases when it appears from statements of the complaint or other written evidence submitted to the magistrate that the accused is liable to escape from the county before the approval of the state's attorney can be had as hereinbefore prescribed and such magistrate so certifies on the complaint, and in all cases mentioned in section 7889 of this code, a warrant may issue without the approval of the state's attorney. No justice of the peace shall receive any fees or allowances whatever for any act done or services rendered in a criminal action or proceeding commenced or prosecuted in disregard of the provisions of this section.

§ 7892. Warrant defined. Form. A warrant of arrest is an order in writing, in the name of the state, signed by a magistrate, commanding the arrest of the defendant, and may be substantially in the following form: § 96, C. Cr. P. am'd.

State of North Dakota, }
County of..... } ss.

The state of North Dakota to any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in this state (or in the county of....., or as the case may be:)

Complaint upon oath having been this day laid before me that the crime of (designating it) has been committed, and accusing C. D. thereof;

You are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D., and bring him before me at (naming the place,) or, in case of my absence or inability to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in this county.

Dated at....., this.....day of, 18....

E. F., Justice of the Peace,
(or as the case may be.)

§ 7893. Requisites of warrant. The warrant must specify the name of the defendant, or if it is unknown to the magistrate, the defendant may be designated therein by any name. It must also state an offense in respect to which the magistrate has authority to issue the warrant, and the time of issuing it, and the county, city, town or village where it is issued, and be signed by the magistrate with his name of office. § 97, C. Cr. P.

§ 7894. Directed to peace officer. Execution. The warrant must be directed to and executed by a peace officer. § 98, C. Cr. P.

§ 7895. Peace officer defined. A peace officer is a sheriff of a county or his deputy, or a constable, marshal or policeman of a township, city, village or town. § 99, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7896. To whom judge may direct warrant. If the warrant is issued by a judge of the supreme court or by a judge of the district court it may be directed generally to any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in the state, and may be executed by any of such officers to whom it may be delivered in any part of the state. § 100, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7897. To whom other magistrate. If it is issued by any other magistrate, it may be directed generally to any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in the county or judicial subdivision in which it is issued, and may be executed by such officer in any part of the state. § 101, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7898. Officer executing may command assistance. An officer arresting a person for whom he has a warrant in a county or judicial subdivision other than the one in which he holds office, may in the county or judicial subdivision where he finds such person, call for assistance and command aid, and exercise authority as if in his own county.

§ 7899. Duty of officer if felony. If the offense charged in the warrant is a felony, the officer making the arrest must take the accused before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or some other magistrate in the same county as provided in the warrant of arrest. § 103, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7900. If a misdemeanor. Bail. If the offense charged in the warrant is a misdemeanor not within the jurisdiction of the magistrate who issued it to punish, and the accused is arrested in another county or judicial subdivision, the officer, must, upon being § 104, C. Cr. P. am'd.

required by the accused, take him before a magistrate in that county or judicial subdivision who must admit him to bail and take bail from him accordingly. But if there is no magistrate residing within the county or judicial subdivision wherein the accused is arrested and the accused requires it, the officer must take him before a magistrate of any other county nearer or more accessible than the magistrate issuing the warrant and said magistrate must admit him to bail and take bail from him accordingly.

§ 105, C. Cr. P.

§ 7901. Procedure when bail taken. On taking bail, the magistrate must certify that fact on the warrant, and deliver the warrant and undertaking of bail to the officer having charge of the accused. The officer must then discharge the accused from arrest, and must without delay deliver the warrant and undertaking to the clerk of the court at which the accused is required to appear.

§ 106, C. Cr. P.

§ 7902. When bail is not given. If, on the admission of the accused to bail, the bail is not forthwith given, the officer must take the accused before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the same county and must at the same time deliver to the magistrate the warrant with his return thereon indorsed and subscribed by him.

§ 7903. Misdemeanor within magistrate's jurisdiction. If the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the magistrate to try and punish upon conviction, the accused, if arrested in another county or judicial subdivision, must be taken before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or, if he is absent, then before some other magistrate, as provided in the last preceding section.

§ 108, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7904. Delay prohibited. Attorney. The accused must in all cases be taken before the magistrate without unnecessary delay, and any attorney at law entitled to practice in the courts of record of North Dakota, may, at his request visit such person after his arrest.

§ 109, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7905. Magistrate not issuing the warrant. If the accused is taken before a magistrate other than the one who issued the warrant, the complaint on which the warrant was granted must be sent to that magistrate, or if it cannot be procured, the prosecutor and his witnesses must be summoned to give their testimony anew.

§ 110, C. Cr. P.

§ 7906. Accused from other county. When a complaint is laid before a magistrate of the commission of a crime or public offense, triable in another county of this state, but showing that the accused is in the county or judicial subdivision where the complaint is laid, the same proceedings must be had as prescribed in this article, except that the warrant must require the accused to be taken before the nearest and most accessible magistrate of the county in which the offense is triable, and the complaint of the complainant, with the depositions, if any, of the witnesses who may have been produced, must be delivered by the magistrate to the officer to whom the warrant is delivered.

§ 111, C. Cr. P.

§ 7907. Taken to proper county. The officer who executes the warrant must take the accused before the nearest or most accessible magistrate of the county or judicial subdivision in which the offense is triable, and must deliver to him the complaint and the depositions, if any, and the warrant with his return indorsed thereon, and the magistrate must then proceed in the same manner as upon a warrant issued by himself.

§ 7908. If offense a misdemeanor. If the offense charged in the warrant issued pursuant to section 7906 is a misdemeanor not within the jurisdiction of the magistrate to try and punish, the officer must, upon being required by the accused, take him before a magistrate of the county in which the warrant was issued, who must admit the accused to bail and immediately transmit the warrant and complaint and depositions, if any, and undertaking, to the clerk of the court, in which the accused is required to appear. § 112, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7909. Privilege of officer. An officer who has arrested a person charged with a crime or public offense in any county or judicial subdivision, may take and convey such person through such parts of this state as shall be in the ordinary route of travel from the place where he shall have been arrested to the place where he is to be conveyed and delivered under the process by which the arrest shall have been made, and such conveyance shall not be deemed an escape.

§ 7910. Officer not liable to arrest. While having in charge any person arrested in a criminal action or proceeding, neither the officer, nor any of his assistants, shall be liable to arrest on civil process; and such officer is authorized to require any citizen to aid in securing the accused, and to retake him, if he escapes, in any part of the state, as if he was within his own county; and a refusal or neglect to render such aid shall be an offense in the same manner as if he was an officer of the county or judicial subdivision where such aid is required.

§ 7911. Giving bail deemed waiver of examination. Any person arrested for a misdemeanor not within the jurisdiction of a magistrate to hear, try and punish, in any county or judicial subdivision other than the county or judicial subdivision wherein the offense is triable, shall, if admitted to bail and released thereon, be deemed to have waived all and every right to a preliminary examination upon said charge before any magistrate and such person may be informed against, tried and punished, upon conviction of such offense, in all respects as if such preliminary examination had been had.

ARTICLE 6. — ARREST, BY WHOM AND HOW MADE.

§ 7912. Arrest defined. An arrest is the taking of a person into custody in the manner authorized by law. § 113, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7913. Who may make. An arrest may be made, either: § 114, C. Cr. P.

1. By a peace officer, under a warrant.
2. By a peace officer, without a warrant; or,
3. By a private person.

§ 7914. Officer may summon aid. Any officer making an arrest may orally summon as many persons as he deems necessary to aid him therein. § 115, C. Cr. P.

§ 7915. Persons must aid. Every person when required must aid an officer in the making of an arrest.

§ 7916. When made for felony. Misdemeanor. If the offense charged is a felony, the arrest may be made on any day, and at any time of the day or night. If it is a misdemeanor, the arrest cannot be made at night, unless upon the direction of the magistrate indorsed upon the warrant. § 116, C. Cr. P.

§ 7917. How arrest made. An arrest is made by an actual restraint of the person of the defendant, or by his submission to the custody of the officer. § 117, C. Cr. P.

- § 118, C. Cr. P. § 7918. Restraint limited. The defendant is not to be subjected to any more restraint than is necessary for his arrest and detention.
- § 119, C. Cr. P. § 7919. Warrant must be shown. If the person making the arrest is acting under the authority of a warrant, he must so inform the defendant, and he must also show the warrant, if required.
- § 7920. Officers must obey warrant. An officer making an arrest in obedience to a warrant, must proceed with the person arrested as commanded in the warrant, or otherwise as provided by law.
- § 120, C. Cr. P. § 7921. When defendant resists. If, after notice of intention to arrest the defendant, he either flees or forcibly resists, the officer may use all necessary means to effect the arrest.
- § 121, C. Cr. P. § 7922. Officer may break door. The officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, to execute the warrant, if, after notice of his authority and purpose, he is refused admittance.
- § 123, C. Cr. P. § 7923. Arrest without warrant. A peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person:
1. For a public offense, committed or attempted in his presence.
 2. When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence.
 3. When a felony has in fact been committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it.
 4. On a charge, made upon reasonable cause, of the commission of a felony by the party arrested.
- § 124, C. Cr. P. § 7924. May break door. To make an arrest, as provided in the last section, the officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, if, after notice of his office and purpose, he is refused admittance.
- § 125, C. Cr. P. § 7925. Arrest at night. Reasonable cause. He may also at night, without a warrant, arrest any person whom he has reasonable cause for believing to have committed a felony, and is justified in making the arrest though it afterward appears that the felony had not been committed.
- § 126, C. Cr. P. § 7926. Must state authority. When arresting a person without a warrant, the officer must inform him of his authority and the cause of the arrest, except when he is in the actual commission of a public offense, or is pursued immediately after an escape.
- § 127, C. Cr. P. § 7927. Bystander's arrest. He may take before a magistrate, a person, who, being engaged in a breach of the peace, is arrested by a bystander and delivered to him.
- § 128, C. Cr. P. § 7928. Offense in presence of magistrate. When a public offense is committed in the presence of a magistrate, he may, by a verbal or written order, command any person to arrest the offender, and may thereupon proceed as if the offender had been brought before him on a warrant of arrest.
- § 129, C. Cr. P. § 7929. When private person may arrest. A private person may arrest another:
1. For a public offense committed or attempted in his presence.
 2. When the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence.
 3. When a felony has been in fact committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it.

§ 7930. Must inform person of cause of arrest. A private person making an arrest must, upon making the arrest, inform the person to be arrested of his intention to arrest him, and of the cause of the arrest, and require him to submit, except when he is in the actual commission of the offense or when he is arrested on pursuit immediately after its commission. § 130, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7931. When private person may break door. If the person to be arrested has committed a felony, and a private person, after notice of his intention to make the arrest, is refused admittance, he may break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house, for the purpose of making the arrest. § 131, C. Cr. P.

§ 7932. Private person arresting. Duty. A private person who has arrested another for the commission of a public offense, must, without unnecessary delay, take him before a magistrate or deliver him to a peace officer. § 132, C. Cr. P.

§ 7933. Offensive weapons taken. Any person making an arrest must take from the person arrested all offensive weapons which he may have about his person, and must deliver them to the magistrate before whom he is taken. § 133, C. Cr. P.

§ 7934. Procedure against person arrested without warrant. When an arrest is made without a warrant by a peace officer or by a private person, the person arrested must without unnecessary delay be taken:

1. Before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county or judicial subdivision where the arrest is made; or,
2. If there is no magistrate in said county or judicial subdivision qualified to act, then before the nearest or most accessible magistrate authorized to act for the county or judicial subdivision where the arrest is made. A complaint stating the charge against the person arrested, must be made before such magistrate, as provided by section 7889 of this code.

§ 7935. Who may break door. When. Any person who has lawfully entered a house for the purpose of making an arrest, or being therein makes an arrest, may break open the door or window thereof, if detained therein, when necessary for the purpose of liberating himself, and an officer may do the same when necessary for the purpose of liberating a person who, acting in his aid, lawfully enters for the purpose of making an arrest, and is detained therein. § 122, C. Cr. P. am'd.

ARTICLE 7. — WARRANTS AND SERVICE THEREOF BY TELEGRAPH.

§ 7936. Warrant transmitted by telegraph. Whenever a warrant for the arrest of a person accused of a crime or public offense is issued by a judge of the supreme or district court or by a magistrate of the county wherein such offense is triable, the delivery of such warrant by telegraph may be authorized by a judge of the supreme or district court, by an indorsement, authorizing such delivery, at any place within this state, upon the warrant of arrest under the hand of such judge, directed generally to any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in the state. After such indorsement, a telegraphic copy of such warrant may be sent by telegraph to one or more of such officers within the state, and such copy is as effectual in the hands of any such officer, and he must serve the same and in all regards proceed thereunder in the same manner as though he held an original warrant issued by the magistrate making the indorsement thereon.

§ 7937. Duty of officer transmitting. Every officer causing telegraphic copies of a warrant to be sent must certify as correct, and file in the telegraph office from which such copies are sent, a copy of the warrant and indorsement thereon, and must return the original with a statement of his action thereunder and signed by him.

§ 7938. Warrant returnable in county where issued. Misdemeanor. Every person arrested by warrant for any offense, when no other provision is made for his examination, must be taken before some magistrate of the county in which the warrant was issued, and the warrant with the proper return thereon, signed by the person who made the arrest, must be delivered to such magistrate. Any telegraphic copy of a warrant under which an officer has acted in making an arrest shall be deemed the original warrant. If the offense charged in the warrant is a misdemeanor within the jurisdiction of a magistrate to try and upon conviction to punish, a trial must be had as provided by law.

§ 7939. Arrest directed by telegraph. In all cases when by law a peace officer of this state, may arrest a person without a warrant, or having a warrant for the arrest of a person accused of a crime or public offense and such person may otherwise escape from this state, such officer may, by telegraph, direct any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in this state to arrest such person, and designate the accused in said order by name or description, or both.

§ 7940. How executed. Procedure. The order may be directed generally to any of such officers and executed by the officer receiving it. The officer executing any such order shall take into his custody, the person designated therein and detain him upon such order for such length of time as shall be necessary for the officer directing the arrest to reach the place of detention by the ordinary course and means of travel, or until sooner demanded by an officer having a warrant for the arrest of such person, but in no case shall the officer arresting such person upon such order detain him longer than the time hereinbefore mentioned.

ARTICLE 8.—RAILWAY POLICE.

§ 1, c. 106, 1889.
am'd.

§ 7941. When conductors peace officers. Each conductor of a railway or railroad train carrying passengers, while on duty in this state as such conductor is hereby invested with and possesses the authority of a peace officer of the state.

§ 1, c. 132, 1887.

§ 7942. Railway companies may appoint police. Every railway or railroad company doing business within this state is hereby authorized to appoint, and at its own expense, to employ such persons as peace officers, at its stations or other places along the line of its road within the state, as may be by it deemed necessary, for the protection of its property or the preservation of order on its premises or in or about its cars, depots, grounds, yards, buildings or other structures, or any of the same under its control or in its possession. When any railway or railroad company doing business in this state is in the hands of or being operated by a receiver appointed by a court of this state or of the United States, the authority conferred by this section upon such company is conferred upon and may be exercised by such receiver.

§ 7943. Powers of railway police. Every conductor mentioned in section 7941 and every person employed as provided in section 7942 of this code, shall have and may exercise the authority of a peace officer of the state, to arrest with or without warrant, as other peace officers, any person committing an offense against the laws of the state, or the ordinances of any city, village, town or municipality, upon the premises occupied by the company or receiver thereof, by which he is employed, or in or about its cars, depots, grounds, yards, buildings or other structures or any of the same under its control or in its possession.

am'd.

§ 7944. Procedure on arrest. Every person arrested by any conductor, or other person exercising authority conferred by this article, must be thereafter proceeded with in all respects as is or may be required by law, in cases of arrests made by other peace officers of the state, except that a conductor may cause a person so arrested by him to be so proceeded with by any other person, or officer.

§ 1, c. 132, 1887.
§ 2, c. 106, 1889.
am'd.

§ 7945. Other peace officers. Nothing in this article contained shall be construed to restrict, in any way, any right, authority or privilege conferred by law, upon any other peace officer of the state within his lawful jurisdiction.

§ 1, c. 132, 1887.
am'd.

§ 7946. Railway police. No fees. No person authorized by the provisions of this article to make arrests, shall receive or be allowed any fees or expenses for so doing.

§ 1, c. 132, 1887.
am'd.

§ 7947. Railway company liable for acts of. Each of such railway or railroad companies or receivers thereof is, and shall be held responsible for the acts of all conductors or other persons employed by it while acting as peace officers under the provisions of this article to the same extent as for the acts of its general agents or employees.

§ 1, c. 132, 1887.
am'd.

ARTICLE 9. — RETAKING AFTER AN ESCAPE OR RESCUE.

§ 7948. Pursuit and rearrest. If a person arrested escapes or is rescued, the person from whose custody he escaped or was rescued, may immediately pursue and retake him, at any time, and in any place in the state.

§ 134, C. Cr. P.

§ 7949. May break door or window. To retake the person escaping or rescued, the person pursuing may, after notice of his intention and refusal of admittance, break open an outer or inner door or window of a dwelling house.

§ 135, C. Cr. P.

ARTICLE 10. — PRELIMINARY EXAMINATIONS.

§ 7950. Magistrate's duty. When the defendant is brought before a magistrate upon an arrest, either with or without a warrant, on a charge of having committed a public offense, the magistrate must immediately inform him of the charge against him, and of his right to the aid of counsel in every stage of the proceedings, and also of his right to waive an examination before any further proceedings are had.

§ 136, C. Cr. P.

§ 7951. Must allow accused counsel. He must also allow the defendant a reasonable time to send for counsel, and adjourn the examination for that purpose; and must, upon the request of the defendant, require a peace officer to take a message to such counsel in the county or city as the defendant may name. The officer must, without delay, perform that duty, and shall receive fees therefor as upon service of a subpoena.

§ 137, C. Cr. P.

am'd.

§ 7952. Examination. The magistrate before whom the accused is brought, must, unless a change of the place of trial is had under the provisions of the next section, immediately after the appearance of counsel, or if none appears and the accused requires the aid of counsel, after waiting a reasonable time therefor, proceed to examine the case.

§ 1, c. 82, 1887.
am'd.

§ 7953. Change of place of trial. Whenever a person accused of a public offense is brought before a justice of the peace for examination and, at any time before such examination is commenced, he files with such justice his affidavit stating that by reason of the bias or prejudice of said justice, he believes he cannot have a fair and impartial examination before him, such justice must transfer said action, and all the papers therein including a certified copy of his docket entries, to another justice of the same county, if there is another justice in said county qualified to act; provided, that unless the parties agree upon the justice to whom said action shall be transferred, it shall be sent to the nearest justice of the county, but no more than one change of the place of examination under this section shall be had in an action.

§ 139, C. Cr. P.

§ 7954. Adjournment. The examination must be completed at one session unless the magistrate for good cause adjourns it. The adjournment cannot be for more than three days at each time, nor more than fifteen days in all, unless by the consent, or on the motion of the defendant.

§ 140, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7955. Disposition of accused on adjournment. If an adjournment is had for any cause and the defendant is charged with a capital offense, he must be committed in the meantime, otherwise the magistrate must commit the defendant for examination, or discharge him from custody, upon sufficient bail or the deposit of money, as provided in this code, as security for his appearance at the time to which the examination is postponed.

§ 141, C. Cr. P.

§ 7956. Form. Commitment for examination. The commitment for examination is by an indorsement signed by the magistrate, on the warrant of arrest, to the following effect:

The within named A. B., having been brought before me under this warrant, and having failed to give bail for his appearance, is committed to the sheriff of the county of..... (or to the marshal of the city of, as the case may be,) to await examination on the day of, 18.... at o'clock,M. at which time you will have his body before me at my office.

§ 142, C. Cr. P.

§ 7957. Examination. Procedure. At the examination the magistrate must, in the first place, read to the accused the complaint on file before him. He must also, after the commencement of the prosecution, issue subpoenas for any witnesses required by the prosecution or the defendant.

§ 7958. Same. Witnesses kept separate. While a witness is under examination, the magistrate may exclude all witnesses who have not been examined. He may also cause the witnesses to be kept separate, and to be prevented from conversing with each other until they are all examined.

§ 7959. Same. Who excluded. The magistrate may also, upon the request of the defendant, exclude from the examination every person except his clerk, the prosecutor and his counsel, the attorney general of the state, the state's attorney of the county, the defendant and his counsel and such other person as he may designate, and the officer having the defendant in custody.

§ 7960. How witnesses examined. The witnesses must be examined in the presence of the defendant, and may be cross-examined in his behalf. And on demand of the defendant all the testimony in the case must be reduced to writing in the form of depositions. § 143, C. Cr. P.

§ 7961. Accused may produce witnesses. When the examination of the witnesses on the part of the state is closed, any witnesses the defendant may produce must be sworn and examined. § 144, C. Cr. P.

§ 7962. Magistrate. Disposition of depositions. The magistrate or his clerk must keep the depositions taken, and exhibits admitted as evidence on the examination until returned to the proper court; and must not permit such testimony to be examined or copied by any person except a judge of the court having jurisdiction of the offense, or authorized to issue writs of habeas corpus, the attorney general of the state, the state's attorney of the county or judicial subdivision, or other prosecuting attorney and the defendant and his counsel. § 145, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7963. Violation. Misdemeanor. Every violation of the last section is punishable as a misdemeanor. § 146, C. Cr. P.

§ 7964. Procedure. Accused discharged. After hearing the evidence on behalf of the respective parties, if it appears either that a public offense has not been committed, or that there is no sufficient cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof, the magistrate must order the defendant to be discharged, by an indorsement on the complaint over his signature, to the following effect: "There being no sufficient cause to believe the within named.....guilty of the offense within mentioned, I order him discharged." § 147, C. Cr. P.

§ 7965. Malicious prosecution. Costs taxed. If the defendant on a preliminary examination for a public offense is discharged as provided in section 7964 and if the magistrate finds that the prosecution was malicious or without probable cause, he shall enter such judgment on his docket and tax the costs against the complaining witness, which shall be enforced as judgments for costs in criminal cases, and execution may issue therefor. § 2, c. 38, 1881.

§ 7966. Procedure. Accused held to answer. If, however, it appears from the examination that a public offense has been committed, and that there is sufficient cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof, the magistrate must, in like manner, indorse on the complaint an order signed by him, to the following effect: "It appearing to me that the offense in the within complaint mentioned (or any other offense, according to the fact, stating generally the nature thereof), has been committed and that there is sufficient cause to believe the within named..... guilty thereof, I order that he be held to answer the same." § 148, C. Cr. P.

§ 7967. When offense not bailable. If the offense is not bailable, the following words or words to the same effect, must be added to the indorsement: "And that he is hereby committed to the sheriff of.....," (or to the marshal of the city of..... or as the case may be). § 149, C. Cr. P.

§ 7968. When offense bailable. If the offense is bailable, and bail is taken by the magistrate, the following words or words to the same effect, must be added to the indorsement mentioned in section 7966: "And I have admitted him to bail, to answer, by the undertaking hereto annexed."

§ 151, C. Cr. P. § 7969. When bail not taken. If the offense is bailable, and the defendant is admitted to bail, but bail has not been taken, the following words or words to the same effect, must be added to the indorsement mentioned in section 7966: "And that he is admitted to bail in the sum of dollars, and be committed to the sheriff of the county of, (or the marshal of the city of, or as the case may be), until said bail is given."

§ 152, C. Cr. P. § 7970. Commitment. Procedure. If the magistrate orders the defendant to be committed as provided in sections 7967 and 7969 he must make out a commitment, signed by him with his name of office, and deliver it, with the defendant, to the officer to whom he is committed, or if that officer is not present, to a peace officer, who must immediately deliver the defendant into the proper custody, together with the commitment.

§ 153, C. Cr. P. § 7971. Form of commitment. The commitment must be to the following effect:

State of North Dakota, }
County of } ss.

The state of North Dakota to the sheriff of the county of ..... (or marshal of the city of, or as the case may be):

An order having been this day made by me, that A. B. be held to answer upon a charge of (stating briefly the nature of the offense, with time and place as near as may be), you are commanded to receive him into your custody, and detain him until he is legally discharged.

Dated at, this day of, 18..

C. D., Justice of the Peace.

§ 154, C. Cr. P. § 7972. Witness to give undertaking. On holding the defendant to answer, the magistrate may take from each of the material witnesses examined before him on the part of the state, a written undertaking, without surety, to the effect that he will appear and testify at the court to which the complaint and depositions, if any, are to be sent, or that he will forfeit such sum as the magistrate may fix and determine.

§ 155, C. Cr. P. § 7973. Sureties may be required. When the magistrate is am'd. satisfied, by proof on oath, that there is reason to believe that any such witness will not appear and testify, unless security is required, he may order the witness to enter into a written undertaking, with such sureties and in such sum as he may deem proper, for his appearance, as specified in the last section.

§ 156, C. Cr. P. § 7974. Married women and minors. When a married am'd. woman or a minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to give an undertaking for the appearance of such witness; or the magistrate may, in his discretion, take the undertaking of such married woman or minor in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, which is valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of minority.

§ 157, C. Cr. P. § 7975. Refusal. Witness committed. If a witness, required to enter into an undertaking to appear and testify, either with or without sureties, refuses compliance with the order for that purpose, the magistrate must commit him to prison until he complies or is legally discharged.

§ 7976. Security may be subsequently demanded. When, however, in pursuance of section 7972, any material witness on the part of the prosecution has been discharged on his undertaking, without surety, if afterwards, on the sworn application of the state's attorney or other person on behalf of the state, made to the magistrate or to any judge, it satisfactorily appears that the presence of such witness or any other person on the part of the prosecution is material or necessary on the trial in court, such magistrate or judge may compel such witness, or any other material witness on the part of the state, to give an undertaking with sureties, to appear on the said trial and give his testimony therein, and for that purpose, the said magistrate or judge may issue a warrant against any such person, under his hand, with or without seal, directed to a sheriff, marshal or other peace officer, to arrest such person and bring him before such magistrate or judge. § 158, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7977. Witness may be confined. And in case the person so arrested shall neglect or refuse to give said undertaking in the manner required by said magistrate or judge, he may issue a warrant of commitment against such person, which shall be delivered to said sheriff or other peace officer, whose duty it shall be to convey such person to the jail mentioned in said warrant, and the person shall remain in confinement until he shall be removed to the grand jury or to the court, for the purpose of giving his testimony, or until he shall have given the undertaking required by said magistrate or judge, or until he is otherwise discharged according to law. § 159, C. Cr. P.

§ 7978. Magistrate must return papers. When a magistrate has discharged a defendant or has held him to answer, as provided in sections 7964 and 7966, he must return immediately to the district court of the county or judicial subdivision, the warrant, if any, the complaint, the deposition of all the witnesses examined before him, if any have been taken, and exhibits and all undertakings of bail or for the appearance of witnesses, taken by him, together with a certified copy of the record of the proceedings as it appears on his docket. § 160, C. Cr. P.

CHAPTER 7.

PROCEEDINGS ON INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT.

ARTICLE 1. — PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS.

§ 7979. Public offenses, how prosecuted. All crimes or public offenses triable in the district courts must be prosecuted by information or indictment, except as provided in the next section. § 161, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7980. Removal from office. When the proceedings are for the removal of a district, county, township, city or municipal officer, or of a state officer not liable to impeachment, they may be commenced by an accusation in writing as provided in article 2, chapter 4, of this code. § 162, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 7981. Same. Jurisdiction. Exception. All accusations against district, county, township or municipal officers, or state officers not liable to impeachment, must be found, or presented to and filed in the district court; but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said officers from being proceeded against for a crime or public offense in the same manner as now is or may hereafter be provided by law for proceeding against other persons accused of a crime or public offense, or to limit the power of the court to remove such officers from office, upon conviction, when authorized by law so to do.

ARTICLE 2.—THE INFORMATION.

§ 1, c. 71, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7982. Prosecution on information. In what cases. During each term of the district court held in and for any county or judicial subdivision in this state at which a grand jury has not been summoned and impaneled, the state's attorney of the county or judicial subdivision, or other person appointed by the court, as provided by law, to prosecute a criminal action, shall file an information, or informations as the circumstances may require, respectively, against all persons accused of having committed a crime or public offense within such county or judicial subdivision or triable therein:

1. When such person or persons have had a preliminary examination before a magistrate for such crime or public offense and, from the evidence taken thereat, the magistrate has ordered that said person or persons be held to answer to the offense charged or some other crime or public offense disclosed by the evidence.

2. When the crime or public offense is committed during the continuance of the term of the district court in and for the county or judicial subdivision in which the offense is committed or triable.

3. When a person accused of a crime or public offense is arrested and waives, in writing, or if before a magistrate, orally, a preliminary examination therefor.

4. When a person accused of a misdemeanor not within the jurisdiction of a magistrate to try and punish, has been arrested and admitted to bail at a place other than the county or judicial subdivision in which said offense is triable; or.

5. At any time, when the person accused of a crime or public offense is a fugitive from justice and such information may be needed by the governor of this state to demand such person from the executive authority of any other state or territory within the United States, or to aid the proper executive authority of the United States to demand such person of any foreign government.

§ 7, c. 71, 1890.

§ 7983. State's attorney must inquire into charges. The state's attorney of the county or judicial subdivision in which any person charged with the commission of a crime or public offense has been held to answer, or other person appointed by the court as provided by law to prosecute, must make full examination and inquiry into the facts and circumstances touching any crime or public offense committed by the accused and triable in said county or judicial subdivision, and must file an information setting forth the crime committed according to the facts ascertained on such examination and inquiry and from the written testimony taken before the magistrate, whether it is the offense charged in the complaint upon which the examination was had or some other offense.

§ 7984. Procedure when no information filed. If the state's attorney, or other person appointed to prosecute, in any such case, determines that an information ought not to be filed, he must make, subscribe and file with the clerk of the district court of the county or judicial subdivision, a statement in writing setting forth his reasons in fact and in law for not filing an information; such statement must be filed at and during the term of the court to which the accused is held to appear for trial. The court must thereupon examine such statement together with the evidence filed in the case, and if, upon such examination, the court is not satisfied with such statement, the state's attorney, or person appointed to prosecute, must be directed and required by the court to file the proper information and bring the case to trial. But if the court does not require that an information be filed and the defendant is not held or wanted to answer for any other crime or public offense, he shall be discharged and his bail exonerated or money deposited refunded to him. § 7, c. 71, 1890.

§ 7985. Information. Filing. Names of witnesses. All informations filed under the provisions of this article, shall be by the state's attorney of the county or judicial subdivision, or by the person appointed to prosecute, as informant; and said state's attorney or person appointed to prosecute shall subscribe his name to said information and indorse or otherwise exhibit thereon the names of all witnesses for the prosecution known to him to be such at the time of the filing of the same, but other witnesses may testify, in behalf of the prosecution, on the trial of said action, the same as if their names had been indorsed upon the information. § 2, c. 71, 1890.

§ 7986. Verification. Form of. The information must be verified by the state's attorney or by the person appointed to prosecute, or by the prosecuting witness, or by some other person, and said verification must be signed by the person verifying and may be to the effect that the person verifying has read or heard the information read, and knows the contents thereof, and that he is informed and verily believes that the facts set forth therein are true, and from said knowledge, information and belief he states the same to be true. § 3, c. 71, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7987. Information. Form of amendment. The information must conform to the requirements of the article of this code entitled, "Rules of Pleading and Form of the Information or Indictment," and may be amended in matter of form, without a new verification, or of substance with a new verification at any time before the defendant pleads, without leave of the court. The information may be amended at any time thereafter or during the trial as to all matters of form, at the discretion of the court, when the same can be done without prejudice to the rights of the defendant. No amendment must cause any delay of the trial unless for good cause shown by affidavit. § 4, c. 71, 1890.
am'd.

ARTICLE 3.—CALLING OF THE GRAND JURY.

§ 7988. Grand jury defined. Formation. A grand jury is a body of men, consisting of not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-three persons of the county possessing the qualifications prescribed by law, and impaneled and sworn to inquire into and true presentment make to the district court of all crimes or public offenses against the laws of this state committed or triable within the county or judicial subdivision for which the court is holden. § 2, c. 62, 1885.
am'd.

§ 9, c. 71, 1890.
am'd.

§ 7989. When grand jury may be called. No grand jury shall be drawn or summoned to attend at the session of any district court within this state unless the judge thereof shall so direct by order in writing under his hand and filed with the clerk of the court at which said grand jury is required to attend. The judge of the district court in and for any county or judicial subdivision must, in the manner herein provided, direct that a grand jury be drawn and summoned to attend at a term of the said court, whenever:

1. He shall deem the attendance of such jury necessary for the due enforcement of the laws of this state;

2. The board of county commissioners of the county wherein the court is to be held, in writing, requests him so to do; or,

3. A petition in writing, signed by at least twenty-five resident freeholders or taxpayers of said county or judicial subdivision and requesting the same is presented to such judge. The request provided for in subdivision 2 of this section and the petition mentioned in subdivision 3 hereof must be presented to such judge at least fifteen days before the commencement of the term at which the attendance of a grand jury is requested.

ARTICLE 4.—FORMATION OF THE GRAND JURY.

§ 166, C. Cr. P.

§ 7990. Challenges. State. Accused. The state or a person held to answer a charge for a public offense, may challenge the panel of a grand jury, or an individual grand juror.

§ 164, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 7991. Challenge allowed. Procedure. Whenever a challenge to the panel or to an individual grand juror is allowed, the court shall make an order to the sheriff or other officer to summon without delay from the body of the county, a sufficient number of persons to complete or to form a grand jury.

§ 165, C. Cr. P.

§ 7992. Twelve jurors may find an indictment. No indictment shall be found, nor shall any presentment or accusation be made, without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors.

§ 167, C. Cr. P.

§ 7993. Challenge to panel. Causes for. A challenge to the panel may be interposed by either party for one or more of the following causes only:

1. That the requisite number of ballots was not drawn from the jury box of the county or subdivision.

2. That notice of the drawing of the grand jury was not given.

3. That the drawing was not had in the presence of the officers designated by law, or in the manner prescribed by law.

§ 168, C. Cr. P.

§ 7994. Challenge allowed, jury discharged. If a challenge to the panel is allowed, the grand jury must be discharged.

§ 169, C. Cr. P.

§ 7995. Challenge to individual grand juror. Causes for. A challenge to an individual grand juror may be interposed by either party, for one or more of the following causes only:

1. That he is a minor.

2. That he is not a qualified elector.

3. That he is otherwise disqualified under any of the provisions of article 10, chapter 7 of the political code.

4. That he is insane.

5. That he is a prosecutor upon a charge against the defendant.

6. That he is a witness on the part of the prosecution, and has been served with process or bound by an undertaking as such.

7. That a state of mind exists on his part in reference to the case, or to either party, which will prevent him from acting impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging; but no person shall be disqualified as a juror by reason of having formed or expressed an opinion upon the matter or cause to be submitted to such jury, founded upon public rumor, statements in public journals or common notoriety, provided it satisfactorily appears to the court, upon his declaration, under oath or otherwise, that he can and will, notwithstanding such an opinion, act impartially and fairly upon the matters to be submitted to him.

§ 7996. Challenge may be oral or written. Challenges may be oral or in writing, and must be tried by the court. § 170, C. Cr. P.

§ 7997. Challenge allowed or disallowed. Clerk. Entry. The court must allow or disallow the challenge, and the clerk must enter its decision upon the minutes. § 171, C. Cr. P.

§ 7998. Effect of challenge allowed. If a challenge to an individual grand juror is allowed, he cannot be present at or take part in the consideration of the charge against the defendant who interposed the challenge, or the deliberations of the grand jury thereon. § 172, C. Cr. P.

§ 7999. Violation. Punishment. The grand jury must inform the court of a violation of the last section, and it is punishable by the court as a contempt. § 173, C. Cr. P.

§ 8000. Challenge must be before jury is sworn. Neither the state, nor a person held to answer a charge for a public offense, can take advantage of any objection to the panel or to an individual grand juror unless it is by challenge, and before the grand jury is sworn, except that after the grand jury is sworn and before the indictment is found, the court may, in its discretion, upon a good cause shown, receive and allow a challenge. § 174, C. Cr. P.

§ 8001. Court may order another grand jury. If the grand jury is discharged by an allowance of a challenge to the whole panel, or if an offense is committed during the sitting of the court, after the regular discharge of the grand jury, or if after such discharge a new indictment becomes requisite by reason of an arrest of judgment or by the quashing of an indictment, or if from any other good and sufficient cause another grand jury may become necessary, the court may, in its discretion, order that another grand jury be summoned, and the court may to that end forthwith make an order to the county commissioners for the immediate selection and furnishing to the clerk of a list of jurors, and may make such further orders to the clerk, sheriff and other officers for an immediate compliance with their duties as may be proper to obtain another grand jury at and during the same term of the court. § 175, C. Cr. P.

§ 8002. Special grand jury. A grand jury formed and impaneled as to and in a particular case, after a challenge or challenges to individual grand jurors have been allowed, shall only be sworn to act in such particular case, and as to all other cases at the same term of the court the grand jury shall be formed in the usual manner provided by law. § 176, C. Cr. P.

§ 8003. Court may appoint foreman. From the persons summoned to serve as grand jurors, and appearing, the court must appoint a foreman. The court must also appoint a foreman when a person already appointed is discharged or excused before the grand jury are dismissed. § 177, C. Cr. P.

§ 178. C. Cr. P. § 8004. Oath to foreman. The following oath must be administered to the foreman of the grand jury:

“You, as foreman of this grand jury, shall diligently inquire into, and true presentment make, of all public offenses against this state, committed or triable within this county (or subdivision), of which you shall have or can obtain legal evidence. You will keep your own counsel, and that of your fellows, and of the state, and will not, except when required in the due course of judicial proceedings, disclose the testimony of any witness examined before you, nor anything which you or any other grand juror may have said, nor the manner in which you or any other grand juror may have voted on any matter before you. You shall present no person through malice, hatred or ill will, nor leave any unpresented through fear, favor or affection, or for any reward or the promise or hope thereof; but in all your presentments or indictments, you shall present the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your skill and understanding. So help you God.”

§ 179. C. Cr. P. § 8005. Oath to other grand jurors. The following oath must be immediately thereupon administered to the other grand jurors present:

“The same oath which your foreman has now taken before you on his part, you and each of you shall well and truly observe on your part. So help you God.”

§ 180. C. Cr. P. § 8006. Court must charge grand jury. The grand jury being impaneled and sworn, must be charged by the court. In doing so, the court must give them such information as it may deem proper as to the nature of their duties, and as to any charges for public offenses returned to the court, or likely to come before the grand jury.

§ 181. C. Cr. P. § 8007. Jury must retire. The grand jury must then retire to a private room and inquire into the offenses cognizable by them.

§ 182. C. Cr. P. § 8008. Clerk. Appointment. His duty. The grand jury must appoint one of their number as clerk, who must preserve minutes of their proceedings, except of the votes of the individual members, and of the evidence given before them.

§ 183. C. Cr. P. § 8009. When jury to be discharged. On the completion of the business before them, or whenever the court shall be of opinion that the public interests will not be subserved by a further continuance of the session, the grand jury must be discharged by the court; but whether the business is completed or not, they are discharged by the final adjournment of the court.

ARTICLE 5. — POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE GRAND JURY.

§ 184. C. Cr. P. § 8010. General powers and duties. The grand jury has power, and it is their duty to inquire into all public offenses committed or triable in the county or subdivision, and to present them to the court, either by presentment or indictment, or accusation in writing.

§ 185. C. Cr. P. § 8011. Presentment defined. A presentment is an informal statement in writing by the grand jury, representing to the court that a public offense has been committed, which is triable in the county or subdivision, and that there is reasonable ground for believing that a particular individual, named or described, has committed it.

§ 8012. Oath to witness. The foreman may administer an oath to any witness appearing before the grand jury. § 187, C. Cr. P.

§ 8013. What evidence receivable. In the investigation of a charge for the purpose of either presentment or indictment or accusation, the grand jury can receive no other evidence than such as is given by witnesses produced and sworn before them, or furnished by legal documentary evidence. § 188, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8014. Evidence. Legal. Best. The grand jury can receive none but legal evidence and the best evidence in degree to the exclusion of hearsay or secondary evidence. § 189, C. Cr. P.

§ 8015. Evidence of the accused. The grand jury shall upon the request of the accused, and may of their own motion, hear the evidence of the accused. It is their duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to them and when they have reason to believe that there is other evidence they may order such evidence to be produced and for that purpose the state's attorney shall issue process for the witnesses. § 190, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8016. When indictment ought to be found. The grand jury ought to find an indictment when all the evidence before them, taken together, is such as in their judgment would warrant a conviction by the trial jury. § 191, C. Cr. P.

§ 8017. Member must give evidence. If a member of the grand jury knows or has reason to believe, that a public offense has been committed, which is triable in the county or subdivision, he must declare the same to his fellow jurors, who must thereupon investigate the same. § 192, C. Cr. P.

§ 8018. Concerning what grand jury must inquire. The grand jury must inquire: § 193, C. Cr. P.

1. Into the case of every person imprisoned in the jail of the county or subdivision, on a criminal charge, and not indicted.

2. Into the condition and management of the public prisons in the county or subdivision; and,

3. Into the willful and corrupt misconduct in office of public officers of every description in the county or subdivision.

§ 8019. Entitled to access to prisons and public records. They are also entitled to free access at all reasonable times, to public prisons, and to the examination, without charge, of all public records in the county. § 194, C. Cr. P.

§ 8020. Jury's privilege. Advice. Court. State's attorney. The grand jury may at all reasonable times ask the advice of the court or of the state's attorney. The state's attorney may at all times appear before the grand jury for the purpose of giving information or advice relative to any matter cognizable before them, and may interrogate witnesses before them whenever he thinks it necessary; but no other person is permitted to be present during their sessions except the members and a witness actually under examination, and no person whomsoever must be permitted to be present during the expression of their opinions or the giving of their votes upon any matter before them. § 195, C. Cr. P.

§ 8021. Secrecy. Things said. Votes. Every member of the grand jury must keep secret whatever he himself or any other grand juror may have said, or in what manner he or any other grand juror may have voted on a matter before them. § 196, C. Cr. P.

§ 8022. When juror may disclose. A member of the grand jury may, however, be required by any court to disclose the testimony § 197, C. Cr. P.

of a witness examined before the grand jury, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is consistent with that given by the witness before the court, or to disclose the testimony given before them by any person, upon a charge against him for perjury in giving his testimony, or upon his trial therefor.

- § 198. C. Cr. P. § 8023. Grand juror cannot be questioned. A grand juror cannot be questioned for anything he may say, or any vote he may give in the grand jury, relative to a matter legally pending before the jury, except for a perjury of which he may have been guilty in making an accusation or giving testimony to his fellow jurors.

ARTICLE 6. — PRESENTMENT AND PROCEEDINGS THEREIN.

- § 199. C. Cr. P. § 8024. Presentment, how found. Signed. A presentment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors. When so found it must be signed by the foreman.

- § 200. C. Cr. P. § 8025. Presented to court. The presentment when found must be presented by the foreman, in presence of the grand jury, to the court, and must be filed with the clerk.

- § 201. C. Cr. P. § 8026. Bench warrant may issue. If the facts stated in the presentment constitute a public offense triable in the county or subdivision, the court must direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the defendant.

- § 202. C. Cr. P. § 8027. Issued by clerk. The clerk, on the application of the judge or state's attorney, may, accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court is sitting or not, issue a bench warrant, under his signature and the seal of the court, into one or more counties, or into any part of the state.

- § 203. C. Cr. P. § 8028. Form of warrant. The bench warrant, upon presentment, must be substantially in the following form:

State of North Dakota, }
County of } ss.

To any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in this state:

A presentment having been made on the day of 18....., to the district court of the county of (or subdivision) charging C. D. with the crime of (designating it generally) you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D., and take him before E. F., a magistrate of the county of; or in case of his absence or inability to act, before the nearest and most accessible magistrate in county.

Given under my hand, with the seal of said court affixed, this..... day of A. D. 18.....

By order of the court.

[Seal]

....., clerk.

- § 204. C. Cr. P. § 8029. Where and how warrant may be served. The bench warrant may be served in any county or part of the state, and the officer serving it must proceed thereon as upon a warrant of arrest.

- § 205. C. Cr. P. § 8030. Magistrate's procedure on warrant. The magistrate, when the defendant is brought before him, must proceed upon the charges contained in the presentment, in the same manner as upon a warrant of arrest on a complaint.

ARTICLE 7.—FINDING AND PRESENTATION OF THE INDICTMENT.

§ 8031. Finding. Twelve jurors must concur. An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors. When so found, it must be indorsed "a true bill," and the indorsement must be signed by the foreman of the grand jury. § 206, C. Cr. P.

§ 8032. When accused must be dismissed. If twelve grand jurors do not concur in finding an indictment against a defendant who has been held to answer, the original complaint and the certified record of the proceedings before the magistrate transmitted to them, must be returned to the court, with an indorsement thereon, signed by the foreman, to the effect that the charge is dismissed. § 207, C. Cr. P.

§ 8033. Dismissal of charge. Resubmission. The dismissal of the charge does not, however, prevent its being again submitted to a grand jury as often as the court may so direct. But without such direction it cannot be again submitted. § 208, C. Cr. P.

§ 8034. Names of witnesses on indictment. When an indictment is found, the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury must, in all cases, be inserted at the foot of the indictment or indorsed thereon before it is presented to the court. § 209, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8035. Presentment of indictment. An indictment, when found by the grand jury, must be presented by their foreman, in their presence, to the court, and must be filed with the clerk, and remain in his office as a public record. § 210, C. Cr. P.

§ 8036. Persons indicted, how arrested. When an indictment is found against a defendant who has not been previously arrested, and is not under bail, the same proceedings must be had as are prescribed in sections 8065 to 8072 inclusive, against a defendant who fails to appear for arraignment. § 211, C. Cr. P.

CHAPTER 8.

RULES OF PLEADING AND FORM OF THE INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT.

§ 8037. Forms of pleadings in criminal actions. All the forms of pleading in criminal actions, and rules by which the sufficiency of pleadings is to be determined are those prescribed by this code. § 212, C. Cr. P.

§ 8039. What information or indictment must contain. The information or indictment must contain: § 214, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. The title of the action, specifying the name of the court to which the information or the indictment is presented, and the names of the parties.

2. A statement of the acts constituting the offense, in ordinary and concise language, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

§ 215, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8040. Things as to which allegations must be certain and direct. The allegations of the information or the indictment must be direct and certain as regards:

1. The party charged.
2. The offense charged.
3. The particular circumstances of the offense charged, when they are necessary to constitute a complete offense.

§ 216, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8041. Fictitious name. True name. When a defendant is informed against, indicted or prosecuted by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it must be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being prosecuted by the name mentioned in the information or indictment.

§ 217, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8042. Charge. One offense. Different counts. The information or the indictment must charge but one offense, but the same offense may be set forth in different forms or degrees under different counts; and when the offense may be committed by the use of different means, the means may be alleged in the alternative in the same count.

§ 218, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8043. Time offense committed. The precise time at which the offense was committed need not be stated in the information or in the indictment; but it may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the filing thereof, if an information; or if an indictment, before the finding thereof, except when the time is a material ingredient in the offense.

§ 219, C. Cr. P.

§ 8044. Certain errors not material. When an offense involves the commission of, or an attempt to commit a private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured, or intended to be injured, is not material.

§ 220, C. Cr. P.

§ 8045. Construction of words. The words used in an information or in an indictment must be construed in their usual acceptation in common language, except words and phrases defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning.

§ 221, C. Cr. P.

§ 8046. Statutory words not strictly pursued. Words used in a statute to define a public offense, need not be strictly pursued in the information or indictment; but other words conveying the same meaning may be used.

§ 222, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8047. When information or indictment sufficient. The information or indictment is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:

1. That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive it, though the name of the court is not stated.

2. That it was presented by a person authorized by law so to do, if an information; or if an indictment, that it was found by a grand jury of the county or judicial subdivision in which the court was held.

3. That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with a statement that his true name is to the informant or, as the case may be, to the grand jury, unknown.

4. That the offense was committed at some place within the jurisdiction of the court, except when the act, though done without the local jurisdiction of the county or judicial subdivision is triable therein.

5. That the offense was committed at some time prior to the time of the presenting of the information or of the finding of the indictment.

6. That the act or omission charged as the offense is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

7. That the act or omission charged as the offense, is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction, according to the right of the case.

§ 8048. Errors of form disregarded. No information or indictment is insufficient, nor can the trial, judgment or other proceedings thereon be affected by reason of a defect or imperfection in matter of form, which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits. § 223, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8049. What need not be stated. Neither presumptions of law, nor matters of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in an information or in an indictment. § 224, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8050. Pleading judgment. Jurisdictional facts. In pleading a judgment or other determination of, or proceeding before, a court or officer of special jurisdiction it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. The facts constituting jurisdiction, however, must be established on the trial. § 225, C. Cr. P.

§ 8051. Pleading private statute. Title. Day of passage. In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it is sufficient to refer to the statute by its title and the day of its passage, and the court must thereupon take judicial notice thereof. § 226, C. Cr. P.

§ 8052. Libel. Extrinsic facts. Sufficient statements. An information or an indictment for libel need not set forth any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party libeled of the defamatory matter on which the information or indictment is founded, but it is sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him, and the fact that it was so published must be established on the trial. § 227, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8053. Forgery. Instrument destroyed. Misdescription. When the instrument which is the subject of an information or indictment for forgery has been destroyed or withheld by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of the destruction or withholding is alleged in the information or indictment and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument is immaterial. § 228, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8054. Perjury. Substance. Oath. Authority. Falsity. In an information or indictment for perjury, or subornation of perjury, it is sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the offense was committed, and in what court or before whom the oath alleged to be false was taken, and that the court or person before whom it was taken had authority to administer it, with proper allegations of the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the information or indictment need not set forth the pleadings, record or proceedings with which the oath is connected, nor the commission or authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed. § 229, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8055. Larceny. Embezzlement. Sufficient allegations. In an information or indictment for larceny or embezzlement of § 230, C. Cr. P. am'd.

money, bank notes, certificates of stock or valuable securities, or for a conspiracy to cheat and defraud a person of any such property, it is sufficient to allege the larceny or embezzlement, or the conspiracy to cheat and defraud, to be of money, bank notes, certificates of stock or valuable securities, without specifying the coin, number, denomination or kind thereof.

§ 231. C. Cr. P.

§ 8056. Obscene literature. Sufficient allegations. An information or indictment for exhibiting, publishing, passing, selling or offering to sell, or having in possession with such intent, any lewd or obscene book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper or writing, need not set forth any portion of the language used or figures shown upon such book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper or writing, but it is sufficient to state generally the fact of the lewdness or obscenity thereof.

§ 8057. Personal property. Several owners. Sufficient allegations. When an offense is committed upon, or in relation to, any personal property belonging to several partners or owners, the information or indictment for such offense is sufficient, if it alleges such property to belong to any one or more of such partners or owners without naming them all.

§ 232. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8058. Several defendants. Convicted. Acquitted. Upon an information or indictment against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted, or acquitted.

§ 233. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8059. Accessories. Principals. Certain distinctions abrogated. The distinction between an accessory before the fact and a principal, and between principals in the first and second degree, in cases of felony, is abrogated; and all persons concerned in the commission of a felony, whether they directly commit the act constituting the offense, or aid or abet in its commission, though not present, must be prosecuted, tried and punished as principals, and no other facts need be alleged in the information or indictment against such an accessory, than are required in an information or indictment against his principals.

§ 234. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8060. Accessory punished, though principal not. An accessory to the commission of a felony may be prosecuted, tried and punished, though the principal felon may be neither prosecuted nor tried, and though the principal may have been acquitted.

§ 235. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8061. Compounding felony. Punishment. A person may be prosecuted, tried and convicted, for having, with the knowledge of the commission of a public offense, taken money or property of another, or a gratuity or reward, or an engagement or promise therefor, upon the agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal the offense, or to abstain from a prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, though the person guilty of the original offense has not been prosecuted.

CHAPTER 9.

PLEADINGS AND PROCEEDINGS AFTER INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT AND BEFORE THE COM-MENCEMENT OF THE TRIAL.

ARTICLE 1.—ARRAIGNMENT OF THE DEFENDANT.

§ 8062. When and where defendant arraigned. When the information or indictment is filed, the defendant must be arraigned thereon before the court to which it is presented, if an information; or if an indictment, in which it is found, if triable therein, if not, before the court to which it is removed or transmitted. § 236. C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8063. Felony, defendant present. Misdemeanor, counsel. If the information or indictment is for a felony the defendant must be personally present, but if a misdemeanor only, his personal appearance is unnecessary, and he may appear upon the arraignment by counsel. § 237. C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8064. Presence enforced by direction of court. When his personal appearance is necessary, if he is in custody, the court may direct the officer in whose custody he is, to bring him before it to be arraigned, and the officer must do so accordingly. § 238. C. Cr. P.

§ 8065. Same. Warrant of arrest. If the defendant has been discharged on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear to be arraigned, when his personal attendance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the undertaking of bail or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest. § 239. C. Cr. P.

§ 8066. Warrant, clerk to issue. The clerk, on the application of the state's attorney, may, accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court is sitting or not, issue a bench warrant into one or more counties. § 240. C. Cr. P.

§ 8067. Warrant, form. Felony. The bench warrant upon the information or indictment, must, if the offense is a felony, be substantially in the following form: § 241. C. Cr. P. am'd.

State of North Dakota, }
County of..... } ss.

To any sheriff, constable, policeman or marshal in this state:

An information (or indictment as the case may be), having been filed on the.....day of....., 18..., in the district court in and for the county (or judicial subdivision of.....), chargingwith the crime of....., (designating it generally); you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above namedand bring him before that court (or before the court to which the information or indictment may have been removed, naming it), to answer said information (or indictment), or if the court has adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into the custody of the sheriff of the county of.....

Given under my hand, with the seal of said court affixed, thisday of....., 18...

By order of the court.

[Seal.]

....., clerk.

§ 8068. Same. Misdemeanor. Bailable felony. If the offense is a misdemeanor or a bailable felony, the bench warrant must be in a similar form, adding to the body thereof a direction to the following effect, "or if he requires it that you take him before any magistrate of that county or in the county in which you arrest him, that he may give bail to answer the information (or indictment)."

§ 243. C. Cr. P.

§ 8069. Court fix amount of bail. If the offense charged is bailable the court, upon directing the bench warrant to issue, must fix the amount of bail; and an indorsement must be made on the bench warrant and signed by the clerk, to the following effect:

"The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of..... dollars."

§ 244. C. Cr. P.

§ 8070. Arrest. Offense not bailable. Custody. The defendant, when arrested under a warrant for an offense not bailable, must be held in custody by the sheriff of the county or judicial subdivision in which the information is filed or indictment found.

§ 245. C. Cr. P.

§ 8071. Warrant served in any county. The bench warrant may be served in any county or judicial subdivision of the state in the same manner as a warrant of arrest.

§ 246. C. Cr. P.

§ 8072. Magistrate. Taking bail. Procedure. If the defendant is brought before a magistrate of another county for the purpose of giving bail, the magistrate must proceed in respect thereto, in the same manner as if the defendant had been brought before him upon a warrant of arrest, and the same proceedings may be had thereon.

§ 247. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8073. Felony. Bail given. Increased amount. When the information or indictment is for a felony, and the defendant, before the filing or finding thereof, has given bail for his appearance to answer the charge, the court to which the information or indictment is presented, or sent or removed for trial, may order the defendant to be committed to actual custody either without bail, or unless he gives bail in an increased amount, to be specified in the order.

§ 248. C. Cr. P.

§ 8074. Procedure. Defendant present. Absent. If the defendant is present when the order is made, he must be forthwith committed accordingly. If he is not present, a bench warrant must be issued and proceeded upon in the manner provided in this article.

§ 249. C. Cr. P.

§ 8075. Arraignment. Counsel for defendant. If the defendant appears for arraignment without counsel, he must be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel before being arraigned, and must be asked if he desires the aid of counsel. If he desires and is unable to employ counsel, the court must assign counsel to defend him.

§ 250. C. Cr. P.

§ 8076. How arraignment made. The arraignment must be made by the court, or by the clerk or state's attorney under its direction, and consists of reading the information or indictment to the defendant, and asking him whether he pleads guilty or not guilty to the information or indictment.

§ 251. C. Cr. P.

§ 8077. Defendant's true name. When the defendant is arraigned, he must be informed that if the name by which he is informed against or indicted is not his true name, he must disclose his true name or be proceeded against by the name in the information or indictment.

§ 252. C. Cr. P.

§ 8078. No other name given. If he gives no other name, the court may proceed accordingly.

§ 253. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8079. Another name given, procedure. If he alleges that another name is his true name, the court must direct an entry thereof in the minutes of the arraignment, and the subsequent proceedings on the information or indictment may be had against him by that name, referring also to the name by which he is informed against or indicted.

§ 8080. Time to answer given defendant. If, on the arraignment, the defendant requires it, he must be allowed until the next day, or such further time may be allowed him as the court may deem reasonable, to answer the information or indictment. § 254, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8081. Answer. Motion to set aside. Demurrer. Plea. If the defendant does not require time, as provided in the last section, or if he does, then on the next day, or at such further day as the court may have allowed him, he may, in answer to the arraignment, either move the court to set aside the information or indictment, or may demur or plead thereto. § 255, C. Cr. P. am'd.

ARTICLE 2.—SETTING ASIDE THE INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT

§ 8082. Causes for setting aside, classified. The information or indictment must be set aside by the court in which the defendant is arraigned, upon his motion, in either of the following cases: § 256, C. Cr. P. am'd.

If it is an information:

1. In all cases when the defendant is entitled to a preliminary examination before a magistrate, before the filing of such information, when he has not had such examination and been held to answer before the district court, or has not waived such examination in writing, or orally before a magistrate.

2. When the information is not subscribed by a person authorized to act as informant.

3. When the information is not verified; or,

If it is an indictment:

1. When it is not found, indorsed and presented or filed as prescribed by this code.

2. When the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury are not inserted at the foot of the indictment or otherwise exhibited thereon.

3. When a person is permitted to be present during the session of the grand jury, while the charges embraced in the indictment are under consideration, except as provided in section 8020.

4. When the defendant had not been held to answer before the finding of the indictment, on any ground which would have been good ground for challenge, either to the panel or to any individual grand juror.

§ 8083. Motion. Form. Contents. Time. The motion to set aside the information or indictment must be in writing, subscribed by the defendant or his attorney, and must specify clearly the ground of objection to the information or indictment, and said motion must be made before the defendant demurs or pleads, or the objection is waived. § 257, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8084. When motion heard. The motion must be heard at the time it is made, unless for good cause the court postpones the hearing to another time. § 258, C. Cr. P.

§ 8085. Motion denied, answer immediately. If the motion is denied, the defendant must immediately answer the information or indictment, either by demurring or pleading thereto. § 259, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 260, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8086. Motion granted. Procedure. If the motion is granted the court must order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or, if admitted to bail, that the bail be exonerated, or, if he has deposited money instead of bail, that the same be refunded to him, unless the court directs that another or an amended information be filed or that the case be submitted to the same or another grand jury; or, if the case is such that an information might have been filed against the defendant had a grand jury not been called at the time, or the defendant at any time waives a preliminary examination, in writing, the court may direct an information to be filed for the offense charged in the indictment set aside.

§ 261, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8087. Further prosecution. Procedure. If the court directs that another or an amended information be filed or that the case be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain, unless he is admitted to bail; or, if already admitted to bail or money has been deposited instead therefor, the bail or money is to be answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new information or indictment, and unless another or an amended information or an information in the place of the indictment set aside, as provided in the last section, is filed within ten days from the date of the order, or the filing of the defendant's waiver of a preliminary examination, or a new indictment is found at the same or next term of the district court, as the case may be, the defendant must be discharged and his bail exonerated or money refunded as provided in the preceding section.

§ 262, C. Cr. P.

§ 8088. Order setting aside, not a bar. An order setting aside an information or indictment, as provided in this article is no bar to a future prosecution for the same offense.

ARTICLE 3. — DEMURRER.

§ 263, C. Cr. P.

§ 8089. Defendant's pleading. Demurrer. Plea. The only pleading on the part of the defendant is either a demurrer or a plea.

§ 264, C. Cr. P.

§ 8090. Made in open court. Time. Both the demurrer and the plea must be put in in open court, either at the time of the arraignment, or at such other time as may be allowed to the defendant for that purpose.

§ 265, C. Cr. P.

§ 8091. Grounds of demurrer. The defendant may demur to the information or indictment when it appears upon the face thereof, either:

1. That the court has no jurisdiction of the offense charged therein; or, if an indictment, that the grand jury by which it was found had no authority to inquire into the offense charged, by reason of its not being within the jurisdiction of the county or judicial subdivision.

2. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this code.

3. That more than one offense is charged therein.

4. That the facts stated do not constitute a public offense.

5. That it contains any matter, which if true, would constitute a legal justification or excuse of the offense charged, or other legal bar to the prosecution.

§ 266, C. Cr. P.

§ 8092. Requisites of demurrer. The demurrer must be in writing, signed either by the defendant or his counsel, and filed.

It must distinctly specify the grounds of the objection to the information or indictment, or it must be disregarded.

§ 8093. Time of hearing. Upon the demurrer being filed, § 267, C. Cr. P.
the objections presented thereby must be heard, either immediately or at such time as the court may appoint.

§ 8094. Judgment on demurrer. Upon considering the de- § 268, C. Cr. P. murrer, the court must give judgment either sustaining or overruling it, and an order to that effect must be entered upon the minutes.

§ 8095. Effect if sustained. Further proceedings. If the § 269, C. Cr. P. demurrer is sustained the judgment is final upon the information or am'd.
indictment demurred to, and is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense, unless the court, being of the opinion that the objection on which the demurrer is sustained may be avoided in a new information or indictment, directs another or an amended information, or an information in the place of the indictment demurred to as provided by law in case an indictment is set aside, to be filed, or that the case be submitted to the same or another grand jury.

§ 8096. Amendment not directed, defendant discharged. § 270, C. Cr. P.
If the court does not permit the information to be amended nor direct am'd.
that another information be filed or that the case be resubmitted as provided in the preceding section, the defendant, if in custody, must be discharged, or, if admitted to bail his bail is exonerated, or, if he has deposited money instead of bail, the money must be refunded to him.

§ 8097. Defendant not discharged, further proceedings. § 271, C. Cr. P.
If the court directs that another or an amended information or an am'd.
information in place of the indictment demurred to, as provided by law in case the indictment is set aside, be filed, or that the case be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain, unless he is admitted to bail, or, if already admitted to bail, or money has been deposited instead therefor, the bail or money is to be answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer to a new information or indictment; and unless another or an amended information or an information in place of the indictment demurred to, is filed within ten days from the date of the order sustaining the demurrer, or the filing of the defendant's waiver of a preliminary examination, or a new indictment is found at the same or the next term of the district court, as the case may be, the defendant must be discharged and his bail exonerated or money refunded as provided in the preceding section.

§ 8098. Demurrer overruled. Procedure. If the demurrer § 272, C. Cr. P. is overruled, the court must permit the defendant, at his election, to plead, which he must do forthwith, or at such a time as the court may allow. If he does not plead, judgment may be pronounced against him.

§ 8099. Certain objections only taken by demurrer. Ex- § 273, C. Cr. P. ception. When the objections mentioned in section 8091, appear am'd.
upon the face of the information or indictment, they can only be taken by demurrer, except that the objection to the jurisdiction of the court over the subject of the information or indictment, or that the facts stated do not constitute a public offense, may be taken at the trial, under the plea of not guilty, and in arrest of judgment.

ARTICLE 4. — PLEA.

- § 274, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8100. Pleas classified. There are four kinds of pleas to an information or indictment. A plea of:
1. Guilty.
 2. Not guilty.
 3. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded either with or without the plea of not guilty.
 4. Once in jeopardy, which may also be pleaded either with or without the plea of not guilty.
- § 275, 276,
C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8101. Plea to be oral. Form of plea. Every plea must be oral, and must be entered upon the minutes of the court, and in substantially the following form:
1. If the defendant pleads guilty: "The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in this information (or indictment)."
 2. If he pleads not guilty: "The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in this information (or indictment)."
 3. If he pleads a former conviction or acquittal: "The defendant pleads that he has already been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be), of the offense charged in this information (or indictment), by the judgment of the court of (naming it), rendered at (naming the place), on the day of 18....."
 4. If he pleads once in jeopardy: "The defendant pleads that he has been once in jeopardy for the offense charged in this information (or indictment), (specifying the time, place and court)."
- § 277, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8102. Plea of guilty only put in by defendant. Exception. A plea of guilty can in no case be put in, except by the defendant himself, in open court, unless upon an information or indictment against a corporation, in which case it may be put in by counsel.
- § 278, C. Cr. P. § 8103. Plea may be withdrawn. The court may, at any time before judgment, upon a plea of guilty, permit it to be withdrawn, and a plea of not guilty substituted.
- § 279, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8104. Issues on plea of not guilty. The plea of not guilty puts in issue every material allegation in the information or indictment.
- § 280, C. Cr. P. § 8105. Evidence under plea. All matters of fact tending to establish a defense other than those specified in the third and fourth subdivisions of section 8100, may be given in evidence under the plea of not guilty.
- § 281, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8106. Acquittal. Variance. Further prosecution. If the defendant was formerly acquitted on the ground of variance between the information or indictment and the proof, or the information or indictment was dismissed upon an objection to its form or substance, or in order to hold the defendant for a higher offense, without a judgment of acquittal, it is not an acquittal of the same offense.
- § 282, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8107. Acquittal on merits. When however, the defendant was acquitted on the merits, he is deemed acquitted of the same offense, notwithstanding a defect in form or substance in the information or indictment on which he was acquitted.

§ 8108. Former acquittal or conviction. Once in jeopardy. When the defendant is convicted or acquitted, or has been once placed in jeopardy upon an information or indictment, the conviction, acquittal or jeopardy is a bar to another information or indictment for the offense charged in the former, or for an attempt to commit the same, or for an offense necessarily included therein, of which he might have been convicted under the information or indictment.

§ 283, C. Cr. P.

§ 8109. Refusal to answer. Procedure. If the defendant refuses to answer the information or indictment by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty must be entered.

§ 284, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

ARTICLE 5.—REMOVAL OF THE ACTION BEFORE TRIAL.

§ 8110. Action removed. Causes therefor specified. The defendant in a criminal action prosecuted by information, or indictment in any district court of this state, may be awarded a change of the place of trial, upon his petition on oath, or upon the oath of some credible person, setting forth that he has reason to believe and does believe, and the facts upon which such belief is based, that he cannot receive a fair and impartial trial in the county or judicial subdivision where said action is pending, upon any of the following grounds:

§ 285, C. Cr. P.

1. That the prosecuting witness, or state's attorney, or other person appointed by the court to prosecute, or any person or corporation promoting said prosecution, has an undue influence over the minds of the people of the county or judicial subdivision where the action is pending; or,

2. That the people of the county or judicial subdivision are so prejudiced against the defendant or the offense of which he is accused, that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial; or,

3. That it is impossible to obtain a jury in the county or judicial subdivision that has not formed an opinion, as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant, such as would disqualify them as jurors; or,

4. That any other cause exists in the county or judicial subdivision, where the action is pending, whereby the defendant would probably be deprived of a fair and impartial trial.

§ 8111. Petition. Notice. Time to prepare. The petition must be presented at the first term of the court at which the action can be tried and before the trial is begun, or, if the action has been continued, at any time before the term to which it is continued, upon reasonable notice to the state's attorney or the attorney appointed to prosecute. The court must, upon request of the defendant or his counsel, grant the defendant at least twenty-four hours after he has been arraigned in which to prepare and present such petition.

§ 285, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8112. Court must order. Only one change. The court being satisfied that cause exists therefor, as defined in section 8110, must order a change of the place of trial to some county or judicial subdivision where the cause complained of does not exist. But the defendant shall be entitled to only one change of the place of trial.

§ 285, C. Cr. P.

§ 8113. Duty of clerk. The order of removal must be entered upon the minutes, and the clerk must thereupon make out and transmit to the court to which the action is removed, a certified copy of the order of removal and of the records, pleadings and proceedings in the action, including the undertakings for the appearance of the defendant and of the witnesses.

§ 286, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 287, C. Cr. P.

§ 8114. Disposition of defendant. If the defendant is in custody, the order must provide for the removal of the defendant, by the sheriff of the county or subdivision where he is imprisoned, to the custody of the proper officer of the county or subdivision to which the action is removed, and he must be removed according to the terms of such order.

§ 288, C. Cr. P.

§ 8115. Court may require bail. When the court has ordered a removal of the action, it may require the accused, if the offense is then bailable, to enter into an undertaking with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the court, in such sum as the court may direct, conditioned for his appearance in the court to which the action has been removed, on the first day of the next term thereof, and to abide the order of such court, and in default of such undertaking, a warrant shall be issued to the sheriff, or other proper officer, commanding him safely to keep, and at the proper time to convey the prisoner to the jail of the county or subdivision where he is to be tried, there to be safely kept by the jailer thereof, until discharged by due course of law.

§ 289, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8116. Witnesses. Undertaking. Notice. Subpoena. If the order of removal is made at a term of the court, it is notice to every person who has entered into an undertaking to appear at such term, to appear at the trial of the action before the court to which the same is removed. In other cases the witnesses must be subpoenaed as provided by this code, or the court may require the witnesses on the part of the state, to give security for their appearance before the court in which the defendant is to be tried, as provided by law in other cases.

§ 290, C. Cr. P.

§ 8117. Trial. Original pleadings. Copies. The court to which the action is removed must proceed to trial and judgment therein the same in all respects as if the action had been commenced in such court. If it is necessary to have any of the original pleadings, or other papers before such court, the court from which the action is removed must at any time, upon application of the state's attorney or the defendant, order such papers or pleadings to be transmitted by the clerk, a certified copy thereof being retained.

§ 8118. Clerk. Neglect. Damages. If the clerk of the district court neglects or refuses to perform any duty in relation to the removal of a cause, it shall be deemed a breach of his official bond and he forfeits a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action on his official bond in the name of and for the use of the state or in the name of and for the use of the person injured, as the facts may be.

§ 8119. Several defendants. Removal by one. If there are several defendants in a criminal action and the place of trial is changed as to one or more of them and not as to the others, the others must be tried as if the place of trial had not been changed as to any defendant.

§ 285, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8120. Prejudice of judge. Affidavit. Procedure. Whenever the defendant, or a defendant, in a criminal action shall file his affidavit stating that he has good reason to believe and does believe that he cannot have a fair and impartial trial of such action on account of the prejudice of the judge of the district court in which said action is pending, the court shall thereafter proceed in said action, as follows:

1. If the defendant, or a defendant asks for a change of the place of trial of said action on any of the grounds specified in section 8110 of this code, and also for the cause mentioned in this section, it shall be the duty of the court to order said action removed for trial to some other county or judicial subdivision in this state, as provided in this article, and to request, arrange for and procure some other judge than the one objected to, to preside at the trial of said action; or,

2. If a change is asked for only on account of the cause mentioned in this section, the court in which said action is pending may order said action removed to a county or judicial subdivision in an adjoining judicial district in which it can be conveniently and expeditiously tried before another judge, or may request, arrange for and procure the judge of another judicial district to preside at said trial in the county or judicial subdivision in which the action is pending. A change upon the ground in this section provided for must be asked before the trial is begun and not more than one change can be granted therefor; but if a trial has been had without a verdict, a change for any of the causes mentioned in this article may be had if asked for at the term at which said trial was had, and before another trial of the action is begun.

§ 8121. Prosecution. Jurisdiction of court. When the place of trial of a criminal action is changed as in this article provided, the state's attorney of the county or judicial subdivision, or other person appointed to prosecute, where the action was commenced, shall prosecute the case for the state. The court to which the action is removed for trial shall have full jurisdiction and authority to hear, try and determine the action, and upon conviction to impose the punishment prescribed by law; and the trial shall be conducted in all respects as if the action had been commenced in said court, and the costs accruing from a change of the place of trial and the costs of the trial shall be paid by the county or judicial subdivision where the offense was committed, or otherwise as provided by law. It is hereby made the duty of each judge of the several judicial districts of this state, whenever requested by another judge of the district court to preside at the trial of a criminal action, to respond as speedily as may be, and to preside at any trial to which he may be called under the provisions of this article, and all rulings, orders and acts made or done in carrying out the provisions of this article in any criminal action, shall have the same force and validity as if said action had been tried or said rulings, orders and acts made or done in the judicial district for which such judge was elected.

§ 8122. Removal by state. Procedure. The state's attorney, on behalf of the state, may also apply in a similar manner for a removal of the action, and the court being satisfied that it will promote the ends of justice, may order such removal upon the same terms and to the same extent as are provided in this article, and the proceedings on such removal shall be in all respects as above provided.

§ 291, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

ARTICLE 6.—THE MODE OF TRIAL.

- § 292, C. Cr. P. am'd. § 8123. Issue of fact. An issue of fact arises:
1. Upon a plea of not guilty.
 2. Upon a plea of former conviction or acquittal of the same offense; or,
 3. Upon a plea of once in jeopardy.
- § 293, C. Cr. P. am'd. § 8124. How issue of fact tried. Issues of fact must be tried by a jury, unless a trial by a jury is waived in criminal cases not amounting to felony, by the consent of both parties expressed in open court and entered on the minutes.
- § 294, C. Cr. P. am'd. § 8125. Presence of defendant. If the information or indictment is for a felony, the defendant must be personally present at the trial; but if it is for a misdemeanor, the trial may be had in the absence of the defendant; if his presence is necessary for any purpose, the court may, upon application of the state's attorney or person appointed to prosecute, by an order or warrant, require the personal attendance of the defendant at the trial.
- § 8126. Time to prepare for trial. After his plea the defendant, if he requests it, is entitled to at least one day to prepare for trial.

ARTICLE 7.—FORMATION OF THE TRIAL JURY.

- § 295, C. Cr. P. § 8127. Who jurors in criminal actions. The jurors duly drawn and summoned for the trial of civil actions, are also the jurors for the trial of criminal actions.
- § 296, C. Cr. P. § 8128. How trial jury formed. Trial juries for criminal actions may also be formed in the same manner as trial juries in civil actions.
- § 297, C. Cr. P. § 8129. Clerk to prepare ballots. At the opening of the court the clerk must prepare separate ballots, containing the names of the persons returned as jurors, which must be folded as nearly alike as possible, and so that the same cannot be seen, and must deposit them in a sufficient box.
- § 298, C. Cr. P. § 8130. Parties may require names to be called. When the case is called for trial, and before drawing the jury, either party may require the names of all the jurors in the panel to be called, and the court in its discretion may order that an attachment issue against those who are absent; but the court may, in its discretion, wait or not for the return of the attachment.
- § 299, C. Cr. P. § 8131. Manner of drawing jury. Before the name of any juror is drawn, the box must be closed and shaken so as to intermingle the ballots therein. The clerk must then, without looking at the ballots, draw them from the box.
- § 300, C. Cr. P. § 8132. Disposition of ballots. When the jury is completed, the ballots containing the names of the jurors sworn must be laid aside and kept apart from the ballots containing the names of the other jurors, until the jury so sworn is discharged.
- § 301, C. Cr. P. § 8133. Same. Jury discharged. After the jury are so discharged, the ballots containing their names must be again folded and returned to the box, and so on, as often as a trial is had.

§ 8134. Juror absent. Ballot. If a juror is absent when his name is drawn, or is set aside or excused from serving on the trial, the ballot containing his name must be folded and returned to the box as soon as the jury is sworn. § 302, C. Cr. P.

§ 8135. All jurors not appearing. Procedure. When a jury has been duly summoned, if, upon calling the cause for trial, twenty-four of the jurors summoned do not appear, the court may, in its discretion, order the sheriff to summon from the body of the county or subdivision, as many persons as it may think proper, at least sufficient to make twenty-four jurors, from whom a jury for the trial of the cause may be selected. § 303, C. Cr. P.

§ 8136. Names. Ballots. Deposited in box. The names of the persons summoned to complete the jury must be written on distinct pieces of paper, folded each as nearly alike as possible, and so that the name cannot be seen, and must be deposited in the box mentioned in section 8129. § 304, C. Cr. P.

§ 8137. Drawing the jury. The clerk must thereupon, under the direction of the court, publicly draw out of the box so many of the ballots, one after another, as are sufficient to form the jury. § 305, C. Cr. P.

§ 8138. Number of jury. How sworn. The jury consists of twelve men, chosen as prescribed by law, and sworn or affirmed well and truly to try and true deliverance to make between the state of North Dakota and the defendant whom they shall have in charge, and a true verdict to give according to the evidence, which verdict must be unanimous. § 306, C. Cr. P.

§ 8139. Number failing, others summoned. If a sufficient number cannot be obtained from the box to form a jury, the court may, as often as is necessary, order the sheriff to summon from the body of the county or subdivision, so many persons qualified to serve as jurors as it deems sufficient to form a jury. The jurors so summoned may be called from the list returned by the sheriff, and so many of them not excused or discharged, as may be necessary to complete the jury, must be impaneled and sworn. § 307, C. Cr. P.

§ 8140. Juror may affirm. Any juror who is conscientiously scrupulous of taking the oath above described, shall be allowed to make affirmation, substituting for the words, "so help you God," at the end of the oath, the following: "This you do affirm under the pains and penalties of perjury." § 308, C. Cr. P.

ARTICLE 8.—POSTPONEMENT OF THE TRIAL.

§ 8141. Either party may have for cause. When a criminal action is called for trial, or at any time previous thereto, the court may, upon sufficient cause shown by either party, direct the trial to be postponed to another day in the same term or to the next term. Any cause that would be considered a good one for a postponement in a civil action, is sufficient in a criminal action, whether urged by the state or by the defendant. § 309, C. Cr. P.

CHAPTER 10.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE TRIAL AND BEFORE JUDGMENT.

ARTICLE 1. — CHALLENGING THE JURY.

- § 310, C. Cr. P. § 8142. Challenges classed. A challenge is an objection made to the trial jurors and is of two kinds:
1. To the panel.
 2. To an individual juror.
- § 311, C. Cr. P. § 8143. When several defendants must join. When several defendants are tried together they cannot sever their challenges, but must join therein.
- § 312, C. Cr. P. § 8144. Panel defined. The panel is a list of jurors returned by a sheriff, to serve at a particular court, or for the trial of a particular action.
- § 313, C. Cr. P. § 8145. Challenge to panel. A challenge to the panel is an objection made to all the trial jurors returned, and may be taken by either party.
- § 314, C. Cr. P. § 8146. Causes for. A challenge to the panel can be founded only on a material departure from the forms prescribed by law, in respect to the drawing and return of the jury, or on the intentional omission of the sheriff to summon one or more of the jurors drawn.
- § 315, C. Cr. P. § 8147. When taken. A challenge to the panel must be taken before a juror is sworn, and must be in writing, specifying plainly and distinctly the facts constituting the ground of challenge.
- § 316, C. Cr. P. § 8148. Sufficiency of facts controverted. Procedure.
 am'd. If the sufficiency of the facts alleged as a ground of challenge is controverted by the adverse party, he may except to the challenge. The exception need not be in writing, but must be entered upon the minutes of the court, and thereupon the court must proceed to try the sufficiency of the challenge, assuming the facts therein alleged to be true.
- § 317, C. Cr. P. § 8149. Facts denied, procedure. If, on the exception, the court deems the challenge sufficient, it may, if justice requires it, permit the party excepting to withdraw his exception, and to deny the facts alleged in the challenge. If the exception is allowed, the court may, in like manner, permit an amendment of the challenge.
- § 318, C. Cr. P. § 8150. Trial of question of fact. If the facts alleged as the grounds of the challenge are denied, the denial may, in like manner, be oral and must be entered upon the minutes of the court, and the court must proceed to try the question of fact.
- § 319, C. Cr. P. § 8151. Officers may be examined. Upon the trial of the challenge, the officers, whether judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, as well as any other persons, may be examined to prove or disprove the facts alleged as the ground of the challenge.
- § 320, C. Cr. P. § 8152. Challenge taken for officer's bias. When the panel is formed from persons whose names are not drawn as jurors, a challenge may be taken to the panel on account of any bias of the officer who summoned them, which would be good ground of challenge to a juror. Such challenge must be made in the same form, and determined in the same manner as if made to a juror.

§ 8153. Challenge allowed. Jury discharged. If upon an exception to the challenge, or a denial of the facts, the challenge is allowed, the court must discharge the jury, and another jury can be summoned for the same term forthwith from the body of the county; or, the judge may order a jury to be drawn and summoned in the regular manner. If it is disallowed, the court must direct the jury to be impaneled. § 321, C. Cr. P.

§ 8154. Challenge of individual juror. Before a juror is called, the defendant must be informed by the court, or under its direction, that if he intends to challenge an individual juror, he must do so when the juror appears, and before he is sworn. § 322, C. Cr. P.

§ 8155. Nature of challenge. A challenge to an individual juror is either: § 323, C. Cr. P.

1. Peremptory; or,
2. For cause.

§ 8156. Taken before sworn. It must be taken when the juror appears, and before he is sworn; but the court may, for good cause, permit it to be taken after the juror is sworn, and before the jury is completed. § 324, C. Cr. P.

§ 8157. Peremptory challenge. A peremptory challenge can be taken by either party, and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court must exclude him. § 325, C. Cr. P.

§ 8158. Defendant's challenges. In all criminal cases the defendant is entitled to the following challenges: § 326, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. For capital offenses the defendant may challenge peremptorily twenty-five jurors.

2. In prosecutions for offenses punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, fifteen jurors.

3. In other prosecutions, ten jurors.

§ 8159. Prosecution. Challenges. The prosecuting attorney in capital cases may challenge peremptorily six jurors; in other cases, three jurors. § 327, C. Cr. P.

§ 8160. Challenge for cause. A challenge for cause may be taken either by the state or the defendant. § 328, C. Cr. P.

§ 8161. For cause classed. It is an objection to a particular juror, and is either: § 329, C. Cr. P.

1. General, that the juror is disqualified from serving in any case or trial; or,

2. Particular, that he is disqualified from serving in the case on trial.

§ 8162. General causes of challenge specified. General causes of challenges are: § 330, C. Cr. P.

1. A conviction for felony.

2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law, to render a person a competent juror, including a want of knowledge of the English language as used in the courts.

3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or organs of the body as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

§ 8163. Particular causes of challenge specified. Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds: § 331, C. Cr. P.

1. For such a bias as when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this code as implied bias.

2. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror, in reference to the case or to either party, which satisfies the court, in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially, without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, and which is known in this code as actual bias.

§ 332, C. Cr. P.

§ 8164. Matters constituting implied bias specified. A challenge for implied bias may be taken for all or any of the following causes, and for no other:

1. Consanguinity or relationship to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or to the defendant.

2. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, master and servant, landlord and tenant, or debtor and creditor, or being a member of the family of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or in the employ of either.

3. Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or having complained against or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution.

4. Having served on the grand jury which found the indictment, or on a coroner's jury which inquired into the death of a person whose death is the subject of the action.

5. Having served on a trial jury which has tried another person for the offense charged.

6. Having been one of a jury formerly sworn to try the same charge, and whose verdict was set aside, or which was discharged without a verdict, after the cause was submitted to it.

7. Having served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense.

8. If the offense charged is punishable with death, the entertaining of such conscientious opinions as would preclude his finding the defendant guilty, in which case he shall neither be permitted nor compelled to serve as a juror.

§ 333, C. Cr. P.

§ 8165. Exemption is not cause. An exemption from service on a jury is not a cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

§ 334, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8166. How challenge taken. Cause stated. In a challenge for implied bias, one or more of the causes stated in section 8164 must be alleged. In a challenge for actual bias, the cause stated in the second subdivision of section 8163 must be alleged. The challenge may be oral, but must be entered upon the minutes of the court.

§ 335, C. Cr. P.

§ 8167. Exception to the challenge. The adverse party may except to the challenge in the same manner as to a challenge to the panel, and the same proceedings must be had thereon as prescribed in section 8148 except that if the exception is allowed the juror must be excluded. The adverse party may also orally deny the facts alleged as the ground of challenge.

§ 336, C. Cr. P.

§ 8168. How tried, by the court. All challenges, whether to the panel or to individual jurors, shall be tried by the court, without the aid of triers.

§ 337, C. Cr. P.

§ 8169. Juror challenged, a witness. Upon the trial of a challenge to an individual juror, the juror challenged may be examined as a witness to prove or disprove the challenge, and is bound to answer every question pertinent to the inquiry therein.

§ 8170. Other witnesses. Rules of evidence. Other witnesses may also be examined on either side, and the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of other issues govern the admission or exclusion of testimony, on the trial of the challenge. § 338. C. Cr. P.

§ 8171. Court must allow or disallow challenge. On the trial of a challenge, the court must either allow or disallow the challenge, and direct an entry accordingly upon the minutes. § 339. C. Cr. P.

§ 8172. Order of taking challenge. All challenges to an individual juror, except peremptory, must be taken, first by the defendant, and then by the state, and each party must exhaust all his challenges before the other begins. § 340. C. Cr. P.

§ 8173. Order of challenges for cause. The challenges of either party for cause need not all be taken at once, but they must be taken separately, in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class: § 341. C. Cr. P.

1. To the panel.
2. To an individual juror for a general disqualification.
3. To an individual juror for implied bias.
4. To an individual juror for actual bias.

§ 8174. Peremptory challenges. If all challenges on both sides are disallowed, either party, first the state and then the defendant, may take a peremptory challenge, unless the party's peremptory challenges are exhausted. § 342. C. Cr. P.

ARTICLE 2.—THE TRIAL.

§ 8175. Order of trial. The jury having been impaneled and sworn, the trial must proceed in the following order: § 343. C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. If the information or indictment is for a felony, the clerk or state's attorney must read it, and state the plea of the defendant to the jury. In all other cases this formality may be dispensed with.

2. The state's attorney or other counsel for the state, must open the case and offer the evidence in support of the information or indictment.

3. The defendant or his counsel may then open his defense, and offer his evidence in support thereof.

4. The parties may then, respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the court, for good reason, in furtherance of justice, or to correct an evident oversight, permits them to offer evidence upon their original case.

5. When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury on either side, or on both sides, without argument, the counsel for the state shall commence, and the defendant or his counsel shall follow; then the counsel for the state shall conclude the argument to the jury.

6. The judge must then charge the jury.

§ 8176. Charging the jury. Procedure. In charging the jury, the court shall only instruct as to the law of the case, and all instructions must first be reduced to writing, unless by consent of both parties entered in the minutes, the instructions are given orally and taken down by the stenographer of the court, in shorthand. Either party may request instructions to the jury. Each instruction so requested must be written on a separate sheet of paper, and may be given or refused by the court, and the court shall write on the margin of such requested instructions which he does not give the § 343. C. Cr. P. § 1. c. 84, 1893. am'd.

- word "refused," and all instructions asked for by either party shall be given or refused by the court without modification or change, unless modified or changed by the consent of the counsel asking the same.
- § 1. c. 84, 1893, am'd. § 8177. Same. All instructions given to the jury must be read to them by the court without disclosing to them whether such instructions were requested or not, and must be signed by the judge and may be delivered to the jury, and be taken by them in their retirement and returned into court with the verdict. But when oral instructions are given the jury shall not take any part of the charge in their retirement unless so ordered by the court.
- § 1. c. 84, 1893, am'd. § 8178. Instructions. Stenographer. Exceptions. Upon the close of the trial all instructions given or refused together with those prepared by the court, if any, must be filed with the clerk, and except as otherwise provided in the next section shall be deemed excepted to by the defendant. If the charge of the court, or any part thereof is given orally, the same must be taken down by the official stenographer and shall be deemed excepted to by the defendant, and the same as soon as may be after the trial must be written out at length and filed with the clerk of the court by the stenographer thereof; provided, that in case the defendant is acquitted by the jury the oral instructions need not be transcribed or filed with the clerk. But exceptions in writing to any of the instructions of the court in any manner given, or the refusal of the court to give instructions requested, may be filed by the defendant at his discretion, with the clerk of the court within twenty days after the instructions are all filed as herein provided. The stenographer of the court shall receive for writing out the oral instructions of the court the same fees as for making transcripts.
- § 1. c. 84, 1893, am'd. § 8179. Charge. Exceptions before given. The court may in its discretion, submit the written instructions which it proposes to give to the jury, to the counsel in the case for examination, and require such counsel after a reasonable examination thereof, to designate such parts thereof as he may deem objectionable, and such counsel must thereupon designate such parts of such instructions as he may deem improper and thereafter only such parts of said written instructions so designated shall be deemed excepted to, or subject to exception.
- § 344, C. Cr. P. § 8180. Order specified may be changed. When the state of the pleadings requires it, or in any other case, for good reasons and in the sound discretion of the court, the order of trial and argument prescribed in section 8175 may be departed from.
- § 345, C. Cr. P. § 8181. Court to decide law. The court must decide all questions of law which arise in the course of the trial.
- § 346, C. Cr. P. § 8182. Libel. Jury determine law and fact. On the trial of an information or indictment for libel, the jury have the right to determine the law and the fact.
- § 347, C. Cr. P. § 8183. Other offenses. Determine only facts. On the trial of an information or indictment for any other offense than libel, questions of law are to be decided by the court, and, although the jury have the power to find a general verdict, which includes questions of law as well as of fact, they are bound, nevertheless, to receive as law what is laid down as such by the court.
- § 348, C. Cr. P. § 8184. Counsel. Argument restricted. If the information or indictment is for an offense punishable with death, three counsel on each side may argue the case to the jury. If it is any other offense the court may, in its discretion, restrict the argument to one counsel on each side.

§ 8185. Presumption of innocence. Reasonable doubt. § 349, C. Cr. P.

A defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proved, and in case of a reasonable doubt as to whether his guilt is satisfactorily shown, he is entitled to be acquitted.

§ 8186. Doubt as to degree. When it appears that a defendant has committed a public offense and there is reasonable ground of doubt in which of two or more degrees he is guilty, he can be convicted of the lowest of such degrees only. § 350, C. Cr. P.

§ 8187. Defendants tried separately. When two or more defendants are jointly charged with a felony in a criminal action, any defendant requiring it must be tried separately. In other cases defendants jointly prosecuted may be tried separately or jointly, in the discretion of the court. § 351, C. Cr. P.

§ 8188. Defendant discharged to testify. When two or more persons are included in the same information or indictment, the court may, at any time before the defendants have gone into their defense, on the application of the state's attorney, direct any defendant to be discharged from the information or indictment, that he may be a witness for the state. § 352, C. Cr. P.

§ 8189. Same. Witness for codefendant. When two or more persons are included in the same information or indictment, and the court is of the opinion that in regard to a particular defendant there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, it must order him to be discharged before the evidence is closed, that he may be a witness for his codefendant. § 353, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8190. Such discharge an acquittal. The discharge of a defendant under either of the last two sections is an acquittal of the offense charged in the information or indictment or any offense for which he might have been found guilty thereunder, and is a bar to another prosecution therefor.

§ 8191. Defendant witness in own behalf. In the trial of a criminal action or proceeding before any court or magistrate of this state, whether prosecuted by information, indictment, complaint or otherwise, the defendant shall, at his own request and not otherwise, be deemed a competent witness; but his neglect or refusal to testify shall not create or raise any presumption of guilt against him; nor shall such neglect or refusal be referred to by any attorney prosecuting the case, or considered by the court or jury before whom the trial takes place. § 1, c. 16, 1879. am'd.

§ 8192. Rules of evidence. The rules of evidence in civil cases are applicable also to criminal cases, except as otherwise provided in this code. § 354, C. Cr. P.

§ 8193. Treason. Witnesses. Overt acts. Upon a trial for treason the defendant cannot be convicted unless upon the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or upon his confession in open court; nor can evidence be admitted of an overt act not expressly charged in the information or indictment; nor can the defendant be convicted unless one or more overt acts are expressly charged therein.

§ 8194. Conspiracy. Overt acts. Proof. Upon a trial for conspiracy, in a case where an overt act is necessary to constitute the offense, the defendant cannot be convicted unless one or more overt acts are expressly alleged in the information or indictment, § 355, C. Cr. P. am'd.

nor unless one or more of the acts alleged are proved; but any other overt act, not alleged in the information or indictment may be given in evidence.

§ 356, C. Cr. P.

§ 8195. Accomplice. Evidence. Corroboration. A conviction cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice unless he is corroborated by such other evidence as tends to connect the defendant with the commission of the offense, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense, or the circumstances thereof.

§ 357, C. Cr. P.

§ 8196. Evidence of false pretense. Upon a trial for having, with an intent to cheat or defraud another designedly, by any false pretense, obtained the signature of any person to a written instrument, or having obtained from any person any money, personal property or valuable thing, the defendant cannot be convicted if the false pretense was expressed in language unaccompanied by a false token or writing, unless the pretense, or some note or memorandum thereof, is in writing, either subscribed by, or in the handwriting of the defendant, or unless the pretense is proven by the testimony of two witnesses, or that of one witness and corroborating circumstances. But this section does not apply to a prosecution for falsely representing or personating another, and in such assumed character, marrying or receiving money or property.

§ 358, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8197. Evidence of abortion and seduction. Upon a trial for procuring or attempting to procure an abortion, or aiding or assisting therein, or for inveigling, enticing, or taking away an unmarried female of previous chaste character, under the age of twenty years for the purpose of prostitution, or aiding or assisting therein, or for having, under promise of marriage, seduced and had illicit connection with an unmarried female, under twenty years of age, of previous chaste character, the defendant cannot be convicted upon the testimony of the person injured unless she is corroborated by other evidence.

§ 359, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8198. Mistake in charge. Other proceedings. When it appears, at any time before verdict or judgment that a mistake has been made in charging the proper offense, the defendant must not be discharged, if there appears good cause to detain him in custody; but the court must commit him, or require him to give bail for his appearance to answer to the offense, and may also require the witnesses to give bail for their appearance. The provisions of section 8097 of this code as to the manner and time of prosecution, so far as applicable, shall govern the further proceedings under this section.

§ 360, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8199. Same. Not former acquittal nor once in jeopardy. Upon the trial of an information filed or indictment found, under the provisions of the last section, neither a plea of former acquittal nor of once in jeopardy shall be sustained by the fact of the discharge of the jury on the first information or indictment.

§ 361, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8200. New proceedings. Original charge. If a new information is not filed or a new indictment found within the times limited in section 8097 and the sections therein referred to, of this code, the court must again proceed to try the defendant on the original charge.

§ 362, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8201. Want of jurisdiction appearing, jury discharged. The court may direct the jury to be discharged, when it appears that it has not jurisdiction of the offense, or that the facts charged in the information or indictment do not constitute an offense punishable by law.

§ 8202. Disposition of accused. If the jury is discharged because the court has not jurisdiction of the offense charged, and it appears that it was committed out of the jurisdiction of this state, the defendant must be discharged, unless the court orders that he be detained for a reasonable time, to be specified in the order, to enable the state's attorney to communicate with the chief executive officer of the country, state, territory or district where the offense was committed. § 363, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8203. Same. Bail. If the offense was committed within the jurisdiction of another county of this state, the court may direct the defendant to be committed for such time as it deems reasonable to await a warrant from the proper county for his arrest, or if the offense is a misdemeanor only, it may admit him to bail in an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, that he will, within such time as the court may appoint, render himself amenable to a warrant for his arrest from the proper county, and if not sooner arrested thereon, will attend at the office of the sheriff of the county where the trial was had, at a time particularly specified in the undertaking to surrender himself upon the warrant if issued, or that his bail will forfeit such sum as the court may fix, and to be mentioned in the undertaking. § 364, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8204. Clerk. Papers. Certified copies sent to proper county. In the cases provided for in the last section, the clerk must forthwith transmit a certified copy of the information or indictment and of all the papers filed in the action, to the proper county, the expense of which transmission is chargeable to that county. § 364, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8205. When accused discharged. If the defendant is not arrested on a warrant from the proper county, he must be discharged from custody, or his bail in the action be exonerated, or money deposited instead of bail refunded, as the case may be, and the sureties in the undertaking, as mentioned in section 8203 must be discharged. § 365, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8206. Proceedings if accused arrested. If he is arrested, the same proceedings must be had thereon as upon the arrest of a defendant in another county, on a warrant of arrest issued by a magistrate. § 366, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8207. Court must discharge accused. Exception. If the jury is discharged because the facts as charged do not constitute an offense punishable by law, the court must order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail that his bail be exonerated, or if he has deposited money instead of bail, that the money deposited be refunded to him, unless in its opinion a new information or indictment can be framed, upon which the defendant can be legally convicted, in which case it may direct the state's attorney to file a new information, or (if an information cannot be sooner legally filed) direct that the case be submitted to the same or another grand jury; and the provisions of sections 8087 or 8097 of this code, so far as applicable, as to the time and manner of the prosecution, shall govern the further proceedings under this section. § 367, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8208. Court may advise jury to acquit. If, at any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the court deems it insufficient to warrant a conviction, it may advise the jury to acquit the defendant. But the jury are not bound by the advice, nor can the court, for any cause, prevent the jury from giving a verdict.

§ 369, C. Cr. P.

§ 8209. Jury may view place. When, in the opinion of the court, it is proper that the jury should view the place in which the offense was charged to have been committed, or in which any other material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of proper officers, to the place, which must be shown to them by a person appointed by the court for that purpose, and the officers must be sworn to suffer no person to speak to or communicate with the jury, nor to do so themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into court without unnecessary delay, or at a specified time.

§ 370, C. Cr. P.

§ 8210. Juror knowing fact. Witness. If a juror has any personal knowledge respecting a fact in controversy in a cause, he must declare it in open court during the trial. If, during the retirement of a jury, a juror declares a fact, which could be evidence in the cause, as of his own knowledge, the jury must return into court. In either of these cases, the juror making the statement must be sworn as a witness and examined in the presence of the parties.

§ 371, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8211. Custody and conduct of jury. The jurors sworn to try a criminal action, may, at any time before the cause is submitted to the jury, in the discretion of the court, be permitted to separate, or be kept in charge of proper officers. The officers must be sworn to keep the jurors together until the next meeting of the court, to suffer no person to speak to or communicate with them, nor to do so themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into court at the next meeting thereof.

§ 372, C. Cr. P.

§ 8212. Court must admonish jury. The jury must also, at each adjournment of the court, whether permitted to separate or kept in charge of officers, be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse among themselves or with any one else on any subject connected with the trial, or to form or express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them.

§ 373, C. Cr. P.

§ 8213. Juror becoming sick. Procedure. If, before the conclusion of a trial, a juror becomes sick, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case a new juror may be sworn, and the trial begin anew, or the jury may be discharged, and a new jury then or afterward impaneled.

§ 374, C. Cr. P.

§ 8214. Murder. Burden of proof. Upon a trial for murder, the commission of the homicide by the defendant being proved, the burden of proving circumstances of mitigation, or that justify or excuse it, devolves upon him, unless the proof on the part of the prosecution tends to show that the crime committed only amounts to manslaughter, or that the defendant was justifiable or excusable.

§ 375, C. Cr. P.

§ 8215. Bigamy, proof of marriage. Upon a trial for bigamy, it is not necessary to prove either of the marriages by the register, certificate or other record evidence thereof, but the same may be proved by such evidence as is admissible to prove a marriage in other cases, and when the second marriage took place out of this state proof of that fact, accompanied with proof of cohabitation thereafter in this state is sufficient to sustain the charge.

§ 376, C. Cr. P.

§ 8216. Forgery. Proof on trial. Upon a trial for forging any bill or note purporting to be the bill or note of an incorporated company or bank, or for passing, or attempting to pass, or having in possession with intent to pass, any such forged bill or note, it is not necessary to prove the incorporation of such bank or company by the charter or act of incorporation, but it may be proved by general reputation, and persons of skill are competent witnesses to prove that such bill or note is forged or counterfeited.

§ 8217. Charge to jury. Requisites. In charging the jury, the court must state to them all matters of law which it thinks necessary for their information in giving their verdict, and if it states the testimony of the case, it must in addition inform the jury that they are the exclusive judges of all questions of fact. Either party may present to the court any written charge, and request that it be given. If the court thinks it correct and pertinent, it must be given; if not, it must be refused. Upon each charge presented and refused the court must indorse or sign its decision. § 377, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8218. Jury after charge. Refreshments. After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in court, or may retire for deliberation. If they do not agree without retiring, one or more officers must be sworn to keep them together in some private and convenient place, without refreshment except water unless otherwise ordered by the court, and not to permit any person to speak to or communicate with them, nor to do so himself, unless by order of the court, or to ask them whether they have agreed upon a verdict, and to return them into court when they have so agreed, or when ordered by the court. § 378, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8219. When conviction or acquittal a bar. When the defendant has been convicted or acquitted upon an information or indictment for an offense consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal is a bar to another information or indictment for the offense charged, or for any lower degree of that offense, or for an offense necessarily included therein.

§ 8220. Defendant may be committed. When a defendant who has given bail appears for trial, the court may, in its discretion, at any time after his appearance for trial, order him to be committed to the custody of the proper officer of the county, to abide the judgment or further order of the court, and he must be committed and held in custody accordingly. § 379, C. Cr. P.

§ 8221. Substitute for state's attorney. If the state's attorney fails, or is unable to attend at the trial, the court must appoint some attorney at law to perform the duties of the state's attorney on such trial. § 380, C. Cr. P.

ARTICLE 3.—CONDUCT OF THE JURY AFTER THE CAUSE IS SUBMITTED TO THEM.

§ 8222. Room provided for jury. A room must be provided by the board of commissioners of a county for the use of the jury, upon their retirement for deliberation, with suitable furniture, fuel, lights and stationery. If the commissioners neglect, the court may order the sheriff to do so, and the expenses incurred by him in carrying the order into effect, when certified by the court, are a county charge. § 381, C. Cr. P.

§ 8223. Food and lodging for jury. While the jury are kept together, either during the progress of the trial or after their retirement for deliberation, they must be provided by the sheriff, upon the order of the court at the expense of the county, with suitable and sufficient food and lodging. § 382, C. Cr. P.

- § 383, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8224. What papers jury may take. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them all papers (except depositions) which have been received as evidence in the cause, or copies of such public records or private documents given in evidence as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession. They may also take with them such parts of the written instructions as the court may direct and notes of the testimony, or other proceedings on the trial, taken by themselves, or any of them, but none taken by any other person.
- § 384, C. Cr. P. § 8225. Disagreement. Further instructions. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there is a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed on a point of law arising in the cause, they must require the officer to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court, the information required must be given in the presence of, or after notice to the state's attorney and the defendant or his counsel, or after they have been called.
- § 385, C. Cr. P. § 8226. Juror sick, jury discharged. If, after the retirement of the jury, one of them becomes so sick as to prevent the continuance of his duty, or any other accident or cause occurs to prevent their being kept together for deliberation, the jury may be discharged.
- § 386, C. Cr. P. § 8227. Disagreement, jury discharged. Except as provided in the last section, the jury cannot be discharged after the cause is submitted to them until they have agreed upon their verdict, and rendered it in open court, unless by the consent of both parties entered upon the minutes, or unless at the expiration of such time as the court deems proper, it satisfactorily appears that there is no reasonable probability that the jury can agree.
- § 387, C. Cr. P. § 8228. Verdict prevented, cause retried. In all cases when a jury is discharged or prevented from giving a verdict, by reason of an accident or other cause, except when the defendant is discharged from the information or indictment during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the cause may be again tried at the same or another term, as the court may direct.
- §§ 388, 389,
C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8229. Adjournment during absence of jury. While the jury are absent the court may adjourn from time to time as to other business, but it is nevertheless deemed open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to them, until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. A final adjournment of the court discharges the jury.

ARTICLE 4. — THE VERDICT.

- § 390, C. Cr. P. § 8230. Return of verdict. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names must then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest must be discharged without giving a verdict. In that case the cause must be again tried, at the same or another term.
- § 391, C. Cr. P. § 8231. Presence of defendant. Felony. Misdemeanor. If the information or indictment is for a felony, the defendant must, before the verdict is received, appear in person. If it is for a misdemeanor, the verdict may, in the discretion of the court, be rendered in his absence.

§ 8232. Procedure when jury appear. When the jury appear, they must be asked, by the court or the clerk, whether they have agreed upon their verdict, and if the foreman answers in the affirmative, they must, on being required, declare the same. § 392, C. Cr. P.

§ 8233. General or special verdict. Libel. The jury may either render a general verdict, or when they are in doubt as to the legal effect of the facts proved, they may, except upon an information or indictment for libel, find a special verdict. § 393, C. Cr. P.

§ 8234. Oral or in writing. Preparation. The verdict of the jury may be rendered orally or in writing as the jury may elect, unless the court, at the time the case is submitted to the jury, requires that it be rendered in writing. When the court so requires, the clerk of the court shall, under the direction of the court, provide blank verdicts of suitable form for any verdict the jury may return in the action and said blank verdicts shall be taken by the jury when it retires.

§ 8235. General verdicts. Contents. A general verdict upon a plea of not guilty, is either "guilty" or "not guilty," which imports a conviction or acquittal of the offense charged in the information or indictment. Upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, or once in jeopardy, it is either "for the state," or "for the defendant." When the defendant is acquitted on the ground that he was insane at the time of the commission of the act charged, the verdict must be "not guilty by reason of insanity." When the defendant is acquitted on the ground of variance between the information or indictment and the proof, the verdict must be "not guilty by reason of variance between the information (or indictment) and proof." § 394, C. Cr. P.

§ 8236. Special verdict to be written. A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. It must present the conclusions of fact, as established by the evidence and not the evidence to prove them, and the conclusions of fact must be so presented as that nothing remains to the court but to draw conclusions of law upon them. § 395, C. Cr. P.

§ 8237. Special verdict, how rendered. The special verdict must be reduced to writing by the jury, or in their presence entered upon the minutes of the court, read to the jury, and agreed to by them before they are discharged. § 396, C. Cr. P.

§ 8238. Form of special verdict. The special verdict need not be in any particular form, but is sufficient if it presents intelligibly the facts found by the jury. § 397, C. Cr. P.

§ 8239. Argument of special verdict. The special verdict may be brought to argument by either party, upon two days' notice to the other, at the same or another term of the court. § 398, C. Cr. P.

§ 8240. Judgment upon special verdict. The court must give judgment upon the special verdict as follows: § 399, C. Cr. P.
 am'd.

1. If the plea is not guilty, and the facts prove the defendant guilty of the offense charged in the information or indictment, or of any other offense of which he could be convicted under the information or indictment, judgment must be given accordingly; but if otherwise, judgment of acquittal must be given.

2. If the plea is a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, or once in jeopardy, the court must give judgment of conviction or acquittal, according as the facts prove or fail to prove the plea.

§ 400, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8241. When new trial must be ordered. If the jury do not, in a special verdict, pronounce affirmatively or negatively on the facts necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or if they find the evidence of facts merely, and not the conclusions of fact from the evidence, as established to their satisfaction, the court must order a new trial.

§ 401, C. Cr. P.

§ 8242. Degree must be found. Whenever a crime is distinguished into degrees, the jury, if they convict the defendant, must find the degree of the crime of which he is guilty. Whenever a verdict of guilty is rendered against the accused upon a prosecution for homicide, the jury must find the degree thereof and determine by their verdict the punishment to be inflicted within the limits prescribed by law.

§ 8243. Finding on charge of previous conviction. Whenever the fact of a previous conviction of another offense is charged in the information or indictment, the jury if they find a verdict of guilty of the offense with which the defendant is charged, must also, unless the answer of defendant admits the charge, find whether or not he has suffered such previous conviction. In addition to the verdict of "guilty" the verdict of the jury upon a charge of previous conviction may be "we also find the charge of previous conviction true," or "we also find the charge of previous conviction not true," as they find that the defendant has or has not suffered such conviction.

§ 402, C. Cr. P.

§ 8244. Any degree may be found. The jury may find the defendant guilty of any offense, the commission of which is necessarily included in that with which he is charged in the information or indictment or of an attempt to commit the offense.

§ 403, C. Cr. P.

§ 8245. Several defendants. Part convicted. On an information or an indictment against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment must be entered accordingly, and the case as to the rest may be tried by another jury.

§ 8246. Verdict returned. Duty of court. Punishment. If the jury return a verdict of guilty against the accused, the court must before it is accepted ascertain whether it conforms to the law of the case. If in the opinion of the court, the verdict does not conform to the requirements of the law of the case, the court must with proper instructions as to the error, direct the jury to reconsider the verdict, and the verdict cannot be accepted or recorded until it is rendered in proper form. But, if the punishment imposed by the jury in the verdict, in cases where the jury are authorized by law to determine the punishment, is not in conformity to the law of the case in that regard, the court may proceed as follows:

1. If the punishment imposed by the jury in the verdict is under the limit prescribed by law, for the offense of which the defendant is found guilty, the court may receive the verdict and thereupon render judgment and pronounce sentence for the lowest limit prescribed by law in such cases; or,

2. If the punishment imposed by the jury in the verdict is greater than the highest limit prescribed by law, for the offense of which the defendant is found guilty, the court must disregard the excess and render judgment and pronounce sentence according to the highest limit prescribed by law in the particular case.

§ 8247. Court may reduce punishment. The court has the power in all cases of conviction, to reduce the extent or duration of the punishment imposed by a jury, if in its opinion, the conviction is proper, and the punishment imposed is greater than under the circumstances of the case ought to be inflicted.

§ 8248. Jury reconsider verdict. Acquittal. When there is a verdict of conviction in which it appears to the court that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to reconsider their verdict, and if, after the reconsideration, they return the same verdict, it must be entered. But when there is a verdict of acquittal, the court cannot require the jury to reconsider it. § 404, C. Cr. P.

§ 8249. Same. Informal verdict. If the jury render a verdict which is neither a general nor a special verdict, the court may, with proper instructions as to the law, direct them to reconsider it, and it cannot be recorded until it is rendered in some form from which it can be clearly understood what is the intent of the jury, whether to render a general verdict, or to find the facts specially, and to leave the judgment to the court. § 405, C. Cr. P.

§ 8250. Judgment if jury persist. Acquittal. If the jury persist in finding an informal verdict, from which, however, it can be clearly understood that their intention is to find in favor of the defendant upon the issue, it must be entered in the terms in which it is found, and the court must give judgment of acquittal. But no judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly find against the defendant, upon the issue, or judgment is given against him on a special verdict. § 406, C. Cr. P.

§ 8251. Jury may be polled. Procedure. When a verdict is rendered, and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the requirement of either party, in which case they must be severally asked whether it is their verdict, and if anyone answers in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation. § 407, C. Cr. P.

§ 8252. Clerk to record verdict. Dissent. When the verdict is given, and is such as the court may receive, the clerk must immediately record it in full upon the minutes, and must read it to the jury and inquire of them whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagrees, the fact must be entered upon the minutes, and the jury again sent out; but if no disagreement is expressed, the verdict is complete, and the jury must be discharged from the case. § 408, C. Cr. P.

§ 8253. Judgment. Acquittal. Accused discharged. Exception. If the judgment of acquittal is given on a general verdict, and the defendant is not detained for any other legal cause, he must be discharged as soon as judgment is given, except that when the acquittal is for a variance between the proof and the information or indictment, which may be obviated by a new information or indictment, the court may order his detention to the end that a new information or indictment may be preferred in the same manner and with like effect as provided in section 8097 and the sections of this code therein referred to. § 409, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8254. Verdict. Guilty. Procedure. If a general verdict is rendered against the defendant, or a special verdict is given, he must be remanded, if in custody; or if on bail, he may be committed to the proper officer of the county, to await the judgment of the court upon the verdict. When committed, his bail is exonerated, or if money is deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded to the defendant.

§ 411, C. Cr. P.

§ 8255. When defense insanity, and jury acquits. If the defense is the insanity of the defendant, the jury must be instructed, if they acquit him on that ground, to state the fact with their verdict. The court may thereupon, if the defendant is in custody, and it deems his discharge dangerous to the public peace or safety, order him to be committed to the care of the sheriff until he becomes sane.

CHAPTER 11.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER VERDICT AND BEFORE JUDGMENT.

ARTICLE 1.—STATEMENT OF THE CASE AND EXCEPTIONS.

§ 8256. Statement of the case defined. A statement of the case is a statement, in writing setting forth or showing particularly, one or more of the rulings, decisions or acts excepted to in an action or proceeding, together with the facts and circumstances of the ruling, decision or act and the exception thereto, and settled, certified and filed as provided in this article.

§ 8257. Same. Office of. The office of a statement of the case is to make such parts of the proceedings or of the evidence in an action, appear of record as otherwise would not so appear.

§ 413, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8258. Same. By whom settled. Where filed. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a statement containing the exceptions must be settled and certified by the judge who presided at the trial, and filed with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the action was tried.

§ 8259. Matters deemed excepted to by either party. The decision of the court, in a criminal action or proceeding upon a matter of law is deemed excepted to by either party in the following cases:

1. In granting or refusing a motion to set aside an information or indictment.
2. In allowing or disallowing a demurrer to an information or indictment.
3. In granting or refusing a motion in arrest of judgment.
4. In granting or refusing a motion for a new trial.
5. In making or refusing to make an order after judgment affecting any substantial right of the parties.

§ 8260. Matters deemed excepted to by the defendant. The decision of the court in a criminal action or proceeding upon a matter of law is deemed excepted to by the defendant in the following cases:

1. In refusing to grant a motion for a change of the place of trial.
2. In refusing to postpone the trial on motion of the defendant.

3. In charging or instructing the jury upon the law, upon the trial of the issue, except as otherwise provided in section 8179 of this code.

§ 8261. Clerk to enter orders. Certified copies. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court in which any criminal action or proceeding is pending or tried, to enter carefully and correctly in the minutes of such court, each ruling or decision of the court, made in open court, upon any matter by section 8259 and subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 8260 of this article declared to be deemed excepted to, and a certified copy of any or all such entries shall be and become a part of the record of said action.

§ 8262. Matters defendant may except to. Upon a trial of a criminal action or proceeding, exceptions may be taken by the defendant to a decision of the court: § 412, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

1. In disallowing a challenge to a panel of the jury, or to an individual juror for implied bias.

2. In admitting or rejecting witnesses or testimony, on the trial of a challenge of a juror for actual bias.

3. In admitting or rejecting witnesses or evidence or in deciding any matter of law, not purely discretionary, on the trial of the issue.

§ 8263. Code construed. Nothing in this code contained is to be construed so as to deprive either party of the right of excepting to any action or decision of the court in a criminal action or proceeding, which affects any other material or substantial right of either party, whether before or after the trial, or on such trial.

§ 8264. Exceptions. Settled at trial. In all cases when the court is proceeding without a stenographer, the exceptions must be settled and certified, at the trial, unless the court otherwise directs. If the exceptions are settled at the trial, the point of the exception must be particularly stated in writing and delivered to the court, and must immediately be corrected or added to, until it is made conformable to the truth. The exceptions so settled and certified shall constitute a statement of the case. § 414, C. Cr. P.

§ 8265. Same. Not settled at trial. If the exceptions are not settled at the trial and in all cases when the testimony is taken down by an official stenographer, a statement of the case containing the exceptions must be prepared and served within thirty days thereafter, on the state's attorney or other person appointed to prosecute, who may within five days thereafter, serve on the defendant or his attorney, amendments thereto. The defendant may then, within five days, serve the state's attorney, or other person appointed to prosecute with a notice to appear before the judge who presided at the trial at a specified place and time, not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, to have the statement of the case settled. At the place and time appointed, or as soon thereafter as the same can be done, the judge must settle the statement of the case, and certify the same to be correct, and thereupon the same must be filed with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the action was tried. The judge who presided at the trial may settle, and certify a statement of the case after as well as before he ceases to be such judge. § 415, C. Cr. P.
am'd.
§ 5, c. 21, 1887.

§ 8266. When supreme court may settle statement. If the judge who presided at the trial in any case refuses to allow an exception in accordance with the facts, or to settle or certify a statement of the case or has died or removed from the state, the party desiring the statement settled may apply by petition to the supreme § 416, C. Cr. P.
§ 1, c. 20, 1885.
am'd.

court at any term thereof, or to any judge of said court in vacation, to settle and approve the same. The application may be made in the manner and under such regulations as the court may prescribe by order or in its rules, or as may be required by the judge of said court to whom application is made. The statement of the case or any exception when allowed, must be certified by the chief justice of the court (if application is made to the court) or by the judge allowing the same, (when made to a judge), as correct, and filed with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the action was tried, and when so filed, it has the same force and effect as if settled by the judge who presided at the trial of the action. In all cases when there is no provision of law governing the allowance and settlement of statements or exceptions, the same shall be allowed, settled and certified as directed in this section.

§ 417, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8267. Time may be extended. The times for preparing the statement of the case, or the amendments thereto, or for settling and certifying the same, may be extended before or other times fixed, after they have elapsed, by the agreement of the parties or by the judge who presided at the trial, or in the cases provided for in section 8266 of this code, by the supreme court, or by a judge thereof.

§ 418, C. Cr. P.

§ 8268. What statement to contain. The statement of the case must contain so much of the evidence only as is necessary to present the questions of law upon which the exceptions were taken, and the judge must upon the settlement of the statement, whether agreed to by the parties or not, strike out all other matters therein. No particular form of exception is required, but the objection must be stated, with so much of the evidence or other matter as is necessary to explain it, and no more; only the substance of the stenographer's notes of the evidence shall be stated; documents on file in the action or proceeding may be copied, or the substance thereof stated, or a reference thereto sufficient to identify them may be made.

§ 8269. Instructions. Exceptions. Record. Errors. The instructions requested by the defendant and refused, or by the prosecutor and given, and all the instructions given to the jury, by the court in writing, or orally and written out by the stenographer of the court and filed with the clerk, except as otherwise provided in section 8179 of this code, are deemed excepted to, and need not be embodied in the statement of the case, but the same and each of them with the indorsements, if any, showing the action of the court thereon, form a part of the record of the action. The decision of the court upon any matters of law in this article declared to be deemed excepted to, need not be embodied in any statement of the case, and forms a part of the record of the action. Any statement of the case or exception, settled, certified and filed as provided in this article also forms a part of the record of the action. Any error committed by the court in or by any decision, ruling, instruction or other act and appearing in the record of the action may be taken advantage of upon a motion for a new trial or in the supreme court on an appeal.

ARTICLE 2. — NEW TRIALS.

§ 422, C. Cr. P.

§ 8270. New trial defined. A new trial is a re-examination of the issue in the same court, before another jury, after a verdict has been given. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial had been had. All the testimony must be produced anew, and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to, either in evidence or in argument, or be pleaded in bar of any conviction which might have been had under the information or indictment.

§ 8271. Causes for granting new trial. When a verdict has been rendered against the defendant, the court in which the trial was had, may upon his application, grant a new trial in the following cases, only:

§ 423, C. Cr. P.
§ 1, c. 115, 1885.
am'd.

1. When the trial has been had in his absence, if the information or indictment is for a felony.

2. When the jury has received out of court any evidence other than that resulting from a view of the premises, or any communication, document or paper referring to the case.

3. When the jury have separated without leave of the court, after retiring to deliberate upon their verdict, or have been guilty of any misconduct by which a fair and due consideration of the case has been prevented.

4. When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by any other means than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors.

5. When the court has misdirected the jury in a matter of law, or has erred in the decision of any question of law arising during the course of the trial or has done or allowed any act in the action prejudicial to the substantial rights of the defendant.

6. When the verdict is contrary to law or clearly against the evidence.

7. When new evidence is discovered material to the defense, and which the defendant could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial.

When the application for a new trial is made upon the ground of newly discovered evidence, the defendant must produce at the hearing, in support thereof, the affidavits of the persons by whom such evidence is expected to be given; and if time is required by the defendant to procure such affidavits, the court may postpone the hearing of the motion for such length of time as, under all the circumstances of the case, may seem reasonable. But the court may, when the affiants are residents of this state, compel their personal attendance before it; and they may be examined and cross-examined under oath, touching the matters set forth in their affidavits.

§ 8272. Application for new trial. Notice. The application for a new trial must be made upon not less than one nor more than five days' written notice, and if based upon any of the grounds mentioned in subdivisions 2, 3, 4 and 7, of the last section, such written notice must be served and filed within thirty days after the discovery of the facts upon which the party relies in support of his application; and in all other cases the notice must be served and filed within ten days after the rendition of the verdict, or within such further or other time as the court may allow or fix.

am'd.

§ 8273. Same. Affidavits. Upon minutes of the court. The application for a new trial, if made for any of the causes mentioned in subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7, of section 8271 must be based upon affidavits which must be filed before the notice is served; in all other cases the application may be made upon the minutes of the court or upon the record of the action and the notice must designate generally the grounds upon which the motion will be made as near as may be in the language of section 8271. When the application is made upon the minutes of the court, the notice must specify particularly the errors relied upon and upon the hearing reference may be had to any and all papers on file in the action, the clerk's minutes and the stenographer's notes of the testimony. The application must be heard on the day specified in the notice, or as soon as practicable thereafter. In all cases when the notice is served before judgment, the court may in its discretion, stay all further proceedings in the action until such application is disposed of. When the application is made upon the minutes of the court and a statement of the case becomes necessary, the draft thereof, and amendments thereto may be proposed and served and the statement settled, certified and filed in the manner and times and after the notices in this article specified. If a review of the decision upon such application is sought on appeal, the errors specified in the notice must be embodied in the statement as settled and certified.

§ 2, c. 115, 1885.
am'd.

§ 2, c. 115, 1885.
am'd.

§ 8274. Same. Time within which made. The application for a new trial, except in case of a sentence of death, must be made before the time for an appeal has elapsed. In case of a sentence of death, the application may be made at any time before the execution.

ARTICLE 3.—ARREST OF JUDGMENT.

§ 425, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8275. Motion in arrest of judgment defined. A motion in arrest of judgment is an application on the part of the defendant, that no judgment be rendered on a plea or verdict of guilty, or on a verdict against the defendant on a plea of former conviction or acquittal or once in jeopardy. It may be founded on any of the defects in the information or indictment mentioned in section 8091, unless the objection has been waived by a failure to demur, and must be made before or at the time the defendant is called for judgment.

§ 426, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8276. Court, without motion, may arrest judgment. The court, may also, on its own view of any of these defects, arrest the judgment without motion. The effect of allowing a motion in arrest of judgment, is to place the defendant in the same situation in which he was before the information was filed or the indictment found.

§ 427, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8277. Judgment arrested. Further prosecution. Acquittal. If, from the evidence in a trial, there is reason to believe the defendant guilty, and a new information or indictment can be framed upon which he may be convicted, the court may order him to be recommitted to the officer of the proper county, or admitted to bail anew, to answer the new information or indictment. If the evidence shows him guilty of another offense, he must be committed or held thereon, and in neither case shall the verdict be a bar to another prosecution. But if no evidence appears sufficient to charge him with any offense, he must, if in custody, be discharged, or if admitted to bail, his bail must be exonerated, or if money has been deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded, and the arrest of judgment shall operate as an acquittal of the defendant of the charge upon which the information or indictment was founded.

CHAPTER 12.

JUDGMENT AND EXECUTION.

ARTICLE 1.—THE JUDGMENT.

§ 8278. After conviction, judgment. Time. After a plea or verdict of guilty, or after a verdict against the defendant on a plea of former conviction or acquittal or once in jeopardy, if the judgment is not arrested or a new trial granted, the court must appoint a time for pronouncing judgment. § 428, C. Cr. C. am'd.

§ 8279. Time specified. The time appointed must be at least two days after the verdict, if the court intends to remain in session so long; or if not, at as remote a time as can reasonably be allowed. § 429, C. Cr. P.

§ 8280. Defendant's presence. Felony. Misdemeanor. For the purpose of judgment, if the conviction is for a felony, the defendant must be personally present; if for a misdemeanor, judgment may be pronounced in his absence. § 430, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8281. Officer to produce defendant. When the defendant is in custody, the court may direct the officer in whose custody he is to bring him before it for judgment, and the officer must do so accordingly. § 431, C. Cr. P.

§ 8282. Bench warrant. If the defendant has been discharged on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal attendance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the undertaking of bail or of money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest. § 432, C. Cr. P.

§ 8283. Same. Duty of clerk. The clerk, on the application of the state's attorney, may, accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court is sitting or not, issue a bench warrant into one or more counties. § 433, C. Cr. P.

§ 8284. Form of bench warrant. The bench warrant must be substantially in the following form: § 434, C. Cr. P.

State of North Dakota, }
County of } ss.

To any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in this state:

A. B., having been, on the day of
A. D. 18, duly convicted in the district court of the county of of the crime of (designating it generally), you are therefor commanded forthwith to arrest the above named A. B. and bring him before that court for judgment, or if the court has adjourned for the term, you are to deliver him into the custody of the sheriff of the county of (as the case may be).

(Given under my hand, with the seal of said court affixed, this ..... day of, A. D. 18

By order of the court.

[Seal.]

....., clerk.

§ 8285. Where and how served. The bench warrant may be served in any county of the state, and in the same manner as a warrant of arrest. § 435, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8286. Disposal of defendant on arrest. Whether the bench warrant is served in the county in which it was issued or in another county, the officer must arrest the defendant and bring him before the court, or commit him to the officer mentioned in the warrant, according to the command thereof.

§ 437, C. Cr. P. § 8287. Defendant informed of rights. When the defendant appears for judgment, he must be informed by the court, or by the clerk under its direction, of the nature of the charge against him, and of his plea, and the verdict, if any thereon, and must be asked whether he has any legal cause to show why judgment should not be pronounced against him.

§ 438, C. Cr. P. § 8288. Defendant may show cause against judgment. He may show for cause against the judgment:

1. That he is insane; and if, in the opinion of the court, there is reasonable ground for believing him to be insane, the question of his insanity must be tried as hereinafter in this code provided for. If, upon the trial of that question the jury find that he is sane, judgment must be pronounced, but if they find him insane he may be committed to the state hospital for the insane, until he becomes sane, or is otherwise committed according to law, and when notice is given of the fact, as hereinafter provided for, he must be brought before the court for judgment.

2. That he has good cause to offer, either in arrest of judgment or for a new trial, in which case the court may, in its discretion, order the judgment to be deferred, and proceed to decide upon the motion in arrest of judgment, or for a new trial.

§ 439, C. Cr. P. § 8289. Judgment rendered. If no sufficient cause is alleged or appears to the court why judgment should not be pronounced, it must thereupon be rendered.

§ 8290. Court to hear evidence. Degree of crime. Upon a plea of guilty of a crime distinguished or divided into degrees, the court must, if said plea is accepted and the defendant does not designate in his plea the degree thereof, before passing sentence, determine the degree, and the provisions, so far as applicable, of section 8292 and of 8293 of this code shall govern in said determination.

§ 440, C. Cr. P. § 8291. Same. Aggravation. Mitigation. After a plea or verdict of guilty, in a case when a discretion is conferred upon the court as to the extent of the punishment, the court, upon the suggestion of either party that there are circumstances which may be properly taken into view, either in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, may, in its discretion, hear the same summarily at a specified time, and upon such notice to the adverse party as it may direct.

§ 441, C. Cr. P. § 8292. How evidence presented. The circumstances must be presented by the testimony of witnesses examined in open court, except that when a witness is so sick or infirm as to be unable to attend, his deposition may be taken by a magistrate of the county out of court, at a specified time and place, upon such notice to the adverse party as the court may direct.

§ 442, C. Cr. P. § 8293. Other evidence prohibited. No affidavit or testimony, or representation of any kind, verbal or written, can be offered to or received by the court or member thereof in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment, except as provided in the last two sections.

§ 443, C. Cr. P. § 8294. Successive terms of imprisonment. If the defendant has been convicted of two or more offenses, before judgment on either, the judgment may be that the imprisonment upon any one may commence at the expiration of the imprisonment upon any other of the offenses.

§ 8295. Judgment for fine and costs. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine and costs, may also direct that he be imprisoned until both the fine and costs are satisfied, specifying the extent of the imprisonment, which must not exceed one day for every two dollars of the fine and costs, but such imprisonment does not discharge the judgment for fine and costs or either, and said judgment may at any time thereafter within the time limited by law, be collected upon execution issued thereon. § 444, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8296. Same. To be docketed. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine and costs or either, must be docketed and thereafter constitutes a lien upon the real estate of the defendant in like manner as a judgment for money rendered in a civil action. § 445, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8297. Judgment. Entered in minutes. Record. When judgment upon a conviction is rendered, the clerk must enter the same upon the minutes, stating briefly the offense for which the conviction has been had, and must, as soon as may be, annex together and file the following papers which constitute a record of the action: § 446, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. The information or indictment and all the papers filed in the action together with a copy of the minutes of the plea or demurrer.

2. A copy of the minutes of the trial.

3. The written charges given or refused, with indorsements if any thereon; the written instructions given by the court and the copy of any oral instructions by the court and filed with the clerk.

4. A copy of the judgment.

ARTICLE 2.—THE EXECUTION.

§ 8298. Execution to officer. When a judgment other than of death has been pronounced, a certified copy of the entry thereof upon the minutes must be forthwith furnished to the officer whose duty it is to execute the judgment, and no other warrant or authority is necessary to justify or require its execution. § 447, C. Cr. P.

§ 8299. For fine and costs. If the judgment is for a fine and costs or either alone, execution may issue thereon as on a judgment in a civil action. § 448, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8300. For imprisonment or fine and imprisonment. If the judgment is imprisonment, or a fine and imprisonment until such fine is paid, the defendant must forthwith be committed to the custody of the proper officer, and by him detained until the judgment is complied with. § 449, C. Cr. P.

§ 8301. Judgment. By what officer executed. When the judgment is imprisonment in the county jail, or a fine and that the defendant be imprisoned until it is paid, the judgment must be executed by the sheriff of the county or subdivision. In all other cases when the sentence is imprisonment, the sheriff of the county must deliver the defendant to the proper officer, in execution of the judgment. § 450, C. Cr. P.

§ 8302. Judgment of imprisonment in penitentiary. If the judgment is for imprisonment in the penitentiary, the sheriff of the county or subdivision must, upon receipt of a certified copy thereof, take and deliver the defendant to the warden, superintendent or keeper of the penitentiary. He must also deliver to the warden or other proper officer a certified copy of the judgment, and take from the warden or other proper officer a receipt for the defendant, and make return thereof to the court. § 451, C. Cr. P. am'd.

- § 452, C. Cr. P. § 8303. Authority while conveying defendant. The sheriff or his deputy, while conveying the defendant to the proper prison, in execution of a judgment of imprisonment, has the same authority to require the assistance of any citizen of this state, in securing the defendant, and in retaking him if he escapes, as if the sheriff was in his own county; and every person who refuses or neglects to assist the sheriff, when so required, is punishable as if the sheriff was in his own county.
- § 8304. Imprisonment in penitentiary is at hard labor. In all cases when by law a person is sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary, it shall be at hard labor, whether so designated by the jury or court or not.
- § 453, C. Cr. P. § 8305. Judgment of death. Warrant to execute. When am'd. judgment of death is rendered, the judge must sign and deliver to the sheriff of the county, a warrant duly attested by the clerk under the seal of the court, stating the conviction and judgment, and appointing a day on which the judgment is to be executed, which must not be less than three months after the day in which the judgment is entered, and not longer than six months thereafter.
- § 454, C. Cr. P. § 8306. Statement and evidence sent governor. The judge of a court at which a conviction requiring judgment of death is had, must, immediately after the conviction, transmit to the governor, by mail or otherwise, a statement of the conviction and judgment, and of the testimony given at the trial.
- § 455, C. Cr. P. § 8307. Governor. Judges of supreme court. The governor may thereupon require the opinion of the judges of the supreme court or any of them, upon the statement so furnished.
- § 456, C. Cr. P. § 8308. Governor only can reprieve. No judge, court or officer other than the governor can reprieve or suspend the execution of a judgment of death, except the sheriff, in the cases provided in the next seven sections, unless an appeal is taken.
- § 457, C. Cr. P. § 8309. If defendant becomes insane. If, after judgment of death, there is good reason to suppose that the defendant has become insane, the sheriff of the county or subdivision, with the concurrence of the judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, may summon from the list of jurors selected, or to be selected forthwith by the county commissioners, a jury of twelve persons to inquire into the supposed insanity, and must give immediate notice thereof to the state's attorney.
- § 458, C. Cr. P. § 8310. Inquisition to try insanity. The state's attorney must attend the inquisition, and may produce witnesses before the jury, for which purpose he may issue process in the same manner as for witnesses to attend before the grand jury, and disobedience thereto may be punished in like manner as disobedience to process issued by the court.
- § 459, C. Cr. P. § 8311. Return of inquisition. A certificate of the inquisition must be signed by the jurors and the sheriff, and filed with the clerk of the court in which the conviction was had.
- § 460, C. Cr. P. § 8312. Duty of sheriff on such return. If it is found by the inquisition that the defendant is sane, the sheriff must execute the judgment; but if it is found that he is insane, the sheriff must suspend the execution of the judgment until he receives a warrant from the governor or from the judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, directing the execution of the judgment.

§ 8313. Same. Defendant found insane. If the inquisition finds that the defendant is insane, the sheriff must immediately transmit to the governor, who may, when the defendant becomes sane, issue a warrant appointing a day for the execution of the judgment. § 461, C. Cr. P.

§ 8314. Female defendant pregnant. Inquisition. When there is good reason to suppose that a female against whom judgment of death is rendered, is pregnant, the sheriff of the county or subdivision, with the concurrence of the judge of the court by which the judgment was rendered, may summon a jury of three physicians of the state to inquire into the supposed pregnancy. Immediate notice thereof must be given to the state's attorney. The provisions of sections 8312 and 8313 apply to the proceedings upon the inquisition. § 462, C. Cr. P.

§ 8315. Duty of sheriff on the return. If it is found by the inquisition that the female is not pregnant, the sheriff must execute the judgment. If, however, it is found that she is pregnant, the sheriff must suspend the execution of the judgment, and transmit the inquisition to the governor. § 463, C. Cr. P.

§ 8316. Governor may issue warrant. When the governor is satisfied that the female is no longer pregnant, he may issue his warrant appointing a day for the execution of the judgment. § 464, C. Cr. P.

§ 8317. Duty of court when judgment not executed. If, for any reason, a judgment of death has not been executed, and it remains in force, the court in which the conviction was had, on the application of the state's attorney, must order the defendant to be brought before it, or, if he is at large, a warrant for his apprehension may be issued. § 465, C. Cr. P.

§ 8318. Same. New time fixed. Upon the defendant being brought before the court, it must inquire into the facts, and if no legal reason exists against the execution of the judgment, must make an order that the sheriff of the proper county execute the judgment at a specified time. The sheriff must execute the judgment accordingly. § 466, C. Cr. P.

§ 8319. How punishment of death inflicted. The punishment of death must be inflicted by hanging the defendant by the neck until he is dead. § 467, C. Cr. P.

§ 8320. In what jail defendant kept. When there is no jail within the county, or whenever the officer having in charge any person under judgment of death, deems the jail of the county where the conviction was had, insecure, unfit or unsafe for any cause, such officer may confine such person in the jail of any other convenient county of the state, and the jailer of any such convenient county shall receive and keep such person in the same manner as if he had been delivered to him by an officer of his own county; and the county in which said person was convicted shall pay all expenses of keeping and maintaining him in said jail. § 468, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8321. Where judgment of death executed. A judgment of death must be executed within the walls or yard of the jail of the county in which the conviction was had, or within some convenient inclosure within said county. § 468, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8322. Execution. Who must or who may be present. A judgment of death must be executed by the sheriff of the county where the conviction was had, or by his deputy, one of whom at least must be present at the execution. The said sheriff or deputy sheriff must invite the presence, by at least three days' notice, of the state's attorney of the county together with one physician and twelve repu- § 469, C. Cr. P. am'd.

table citizens to be selected by him. He must also at the request of the defendant permit any minister or ministers of the gospel whom the defendant may name, and any of his friends and relatives not exceeding five, to attend the execution, and also such peace officers as the sheriff or deputy sheriff may deem proper. But no person other than those mentioned in this section can be present at the execution, nor must any person under age be allowed to witness the same.

§ 470. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8323. Certificate of execution. Witnesses. The sheriff or deputy sheriff must prepare and sign with his name of office and attach to the warrant under which he acted, a certificate setting forth that the judgment was executed upon the defendant according to the provisions of the last three sections, and the time, manner and place of the execution, and also the names of the twelve persons, not relatives of the defendant, whom he invited to be present and the names of those invited and who attended such execution. The sheriff or deputy shall request and allow such number of said persons as may be willing so to do, to attest said certificate by their signatures.

§ 471. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8324. Return of warrant. The sheriff or deputy sheriff who executed the warrant must return the same together with the certificate provided for in the last section, to the clerk of the district court from which it was issued, and the clerk of said court must file and retain the same in his office with the other papers in the action.

CHAPTER 13.

APPEALS.

ARTICLE 1. — NOTICE OF APPEAL AND SERVICE.

§ 8325. Appeal, who may take. Either the defendant or the state may take an appeal as provided in this article.

§ 8326. Defendant's right to appeal. An appeal to the supreme court may be taken by the defendant as a matter of right from any judgment against him.

§ 474. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8327. Title of action on appeal. The party appealing is known as the appellant and the adverse party as the respondent; but the title of the action is not changed in consequence of the appeal.

§ 475. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8328. From what defendant may appeal. An appeal may be taken by the defendant:

1. From a final judgment of conviction.
2. From an order refusing a motion in arrest of judgment.
3. From an order denying a motion for a new trial.
4. From an order made after judgment affecting any substantial right of the party.

§ 476. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8329. From what the state may appeal. An appeal may be taken by the state:

1. From a judgment for the defendant on a demurrer to the information or indictment.
2. From an order granting a new trial.

3. From an order arresting judgment.
4. From an order made after judgment, affecting any substantial right of the state.
5. From an order of the court directing the jury to find for the defendant.

§ 8330. Time for appeal limited. An appeal from a judgment may be taken within one year after its rendition, and from an order within sixty days after it is made. § 477, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8331. Manner of taking appeal. Notice. An appeal is taken by the party taking it or the attorney of such party, serving upon the adverse party, or the attorney of the adverse party who acted as an attorney of record in the district court at the trial, or at the time the order was made or judgment rendered, a copy of the notice of appeal, and by filing the original thereof, with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the order or judgment appealed from is made, entered or filed.

§ 8332. Personal service not made. Publication. If personal service cannot be made, the judge of the district court in which the action is pending or was tried, upon proof thereof, may make an order for publication of the notice in some newspaper, for a period not exceeding thirty days. Such publication is equivalent to personal service.

§ 8333. When appeal deemed taken. The appeal is deemed to be taken when notice thereof as required by sections 8331 or 8332 is filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the order or judgment appealed from is made, entered or filed, with evidence of the service or publication thereof indorsed thereon or attached thereto.

§ 8334. Appeal by state. Effect. An appeal taken by the state in no case stays or affects the operation of the judgment in favor of the defendant until the judgment is reversed.

§ 8335. What judgments superseded by appeal. An appeal to the supreme court from a judgment of conviction, stays the execution of the judgment in all capital cases, and in all other cases upon filing with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the conviction was had, a certificate of the judge who presided at the trial, or of a judge of the supreme court, that in his opinion there is probable cause for the appeal, but not otherwise, except as hereinafter provided. § 479, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8336. Certificate. Duty of sheriff. If the certificate provided for in the last section is filed, the sheriff must, if the defendant is in his custody, upon being served with a copy thereof, keep the defendant in his custody without executing the judgment, and detain him to abide the judgment on the appeal. § 480, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8337. Execution suspended. If, before the granting of the certificate, the execution of the judgment has commenced, the further execution thereof is suspended, and upon service of a copy of such certificate upon the sheriff of the county in which such judgment was entered, the defendant must be restored, by the officer in whose custody he is, to his original custody. § 481, C. Cr. P.

§ 8338. Duty of clerk when appeal taken. Upon the appeal being taken, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court with whom the notice of appeal is filed, without charge and without unnecessary delay, to make out a full and perfect transcript of all the papers in the case on file in his office, except the papers § 482, C. Cr. P. am'd.

returned by the committing magistrate on the preliminary examination when there has been one, and of all the entries made in his minutes, and certify the same under his hand and the seal of the court, and transmit the same to the clerk of the supreme court, and upon receipt thereof, the clerk of the supreme court must file the same and perform the same services as in civil cases without charge.

§ 8339. Appeal by less than all defendants. When several defendants are prosecuted and tried jointly, any one or more of them may join in taking an appeal, but those who do not join shall take no benefit therefrom, yet they may appeal afterwards.

§ 8340. Appeal. Stay. Custody of defendant. An appeal taken by the defendant does not stay the execution of the judgment in any case not capital, unless bail is put in, except when the judgment is imprisonment in the penitentiary, and an appeal is taken during the term at which the judgment is rendered, and the defendant is unable to give bail, and that fact is satisfactorily shown to the court, it may, in its discretion, order the sheriff or other officer having the defendant in custody, to detain him in custody without taking him to the penitentiary, to abide the judgment on appeal, if the defendant desires it.

§ 8341. Appeal taken. Bail put in. Clerk. Sheriff. When an appeal is taken by the defendant, and bail is put in, it is the duty of the clerk to give forthwith to the defendant, his agent or attorney, a certificate under his hand and the seal of the court, stating that an appeal has been taken and bail put in, and the sheriff or other officer having the defendant in custody, must, upon the delivering of such certificate to him, discharge the defendant from custody when imprisonment forms a part of the judgment and cease all further proceedings in execution of the judgment, and return forthwith to the clerk of the court who issued it, the execution or certified copy of the entry of judgment under which he acted, with his return thereon, if such execution or certified copy has been issued; and if such execution or certified copy has not been issued, it shall not be issued, but shall abide the judgment on the appeal.

ARTICLE 2. — DISMISSING APPEAL FOR IRREGULARITY.

§ 487, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8342. In substantial particulars. Notice. If the appeal is irregular in any substantial particular, but not otherwise, the supreme court may on any day, on motion of the respondent, upon five days' notice accompanied with the copies of the papers upon which the motion is founded, order it to be dismissed. The dismissal of an appeal affirms the judgment. But if the irregularities complained of are corrected in a reasonable time, the appeal shall not be dismissed and the supreme court must fix the time and direct the manner of correcting the irregularity.

§ 8343. When appeal must not be dismissed. An appeal must not be dismissed for any informality or defect in the taking thereof. If the same is corrected within a reasonable time after an appeal has been dismissed, another appeal may be taken. If an undertaking has been given which is defective in any respect, a new one may be filed on appeal in the supreme court.

ARTICLE 3. — ARGUMENT OF THE APPEAL.

§ 8344. Appeal stands for argument at first term. An appeal in a criminal action shall stand for argument at the first term after the record is filed, unless for good cause shown the hearing is postponed to a subsequent term, but the parties or their attorneys may by stipulation fix an earlier day for the hearing with the approval of the supreme court. § 489, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8345. When judgment must be affirmed. Reversal. The judgment may be affirmed if the appellant fails to appear, but may be reversed only after argument, though the respondent fails to appear. § 491, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8346. Number of counsel heard. Upon the argument of the appeal if the offense is punishable with death, three counsel upon each side must be heard if they require it. In any other case, the court may, in its discretion, restrict the argument to one counsel on each side. § 492, C. Cr. P.

§ 8347. Defendant need not appear in supreme court. The personal appearance of the defendant in the supreme court on the hearing of an appeal, is in no case necessary.

ARTICLE 4. — JUDGMENT IN SUPREME COURT.

§ 8348. Technical errors to be disregarded. After hearing the appeal, the court must give judgment without regard to technical errors or defects or exceptions which do not affect the substantial rights of the parties. § 493, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8349. Court may review intermediate orders. Upon an appeal taken by the defendant from a judgment, the court may review any intermediate order or ruling involving the merits, or which may have affected the judgment adversely to the defendant.

§ 8350. Power of supreme court on appeal. The supreme court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment or order appealed from, and may set aside, affirm or modify any or all the proceedings subsequent to, or dependent upon such judgment or order, and may if proper, order a new trial. In either case the action must be remanded to the district court with proper instructions, together with the opinion of the court.

§ 8351. New trial ordered, where had. When a new trial is ordered it must be had in the district court of the county from which the appeal was taken, or in some other county, or as directed by the supreme court.

§ 8352. Judgment reversed. When defendant discharged. If a judgment against the defendant is reversed without ordering a new trial, the supreme court must direct, if he is in custody, that he be discharged therefrom, or if on bail, that his bail be exonerated, or if money was deposited instead of bail, that it be refunded to the defendant. § 495, C. Cr. P.

§ 8353. Judgment affirmed, must be enforced. If a judgment against the defendant is affirmed, the original judgment must be enforced. § 496, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8354. Judgment of court entered. Certificate. When the judgment of the supreme court is given, it must be entered in § 497, C. Cr. P.

the minutes, and a certified copy of the entry forthwith remitted to the clerk of the district court from which the appeal was taken.

§ 498, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8355. Certificate remitted, district court only has jurisdiction. After the certificate of the judgment has been remitted to the court below, the appellate court has no further jurisdiction of the appeal or of the proceedings therein, and all orders necessary to carry the judgment into effect must be made by the district court to which the certificate is remitted.

§ 8356. Appeal by state. Power of supreme court. If the appeal is taken by the state, the supreme court cannot reverse the judgment or modify it so as to increase the punishment, but may affirm it, and shall point out any errors in the proceedings or in the measure of punishment and its opinion shall be obligatory on the district court as the correct exposition of the law.

§ 8357. Imprisonment. Reversal. Reimprisoned. Deduction. If a defendant has during the pendency of an appeal, been imprisoned in the execution of the judgment appealed from, and upon a new trial ordered by the supreme court shall again be convicted, the period of his former imprisonment shall be deducted by the district court from the period of imprisonment to be fixed on the last verdict of conviction.

CHAPTER 14.

WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE.

ARTICLE 1.—COMPELLING THE ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES.

§ 499, C. Cr. P.

§ 8358. Subpoena defined. The process by which the attendance of a witness before a court or magistrate is required, is a subpoena.

§ 500, C. Cr. P.

§ 8359. Magistrate may issue. A magistrate before whom a complaint is laid, or to whom a presentment of a grand jury is sent, may issue subpoenas, subscribed by him, for witnesses within the state, either on behalf of the state or the defendant.

§ 501, C. Cr. P.

§ 8360. State's attorney, for grand jury. The state's attorney may issue subpoenas, subscribed by him, for witnesses within the state, in support of the prosecution, or for such other witnesses as the grand jury may direct, to appear before the grand jury upon an investigation before them.

§ 502, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8361. Same. Attendance upon trial. The state's attorney may in like manner issue subpoenas for witnesses within the state, in support of an information or an indictment, to appear before the court at which it is to be tried.

§ 503, C. Cr. P.

§ 8362. Clerk issue blanks for defendant. The clerk of the court at which a criminal action is to be tried, must, at all times, upon the application of the defendant, and without charge, issue as many blank subpoenas, under the seal of the court and subscribed by him as clerk, for witnesses within the state, as may be required by the defendant.

§ 8363. Form of subpoena. A subpoena, authorized by the § 504, C. Cr. P. last four sections, must be substantially in the following form:

In the name of the state of North Dakota,

To A. B:

You are commanded to appear before C. D., a justice of the peace at the town of (or "the grand jury of the county of, " or "the district court, " or as the case may be.) on (stating the day and hour), as a witness in a criminal action prosecuted by the state of North Dakota against E. F.

Dated at the town of (as the case may be), the..... day of..... 18.....

"G. H., justice of the peace," or "I. K., state's attorney," or "by order of the court, L. M., clerk," (as the case may be).

§ 8364. Subpoena duces tecum. If any books, papers or § 505, C. Cr. P. documents are required, a direction to the following effect must be contained in the subpoena:

And you are required also to bring with you the following: (describe intelligibly the books, papers or documents required.)

§ 8365. Subpoena, by whom served. Peace officer. A § 506, C. Cr. P. subpoena may be served by any person, but a peace officer must serve in his county any subpoena delivered to him for service, either on the part of the state or of the defendant, and must without delay, make a written return of the service, subscribed by him, with the title of his office, stating the time, place and manner of service.

§ 8366. How served. A subpoena is served by showing the § 507, C. Cr. P. original to the witness personally and informing him of its contents.

§ 8367. Indigent witness. Expenses. When a person at- § 508, C. Cr. P. tends before a magistrate, grand jury or court, as a witness in a criminal action, upon a subpoena or in pursuance of an undertaking, and it appears that he has come from a place outside of the county, or that he is poor and unable to pay the expenses of such attendance, the court at its discretion, if the attendance of the witness is upon a trial, by order upon its minutes, or in any other case, the judge, at his discretion, by a written order, may direct the county treasurer to pay the witness a reasonable sum to be specified in the order for the necessary expenses of his attendance.

§ 8368. Duty of county treasurer. Payment. Upon the § 509, C. Cr. P. production of the order or a certified copy thereof, the county treasurer must pay the witness the sum specified therein, out of the county treasury.

§ 8369. When witness must attend out of his county. § 510, C. Cr. P. No person is obliged to attend as a witness before a court or magistrate out of the county where the witness resides or is served with the subpoena, unless the judge of the court in which the offense is triable, or a judge of the district court or a judge of the supreme court upon an affidavit of the state's attorney, or prosecutor or of the defendant, or his counsel, stating that he believes the evidence of the witness is material, and his attendance at the examination or trial necessary, shall indorse upon the subpoena an order for the attendance of the witness.

§ 8370. Disobedience. Contempt. Punishment. Dis- § 511, C. Cr. P. obedience to a subpoena, or a refusal to be sworn or to testify, may be punished by the court or magistrate as a contempt, in the manner provided in the code of civil procedure. am'd.

§ 512, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8371. Witness for defendant, disobeying subpoena. A witness disobeying a subpoena issued on the part of the defendant in a criminal action, unless he shows good cause for his nonattendance, is liable to the defendant in the sum of fifty dollars, which may be recovered in a civil action.

§ 8372. Witness. Forfeiture of undertaking. When a witness has entered into an undertaking to appear, upon his failure to do so, the undertaking is forfeited in the same manner as undertakings of bail.

§ 8373. Witness for state confined. How attendance effected. When the testimony of a witness for the state is required in a criminal action, before a court of record of this state, and such witness is confined in the penitentiary or in a county jail, an order for his temporary removal from the penitentiary or such jail and for his production before such court, may be made by the court in which the action is pending or by the judge authorized by law to preside at the trial of such action, but in case the penitentiary or such jail is not in the county in which the application is made, such order shall only be made upon the affidavit of the state's attorney or some other person on behalf of the state showing that the testimony is material and necessary, and even then the granting of the order shall be in the discretion of the court or such judge. The order must be executed by the sheriff of the county in which it is made in the following manner:

1. If the person required as a witness is confined in the penitentiary, by delivering to the warden thereof a copy of such order, and it shall be the duty of the warden to deliver the person so required to such officer and to take such officer's receipt for such person indorsed upon the copy of such order; or,

2. If the person required as a witness is confined in the county jail, by delivering to the jailer a copy of such order and it shall be the duty of the jailer to deliver the person so required to such officer, and take such officer's receipt for such person indorsed upon said copy of such order.

It shall be the duty of the officer receiving any such person to take him before the proper court, safely to keep him, and when he is no longer required as a witness, to return him to the custody from which he was received. Neither the warden nor the jailer shall be responsible for any such person until his return, and upon the return of any such person the warden or jailer, as the case may be, shall indorse his receipt upon the original order. The sheriff executing any such order shall return the same to the clerk of the district court of the county from which it was issued, and said clerk shall file and preserve the same among the papers in the action. The expense of executing such order shall be paid by the county in which the order shall be made.

ARTICLE 2.—DEPOSITIONS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

§ 1, sub-c. 1, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8374. Right of defendant to take. When a defendant has been held to answer a charge for a public offense, he may either before or after an information has been filed or an indictment has been found, have witnesses examined conditionally, on his behalf as prescribed in this article and not otherwise.

§ 8375. In case of sick witness. When a material witness for the defendant is about to leave the state, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable grounds for apprehending that he will be unable to attend the trial, the defendant may apply for an order that the witness be examined conditionally. § 2, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8376. Application. Affidavit, what to contain. The application must be made upon affidavit, stating: § 3, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

1. The nature of the offense charged.
2. The state of the proceedings in the action.
3. The name and residence of the witness, and that his testimony is material to the defense of the action.
4. That the witness is about to leave the state, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable grounds for apprehending that he will not be able to attend the trial.

§ 8377. Same. Notice of. The application may be made to the court or to a judge thereof, and must be made upon three days' notice to the state's attorney. § 4, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8378. Court to issue order for examination. If the court or judge is satisfied that the examination of the witness is necessary, an order must be made that the witness be examined conditionally at a specified time and place, and that a copy of the order be served on the state's attorney within a specified time before that fixed for the examination. § 5, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8379. Contents of order. Service. The order must direct that the examination be taken before a magistrate named therein; and on proof being furnished to such magistrate of service upon the state's attorney of a copy of the order, if no counsel appears on the part of the state, the examination must proceed. § 6, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8380. When examination shall not proceed. If the state's attorney or other counsel appears on behalf of the state, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the magistrate by affidavit or other proof, or on the examination of the witness, that he is not about to leave the state or is not sick or infirm, or that the application was made to avoid the examination of the witness on the trial, the examination cannot take place, otherwise it must proceed. § 7, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8381. How attendance of witness enforced. The attendance of the witness may be enforced by subpoena issued by the magistrate before whom the examination is to be taken, or from the court where the trial is to be had. § 8, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8382. Testimony must be written. Authentication. The testimony of the witness must be taken down in writing by the magistrate or by some person under his direction; or the magistrate may, in his discretion, order the testimony and proceedings to be taken down in shorthand and for that purpose he may appoint a stenographer. The deposition or testimony of the witness must show and contain: § 9, sub-c. 1, c. 44, 1885.

1. The name of the witness, his age, his place of residence, and his business or profession.

2. The questions put to the witness and his answers thereto, consecutively as the questions are asked and answers given. Each answer must be distinctly read to the witness as it is taken down and corrected or added to until it conforms to what he declares to be the truth. But in cases when the testimony is taken down in shorthand the answer or answers need not be read to him.

3. A statement of the grounds on which an objection to a question on either side is sustained or on which the witness declines to answer it.

4. The signature of the witness to the deposition, or if he refuses to sign it, his reasons for refusing must be stated in writing as he gives them. In cases when the deposition is taken down in shorthand, it must not be signed by the witness.

5. It must be certified by the magistrate when reduced to writing by him or under his direction, and signed by him.

When taken down in shorthand a transcript of the stenographer's record, certified by him as being a correct statement of the testimony of the witness and proceedings in the case, shall be prima facie a correct statement of such testimony and proceedings. The stenographer shall within five days after the close of such examination make a full and complete written or typewritten transcript of his shorthand record and deliver the same to the magistrate before whom the same was taken, and thereupon said magistrate must add his certificate as if reduced to writing by him, and transmit the same carefully sealed up to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, or may come for trial.

§ 9, sub-c. 1, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8383. Deposition may be read in evidence. The deposition or certified copy thereof may be read in evidence by either party on the trial upon its appearing that the witness is unable to attend by reason of his death, insanity, sickness or infirmity, or of his continued absence from the state. Upon reading the depositions in evidence the same objections may be taken to a question or answer contained therein as if the witness had been examined orally in court.

§ 10, sub-c. 1, c.
44, 1885,
am'd.

§ 8384. Witness confined in penitentiary. Procedure. When a material witness for a defendant under a criminal charge is confined in the penitentiary, or in the county jail of a county other than that in which the defendant is to be tried, his deposition may be taken, on behalf of the defendant, in the manner provided for in the case of a witness who is sick, and the provisions of this code commencing with section 8374 and ending with section 8383, so far as applicable, govern in the application for and in the taking and use of such depositions. Such depositions may be taken before any magistrate or notary public of the county in which the penitentiary or jail is situated, or in case the witness is confined in the penitentiary and the defendant is unable to pay for taking the deposition, before the warden, whose duty it shall be to act without compensation. Every officer before whom testimony shall be taken by virtue hereof, shall have authority to administer and shall administer an oath to the witness, that his testimony shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

ARTICLE 3.—TAKEN WITHOUT THE STATE.

§ 1, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8385. Deposition, when witness not in state. When an issue of fact is joined upon an indictment or information, the defendant may have any material witness, residing out of the state, examined in his behalf as prescribed in this article, and not otherwise.

§ 2, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885,
am'd.

§ 8386. Commissioner. Interrogatories. Instruction. When a material witness for the defendant resides out of the state, the defendant may apply for an order that the witness be examined on a commission, to be issued under the seal of the court and the signature of the clerk, directed to some party designated as commissioner, authorizing him to examine the witness upon oath on interrogatories annexed thereto, and to take and certify the deposition of the witness and return it according to the instructions given with the commission.

§ 8387. Application. Affidavit. Contents. Application must be made upon affidavit stating:

1. The nature of the offense charged.
2. The state of the proceedings in the action, and that an issue of fact has been joined therein.
3. The name of the witness, and that his testimony is material to the defense of the action.
4. That the witness resides out of the state.

§ 8388. Same. Notice of. The application may be made to the court or a judge thereof, and must be upon three days' notice to the state's attorney. § 4, sub-c. 2, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8389. Order of court. Commission. If the court or judge to whom the application is made, is satisfied of the truth of the facts stated and that the examination of the witness is necessary to the attainment of justice, an order must be made that a commission be issued to take his testimony, and the court or judge may insert in the order a direction that the trial be stayed for a specified time reasonably sufficient for the execution of the commission and return thereof, or the case may be continued. § 5, sub-c. 2, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8390. Interrogatories. Service of. When the commission is ordered the defendant must serve upon the state's attorney without delay, a copy of the interrogatories to be annexed thereto, with three days' notice of the time at which they will be presented to the court or judge. The state's attorney may in like manner serve upon the defendant or his counsel cross interrogatories, to be annexed to the commission, with like notice. In the interrogatories, either party may insert any question pertinent to the issue. When the interrogatories and cross interrogatories are presented to the court or judge, according to the notice, the court or judge must modify the questions, so as to conform them to the rules of evidence, and must indorse upon them his alterations, and annex them to the commission. § 6, sub-c. 2, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8391. Court must direct manner of return. Unless the parties otherwise consent by an indorsement upon the commission, the court or judge must indorse thereon the direction and manner in which it must be returned, and may in his discretion direct that it be returned by mail or otherwise, addressed to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, designating his name, and the place where his office is kept. § 7, sub-c. 2, c. 44, 1885.

§ 8392. Manner of executing commission. The commissioner, unless otherwise specially directed, may execute the commission as follows: § 8, sub-c. 2, c. 44, 1885.

1. He must administer an oath to the witness that his answers given to the interrogatories shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.
2. He must cause the examination of the witness to be reduced to writing and subscribed by him.
3. He must write the answers of the witness as nearly as possible in the language in which he gives them, and read to him each answer so taken down, and correct or add to it until it conforms to what he declares is the truth.

4. If the witness declines to answer a question, that fact, with the reason assigned by him for declining, must be stated.

5. If any papers or documents are produced before him, and proved by the witness, they or copies of them, must be annexed to the deposition, subscribed by the witness, and certified by the commissioner.

6. The commissioner must subscribe his name to each sheet of the deposition, with the papers and documents proved by the witness, or copies thereof, to the commissioner, and must close it up under seal, and address it as directed by the indorsement thereon.

7. If there is direction on the commission to return it by mail, the commissioner must immediately deposit it in the nearest post office. If any other direction is made by the written consent of the parties, or by the court or judge, to the commissioner as to its return, the commissioner must comply with the directions. A copy of this section must be annexed to the commission.

§ 9, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8393. Commission delivered to an agent. If the commission and return are delivered by the commissioner to an agent, he must deliver the same to the clerk to whom it is directed, or to the judge of the court in which the action is pending, by whom it may be received and opened upon the agent making affidavit that he received it from the hands of the commissioner, and that it has not been opened or altered since he received it.

§ 10, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8394. Agent becoming incapacitated. Procedure. If the agent is dead, or from sickness or other cause is unable personally to deliver the commission and return as prescribed in the last section, it may be received by the clerk or judge from any other person, upon his making an affidavit that he received it from the agent, that the agent is dead, or, from sickness or other casualty, unable to deliver it, and it has not been opened or altered since the person making the affidavit received it, and that he believes it has not been opened or altered since it came from the hands of the commissioner.

§ 11, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8395. Commission and return must be filed. The clerk or judge receiving and opening the commission and return must immediately file it, with the affidavit mentioned in the last two sections, in the office of the clerk of the court in which the indictment or information is pending. If the commission and return is transmitted by mail, the clerk to whom it is addressed must receive it from the post office, and open and file it in his office, where it must remain unless otherwise directed by the court.

§ 12, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8396. Same. Constitute public record. The commission and return must at all times be open to the inspection of all persons, who must be furnished a copy of the same or any part thereof, by the clerk on payment of his fees.

§ 13, sub-c. 2, c.
44, 1885.

§ 8397. Depositions may be read on trial. Depositions taken under a commission, may be read in evidence by either party on the trial, upon it being shown that the witness is unable to attend from any cause whatever; and the same objections may be taken to a question in the interrogatories, or to the answers in the deposition, as if the witness had been examined orally in court.

CHAPTER 15.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

ARTICLE 1.—INQUIRING INTO THE INSANITY OF THE DEFENDANT BEFORE TRIAL OR AFTER CONVICTION.

§ 8398. Insane person cannot be tried or punished. An act done by a person in a state of insanity cannot be punished as a public offense, nor can a person be tried, adjudged to punishment or punished for a public offense, while he is insane. § 514, C. Cr. P.

§ 8399. Doubt arising, question to be tried. When a criminal action is called for trial, or at any time during the trial, or when the defendant is brought up for judgment on conviction, if a doubt arises as to the sanity of the defendant, the court must order the question as to his sanity to be submitted to a jury; and the trial or pronouncing of the judgment must be suspended until the question is determined by their verdict, and the trial jury may be discharged or retained, at the discretion of the court, during the pendency of the issue of insanity. The jury may be impaneled from the jurors summoned and returned for the term, if not discharged, or others may be summoned by direction of the court as provided in sections 8135 to 8140, both inclusive. §§ 515, 516,
C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8400. Procedure and order of trial. The trial of the question of insanity must proceed in the following order: § 517, C. Cr. P.

1. The counsel for the defendant must open the case and offer evidence in support of the allegation of insanity.

2. The counsel for the state may then open its case and offer evidence in support thereof.

3. The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the court, for good reason, in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence upon their original case.

4. When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury on either side or on both sides, without argument, the counsel for the state must commence, and the defendant or his counsel may conclude the argument to the jury.

5. If the action is for an offense punishable with death, two counsel on each side may argue the cause to the jury, in which case they must do so alternately. If it is for any other offense, the court may, in its discretion, restrict the argument to one counsel on each side.

6. The court must then charge the jury.

§ 8401. Charge of court. Sections applicable. The provisions of sections 8181 and 8183 in respect to the duty of the court upon questions of law, and of the jury upon questions of fact, and the provisions of section 8217 in respect to the charge of the court to the jury, upon the trial of an indictment or information, apply to the question of insanity. § 518, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8402. If found sane, trial to proceed. If the jury find the defendant sane, the trial of the action must proceed, or judgment may be pronounced, as the case may be. § 519, C. Cr. P.

§ 8403. Defendant found insane. If the jury finds that the defendant is insane, the trial or judgment must be suspended until he becomes sane, and the court must order that he be, in the mean- § 520, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

time, committed by the sheriff to the state hospital for the insane, and that upon his becoming sane, he be redelivered to the sheriff.

§ 521. C. Cr. P. § 8404. Commitment exonerates bail. The commitment of the defendant as mentioned in the last section, exonerates his bail, or entitles a person authorized to receive the property of the defendant to a return of money he may have deposited instead of bail.

§ 522. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 8405. Defendant becoming sane. Procedure. If the defendant is received into the state hospital for the insane, he must be detained there until he becomes sane. When he becomes sane the superintendent must give notice of that fact to the sheriff and state's attorney of the county. The sheriff must thereupon without delay, bring the defendant from the said hospital and place him in the proper custody, until he is brought to trial or to judgment, as the case may be, or is legally discharged. The sheriff must receive the actual expenses incurred and no more.

§ 523. C. Cr. P. am'd. § 8406. Expenses, how paid. The expense of taking the defendant to the state hospital for the insane and of bringing him back shall be met and paid in the manner and as provided by law for the payment of the delivery thereto of persons admitted to said hospital by the commissioners of insanity of the county.

ARTICLE 2. — COMPENSATION FOR ATTORNEYS AND WITNESSES.

§ 1, c. 7, 1879. am'd. § 8407. Indigent defendant, attorney appointed. In all criminal actions when it is satisfactorily shown to the court that the defendant has no means, and is unable to employ counsel, the court shall appoint and assign counsel for his defense and allow and direct to be paid by the county in which such trial is had, a reasonable and just compensation to the attorney so assigned for such services as he may render; provided, however, that such attorney shall not be paid a sum to exceed twenty-five dollars in any one case.

§ 8408. Same. Witnesses subpoenaed for. Whenever it appears to the court before which a criminal action is about to be tried that the defendant is unable to pay the witnesses in his behalf, such court must make an order, to be entered in the minutes, that such witnesses, naming them, as may be deemed reasonable be subpoenaed and attend at such trial at the expense of the county liable to pay the costs of the prosecution of such action and such witnesses shall be paid accordingly.

ARTICLE 3. — COMPROMISING MISDEMEANORS BY LEAVE OF THE COURT.

§ 524. C. Cr. P. § 8409. When misdemeanor may be compromised. When a defendant is held to answer on a charge of misdemeanor, for which the person by the act constituting the offense has a remedy by a civil action, the offense may be compromised as provided in the next section, except when it was committed:

1. By or upon an officer of justice while in the execution of the duties of his office.
2. Riotously; or.
3. With an intent to commit a felony.

§ 525. C. Cr. P. § 8410. Stay of proceedings upon compromise. If the party injured appears before the court in which the trial is to be had, at any time before the trial, and acknowledges that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the court may in its discretion, on payment of the costs incurred, order all proceedings to be stayed upon the prosecution and the defendant to be discharged therefrom; but in such cases the reasons for the order must be set forth therein and entered on the minutes.

§ 8411. Order to stay is a bar. The order authorized by the § 526, C. Cr. P.
last section is a bar to another prosecution for same offense.

§ 8412. Compromise limited. No public offense can be com- § 527, C. Cr. P. promised, nor can any proceeding for the prosecution or punishment thereof, upon a compromise, be stayed, except as provided in sections 8409 and 8410.

ARTICLE 4. — CORPORATIONS, CRIMINAL ACTIONS AGAINST.

§ 8413. Magistrate. Summons, requirements of. When- § 528, C. Cr. P. ever a presentment by a grand jury or a complaint in writing is laid am'd.
before a magistrate charging a corporation within his jurisdiction, of a public offense within its ability to commit, the magistrate must file the same and thereupon issue a summons signed by him, with his name of office, requiring such corporation to appear before him to answer the charge at a specified place and time, not less than ten days after the issuance of the summons.

§ 8414. Form of summons. The summons must be in sub- § 529, C. Cr. P. stantially the following form:

State of North Dakota, {
County of..... } ss.

In the name of the state of North Dakota.

To the (naming the corporation):

You are hereby summoned to appear before me at (naming the place), on (specifying the day and hour), to answer to the charge made against you, upon the complaint of A. B., or the presentment of the grand jury of the county of for (designating the offense generally).

Dated at the city, (or town) of, the day of, 18

.....
Justice of the Peace,
(or as the case may be.)

§ 8415. Summons, manner of service. The summons must § 530, C. Cr. P. be served at least five days before the day of appearance fixed therein, by delivering a copy thereof and showing the original to the president, or other head of the corporation, or to the secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof.

§ 8416. Charge investigated. Manner of. At the time § 531, C. Cr. P. appointed in the summons, the magistrate must investigate the charge in the same manner as in the case of a natural person brought before him, so far as those proceedings are applicable.

§ 8417. Certificate of magistrate. Procedure. After hear- § 532, C. Cr. P. ing the proofs, the magistrate must certify upon the presentment or am'd.
the complaint either that there is, or is not, sufficient cause to believe the corporation guilty of the offense charged, and must return the complaint and certificate and the depositions of witnesses, if any have been taken, and exhibits together with a certified copy of the proceedings as they appear on his docket, and in the same manner as prescribed in section 7978.

§ 533, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8418. Certificate of probable cause. Procedure. If the magistrate returns a certificate that there is sufficient cause to believe the corporation guilty of the offense charged, the state's attorney may, at the next term of the district court, file an information therefor, as in the case of a natural person held to answer. The state's attorney of the county may, by leave of the court, file an information against a corporation in like manner charging it with the commission of a public offense, or the grand jury may return an indictment therefor, without any previous action on the part of a magistrate.

§ 534, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8419. Appearance of corporation. Pleas. If an information is filed or an indictment returned, the corporation may appear by counsel to answer the same. If it does not thus appear a plea of not guilty must be entered, and the same proceedings had thereon as in other cases.

§ 8420. Information filed or indictment returned. Summons. When an information is filed, without a preliminary examination, or an indictment returned against a corporation, the clerk of the district court must issue a summons in its corporate name, commanding it to appear and answer the information or indictment, and such summons must be served in the manner provided for the service of a summons in the code of civil procedure.

§ 535, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8421. Defendant's default. Plea. Fine collected. When the sheriff or other officer returns the summons with his certificate showing due service thereof, the corporation, on and after the day appointed in such summons for its appearance, must be considered in default, and the court must order the clerk to enter the plea of not guilty for said corporation in the minutes of the court, and all further proceedings shall be had in said action as if the corporation had appeared and pleaded not guilty to the information or indictment; and if upon the trial the corporation is found guilty, the court must impose a fine upon it as prescribed by law and enter judgment for the amount of such fine and the costs of said action in the same manner as on a judgment in a civil action.

ARTICLE 5. — ENTITLING AFFIDAVITS.

§ 536, C. Cr. P.

§ 8422. Affidavits need not be entitled. It is not necessary to entitle an affidavit or deposition in an action, whether taken before or after information or indictment or upon an appeal; but if made without a title or with an erroneous title, it is as valid and effectual for every purpose as if it were duly entitled, if it intelligibly refers to the proceedings, information, indictment or appeal in which it is made.

ARTICLE 6. — ERRORS AND MISTAKES IN PLEADINGS OR OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

§ 537, C. Cr. P.

§ 8423. Informalities in pleadings not fatal. Neither a departure from the form or mode prescribed in this code in respect to any pleadings or proceeding, nor an error or mistake therein, renders it invalid, unless it has actually prejudiced the defendant or tended to his prejudice, in respect to a substantial right.

ARTICLE 7. — DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY STOLEN OR EMBEZZLED.

§ 8424. Stolen property to be held by officer. When § 538, C. Cr. P. property alleged to have been stolen or embezzled, comes into the custody of a peace officer, he must hold it subject to the order of the magistrate authorized by the next section to direct the disposal thereof.

§ 8425. Magistrate to give order for delivery. On satis- § 539, C. Cr. P. factory proof of the title of the owner of the property, the magistrate before whom the complaint is laid, or who examines the charge against the person accused of stealing or embezzling the property, may order it to be delivered to the owner on his paying the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the magistrate. The order entitles the owner to demand and receive the property. am'd.

§ 8426. Magistrate. Property stolen. Delivery. If prop- § 540, C. Cr. P.
erty stolen or embezzled comes into the custody of a magistrate, it must be delivered to the owner on satisfactory proof of his title, and on his paying the necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, to be certified by the magistrate.

§ 8427. Court may order delivery. If property stolen or § 541, C. Cr. P. embezzled has not been delivered to the owner, the court before which a trial is had for stealing or embezzling it, may, on proof of his title, order it to be restored to the owner.

§ 8428. Not claimed in six months. County treasurer. § 542, C. Cr. P.
If the property stolen or embezzled is not claimed by the owner before the expiration of six months from the conviction of a person for stealing or embezzling it, the magistrate or officer having it in custody must on the payment of the necessary expenses incurred in its preservation, deliver it to the county treasurer, by whom, if it is money, it must be paid into the county treasury, or if it is not money, it must be sold and the proceeds paid into such treasury. am'd.

§ 8429. Receipt to accused. Clerk. Magistrate. When § 543, C. Cr. P. money or other property is taken from a defendant arrested upon a charge of a public offense, the officer taking it must at the time give duplicate receipts therefor, specifying particularly the amount of the money, or the kind of property taken, one of which receipts he must deliver to the defendant, and the other of which he must forthwith file with the clerk of the court to which the complaint and other papers in the case are, by law, required to be sent. When such property is taken by a police officer of any incorporated city or town, he must deliver one of the receipts to the defendant, and one, with the property, at once to the clerk or other person in charge of the police office in such city or town, or, if there is no such clerk or other person, then to the magistrate before whom such defendant may be taken for examination or trial. am'd.

§ 8430. Duty of clerk or magistrate. The said clerk or other person or magistrate must enter in a suitable book every amount of money and a description of every article of property taken from each person so arrested, and must attach a number to every amount of money and every article of property and make a corresponding entry thereof, but when the receipt and property, as provided in the last section, are delivered to a magistrate it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions hereof if the entries are made in his docket.

ARTICLE 8.—REPRIEVES, COMMUTATIONS AND PARDONS.

- § 545, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8431. Governor may grant. The governor of this state has the power to remit fines and forfeitures; to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons, after conviction for all offenses, except treason and in cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and with such restrictions and limitations as he may think proper; provided, application therefor is made in the manner prescribed in this article, and not otherwise.
- § 546, C. Cr. P. § 8432. Same. Treason. Legislative assembly. The governor also has the power to, and may, suspend the execution of a sentence upon a conviction for treason, until the case can be reported to the legislative assembly at its next regular session, when the legislative assembly may either pardon or commute the sentence, direct the execution thereof or grant a further reprieve.
- § 547, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8433. Governor must report. Contents. The governor must communicate to the legislative assembly at the beginning of each regular session thereof, each case of remission of fine or forfeiture and commutation or pardon granted since the last report, stating the name of the person relieved, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence and its date and his action thereon with his reasons for granting the relief.
- § 548, C. Cr. P. § 8434. Application for pardon. Report required. When an application is made to the governor for a pardon, he may require the presiding judge of the court before which the conviction was had, or the state's attorney by whom the action was prosecuted, to furnish him, without delay, with a statement of the facts proved on the trial, and of any other facts having reference to the propriety of granting the pardon.
- § 1, c. 88, 1883.
am'd. § 8435. Application for pardon restricted. All applications for pardons on behalf of any person or persons convicted in any court in this state, of any crime, punishable under the laws thereof by imprisonment in the penitentiary, and sentenced to such imprisonment, shall be made and conducted in the manner hereinafter prescribed.
- § 2, c. 88, 1883.
am'd. § 8436. Notices. Service. Publication. Contents. Notice of the application for such pardon shall be given to the judge who presided at the trial, or his successor in office and the state's attorney, or his successor in office, of the county, who prosecuted the action against such person or persons so convicted and sentenced, at least thirty days before such application is filed with the governor; the service of such notice upon the judge and state's attorney shall be made, and the return thereof certified in the same manner as now prescribed for the service of summons in the district court, and such certificate of service shall accompany every application to the governor. A notice of such application, setting forth the name, age and sex of the person or persons on whose behalf it is made, the crime of which he was convicted, and the time and place of such conviction and the term of imprisonment, shall also be published at least once a week for four consecutive weeks, in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the offense for which a pardon is sought was committed; or if there is no newspaper published therein, then such notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the door of the courthouse of such county for four consecutive weeks prior to the application. The affidavit of the publisher of such newspaper, or the person posting such notice showing that said notice has been published or posted as herein provided, shall also accompany such application.

§ 8437. Who may contest pardon. Notice of. Any person or persons feeling aggrieved by the application for a pardon may contest the same, and for that purpose may appear in person before the governor during the consideration of said application and show cause, by written or oral testimony, why such pardon should not be granted. In case any person objects and desires to contest such application, he may at any time before the same is considered by the governor notify him, in writing, of such desire, and, upon receipt by the governor of any such notice, it shall be his duty to fix a time and place for the hearing of such application and objections, and give reasonable notice thereof to all persons interested and applying or objecting, and such notice may be by mail or publication in the discretion of the governor. § 3, c. 88, 1883.

§ 8438. Governor may make additional rules. The governor may in his discretion make such additional rules and regulations governing applications for pardons as may from time to time seem to him best, not in conflict with the provisions of this article; but the provisions of this article shall not apply to the applications for pardon to be granted within thirty days before the time when the convict would otherwise be legally entitled to discharge. § 4, c. 88, 1883.

§ 8439. Papers filed with the secretary of state. When the governor grants a reprieve, commutation or pardon, he must, within ten days thereafter, file all the papers presented to him in relation thereto, in the office of the secretary of state, by whom they must be kept as records open to public inspection. § 551, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8440. Governor may restore to citizenship. The governor is hereby empowered to restore to citizenship any person convicted of any offense committed against the state, upon cause being shown, either after the execution or expiration of sentence or at any other time.

§ 8441. Form of reprieve and pardon. Each and every remission of a fine or forfeiture and each and every reprieve, commutation, pardon or restoration to citizenship shall be issued by the governor under his official signature and attested by the secretary of state under the great seal of the state.

§ 8442. Governor may issue warrant. The governor is hereby empowered to issue his warrant to all proper officers to carry into effect any act which he has power to do and which is regulated in this article and all such officers are hereby required to obey such warrant.

ARTICLE 9. — BAIL.

§ 8443. Admission to bail defined. Admission to bail is the order of a competent court or magistrate that the defendant be discharged from actual custody upon an undertaking with sufficient sureties for his appearance.

§ 8444. Taking of bail defined. The taking of bail consists of the acceptance, by a competent court or magistrate, or legally authorized officer, of the undertaking with sufficient sureties for the appearance of the defendant in person, according to the terms of the undertaking or that the sureties will pay to the state a specified sum.

§ 8445. When bail must be taken. Bail by sufficient sureties, shall be admitted upon all arrests in criminal actions when the offense is not punishable by death, and in such actions it may be taken by any competent court, magistrate or legally authorized officer.

§ 8446. Bail upon capital charge. Bail by sufficient sureties may be admitted upon arrests in criminal actions when the offense is punishable by death unless the proof of guilt is evident or the presumption thereof great. In such actions it shall be taken only by the supreme court or a judge thereof, or by a district court or a judge thereof, and the taking thereof shall be discretionary, regard being had to the nature and circumstances of the offense and to the evidence and to the usages of law. The finding of an indictment or the filing of an information does not add to the strength of the proof or the presumption to be drawn therefrom. In case the action has been tried by jury, and the jury have not agreed on a verdict and have been discharged by reason of inability to agree, then the defendant shall be entitled to bail, unless it shall appear to the court or judge, by proof, that such disagreement was occasioned by the misconduct of the jury or the defendant or his counsel.

§ 8447. Bail on appeal after conviction. After a conviction of an offense not punishable with death, a defendant who has appealed may be admitted to bail:

1. As a matter of right, when the appeal is from a judgment imposing a fine only.

2. As a matter of discretion in all other cases.

§ 8448. Before conviction. After conviction. If the offense is bailable the defendant may be admitted to bail before conviction:

1. For his appearance before the magistrate during the pendency of a trial or on the examination of the charge before being held to answer.

2. To appear before the court to which the magistrate holds him to appear upon the defendant being held to answer after examination.

3. After information filed or indictment found, either before the warrant is issued for his arrest, or upon any order of the court committing him or increasing the amount of bail, or upon his being surrendered by his bail to answer the information or indictment in the court in which it is filed or found, or to which it may be transferred for trial.

And after conviction:

1. If the appeal is from a judgment imposing a fine only, on an undertaking of bail that he will pay the same or such part thereof as the appellate court may direct, if the judgment is affirmed or modified, or the appeal is dismissed.

2. If a judgment of imprisonment has been given, that he will surrender himself in execution of the judgment, upon its being affirmed or modified, or upon the appeal being dismissed, or that in case the judgment is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial, he will appear in the court to which said cause may be remanded, and submit himself to the orders and process thereof.

§ 8449. Qualifications of bail. Justification. The qualifications of bail are the same as those in civil cases, and the sureties must in all cases justify by affidavits taken before the magistrate, court or judge, that they each possess those qualifications.

§ 8450. Bail taken. Order of discharge. Upon the allowance of bail and the execution of the requisite undertaking to the state, the court under whose process he is held, or the magistrate or other officer must, if the defendant is in custody, make and sign an order for his discharge, upon the delivery of which to the officer having him in custody, the defendant must be discharged.

§ 556, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8451. Deposit for bail. A deposit of the sum of money mentioned in the order admitting to bail, is equivalent to bail, and upon such deposit the defendant must be discharged from custody. If the defendant has given bail, he may at any time before the forfeiture of the undertaking, in like manner deposit the sum mentioned therein, and upon the deposit being made the bail is exonerated. Every deposit of money under the provisions of this section shall be with the clerk of the court in which the defendant is held to answer.

§ 557, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8452. Notice to state's attorney. When the admission to bail is a matter of discretion, the court, magistrate or officer to whom the application is made, must require reasonable notice thereof to be given to the state's attorney of the county.

§ 8453. Who may take bail. In every case when there is no provision of law authorizing a court, magistrate or other officer to take bail, the same may be taken by the supreme court or a judge thereof, or by the district court of the county in which the offense for which the defendant is arrested is triable, or by the judge thereof.

§ 8454. Form of undertaking of bail. Bail is put in by a written undertaking, executed by at least two sufficient sureties (with or without the defendant in the discretion of the court, or judge or magistrate), and acknowledged in substantially the following form:

"An order having been made (or an information having been filed, or an indictment having been found), on the day of 18.... by justice of the peace of county (or an information filed or an indictment found in the district court of the district in and for the county of), that be held to answer upon a charge of (stating briefly the nature of the offense) or, (as the case may be), charging (name of defendant) with the crime of (designating it generally) and he having been admitted to bail in the sum of dollars;

Now, therefore, we, and (as the fact may be,) of (stating their place of residence and occupation), jointly and severally, hereby undertake that the above named (naming the defendant) will appear and answer the charge above mentioned (or the information or indictment above mentioned, as the case may be) in whatever court it may be presented, and will at all times hold (or surrender) himself amenable to the orders and process of the court, and if convicted, will appear for judgment, and render himself in execution thereof, or, if he fails to perform either of these conditions, that he will pay to the state of North Dakota the sum of dollars, (inserting the sum in which the defendant is admitted to bail.)

§ 8455. Who may make order admitting to bail on appeal. In cases in which the defendant may be admitted to bail upon an appeal, the order admitting him to bail may only be made by the supreme court or a judge thereof or the district court before which the trial was had or the judge presiding at such trial. The bail must possess the qualification, and must be put in, in all respects as provided in other cases of bail, except that the undertaking must be conditioned as prescribed in section 8447 for undertakings of bail on appeal.

§ 558. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8456. Defendant may be arrested by his bail. Any person charged with a public offense and admitted to bail may be arrested by his bail at any time before they are finally discharged, and at any place within the state; or by a written authority indorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking of bail, they may empower any officer or person of suitable age and discretion to do so, and he may be surrendered and delivered to the proper sheriff or other officer, before any court, judge or magistrate having the requisite jurisdiction in the case; and at the request of such bail, the court, judge or magistrate shall recommit the party so arrested to the custody of the sheriff or other officer, and indorse on the undertaking of bail or certified copy thereof, after notice to the state's attorney, and if no cause to the contrary appears, the discharge and exoneration of such bail; and the party so committed shall be held in custody until discharged by due course of law.

§ 559. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8457. Forfeiture of bail. Excuse. If, without sufficient excuse, any person who has given an undertaking in a criminal action or proceeding neglects to appear according to the terms or conditions of the same, either as a witness or for hearing, arraignment, trial or judgment, or upon any other occasion when his presence in court, or before the magistrate may be lawfully required, or to surrender himself in execution of the judgment, the court must direct the matters to be entered upon its minutes and the undertaking of bail, or the money deposited instead of bail, as the case may be, is and shall be thereupon declared forfeited, but, if at any time before the final adjournment of the court, such person or his bail appears and satisfactorily excuses his neglect the court may direct the forfeiture to be discharged upon such terms as may be just. After the forfeiture, the state's attorney must proceed with all due diligence by action against the bail jointly or severally in his discretion upon the undertaking so forfeited. If money instead of bail is so forfeited, the clerk of the court or other officer with whom it is deposited, must immediately after the final adjournment, or at such time as the court may direct, pay over the money deposited to the county treasurer.

§ 560. C. Cr. P.

§ 8458. Additional security may be required. When proof is made to any court, judge or other magistrate having authority to commit on criminal charges, that a person previously admitted to bail on any such charge is about to abscond, or that his bail is insufficient, or has removed from the state, the judge or magistrate shall require such person to give better security, or for default thereof cause him to be committed to prison; and an order for his arrest may be indorsed on the former commitment, or a new warrant therefor may be issued by such judge or magistrate, setting forth the cause thereof.

§ 8459. Action on undertaking. Defects not fatal. No action brought on an undertaking of bail is barred or defeated, nor shall judgment thereon be arrested by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety at the term or session when such default happened, nor by reason of any defect in the form of the undertaking, if it sufficiently appears, from the tenor thereof, at what court the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the court or magistrate before whom it was taken, was authorized and required to take the same.

§ 8460. When surety may be discharged. Any surety on such undertaking may be discharged from further liability thereon, at any time before final judgment against him, by surrendering to the court or proper officer the principal in such undertaking, if such principal is a defendant in a criminal action, or if such principal is held as a witness in such action and it has not been tried; or by paying to the clerk of the court the amount specified in such undertaking, with such costs as the court may direct.

ARTICLE 10.—SEARCH WARRANTS.

§ 8461. Search warrant defined. A search warrant is an order in writing, in the name of the state, signed by a magistrate, directed to a peace officer, commanding him to search for personal property and bring it before the magistrate. § 561, C. Cr. P.

§ 8462. Grounds for its issue. It may be issued upon either of the following grounds: § 562, C. Cr. P.

1. When the property was stolen or embezzled, in which case it may be taken on the warrant, from any house or other place in which it is concealed, or from the possession of the person by whom it was stolen or embezzled, or of any other person in whose possession it may be.

2. When it was used as the means of committing a felony, in which case it may be taken on the warrant from any house or other place in which it is concealed, or from the possession of the person by whom it was used in the commission of the offense, or of any other person in whose possession it may be.

3. When it is in the possession of any person, with the intent to use it as the means of committing a public offense, or in the possession of another to whom he may have delivered it for the purpose of concealing it or preventing its being discovered, in which case it may be taken on the warrant from such person, or from a house or other place occupied by him, or under his control, or from the possession of the person to whom he may have so delivered it.

§ 8463. Only upon probable cause. A search warrant cannot be issued but upon probable cause, supported by affidavit, naming or describing the person, and particularly describing the property and the place to be searched. § 563, C. Cr. P.

§ 8464. Sworn complaint must be made. The magistrate must, before issuing the warrant, examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses he may produce, and take their depositions in writing, and cause them to be subscribed by the parties making them. The depositions must set forth the facts tending to establish the grounds of the application or probable cause for believing that they exist. § 564, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8465. Requisites of warrant. If the magistrate is thereupon satisfied of the existence of grounds of the application, or that there is probable cause to believe their existence, he must issue a search warrant, signed by him with his name of office, to a peace officer in his county, commanding him forthwith to search the person or place named, for the property specified, and to bring it before the magistrate, and also to arrest the person in whose possession the same may be found, to be dealt with according to law. § 565, C. Cr. P.

§ 566. C. Cr. P. § 8466. Form of search warrant. The warrant must be in substantially the following form:

State of North Dakota, }
County of..... } ss.

In the name of the state of North Dakota:

To any sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman in the county of Proof by affidavit having been this day made before me by (naming every person whose affidavit has been taken), the (stating the particular grounds of the application according to section 8462, or if the affidavit is not positive), that there is probable cause for believing that (stating the grounds of the application in the same manner).

You are therefore commanded, in the day time (or "at any time of the day or night," as the case may be, according to section 8470 to make immediate search on the person of C. D.), (or "in the house situated," describing it, or any other place to be searched, with reasonable particularity, as the case may be), for the following property (describing it with reasonable particularity), and if you find the same, or any part thereof, to bring it forthwith before me, at (stating the place).

Dated at.....the.....day of.....18....

Justice of the peace of the city (or town) of.....

(or as the case may be).

§ 567. C. Cr. P. § 8467. By whom served. A search warrant may in all cases be served by any of the officers mentioned in its direction, but by no other person except in aid of the officer, on his requiring it, he being present, and acting in its execution.

§ 568. C. Cr. P. § 8468. Officer may break open door. The officer may break open an outer or inner door or window of a house, or any part of the house, or anything therein, to execute the warrant, if, after notice of his authority and purpose, he is refused admittance.

§ 569. C. Cr. P. § 8469. Same for liberating assistant. He may break open any outer or inner door or window of a house for the purpose of liberating a person who, having entered to aid him in the execution of the warrant, is detained therein, or when necessary for his own liberation.

§ 570. C. Cr. P. § 8470. When warrant may be served at night. The magistrate must insert a direction in the warrant that it be served in the daytime, unless the affidavits be positive that the property is on the person or in the place to be searched. In which case he may insert a direction that it be served at any time of the day or night.

§ 571. C. Cr. P. § 8471. Warrant void after ten days. A search warrant must be executed and returned to the magistrate by whom it was issued within ten days. After the expiration of that time the warrant, unless executed, is void.

§ 572. C. Cr. P. § 8472. How property disposed of. When the property is delivered to the magistrate, he must, if it was stolen or embezzled, dispose of it as provided in sections 8426 to 8429, both inclusive. If it was taken on a warrant issued on the grounds stated in the second and third subdivisions of section 8462, he must retain it in his possession, subject to the order of the court to which he is required to return the proceedings before him, or of any other court in which the offense, in respect to which the property was taken, is triable.

§ 8473. Return of warrant. The officer must forthwith return the warrant to the magistrate, and deliver to him a written inventory of the property taken, made publicly or in the presence of the person from whose possession it was taken, and of the applicant for the warrant, if they are present, verified by the affidavit of the officer, and taken before the magistrate, to the following effect: § 573, C. Cr. P.

I, A. B., the officer by whom this warrant was executed, do swear that the above inventory contains a true and detailed account of all the property taken by me on the warrant.

§ 8474. Copy of inventory. The magistrate must thereupon, if required, deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whose possession the property was taken, and to the applicant for the warrant. § 574, C. Cr. P.

§ 8475. Complaint controverted. If the grounds on which the warrant was issued are controverted, the magistrate must proceed to take testimony in relation thereto. § 575, C. Cr. P.

§ 8476. How testimony taken. The testimony given by each witness must be reduced to writing and authenticated in the manner prescribed in sections 7960 and 7962. § 576, C. Cr. P.

§ 8477. When property to be restored. If it appears that the property taken is not the same as that described in the warrant, or that there is no probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued, the magistrate must cause it to be restored to the person from whom it was taken. § 577, C. Cr. P.

§ 8478. Papers to be returned to district court. The magistrate must annex together the depositions, the search warrant and return and the inventory, and return them to the next term of the district court having authority and jurisdiction to inquire into the offense in respect to which the search warrant was issued, at or before its opening on the first day. § 578, C. Cr. P.

§ 8479. Procuring search warrant without cause. A person who maliciously and without probable cause, procures a search warrant to be issued and executed, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 579, C. Cr. P.

§ 8480. Officer exceeding his authority. A peace officer in executing a search warrant, who willfully exceeds his authority, or exercises it with unnecessary severity, is guilty of a misdemeanor. § 580, C. Cr. P.

§ 8481. Search of accused for dangerous weapons. When a person charged with a felony is supposed by the magistrate before whom he is brought to have upon his person a dangerous weapon, or anything which may be used as evidence of the commission of the offense, the magistrate may direct him to be searched in his presence, and the weapon or other thing to be retained, subject to his order or the order of the court in which the defendant may be tried. § 581, C. Cr. P.

ARTICLE 11.—PROCEEDINGS AGAINST FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

§ 8482. Governor may offer reward for criminal. The governor may offer a reward not exceeding one thousand dollars, payable out of the state treasury, for the apprehension: § 582, C. Cr. P.

1. Of any convict who has escaped from the penitentiary; or,
2. Of any person who has committed, or is charged with the commission of an offense punishable with death.

§ 8483. Delivery of fugitives upon requisition. A person charged in any state or territory of the United States with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice and be found in § 583, C. Cr. P.

this state, must, on demand of the executive authority of the state or territory from which he fled, be delivered up by the governor of this state, to be removed to the state or territory having jurisdiction of the crime.

§ 584, C. Cr. P. § 8484. Magistrate to issue warrant. A magistrate may issue a warrant for the apprehension of a person so charged, who shall flee from justice and be found within this state.

§ 585, C. Cr. P. § 8485. Proceedings for arrest and commitment. The proceedings for the arrest and commitment of a person charged, are in all respects similar to those provided in this code for the arrest and commitment of a person charged with a public offense committed in this state. Except that an exemplified copy of an indictment found, or other judicial proceedings had against him in the state or territory in which he is charged to have committed the offense, may be received as evidence before the magistrate.

§ 586, C. Cr. P. § 8486. Accused may be committed. Time. If from the examination it appears that the accused has committed the crime alleged, the magistrate, by warrant reciting the accusation must commit him to the proper custody of his county, for such time to be specified in the warrant, as the magistrate may deem reasonable, to enable the arrest of the fugitive under the warrant of the executive of this state, on the requisition of the executive authority of the state or territory in which he committed the offense, unless he gives bail as provided in the next section, or until he is legally discharged.

§ 587, C. Cr. P. § 8487. Accused may be admitted to bail. The magistrate may admit the person arrested to bail by an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, for his appearance before him at a time specified in the undertaking, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state.

§ 588, C. Cr. P. § 8488. Notice to state's attorney. Immediately upon the arrest of the person charged, the magistrate must give notice to the state's attorney.

§ 589, C. Cr. P. § 8489. Duty of state's attorney. The state's attorney must, immediately thereafter, give notice to the executive authority of the state or territory, or to the prosecuting attorney or presiding judge of the criminal court of the city or county therein, having jurisdiction of the offense, to the end that a demand may be made for the arrest and surrender of the person charged.

§ 590, C. Cr. P. § 8490. When accused must be discharged. The person arrested must be discharged from custody or bail, unless before the expiration of the time designated in the warrant or undertaking he is arrested under the warrant of the governor of this state.

§ 591, C. Cr. P. § 8491. Magistrate to make return. Duty of district court. The magistrate must return his proceedings to the next district court of the county, which must thereupon inquire into the cause of the arrest and detention of the person charged, and if he is in custody, or the time for his arrest has not elapsed, it may discharge him from detention, or may order his undertaking of bail to be canceled, or continue his detention for a longer time, or readmit him to bail, to appear and surrender himself within a time specified in the undertaking.

§ 1, c. 57, 1887. § 8492. Fugitive granted twenty-four hours. Counsel. Habeas corpus. Any person who is arrested within this state, by virtue of a warrant issued by the governor of this state upon a requisition of the governor of any other state or territory, as a fugitive from justice, under the laws of the United States, shall not be delivered to the agent of such state or territory until notified of the demand made for his surrender, and given twenty-four hours to make demand for counsel; and should such demand be made for the purpose of suing out a writ of habeas corpus, the prisoner shall be forthwith taken to the nearest judge of the district court, and ample time given to sue out such writ, such time to be determined by the said judge of the district court.

§ 8493. Penalty for disobedience to last section. Any officer who shall deliver such person to such agent for extradition without first having complied with the provisions of the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. § 2, c. 57, 1887.

§ 8494. Governor may demand fugitives from this state. The governor of this state may in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, demand of the executive authority of any other state or territory within the United States, any fugitive from justice or any person charged with the commission of treason, felony or other crime in this state, and appoint agents to receive such person for and on behalf of this state. The account of any such agent or agents employed for such purposes must be paid out of the state treasury. § 592, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8495. No compensation allowed. Exceptions. No compensation, fee or reward of any kind, can be paid to, or received by a public officer of this state, for a service rendered or expense incurred in procuring from the governor the demand mentioned in the last section, or the surrender of the fugitive, or for conveying him to this state, or detaining him herein, except as provided in section 8494. § 593, C. Cr. P.

§ 8496. Violation a misdemeanor. A violation of the last section is a misdemeanor. § 594, C. Cr. P.

ARTICLE 12. — DISMISSAL OF THE ACTION BEFORE OR AFTER INFORMATION OR INDICTMENT FOUND FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION.

§ 8497. Prosecution to be dismissed. Information. Indictment. The court, unless good cause to the contrary is shown, must order the prosecution to be dismissed in the following cases: §§ 595, 596, C. Cr. P. am'd.

1. When a person has been held to answer for a public offense, if an information is not filed or an indictment found against him at the next regular term of the district court.

2. If a defendant whose trial has not been postponed upon his application is not brought to trial at the next term of the district court in which the information or indictment is triable after it is filed if an information, or if an indictment after it is found.

§ 8498. Court may order a continuance. If the defendant is not prosecuted or tried, as provided in the last section, and sufficient reason therefor is shown, the court may order the action to be continued from term to term, and in the meantime may discharge the defendant from custody, on his own undertaking or on an undertaking of bail for his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the action is continued. § 597, C. Cr. P.

§ 8499. Action dismissed. Effect of. If the court directs the action to be dismissed, the defendant must, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail, his bail is exonerated, or money deposited instead of bail must be refunded to him. § 598, C. Cr. P.

- § 599, C. Cr. P. § 8500. Reasons for dismissal set forth in order. The court may, either of its own motion or upon the application of the state's attorney, and in furtherance of justice, order an action, information or indictment to be dismissed; but in that case the reasons of the dismissal must be set forth in the order, which must be entered on the minutes.
- § 600, C. Cr. P. § 8501. Nolle prosequi abolished. The entry of a nolle prosequi is abolished, and the state's attorney cannot discontinue or abandon a prosecution for a public offense, except as provided in the last section.
- § 601, C. Cr. P. § 8502. Dismissal not a bar. An order for the dismissal of the action, as provided in this article, is not a bar to any other prosecution for the same offense.

CHAPTER 16.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE TO THIS CODE.

- § 602, C. Cr. P. § 8503. Rule of construction of code. The rule of common law that penal statutes are to be strictly construed, has no application to this code. This code establishes the law of this state respecting the subjects to which it relates, and its provisions and all proceedings under it are to be liberally construed, with a view to promote its objects, and in furtherance of justice.
- § 603, C. Cr. P. § 8504. Code not retroactive. No part of this code is retroactive unless expressly so declared.
- § 604, C. Cr. P. § 8505. Construction of certain words. Unless when otherwise provided, words used in this code in the present tense include the future as well as the present. Words used in the masculine comprehend as well the feminine and neuter. The singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular. And the word "person" includes a corporation as well as a natural person.
- § 605, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8506. What writing includes. The term "writing," includes printing and typewriting.
- § 606, C. Cr. P. § 8507. What oath includes. The term "oath," includes an affirmation.
- § 607, C. Cr. P. § 8508. What signature includes. The term "signature," includes a mark when the person cannot write, his name being written near it, and the mark being witnessed by a person who writes his own name as a witness, except to an affidavit or deposition, or a paper executed before a judicial officer, in which case the attestation of the officer is sufficient.
- § 608, C. Cr. P. § 8509. To what this code applies. This code applies to criminal actions and to all other proceedings in criminal cases which are herein provided for.
am'd. § 8510. Common law prevails when code silent. The procedure, practice and pleadings in the district courts of this state, in criminal actions or in matters of a criminal nature, not specially provided for in this code, shall be in accordance with the procedure, practice and pleadings under the common law.

§ 8511. County, subdivision and judicial subdivision defined. Whenever the terms, "county," "subdivision" or "judicial subdivision" are employed in this code, in defining or describing the territorial or local jurisdiction of any magistrate or court, or in restraining, enlarging or otherwise conferring authority upon any court, officer or person of this state, they are deemed to be employed in the same sense and interchangeably, except when a different sense plainly appears: as for example:

1. The term "county" when so employed includes an organized county, or an organized county and such unorganized counties or other territory or parts of this state as now are or as may be hereafter, by law, attached to such organized county for judicial purposes.

2. The term "subdivision" when so employed includes an organized county, or an organized county and such unorganized county or counties, or other territory or parts of this state, as now are or as may be hereafter, by law, attached to such organized county for judicial purposes.

3. The term "judicial subdivision" when so employed, includes an organized county or an organized county and such unorganized county or counties, or other territory or parts of this state, as now are or as may be hereafter, by law, attached to such organized county for judicial purposes.

CHAPTER 17.

THE PENITENTIARY AND STATE REFORM SCHOOL.

ARTICLE 1.—THE PENITENTIARY.

§ 8512. Penitentiary at Bismarck. Continuation and use. The penitentiary located at Bismarck in the county of Burleigh, shall continue to be the general penitentiary and prison of this state, for the punishment and reformation of offenders against the laws thereof, and in which shall be securely confined, employed and governed in the manner provided by law, all offenders who have been or may be convicted or sentenced according to law, to the punishment of imprisonment or confinement therein. §§ 1, 10, c. 30, Sp. 1883, am'd.

§ 8513. Within jurisdiction of Burleigh county. The said penitentiary and the grounds and precincts thereof, for the purpose of all judicial proceedings shall be deemed to be within and a part of the county of Burleigh, and the courts of said county shall have jurisdiction of all crimes or public offenses committed within the same. § 11, c. 30, Sp. 1883, am'd.

§ 8514. Who may serve process within. All process to be served within the grounds or precincts of said penitentiary, either upon persons confined therein or committed thereto, or upon persons or officers employed within the grounds or precincts of said penitentiary, except the warden, shall be served and returned by the warden; provided, that all persons committed to the penitentiary, and all persons or officers in charge of or caring for, any inmates or persons committed to said penitentiary, at any place, shall be deemed to be § 12, c. 30, Sp. 1883, am'd.

within the grounds and precincts thereof. All officers and employees of the penitentiary shall be exempt from serving upon juries in any of the courts of this state.

ARTICLE 2. — STATE REFORM SCHOOL.

§ 1, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8515. State reform school at Mandan. Continuation and use. The state reform school located at Mandan in the county of Morton, shall continue to be the general reform and industrial school of the state for the detention, instruction and reformation of such juvenile offenders against the laws and good order thereof, of both sexes under the age of eighteen years as may be committed to it according to law for detention, instruction and discipline therein.

§ 8516. Within jurisdiction of Morton county. The said state reform school and the grounds and precincts thereof, for the purpose of all judicial proceedings shall be deemed to be within and a part of the county of Morton, and the courts of said county shall have jurisdiction of all crimes or public offenses committed within the same.

§ 8517. Who may serve process. All process to be served within the grounds or precincts of such reform school, either upon persons detained thereat or committed thereto or upon officers or persons employed within the grounds or precincts thereof, except the superintendent, shall be served and returned by such superintendent; provided, that all officers or persons in charge of or caring for, any inmate or person committed to such reform school, at any place, shall be deemed to be within its grounds and precincts. All officers and employees of the reform school shall be exempt from serving upon juries in any of the courts of this state.

ARTICLE 3. — GOVERNING BOARDS, THEIR APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATION, ORGANIZATION AND DUTIES.

§ 2, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
§ 1, c. 93, 1889.
§ 1, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8518. Board of management. Penitentiary. Reform school. The said penitentiary and the said reform school shall each be governed by a separate board of trustees consisting of five members to be appointed by the governor as hereinafter in this article provided, and the term of office of each trustee (except as otherwise in this article specified) shall be four years commencing on the first Tuesday of April next succeeding his appointment.

§ 1, c. 93, 1889.
§ 2, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8519. How trustees appointed. Terms. Vacancy. The governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint, during the regular session of the legislative assembly held in 1895, five trustees of each of such institutions, of whom two shall be designated to hold their offices for the term of two years and three for the term of four years. The governor at each regular session of the legislative assembly thereafter shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint trustees of such institutions in place of those whose terms shall thereafter first expire. Each trustee shall hold his office until his successor is appointed and qualified; provided, that the governor may fill any vacancy in either of said boards by appointment to extend only to the first Tuesday of April succeeding the next regular session of the legislative assembly; and provided, further, that the governor shall, during such next regular session of the legislative assembly, nominate.

and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, appoint a trustee to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term unexpired. No more than two members of either of such boards shall be appointed from the same county.

§ 8520. How trustees qualify. Bond. Oath. Each of said trustees shall, before entering upon the duties of his appointment, execute a bond, jointly and severally with two or more sureties to be approved by the governor as to sufficiency and by the attorney general as to form in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, to the state of North Dakota and conditioned to the effect that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by said appointment according to law, and shall take and subscribe an oath to be indorsed upon said bond or appended thereto, that he will support the constitution of the United States, the constitution of the state of North Dakota and faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his said appointment according to law and to the best of his ability, and said bond and oath shall be filed and retained in the office of the state treasurer. § 3, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8521. Sessions of boards. Compensation. Payment. One session of each of said boards of trustees shall be held each month at the institution under its charge, and the sessions of either board shall not in any year exceed twenty-four days in the aggregate, but the governor may, when deemed necessary, call or authorize additional sessions of either board or limit its sessions to less than twenty-four days in the aggregate each year. Each trustee shall receive three dollars per day for each day necessarily employed in attendance upon said sessions and all traveling expenses necessarily incurred therein, to be paid upon the presentation of the proper vouchers containing an itemized statement of the number of days attendance and money actually expended as above provided, duly verified by his oath and approved by the president or secretary of the board; and the state auditor shall audit said claims and draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount allowed, to be paid out of the state treasury. §§ 3, 4, c. 93, 1889.
am'd.

§ 8522. Presidents of boards. Records. Visiting trustee. Duties. At the first session of either board of trustees after the appointment of new members for a full term the trustees shall choose one of their number president of the board. Each board of trustees shall keep regular records of its meetings and proceedings which shall be signed by its president and attested by its secretary, and each board shall have power from time to time, as may be deemed necessary, to appoint some member of the board as visiting trustee, and it shall be the duty of such visiting trustee, at least once in each month, to visit the institution of which he is trustee, without previous notice to the officers thereof, and inspect the books and all its concerns and ascertain whether the officers are competent and faithful and the inmates properly governed, cared for and employed, and said visiting trustee shall have power to direct any alteration or change in such matters with the assent of the board of trustees. § 16, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
§ 7, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8523. Duties of boards. Inspect buildings. Examine inmates. Such boards of trustees respectively shall at each regular session thereof, carefully inspect the buildings, rooms, grounds and precincts of the institution under its charge, and inquire into and examine all matters connected with the government, discipline and management thereof, the punishment and employment of the inmates; and they may, from time to time, require reports from the officers in regard to any and all of said matters. Each board of trustees shall also inquire into any improper conduct alleged to have been committed by any officer or employee and for that purpose the president of the board, by direction of the board to be entered in the records of its proceedings, is hereby empowered to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books and writings before said board, in the same manner and with like effect as any officer or court of this state. And the said trustees may examine witnesses and persons appearing before said board, on oath, to be administered by the president of the board, or in his absence, by any other member thereof.

§ 8, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
§ 7, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8524. General reports. Contents. Special reports.

Each of such boards shall make full and complete reports to the governor, to be by him communicated to the legislative assembly at each regular session, of all its doings, and the matters pertaining to the institution under its charge, specifying the number of officers and persons employed at the same and in what capacity and the amount paid to each, and shall also give in detail a statement of the entire business of such institution for the preceding two years including receipts from all sources and all expenditures and for what services or material the same were made, and also all the matters pertaining to the general business, improvement and discipline of such institution: also a full statement of the number of persons committed to and received into the same, and from what county received and for what crimes or cause; the number discharged therefrom and by what authority; the number that have died or escaped and the general health of the inmates. And the governor may, at any time, in writing to be left with the secretary of the board or any member thereof, call upon and require either of such boards to make to him a general report in regard to the transactions of the institution under its charge, or a special report in regard to any part thereof, and it shall be the duty of said board to make said report and deliver the same to the governor, within fifteen days from the next regular monthly meeting after said call.

§ 17, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 8525. Records open to inspection. All books, records and documents relating to the concerns and business of either of such institutions shall, at all times, be open to the examination of the board of trustees or any member thereof or any citizen of this state.

§ 21, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 8526. Officers must not be interested in contract.

Neither of said boards of trustees nor any member thereof, nor any officer, guard, agent, overseer or employee at such institution shall be pecuniarily interested or concerned directly or indirectly in any contract, either verbal or written, that may be entered into by any person or persons on behalf of the state for any purpose whatever connected with the business of such institution.

§ 8527. Inventory of personal property. Contents. Each board of trustees and the warden, or superintendent shall annually, between the first and fifteenth days of November, and at each change of warden or superintendent, make out in triplicate an inventory in detail of all the personal property at or pertaining to the institution under their charge, and belonging to the state, or in which the state has any interest; one copy of which shall be retained in the office of the warden, or superintendent, and one copy delivered to the governor and one copy to the state auditor. Said inventory shall specify what articles or items are intended to be kept for use and what articles or items are intended for immediate consumption. Each inventory after the first shall particularly note any and all changes in, losses from or additions to the articles or items intended to be kept for use. Said inventories shall also contain a particular enumeration by name of all the books, records, reports, contracts or other papers required by law to be kept at such institution or that may be there kept, but not the certified copy of the judgment and sentence of the court ordering the imprisonment or commitment of any person, after said person is discharged.

§ 8528. Contracts. Approval. How executed. How property kept.

The warden shall make all contracts on the part of the state on account of the business of the penitentiary, and the superintendent shall make all contracts on the part of the state on account of the business of the reform school. Before such contracts shall take effect, they shall be reduced to writing and approved by the board of trustees of the institution for which they are made; provided, that when the wants or necessities of either require the immediate purchase of supplies of any kind the warden or superintendent, as the case may be, may purchase the same for the time being in open market, without any contract, or otherwise in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as in his judgment will best promote the interests of the state. All contracts lawfully made by the warden or superintendent, on account of the business of the penitentiary or reform school respectively, shall be executed in the name of the state and deemed the contracts of the state, and all property of every kind and money in charge of the warden or superintendent, or that shall come to his hands or under his control on account of the institution under his charge or from the business thereof is the property of the state and shall at all times be kept separate and apart from his own: provided, that the money and effects, except clothing, in possession of each inmate when committed to the penitentiary or reform school, shall be preserved by the warden or superintendent and returned to such inmate when discharged.

am'd.

§ 8529. Supplies. Yearly contract. Proposals. The necessary provisions, fuel, lights, clothing, bedding, medicines and all other supplies and materials for such institution shall be furnished thereat by the year by contract when the same is practicable, to be made by the warden or superintendent under the direction and subject to the approval of the board of trustees, upon competitive bids, with such persons as will furnish the same on the best terms. The warden or superintendent shall publish previous notice, for at least three successive weeks, in at least two newspapers published in the state, of the articles, supplies and materials wanted, the quantity and quality thereof, as near as the same can be ascertained, the time and manner of delivery and the period during which such articles, supplies and materials shall be received; and in awarding said contracts preference shall be given to proposals from persons residing and doing business within this state.

§ 23, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8530. Proposals in writing. Opening. Powers of board. All proposals shall be in writing and sealed and upon the day appointed in the notice provided for in the last section, which shall be a day appointed for a regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees, the proposals shall be opened by the warden or superintendent, in the presence of the board of trustees and such bidders as may desire to be present, and submitted to said board. The board of trustees and the warden or superintendent, as the case may be, shall thereupon ascertain from the proposals submitted the person or persons offering the best terms and award the contract accordingly; provided, it shall appear that said proposal is as low as the fair market price, but in case no proposal is accepted notice may again be published and all proceedings had anew as hereinbefore provided; and provided, further, that the person or persons whose proposal or proposals are so accepted shall execute a written contract with the state in accordance with such proposal or proposals and give bond to the state with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the warden, or superintendent for the performance of such contract. The notice hereinbefore provided for shall require said bond and specify its amount, to be twice the estimated value of the articles, supplies or materials to be contracted for, but in no case shall the amount of said bond exceed the sum of three thousand dollars. The said notice shall reserve the right to accept or reject any bid or part of a bid, and require each proposal to be accompanied by a certified check for at least one hundred dollars, payable to the order of the warden or superintendent, to be forfeited to the state in case the person or persons whose proposal or proposals are accepted shall fail to execute the contract and give the bond as hereinbefore provided within fifteen days after notice of said acceptance, or otherwise in case said contract is executed and bond given or in case a proposal is not accepted, to be returned to the bidder. Any and all proposals not deemed advantageous to the state may be rejected.

ARTICLE 4. — THE WARDEN AND OFFICERS OF THE PENITENTIARY AND THEIR DUTIES.

§§ 13, 21, c. 30,
Sp. 1883,
am'd.

§ 8531. Officers of penitentiary. Residence. The officers of the penitentiary shall be one warden who shall be its general superintendent and secretary of the board of trustees, one deputy warden who shall be chief turnkey, one bookkeeper who shall be assistant gatekeeper, and such other officers, guards, overseers, agents and employees as may be necessary. The warden and deputy warden shall reside at the penitentiary.

§ 14, c. 30, Sp.
1883,
am'd.

§ 8532. Appointment of officers. Term of office. The board of trustees of the penitentiary shall appoint the warden and may remove him at any time. The term of office of the warden, unless sooner removed by the board of trustees, shall be two years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. All other officers and employees shall be appointed by the warden, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, and shall hold office during the pleasure of the warden.

§ 19, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8533. Warden, how shall qualify. Other officers. The warden shall, before entering upon the duties of his appointment, execute a bond, jointly and severally, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the board of trustees, in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, to the state of North Dakota and conditioned to the effect that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by such appointment and according to law, and that he will, at all times, faithfully account for all moneys and property that shall come to his hands or under his control by virtue of his office or under color thereof, and shall also take and subscribe an oath, to be indorsed upon said bond or appended thereto, that he will support the constitution of the United States, the constitution of the state of North Dakota and faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his appointment according to law and to the best of his ability, and said bond and oath shall be filed and retained in the office of the state treasurer. And each of the other officers and employees shall, before entering upon the duties of his appointment, take and subscribe an oath of like import and such oath shall be filed and retained by the warden. The board of trustees may require the warden to execute and file a new and additional bond, with other and satisfactory sureties, in a larger sum than that specified above whenever in its judgment it may be deemed necessary.

§ 8534. Salary of warden. Other officers. The warden shall receive a salary to be fixed by the board of trustees but not to exceed two thousand dollars per annum, and all other officers and employees such amounts as the board of trustees may, from time to time, determine and establish.

§ 15, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 8535. Powers and duties of warden. Visitors. Records. It shall not be lawful for both the warden and deputy warden to be absent from the penitentiary at the same time, except by permission of the board of trustees, but in such case such board shall in its discretion designate one of its number to act as warden during such absence. The warden shall, under the direction of the board of trustees, have the charge, custody and control of the penitentiary and the persons committed thereto, together with all lands, buildings, furniture and tools, implements, stock and provisions and every other species of property pertaining thereto or within the precincts thereof, and shall superintend and be responsible for the police of the penitentiary and the discipline of the inmates; he shall keep and preserve accurate records of all the meetings of the board of trustees; he may make such rules and regulations for the admission of visitors, including a gate fee for their admission as may be deemed necessary, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, and may designate days for the admission of visitors and limit such days to not less than two in each week. The warden shall be his own clerk and keep a correct record of all transactions of his office and a correct account of all his doings; he shall keep a daily journal of the proceedings of the penitentiary, in which he shall note all infractions of the rules and regulations thereof by any officer or employee, and shall enter in such journal a memorandum of every complaint made by any inmate, of cruel or unjust treatment by any officer or other person, or a want of proper clothing or food, and also any infraction of the rules and regulations of the penitentiary by any of the inmates, naming him and specifying the offense, and the punishment, if any, inflicted therefor, and said journal and memorandum shall be laid before the board of trustees at every meeting.

§ 18, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8536. Warden to make rules and regulations. The warden shall make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of this state, for the government of the officers, employees and inmates of the penitentiary, as he may deem necessary and proper, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, and he may, from time to time, with the approval of the board of trustees make such changes in said rules and regulations as he may deem necessary and a printed copy of the rules and regulations of the penitentiary shall be furnished to each and every person committed to the penitentiary at the time he is received, and to each and every officer, overseer, guard and employee thereof at the time he is appointed and sworn, and ten copies to the state library for the use of the state officers and the public.

§ 8537. Deputy warden. Bond. Duties. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of warden or the warden is absent, all the duties of the warden shall devolve upon and be performed by the deputy warden until the vacancy is filled or the warden returns. The deputy warden before entering upon the duties of his appointment shall execute a bond to the state in the sum of ten thousand dollars conditioned to the effect that he will at all times faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his appointment according to law and the rules and regulations of the penitentiary.

§ 8538. Whom employed as chaplain. Compensation. The warden shall employ the resident clergymen of Bismarck or its vicinity of all denominations, to officiate alternately as chaplain at the penitentiary at a sum not exceeding five dollars per week.

§ 29, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 8539. Duties of employees. Acts prohibited. All officers and persons employed in and about the penitentiary shall perform such duties in the oversight and charge thereof, the use and care of the property belonging thereto, and the custody, discipline, government and employment of the inmates as shall be required of them by the warden, in conformity to law and the rules and regulations of the penitentiary; and no such officer or employee shall be engaged directly or indirectly in procuring a pardon for any person confined therein. Any officer or employee violating the provisions of this section shall be immediately removed.

ARTICLE 5.—HOW PERSONS COMMITTED TO THE PENITENTIARY.

§ 27, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 1, c. 57, 1885.
am'd.

§ 8540. Sheriffs. Commitments to penitentiary. The sheriff of each county, or some person appointed by the court, shall convey to the penitentiary all persons convicted in his county and sentenced to be confined in said penitentiary, and as soon as may be after such conviction and sentence shall have been had; and after delivering such person or persons to the warden, together with a copy of the judgment and sentence of the court ordering such imprisonment certified by him, the warden shall deliver to such sheriff a receipt in which he shall acknowledge the delivery to him of such person, naming him, and the sheriff shall return said receipt to the clerk of the court where said conviction and sentence were had and said clerk shall file and retain the same in his office; and it shall be the duty of the warden to receive any person so convicted, sentenced and delivered to him, and such person to retain and confine and imprison in the penitentiary until the expiration of the term of his sentence or until otherwise lawfully entitled to be released. It shall also be the duty of the warden immediately upon receipt of any person committed to the penitentiary to enter in a book to be by him kept for that purpose and as an official record of the penitentiary, the name, age, sex, color, height and nationality and each and every other fact, characteristic and condition, natural or artificial, that may in any way tend to aid in the identification of such person.

§ 28, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8541. Inmates of penitentiary in custody of warden. All inmates of the penitentiary shall be in the charge and custody of the warden and he shall care for, govern and employ them in the manner prescribed by law, the rules and regulations of the penitentiary and in conformity to the respective sentences under which they are confined.

ARTICLE 6. — DIMINUTION OF SENTENCE FOR GOOD CONDUCT.

§ 8542. Diminution regulated. Powers of trustees. Every person committed to the penitentiary under sentence other than for life, who shall, at the end of the first month of his imprisonment, have no infraction of the rules and regulations thereof recorded against him, shall be entitled to a diminution of two days from the term of his sentence; and if at the end of the second month no infraction of said rules and regulations is recorded against him, a diminution, for that month of four days from the term of his sentence, and if he shall continue to have no such record against him for the third month a diminution of six days from the term of his sentence; and thereafter he shall be entitled to six days diminution from the term of his sentence for each month in which he shall have no such record against him; and it shall be the duty of the warden to discharge any such person from the penitentiary when he shall have served the time of his sentence less the number of days he may be entitled to have deducted therefrom for his good behavior as hereinbefore provided, and in the same manner and as if no such deduction had been made; provided, that if any person committed to the penitentiary shall be guilty of the violation of any of the rules and regulations thereof, after he shall, as provided in this section, have become entitled to a diminution of the term of his sentence, the board of trustees may and are hereby empowered, at its discretion, to deprive such person of a portion or all, (according to the flagrancy of his infraction of the rules and regulations) of the diminution of the term of his sentence and the determination of the board of trustees in that regard shall be entered at length in the record of its proceedings and a copy thereof delivered to the offender by the warden; and provided, further, that any person confined in the penitentiary at the taking effect of this code shall be entitled to the benefits of this section for the remainder of the term of his sentence at the rate of six days diminution per month for good behavior.

§ 8543. Warden to keep record. Certificate of good conduct. The warden shall keep a true record of the conduct of each inmate of the penitentiary, specifying each infraction of the rules and regulations thereof and at the end of each month he shall give to each inmate who shall require it and against whom no infraction of the rules and regulations is recorded, a certificate of good conduct and therein specify the number of days by which the term of such inmate's sentence is diminished, as hereinbefore provided, by such good conduct; provided, that in case any inmate shall believe he has not been fairly or justly treated by the warden or any officer of the penitentiary in the keeping of said record he shall, upon request, be taken before the board of trustees at any regular monthly meeting and it shall be the duty of said board to hear and carefully investigate any complaint in regard to said record and require the same to be corrected as may be just, and the determination of the board shall be entered at length in the record of its proceedings, and a copy thereof given to said inmate by the warden.

§ 41, c. 30, Sp.
1881.
am'd.

§ 49, c. 30, Sp.
1883,
am'd.

§ 8544. Reward for good behavior. Whenever any inmate of the penitentiary, by continued good behavior, diligence in labor or study or otherwise, shall surpass the general average of the inmates, he may be compensated therefor at the discretion of the governor in addition to the diminution of the term of his sentence hereinbefore provided for, upon the recommendation in writing of the board of trustees, either by the further diminution of the term of his sentence, or by the payment of money or by both.

§ 42, c. 30, Sp.
1883,
am'd.

§ 8545. Punishment for infraction may be alleviated. Whenever any person committed to the penitentiary, and as a punishment for any infraction of the rules and regulations thereof, is being deprived of any of the ordinary privileges enjoyed by the other inmates, periodically or otherwise, shall conduct himself in a peaceful, obedient and industrious manner, the board of trustees may suspend the further infliction of such punishment during his good behavior.

ARTICLE 7. — DISCIPLINE, EMPLOYMENT AND DISCHARGE OF INMATES.

§ 31, c. 30, Sp.
1883,
am'd.

§ 8546. Employment and discipline of inmates of penitentiary. All persons sentenced to the punishment of imprisonment in the penitentiary and committed thereto shall be constantly employed for the benefit of the state. No communication shall be allowed between such persons and any person without the penitentiary except under such supervision as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations thereof. No person shall, without the consent of the warden bring into or carry out any writing or any information to or from any inmate of the penitentiary. Persons committed to the penitentiary shall be confined in separate cells at night, whenever there are cells sufficient, and in the daytime all intercourse between them shall be prevented as far as practicable. All communications between male and female inmates shall be prevented.

§ 33, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8547. Spirituous liquors prohibited. Physician's orders. No spirituous or fermented liquors shall, under any pretense whatever, be brought into the penitentiary or upon the grounds except by the direction in writing of the physician and the fact noted in the journal of that day; nor shall spirituous liquors or any article of indulgence be allowed any inmate except by order of the physician, which order shall be in writing and for a definite and limited period. The warden may, in his discretion, make a moderate allowance of tea, coffee or tobacco to inmates as a reward for industry and good behavior.

§ 32, c. 30, Sp.
1883,
am'd.

§ 8548. Food of inmates of penitentiary. The daily sustenance of the inmates of the penitentiary not in the hospital, shall consist of wholesome coarse food, with such proportions of meats and vegetables as the warden shall deem best for the health of the inmates.

§ 34, c. 30, Sp.
1883,
am'd.

§ 8549. Beds and clothing of inmates. The clothing and bedding of the inmates shall be of such quality and quantity as the warden may direct, regard being had to their health and comfort.

§ 35, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8550. Warden to maintain discipline. Assistance. All necessary means shall be used, under the direction of the warden, to maintain order in the penitentiary, enforce obedience, suppress insurrections and effectually prevent escapes, even at the hazard of life, for which purpose he may at all times, command the aid of the officers of the penitentiary and of the citizens outside the precincts thereof and any citizen refusing to obey such command shall be liable to such fines, penalties and forfeitures as apply to persons refusing to obey a sheriff or other officer calling upon the aid of the county to assist in serving process or for quelling an insurrection.

§ 8551. Refractory inmates may be restrained. Whenever any inmate of the penitentiary offers violence to any officer or guard thereof or to any other person or inmate, either within the grounds or precincts of the penitentiary or at any place where said inmate may be or may be employed, or attempts to do any injury to the buildings or any workshop or to any appurtenances thereof, or disobeys or resists any reasonable command of any officer or guard, such officers and guards shall use all reasonable means to defend themselves, and to enforce the observance of discipline.

§ 8552. Uniform kindly treatment of inmates. The warden and all officers of the penitentiary shall uniformly treat the inmates thereof with kindness, and the warden shall require of the officers and guards that, in the execution of their respective duties, they shall in all cases refrain from boisterous and unbecoming language in giving their orders and commands. There shall be no corporal or other painful or unusual punishment inflicted upon the inmates of the penitentiary for violation of the rules and regulations thereof.

§ 36, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8553. Discharge of inmates. Clothing. Employment. Every person committed to the penitentiary shall, when discharged, be provided with a decent suit of clothes and a sum of money, not to exceed five dollars, and also transportation to the place where he received sentence. He may be allowed employment at or in the penitentiary, under the rules and regulations established for the government of the inmates, for such period of time and at such rate of compensation, as the warden shall deem proper and equitable; provided, that any person so discharged who has no infractions of the rules recorded against him, may be employed by any lessee of the workshop at the penitentiary for such time and for such wages and in such manner as may be agreed upon and approved by the warden; provided, however, that no person discharged from the penitentiary shall, in any way, be given supervision or authority over any inmate thereof.

§ 38, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8554. Employment of inmates. Escapes. If the warden shall at any time deem it for the interest of the state, he may employ the inmates of the penitentiary outside the yard thereof in cultivating and improving any ground belonging thereto or in doing any work necessary to be done in the prosecution of the business of the penitentiary, or in the erection, repair or improvement of any or all the state buildings at Bismarck including the executive mansion, and the grounds of such buildings and mansion; and in all such cases the warden shall detail such force from the officers, guards and employees of the penitentiary as he shall deem necessary to watch and guard them; and in case any person committed to the penitentiary and so employed as in this section provided, shall escape, he shall be deemed to have escaped from the penitentiary proper and punished accordingly; provided, however, that the warden shall be held responsible for the escape of any such person through the negligence of himself or any of his subordinates.

§ 40, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

ARTICLE 8. — ESCAPES.

§ 43, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd. § 8555. Escapes generally. Rewards. Payment. When any inmate escapes from the penitentiary the warden shall use every means at his command for the apprehension of such person and for that purpose he may offer a reward, not to exceed one hundred dollars, and not less than twenty-five dollars; provided, that if such escape was by reason of the negligence of the warden or any officer under him, the reward thus offered shall be paid by the warden, and the board of trustees are hereby empowered finally to determine the liability of the warden for any such reward. The warden may adopt such other measures as he may deem proper, with the approval of the board of trustees, to aid in the detection and capture of persons escaping from the penitentiary.

ARTICLE 9. — PAROLE OF INMATES.

§ 1, c. 92, 1891.
am'd. § 8556. Board of trustees may parole. Rules. Approval. The board of trustees of the penitentiary are hereby empowered to parole persons confined in the penitentiary and not hereinafter excepted and to establish rules and regulations under which such persons may be allowed to go upon parole outside of the buildings and inclosures thereof. The rules and regulations as established by the board of trustees shall not take effect until submitted to and approved by the governor.

§ 1, c. 92, 1891.
am'd. § 8557. What inmates may not be paroled. The following described persons shall not under any circumstances be paroled from the penitentiary:

1. A person convicted and sentenced for the crime of murder either in the first or second degree.
2. A person finally convicted, in any jurisdiction, of a felony other than that for which he is being punished.
3. A person who has not served the minimum time of imprisonment prescribed by law for the crime of which he was convicted.
4. A person who has not maintained a good record at the penitentiary for at least six months previous to his parole.

§§ 2, 3, c. 92,
1891.
am'd. § 8558. Requirements precedent to parole. No parole shall be granted to any person confined in the penitentiary unless:

1. The warden in writing recommends his parole to the board of trustees.
2. At least four members of the board of trustees approve and indorse said recommendation.
3. The governor approves and indorses such recommendation.
4. The friends of such person have furnished satisfactory evidence to the board of trustees, in writing, that employment has been secured for him with some responsible citizen of the state and certified to be such by the judge of the county court of the county where such citizen resides.
5. The board of trustees is convinced that he will conform to the rules and regulations adopted by said board.

§ 3, c. 92, 1891.
am'd. § 8559. Grounds for recommending parole. It shall not be lawful for the warden, the board of trustees or the governor or any or either of them in considering or recommending the parole of any person confined in the penitentiary to receive, hear or entertain any petition or any argument of attorneys, but the only ground for such recommendation shall be such person's general demeanor and record of good conduct at the penitentiary.

§ 8560. Breach of parole. Order of recommitment. Any person when on parole from the penitentiary shall be deemed to be in custody, and under control of the board of trustees and subject at any time until the expiration of the term for which he was sentenced, to be taken into actual custody and returned to the penitentiary. The board of trustees is hereby fully empowered to enforce the rules and regulations made by it for the paroling of persons committed to the penitentiary, and, at any time, when satisfactorily informed that any person out on parole has violated any of such rules and regulations, may order that such person be taken into actual custody and recommitted to and confined in the penitentiary as provided in his sentence. The board shall enter in the record of its proceedings any such order and a copy of such order certified by the secretary of the board may be delivered to any sheriff or other peace officer of the state, for service and return, and it shall be the duty of any such officer to receive the same and to apprehend and immediately return and deliver to the warden at the penitentiary any such person named in such order, and the warden shall receive and reimprison such person as upon his original sentence. § 1, c. 92, 1891.

§ 8561. Execution of order. Fees and payment. The officer executing any such order of the board of trustees shall indorse thereon a return of his doings thereunder and the said certified copy and return, delivered to the warden with the person named therein, and the warden shall give to such officer, to be retained by him, a certificate acknowledging the receipt of such person and such certified copy of the order and his return. The fees of any officer for executing any order of the board of trustees for the return of any person to the penitentiary shall be the same as provided by law for the commitment of a person to the penitentiary under a sentence of the court, but in no case shall the fees exceed the sum of one hundred dollars. The board of trustees shall provide in its rules and regulations that any person before being paroled from the penitentiary shall deposit with the warden a sum of money not exceeding one hundred dollars to defray the expenses of his return, and the manner of auditing and paying such expenses; provided, that any money so deposited and not so used shall be returned to the person so depositing it at the expiration of the term of sentence of the person, or upon his final discharge from the penitentiary. § 1, c. 92, 1891.
am'd.

ARTICLE 10.—CONTRACTS FOR LABOR OF INMATES.

§ 8562. Warden may lease labor of inmates. Contract. Approval. The warden is authorized and empowered by and with the advice and approval of the board of trustees, from time to time, to contract for and lease the labor of such number of the able bodied persons confined in the penitentiary, together with such shop room, machinery and power as may be necessary for their proper employment, to such person or persons and for such purposes and upon such terms and conditions and for such length of time, not exceeding five years at any one time, as he shall deem most conducive to the interests of the state and the welfare of the penitentiary and the persons to be employed therefrom. § 44, c. 30, Sp.
1888.
am'd.

§ 45, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 8563. Rights to be reserved in contract of lease. In every contract or lease made pursuant to the authority conferred by this article there shall be reserved to the board of trustees of the penitentiary, and to the warden and to each and every one of his subordinates, full power and authority to prevent said contractors or lessees demanding from, or imposing upon the laborers so contracted for or leased, any unusual or severe labor, or any labor whereby the health or safety of any laborer may be impaired or jeopardized; and the warden may from time to time prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the government and conduct of such contractors or lessees, their overseers and agents in their relations to the inmates of the penitentiary, and may require and enforce the summary dismissal of any individual employed by any contractor or lessee, in or about the penitentiary, whenever it shall appear that the presence or conduct of such individual is prejudicial in any way to the discipline of the penitentiary, or the welfare of the inmates thereof.

§ 46, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8564. Security to be required from lessee. Adequate security to the state of North Dakota, by bond, to be approved by the board of trustees, shall be exacted of all contractors or lessees, for the faithful performance of all the provisions of the contracts or leases on their part to be performed; and the board of trustees, each member thereof and the warden and his subordinates, shall use their utmost endeavors to have all the terms and conditions of any such contract or lease fully complied with; but no contractor or lessee shall have or claim from the state of North Dakota, or from the board of trustees or any member thereof, or from the warden or any of his subordinates, or from any of the funds of the penitentiary, any damages whatever, either by way of recoupment or set-off, or otherwise in law or equity, for or on account of the failure or neglect of the warden or his subordinates, to furnish to such contractor or lessee the full amount of labor or the full number of laborers specified in any such contract or lease.

§ 47, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8565. Trustees may control warden regarding contract. The board of trustees of the penitentiary are empowered fully to control and direct the warden in the exercise of the authority conferred upon him, in regard to all contracts and leases for the labor of persons confined in the penitentiary, and of shop room, machinery and power, and may whenever, in the judgment of the board of trustees, it is impracticable or disadvantageous to the state to continue to furnish any laborers, shop room, machinery or power, to any contractor or lessee, order and direct the cancellation of any such contract or lease, and thereupon after six months' notice to such contractor or lessee, all obligations of the board of trustees or the members thereof and of the warden and his subordinates, and the state under such contract or lease, shall cease and determine, and such contractor or lessee shall not have or be entitled to any compensation whatever, for or on account of such cancellation, either by way of damages, or recoupment or set-off, or otherwise in law or equity.

§ 48, c. 30, Sp.
am'd.

§ 8566. Leases in triplicate. Disposition of. Proposals invited. All contracts or leases for the hiring or leasing of the labor of persons confined in the penitentiary, and of shop room, machinery and power, or any of them, shall be executed in triplicate, and on behalf of the state by the warden in the name of the state, and in writing, and one copy thereof delivered to the contractor or lessee, one copy to the state auditor and one copy retained by the warden in his office at the penitentiary. Before entering into or executing any such contract or lease the warden shall, by notice published for at least three successive weeks in at least three newspapers published in this state, invite sealed proposals for the hiring and leasing of such labor, shop room, machinery and power. The time specified in said notice for the opening of said proposals shall be the day of a regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees and the place so specified shall be the warden's office at the penitentiary. All proposals received shall be opened in the presence of the board, and such other persons as may desire to be present, and immediately submitted to the board and after consideration the contract or lease shall be awarded by the warden to the highest and best bidder or bidders therefor; provided, the board of trustees so advises and directs; and provided, further, that the board of trustees and the warden shall reserve and have the right to reject any and all bids. In awarding such contract or lease, preference shall be given to persons residing and doing business within this state.

§ 8567. Record of labor and earnings. Collection. Extra work. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees and the warden to cause to be kept at the penitentiary a correct record in detail of the time of labor and the money earned by each and every person, naming him, confined therein, and the rental of any shop room, machinery and power, under any contract or lease therefor, and all money so earned and rental shall belong to the state, and said board of trustees and warden shall enforce the collection thereof when due, and it shall be the duty of the accounting officer of the penitentiary to account for and pay over all such moneys, at the times and in the manner provided by law. Whenever any industry is carried on at the penitentiary under the provisions of this article and the nature thereof is such that it is practicable for the board of trustees to establish the amount of labor constituting a day's work, it shall so do, and any inmate employed under the provisions of this article after having completed a day's work as so established shall be permitted to continue work during the remainder of the hours of employment of the day and therefor to receive in money for his own use at his discharge, or at any time upon the approval of the board of trustees, the full amount earned by him at the rate agreed upon between the inmates, doing extra work, and the contractors and lessees, subject to the approval of the board of trustees. It shall be the duty of all officers of the penitentiary to see that the provisions of this section are carried into effect.

§ 8568. Duty of accounting officer. Extra earnings of inmates. The accounting officer of the penitentiary shall within five days after the end of each month give to the state auditor and to each inmate entitled thereto under the provisions of this article a certificate, showing the amount to which such inmate is entitled for the preceding month under the provisions of the last section. The amount so earned by inmates shall be collected at the same time and in the manner provided for the collection of other sums due from the lessees or contractors and delivered to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall retain such money as a separate fund.

§ 8569. Discharge of inmate. Payment of earnings. Whenever any inmate who has any money to his credit under the provisions of this article is discharged from the penitentiary, the state auditor upon the presentation and surrender to him of such certificates shall audit said claims and draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount due thereon and the state treasurer shall pay the same on demand.

§ 8570. All contracts subject to provisions for extra earnings. All contracts and leases provided for in this article shall be subject to the provisions of the last three sections.

ARTICLE 11.—EMPLOYMENT OF INMATES OF PENITENTIARY UPON PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND ROADS.

§ 1, c. 86, 1895. § 8571. Employment of inmates of the penitentiary. The board of trustees of the penitentiary of this state is hereby authorized and empowered to employ the convict labor of the state, or so much thereof as cannot be preferably otherwise employed, in the manufacture of brick, with which they are to make needed repairs, additions or improvements on the public buildings of the state.

§ 2, c. 86, 1895. § 8572. Trustees may purchase tools and machinery. For the purpose of enabling the carrying out of the provisions of this article, said trustees are hereby authorized to purchase such tools and machinery as they may deem necessary.

§ 3, c. 86, 1895. § 8573. May be employed in improving roads and streets. Such trustees are authorized and empowered to employ so much of said labor as they may deem necessary in macadamizing or otherwise improving the roads and streets used as approaches to the penitentiary, state capitol or other public institutions within the state, and in making such improvements such board is authorized to contract indebtedness not exceeding one thousand dollars in any one year, which shall be paid out of any money that may be received from any contract now existing or that may hereafter be made for the employment of such labor.

§ 4, c. 86, 1895. § 8574. Sale of products. Board therefor. Use of receipts. Such board of trustees shall dispose of said brick manufactured as in this article provided, as they may be directed by the governor, state auditor and secretary of state, who are hereby created a board with authority to dispose of any brick manufactured by convict labor, according to their best judgment, and for the interests of the state, at such prices as said board may provide. The receipts of such sales shall be turned over to the trustees aforesaid and used in payment of the expenses incurred in connection with the manufacture of brick or building, or improving roads and streets as hereinbefore provided.

ARTICLE 12.—THE SUPERINTENDENT AND OFFICERS OF THE REFORM SCHOOL AND THEIR DUTIES.

§ 5, c. 164, 1890.
am'd. § 8575. Officers of the reform school. The officers of the reform school shall be, one superintendent who shall be its general superintendent and secretary of the board of trustees, and one matron and such teachers and assistants as may be deemed necessary.

§ 5, c. 164, 1890.
am'd. § 8576. Appointment of superintendent. Other officers. The board of trustees shall appoint the superintendent and may remove him at any time. The term of office of the superintendent, unless sooner removed by the board of trustees, shall be two years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. All other officers and employees shall be appointed by the superintendent, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, and shall hold office during the pleasure of the superintendent.

§ 8577. Superintendent, how to qualify. Subordinates. § 9, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.
The superintendent shall before entering upon the duties of his appointment, execute a bond, jointly and severally, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the board of trustees, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, to the state of North Dakota, and conditioned to the effect that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by such appointment and according to law, and that he will at all times, faithfully account for all moneys and property that shall come to his hands or under his control by virtue of his office or under color thereof, and shall also take and subscribe an oath, to be indorsed upon said bond or appended thereto, that he will support the constitution of the United States, the constitution of the state of North Dakota, and faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his appointment according to law and to the best of his ability, and such bond and oath shall be filed and retained in the office of the state treasurer. And each of the other officers, teachers and employees shall, before entering upon the duties of his appointment, take and subscribe an oath of like import and such oath shall be filed with and retained by the superintendent. The board of trustees may require the superintendent to execute and file a new and additional bond, with other and satisfactory sureties, in a larger sum than that specified above whenever in its judgment it may be deemed necessary.

§ 8578. Salary of superintendent. Employees. The superintendent shall receive a salary to be fixed by the board of trustees, but not to exceed two thousand dollars per annum, and all other officers and employees such amounts as the board of trustees may, from time to time determine and establish.

§ 8579. Duties of superintendent. Records. § 9, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.
The superintendent shall, under the direction of the board of trustees, have the charge, custody and control of such reform school and the persons committed thereto or detained thereat together with all the lands, buildings, furniture and tools, implements, stock and provisions and every other species of property pertaining thereto or within the precincts thereof, and shall superintend and be responsible for the police of such reform school and the government, discipline, instruction and control of the inmates; he shall keep and preserve accurate records of all the meetings of the board of trustees; he may make such rules and regulations for the admission of visitors, including a gate fee for their admission as may be deemed necessary, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, and may designate days for the admission of visitors and limit them to not less than two in each week. Such superintendent shall be his own clerk and keep a correct record of all transactions of his office and a correct account of all his doings; he shall keep a daily journal of the proceedings of the school in which he shall note all infractions of the rules and regulations thereof by any officer, teacher or employee and shall enter in such journal a memorandum of every complaint made by an inmate, of cruel and unjust treatment by any officer or other person, or a want of proper clothing or food, and also any infraction of the rules and regulations of the school by any of the inmates, naming him, and specifying the offense and the punishment, if any, inflicted therefor, and said journal and memorandum shall be laid before the board of trustees at every meeting.

§ 5, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8580. Duties of subordinates. Teachers. All officers, teachers and persons employed about the reform school shall perform such duties in the oversight and charge thereof, the use and care of the property belonging thereto, and the custody, government, instruction, discipline and employment of the inmates as shall be required of them by the superintendent in conformity to law and the rules and regulations of the school.

ARTICLE 13. — COMMITMENTS TO THE REFORM SCHOOL.

§ 10, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8581. Who may be sent to reform school. District court. Procedure. Whenever any person under the age of eighteen years, shall, in any district court of this state, be found guilty of a crime or public offense other than murder, such court may, if in its judgment, the accused is a proper subject therefor, instead of entering judgment against such person, direct by an order to be entered in the minutes of the court, that such person be committed to the state reform school for the remainder of such person's minority.

§ 11, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8582. When convicted before inferior court. Procedure. Whenever any person under the age of eighteen years shall be convicted of any crime or public offense before a justice of the peace or court other than a district court of the state, or of being a disorderly person, such justice of the peace or other court, must forthwith send such person together with all the papers relating to the charge on file in his office, and a certified transcript of his docket entries in the action, under the charge of some peace officer, to the judge of the district court of the county. The judge shall thereupon issue an order to the parent or guardian of the accused, or to such person as may have had him in charge, or with whom he last resided, or to some person nearly related to him, if known or if there is no such person known, then to some person to be designated in the order to act as guardian for the accused for the time being, requiring such parent or other person to appear at a time and place stated in such order and show cause why the accused should not be committed to the reform school. Such order shall be served forthwith by the sheriff or other officer by delivering to and leaving with the person therein designated to be served, personally, a true copy of the same, or by leaving such copy with some person of full age at the residence or place of business of such person, and the original order immediately returned to the judge issuing it with the officer's doings indorsed thereon showing the time and manner of service. At the time and place mentioned in such order, or at such other time and place as the judge may direct, if the person designated in the order appears, in his presence, or if such person does not appear, in the presence of some other suitable person to be then appointed by the judge to act on behalf of the accused, the judge must proceed to hear such evidence regarding the question as may be produced or deemed necessary, including any voluntary statement of the accused, and if from such evidence and hearing such judge becomes satisfied that the accused ought to be committed to the reform school he may so order and issue his warrant accordingly.

§ 16, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8583. Incurable child. Complaint. Procedure. Whenever a parent or guardian of any person under the age of eighteen years, makes a written complaint, verified by his affidavit, to the judge of the district court of the county, particularly setting forth the facts and showing that his child or ward under eighteen years of age is habitually vagrant, disorderly or incorrigible, such judge must issue an order to any peace officer of the county commanding such officer forthwith to bring such child or ward before him at such time and place as may be specified in such order, and such officer shall forthwith execute and return such order accordingly. Upon the return of such order the judge shall examine into the charge and hear such testimony in regard thereto as he may deem necessary, including the voluntary statement of the accused, and if in his judgment the accused is a proper subject to be committed to the reform school, he shall so order and make an entry thereof upon such complaint and thereupon with the consent of such parent or guardian indorsed thereon, issue his warrant accordingly; provided, that such judge may in his discretion, require such parent or guardian to give security by an undertaking with or without sureties in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, to the state of North Dakota, for the payment of the expenses incurred upon the complaint and the commitment and maintenance of such child or ward at such reform school, but not exceeding two dollars per week.

§ 8584. Contents of order of commitment. Every order of commitment to the reform school made under any of the provisions of this article shall specify the date as near as may be at which the accused will attain majority, to be ascertained by the court or judge, and the date so ascertained and specified shall be conclusive for all purposes connected with such reform school. The judge shall cause to be transmitted to the superintendent with each person committed to the reform school, a statement of the nature of the complaint or charges together with such other particulars concerning the accused as he may be able to ascertain and deem necessary. § 14, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8585. Execution of order. Return. Fees. A copy of the order entered in the minutes of the court as provided in section 8581, and certified by the clerk of the court under the seal of the court, or, the warrant provided for in section 8582 or 8583 of this article, shall be sufficient to authorize the officer executing it to commit the person therein named to the superintendent of the reform school within the same, and a copy of either attested by such officer and left with and retained by such superintendent shall be sufficient to authorize such superintendent to retain, control and employ such person within such reform school, its grounds and precincts until the expiration of the time specified therein. It shall be the duty of the officer executing any such order or warrant to deliver the person named therein to such superintendent at such school together with a copy of the order or warrant under which he is acting and to take such superintendent's receipt for such person, indorsed on the original order or warrant and to return such order or warrant with his doings indorsed thereon to the clerk of the court of the county in which the order was made or warrant issued, and such clerk shall file and retain the same in his office with the other papers in the case. The fees of any officer performing any service under the provisions of this article shall in all respects be the same as for like services in criminal actions.

§ 8586. Papers, where filed. Return to magistrate. In the cases provided for in section 8582 of this article if the accused is committed to the reform school, and in all cases provided for in section 8583 of this article, all the papers shall be filed with the clerk of the court of the proper county, but in the cases provided for in sec- § 15, c. 164, 1890.

tion 8582 of this article, if the accused is not committed to the reform school, or if the accused appeals from the judgment of conviction, such accused, with all the papers in the case must be remanded to the custody of the officer to be returned to the magistrate before whom the conviction was had to be dealt with according to law.

§ 18, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8587. Discharge for good conduct. Refractory inmates.

The board of trustees of the reform school may at any time after one year's detention of any person therein, upon satisfactory evidence of reformation and as a reward for good conduct and diligence in study, discharge any inmate therefrom, but if such inmate has no parent, guardian or other person to whom to return, such board shall first arrange for and procure some suitable person to receive, employ and care for the person so discharged without charge to the state. If any person convicted of a felony and committed to such school shall be or become incorrigible and manifestly and persistently dangerous to the good order, government and welfare of such school or the inmates thereof, the board of trustees must order such person returned and delivered to the parent or guardian or to the jailer of the county from which committed, as the case may be, and the proceedings against such person shall thereafter be resumed and continued as though no order or warrant of commitment to the reform school had been made.

§ 19, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8588. Aiding inmates to escape. Penalty. Every person who unlawfully aids or assists any person committed to the state reform school in escaping or attempting to escape therefrom or from any officer thereof or knowingly conceals such person after so escaping, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 21, c. 164, 1890.
am'd.

§ 8589. Pay of trustees suspended. No commitments until proclamation. Until such time as the legislative assembly shall, by law, make provision for the purchase or other acquisition of sufficient ground for the state reform school and the erection of buildings thereon for the use of such school, neither the board of trustees provided therefor in this chapter, or any trustee, nor any other person on account of said school shall receive or be paid for any services rendered or material or other thing furnished in regard thereto; nor shall any person be by order or warrant, or otherwise, committed thereto by any court or judge of this state, until the governor by public proclamation declares such school open therefor, but, until the governor makes such proclamation such juvenile offenders against the laws of this state as may be convicted of any crime or public offense in a district court of this state, may be committed to and confined in the reform school at Plankinton, South Dakota, or a reform school in any other state with which this state may contract, in the manner provided in the law governing said school.

ARTICLE 14. — INSANE INMATES.

§ 50, c. 30, Sp.
1883.
am'd.

§ 8590. Insane inmate of penitentiary or reform school.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the governor by the representations of the warden of the penitentiary or the superintendent of the reform school and the board of trustees of the institution under its charge, that any person confined therein has become insane during such confinement, and is still insane, it shall be the duty of the governor to make inquiry in regard thereto, and if he shall determine that such person has become and is insane, he shall order and direct that such person be taken from such institution and confined and treated in the state hospital for the insane, and that upon his recovery from such insanity, if before the expiration of the term for which he is committed, he be returned to such institution; and it shall be the duty of the warden or superintendent, as the case may be, to deliver such insane person to the superintendent of such hospital within the same, and said superintendent to receive such person into such hospital upon the presentation of the order of the governor therefor and in obedience thereto, and the expense of so transferring any person to the state hospital for the insane and his return shall be audited by the state auditor and paid, upon his warrant, out of the state treasury.

§ 8591. Transfer to hospital for the insane. Return. It shall be the duty of the warden or superintendent to deliver to the superintendent of the state hospital for the insane, with the person so ordered transferred as herein provided, a correct copy of the order of the governor directing such transfer and of the superintendent of such hospital to deliver to the warden or superintendent a certificate acknowledging the receipt of such person and said copy. The original order of the governor and said certificate shall be retained by the warden or superintendent and filed in his office at the institution in his charge. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of such hospital to notify the warden or superintendent of the recovery of any person transferred as herein provided, and of the warden or superintendent thereupon, if the term of sentence of such person has not expired, to return him to the proper custody. If the term of commitment of any person so transferred has expired at the time of his recovery, the warden or superintendent may direct that he be released from further custody, by the superintendent of said hospital; provided, that it shall be the duty of the warden or superintendent to provide any person so released with the same allowance of clothing, money and transportation to which other persons discharged from the penitentiary or reform school, are entitled.

§ 50, c. 30, Sp.
1883.

ARTICLE 15. — DECEASE OF INMATES.

§ 8592. Death of inmate of penitentiary or reform school. Inquest. In case of the death of any person confined in the penitentiary, or state reform school, it shall be the duty of the warden or superintendent immediately to notify the coroner of Burleigh or Morton county, as the case may be, or when there is no coroner or in case of his absence or inability to act, some justice of the peace of the county, and it shall be the duty of such coroner or justice of peace so notified, as the case may be, immediately to take possession of the body of said deceased and remove the same from the penitentiary or reform school and said body retain for at least twenty-four hours, and to hold an inquest thereon and inquire carefully into the cause of said deceased's death, in the manner provided by law in cases of persons supposed to have died by unlawful means: but no officer or employee of the penitentiary or reform school shall be placed or permitted to serve on the jury at said inquest.

§ 8593. Inquest open to all persons. The inquest herein provided for shall be open to all persons who may wish to attend the same, under such rules and regulations as the officer holding the same may establish for the orderly conduct of the business. All persons may be excluded from the presence of the body of the deceased whenever there is danger of contracting or spreading a contagious disease and all spectators may be excluded from the room where said inquest is being held while any officer, employee or inmate of the institution is being examined.

§ 8594. Who may be required to testify. Procedure. The officer holding such inquest may require any inmate of the penitentiary or reform school to testify at said inquest, and it shall be the duty of the warden or superintendent to produce before such inquest any inmate of the penitentiary or reform school so required to testify, upon the written request of the officer holding said inquest. Any such inmate shall be accompanied by such officer or officers as the warden or superintendent may designate, and as may be necessary to prevent his escape, and when no longer required before said inquest, must be immediately returned. The testimony of each witness taken at said inquest shall be reduced to writing under the order of the officer holding such inquest, and subscribed by the witness. The proceedings of the jury shall be as provided in other cases of inquest held by the coroner.

§ 8595. Return of inquest. Burial of body. The officer holding such inquest shall, within ten days after its conclusion, return the inquisition of the jury, the written testimony of the witnesses, and a list of the witnesses who testified to material matter at such inquest, to the clerk of the district court of said Burleigh or Morton county, as the case may be, and it shall be the duty of said clerk to file and retain the same in his office as a public record. It shall be the duty of the officer holding such inquest to cause the body of the deceased to be decently buried, or delivered to the relatives or friends of such deceased if by them demanded within twenty-four hours after the receipt of such body by him, or at any time before its burial.

§ 8596. Expenses. Duty of state auditor. Payment. The officer holding such inquest shall make an itemized statement and report in detail of the expenses of such inquest specifying to whom, and for what fees, services or supplies payable and the same verify by his oath, but in no case shall the expense of the burial of said body, exclusive of the fees allowed by law to officers, jurors, physicians and witnesses, exceed the sum of forty dollars; and the state auditor shall audit all claims for any such inquest when presented as herein provided, and draw his separate warrants upon the state treasurer for the amount allowed to each person named in such statement and report, and said warrants shall be paid out of the state treasury. The fees of the officer holding said inquest and of the jurors, physicians and witnesses, shall be the same as in other cases of inquests, provided that no officer of the penitentiary or of the reform school nor inmate thereof, shall be entitled to fees or other allowance on account of any services rendered at said inquest.

§ 8597. Effects of deceased. Sale. Money received. It shall be the duty of the warden or superintendent within ten days after the decease of any person confined in the penitentiary or reform school, to report in writing to the state treasurer the money and effects in his hands belonging to the deceased, and with said report to transmit to the state treasurer any such money. The state treasurer shall receive such report and money and execute and give to the warden or superintendent a receipt therefor. The state treasurer may require the warden or superintendent to sell the effects of the deceased in his hands and direct the manner of said sale or, in his discretion, that the warden or superintendent deliver said effects to the legal representatives of the deceased, and it shall be the duty of such officer to carry out the requirements and directions of the state treasurer in that regard. If said effects are sold, all moneys received therefor shall be delivered to the state treasurer as herein provided for the money of the deceased. The state treasurer shall place all money received on account of any such deceased person, to the credit of the state. If said money is claimed within six years by the legal representatives of the deceased, the state treasurer must pay it to them after deducting the expenses of the inquest upon and the burial of the body of the deceased.

CHAPTER 18.

COUNTY JAILS.

§ 8598. Judges of district courts shall prescribe rules for jails. § 612, C. Cr. P. The judges of the district courts of the several judicial districts of this state, shall from time to time, as they may deem necessary, prescribe in writing, rules for the regulation and government of the jails in the several counties within their respective districts, upon the following subjects:

1. The cleanliness of the inmates.
2. The classification of the inmates in regard to sex, age, and crime, and also persons insane, idiots and lunatics.
3. Beds and clothing.
4. Warming, lighting and ventilation of the jail.
5. The employment of medical and surgical aid when necessary.
6. Employment, temperance and instruction of the inmates.
7. The supplying of each inmate with a bible.
8. The intercourse between inmates and their counsel and other persons.
9. The punishment of inmates for violation of the rules of the jail.

10. Such other regulations as said judges may deem necessary to promote the welfare of said inmates; provided, that such rules shall not be contrary to the laws of the state.

§ 8599. Rules printed. How disposed of. § 613, C. Cr. P. am'd. The said judges shall, as soon as practicable, cause a copy of said rules to be delivered to the county commissioners in the several counties in their respective judicial districts; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners, forthwith to cause the same to be printed, and to furnish the sheriff of their county with a copy of said rules, for each and every room or cell of said jail, and also to forward a copy of said rules to the secretary of state, who may file away and preserve the same.

§ 8600. Sheriff to post rules. § 614, C. Cr. P. The sheriff shall, on the receipt of said rules, cause a copy thereof to be posted up and continued in some conspicuous place and in each and every room or cell of said jail.

§ 615. C. Cr. P.

§ 8601. Judges may amend rules. The judges aforesaid may, from time to time, as they may deem necessary, revise, alter or amend said rules, and such revised rules shall be printed and disposed of by said commissioners and sheriff in the same manner as is directed by sections 8599 and 8600 of this chapter.

§ 616. C. Cr. P.

§ 8602. Sheriff to have charge of the jail. The sheriff, or, in case of his death, removal or disability, the person by law appointed to supply his place, shall have charge of the county jail of his proper county, and of all persons by law confined therein, and such sheriff or other officer is hereby required to conform in all respects, to the rules and directions of said district judge above specified, or which may, from time to time, by said judge be made and communicated to him by said commissioners.

§ 617. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8603. Sheriff shall keep jail register. Contents. The sheriff or other officers performing the duties of sheriff of each county of this state, shall procure, at the expense of the proper county, a suitable book, to be called the jail register, in which the said sheriff, by himself or his jailer, shall enter:

1. The name, age, sex, abode and nativity of each person committed to the jail, with the date and cause of his commitment.
2. By what authority committed, and if committed for a criminal offense, a description of his person.
3. The date and manner of his discharge and by what authority, and if any inmate escapes, particularly, the time and manner of such escape.
4. What sickness or disease has occurred, if any, in the jail during the year, and, if known, what were the causes thereof.
5. Whether any, or what labor has been performed by the inmates and the value thereof.
6. The practice observed during the year of whitewashing and cleansing the occupied cells or apartments, and the time or seasons of so doing.
7. The habits of the inmates as to personal cleanliness, diet and order.
8. The means furnished or permitted to inmates for literary, moral and religious instruction, and for labor.
9. All other matters required by the rules, or in the discretion of the sheriff deemed proper; the said sheriff or other officers performing the duties of sheriff, shall carefully keep and preserve such jail register, in the office of the jailer of his proper county, and at the expiration of his term of office shall deliver the same to his successor in office.

§ 618. C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8604. Sheriff shall make jail report. The sheriff or other officer performing the duties of sheriff, shall on or before the first Monday of November in each year, make out in writing from the jail register, a jail report in triplicate, one copy of which report he shall forthwith file in the office of the clerk of the district court of his county, one copy with the county auditor of his county, for the use of the commissioners thereof, and one copy of such report he shall transmit to the governor of the state, and it shall be the duty of the governor to communicate the reports of the several sheriffs of this state to the legislative assembly, on or before the tenth day of each of its sessions.

§ 619. C. Cr. P.

§ 8605. Charge to grand jury regarding jails. It shall be the duty of the district court to give this chapter in charge of the grand jury at each term of said court at which a grand jury is impaneled and bring before them all rules, plans or regulations established by the district judge relating to the jail of the county and prison discipline which shall then be in force.

§ 8606. Duty of grand jury to visit jail and report. The grand jury of each county in this state shall, once at each term of the district court, while in attendance, visit the jail, examine its state and condition, examine and inquire into the discipline and treatment of prisoners, their habits, diet and accommodations, and it shall be their duty to report to said court, in writing, whether the rules of the said district judge have been faithfully kept and observed, or whether any of the provisions of this act have been violated. It shall also be the duty of the county commissioners of each county in this state to visit the jail of their county once during each of their regular meetings of each year. § 620, C. Cr. P.

§ 8607. Duty of county board regarding jails. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners, at the expense of their respective counties, to provide suitable means for warming the jail and its cells or apartments, beds and bedding, night buckets and such other permanent fixtures and repairs as may be prescribed by the district judge; said commissioners shall also have power to appoint a physician to the jail, when they may deem it necessary, and pay him such annual or other salary as they may think reasonable and proper, which salary shall be drawn out of the county treasury; and said medical officer, or any physician or surgeon who may be employed in the jail, shall make a report in writing whenever required by said commissioners, district judge or grand jury. § 621, C. Cr. P.

§ 8608. Sheriff to provide board and necessities. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of each county to provide fuel, bed-clothing, washing, nursing when required, and board generally, and all necessities for the comfort and welfare of said prisoners, as the said judge by his said rules shall designate for all persons confined by law, and he shall be allowed such reasonable compensation for services required by the provisions of this chapter, as may be prescribed by the county commissioners of their respective counties; provided, that the county commissioners at the expense of their county may arrange for the detention of any prisoner of their county in the jail of some other county, whenever in their judgment such detention would be less expensive than his detention in their county. § 622, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8609. Duty of sheriff to visit jail monthly. The sheriff shall visit the jail in person, and examine into the condition of each prisoner at least once each month, and once during each term of the district court; and it is hereby made his duty to cause all the cells and rooms used for the confinement of prisoners to be thoroughly white-washed at least three times in each year. § 623, C. Cr. P.

§ 8610. Jailer must be deputy sheriff. The jailer or keeper of the jail shall, unless the sheriff elects to act as jailer in person, be a deputy appointed by the sheriff, and such jailer shall take the necessary oaths before entering upon the duties of his office; provided, the sheriff shall in all cases be liable for the negligence and misconduct of the jailer as of other deputies. § 624, C. Cr. P.

§ 8611. Sheriff. Jailer. Neglect of duty. If the sheriff or jailer having in charge any county jail, shall neglect or refuse to conform to the rules and regulations established by the judge, or to any other duty required of him by this chapter, he shall on conviction § 625, C. Cr. P. am'd.

thereof in a criminal action prosecuted under the provisions of this code as other criminal actions, for each case of such failure or neglect of duty as aforesaid, be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

CHAPTER 19.

PRISONS AND IMPRISONMENT FOR OFFENSES.

§ 627, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8612. Common jails established as prisons. The common jails now erected or which shall hereafter be erected in the several counties in this state shall be used as prisons:

1. For the detention of persons charged with offenses, and duly committed for trial.

2. For the detention of persons who may be duly committed, to secure their attendance as witnesses on the trial of any criminal cause.

3. For the confinement of persons pursuant to a sentence, upon a conviction for an offense, and of all other persons duly committed for any cause authorized by law.

4. For the confinement of persons who may be sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary, until a suitable prison shall be provided.

§ 628, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8613. Commitment when no jail in county. Whenever there is no jail erected in any county, every judicial or executive officer of such county who shall have power to order, sentence or deliver any person to the county jail, may order, sentence or deliver such person to the jail of any adjoining county; and the jailer of any such adjoining county shall receive and keep such prisoner in the same manner as if he had been ordered, sentenced or delivered to him by any officer or court of his own county. The county from which such prisoner was taken shall pay all the expenses of keeping and maintaining him in said jail.

§ 630, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8614. County commissioners are jail inspectors. The county commissioners of the respective counties of this state shall be inspectors of the jails in their several counties and shall visit them at least once in each year, and shall examine fully into the condition of such jail, as to health, cleanliness and discipline; and the keeper thereof shall lay before them the jail register required to be kept by the provisions of section 8603 of this code; and if it shall appear to such inspectors that any of the provisions of law have been violated or neglected, they shall forthwith give notice to the state's attorney of the county and to the judge of the district court.

§ 631, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8615. No liquor shall be allowed prisoners. No sheriff, jailer or keeper of any jail, shall, under any pretense, give, sell or deliver to any person confined therein for any cause whatever, any spirituous liquor, or any mixed liquor, part of which is spirituous, or any wine, cider or strong beer, unless a physician certifies in writing that the health of such person requires it, in which case he may be allowed the quantity prescribed and no more. And no sheriff, jailer or keeper as aforesaid, shall put up or keep in the same room, cell or apartment, male and female inmates together.

§ 8616. Penalty. Sheriff violating last section. If any sheriff, jailer or keeper of any prison, shall sell or deliver to any prisoner in his custody, or shall willingly or negligently suffer any such prisoner to have any liquor, prohibited in section 8615 of this chapter, or shall place or keep together prisoners of different sexes contrary to the provisions of said section 8615 he shall in each case forfeit and pay for the first offense the sum of twenty-five dollars, and such officer shall, on a second conviction, be further sentenced to be incapable of holding the office of sheriff, deputy sheriff, jailer or keeper of any prison, for the term of five years. § 632, C. Cr. P.

§ 8617. Penalty. Other person violating said section. If any person, other than is mentioned in the preceding section, shall sell or deliver to any person committed for any cause whatever, any liquor prohibited in this chapter, or shall have in his possession, in the precincts of any prison, any such liquor, with intent to carry or deliver the same to any prisoner confined therein, he shall be punished by fine not exceeding fifteen dollars. § 633, C. Cr. P.

§ 8618. Jailer's duty to keep jail clean. The keeper of such prison shall see that the same is constantly kept in a cleanly and healthful condition, and shall see that strict attention is constantly paid in the personal cleanliness of all the prisoners in his custody, as far as may be, and shall cause the shirt of each prisoner to be washed at least once in each week; each prisoner shall be furnished daily with as much clean water as he shall have occasion for, either for drink or for the purpose of personal cleanliness, and with a clean towel once a week, and shall be served three times each day with wholesome food, which shall be well cooked and in sufficient quantity. § 634, C. Cr. P.

§ 8619. Bible shall be furnished each inmate. The keeper of each prison shall provide, at the expense of the county, for each prisoner under his charge who may be able and desirous to read, a copy of the bible or new testament, to be used by such prisoner at proper seasons during his confinement, and any minister of the gospel, disposed to aid in reforming the prisoners and instructing them in their moral and religious duties, shall have access to them at seasonable and proper times. § 635, C. Cr. P.

§ 8620. Sheriff shall furnish court with copy of jail register. At the opening of each term of the district court within his county, the sheriff shall return a copy of the entries in his jail register made since the last preceding term under his hand to the judge holding said court, and if any sheriff shall neglect or refuse so to do, he shall be punished by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars. § 637, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8621. How jails shall be constructed. In the jails erected or which shall be hereafter erected in this state, there shall be provided sufficient and convenient apartments for confining prisoners not criminal, separate from felons and other criminals, and also for confining persons of different sexes, separate and apart from each other. § 638, C. Cr. P.

§ 8622. Imprisonment at hard labor. Whenever any person shall be confined in any jail pursuant to the sentence of any court, if such sentence or any part thereof shall be that he be confined at hard labor, the sheriff of the county in which such person shall be confined shall furnish such convict with suitable tools and materials to work with, if, in the opinion of the said sheriff, the said § 640, C. Cr. P. § 1, c. 36, 1879. am'd.

convict can be profitably employed either in the jail or yard thereof, and the expense of said tools and materials shall be defrayed by the county in which said convict shall be confined, and said county shall be entitled to his earnings. And the said sheriff, if in his opinion the said convict can be more profitably employed outside of said jail or yard, either for the county or for any municipality in said county, it shall be his duty so to employ said convict either in work on public streets or highways or otherwise, and in so doing he shall take all necessary precautions to prevent said convict's escape, by ball and chain or otherwise, and fifty per cent of the profits of such employment, after paying all expenses incident thereto, may be retained by said sheriff as his fees therefor, the balance to be paid into the treasury of the proper county to the credit of the general fund; and when a convict is imprisoned in the county jail for nonpayment of a fine he may be employed by said sheriff as provided in this chapter; and in case any convict employed outside of the jail yard shall escape, he shall be deemed to have escaped from the jail proper.

§ 2, c. 36, 1879. § 8623. Court may sentence to hard labor. Any court, justice of the peace, police court or police magistrate, in cases when such courts have jurisdiction under the laws of this state, or as provided by the ordinances or charter of any incorporated town or city in the state, shall have full power and authority to sentence such convict to hard labor as provided in this chapter.

§ 3, c. 36, 1879. § 8624. When marshal shall superintend labor. When the imprisonment is pursuant to the judgment of any court, police court, police magistrate of an incorporated city or town for the violation of any ordinance, by-law or other regulation, the marshal or other officer acting as such shall superintend the performance of the labor herein contemplated, and shall furnish the tools and materials, if necessary, at the expense of the city or town requiring the labor, and such city or town shall be entitled to the earnings of its convicts.

§ 4, c. 36, 1879. § 8625. For what officer may punish convict. The officer having charge of any convict for the purpose specified in this chapter may use such means as, and no more than are necessary to prevent escape, and if any convict attempts to escape either while going from or returning to the jail, or while at labor or at any time, or if he refuses to labor, the officer having him in charge, after due inquiry, may, to secure such person or to cause him to labor, use the means authorized by section 8629; provided, such punishment for refusal to work shall all be inflicted within the jail or jail inclosure, and shall not be considered as any part of the time for which the prisoner is sentenced.

§ 5, c. 36, 1879. § 8626. Credit for each day's labor. For every day's labor performed by any convict under the provisions of this chapter, there shall be credited on any judgment for fine and costs against him the sum of two dollars.

§ 6, c. 36, 1879. § 8627. Cruel treatment by officer. Penalty. If any officer or other person treats any prisoner in a cruel or inhuman manner, he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 7, c. 36, 1879. § 8628. Annoyance prohibited. Penalty. The officer having such prisoner in charge shall protect him from insult and annoyance and communication with others while at labor and in going to and returning from the same, and he may use such means as are necessary and proper therefor; and any person persisting in insulting and annoying or communicating with any prisoner after being first commanded by such officer to desist, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three days.

§ 8629. Punishment for disorderly conduct. If any person confined in any jail upon a conviction or charge of any offense is refractory or disorderly, or if he willfully destroys or injures any article of bedding or other furniture, door or window, or any other part of such prison, the sheriff of the county after due inquiry, may chain and secure such person, or cause him to be kept in solitary confinement not more than three days for any one offense; and during such solitary confinement he may be fed with bread and water only, unless other food is necessary for the preservation of his health.

§ 8630. Escaping from penitentiary. Punishment. Any person committed to the penitentiary who shall escape from or break said penitentiary with intent to escape therefrom, or who shall attempt by force or violence or in any other manner to escape from said prison, whether such escape is effected or not, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in said prison for a term not exceeding double the term for which he or she was so sentenced, to commence from and after the expiration of his or her former sentence.

§ 1, c. 89, 1883.
am'd.

§ 8631. Escaping from jail. Punishment. If any person who is imprisoned pursuant to a sentence of imprisonment in the county jail, or any person who shall be committed for the purpose of detaining him for trial for any offense not capital, shall break prison and escape, he shall be imprisoned in the county jail for the term of six months.

§ 644, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8632. Same. Committed for capital offense. If any person who is committed to prison for the purpose of detaining him for trial for a capital offense, shall break prison and escape, he shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for the term of two years.

§ 645, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8633. Prisoners in case of fire. If any prison or any building thereto, shall be on fire and the prisoners shall be exposed to danger by such fire, the keeper may remove such prisoners to a place of safety, and there confine them so long as may be necessary to avoid such danger, and such removal and confinement shall not be deemed an escape of such prisoners.

§ 646, C. Cr. P.

§ 8634. Indigent person held for fine and costs. When any poor convict shall have been confined in any prison for the space of six months, for the nonpayment of fine and costs only or either of them, the sheriff of the county in which such person shall be imprisoned shall make a report thereof to any two justices of the peace for such county; if required by such justices, the said keeper shall bring such convict before them, either at the prison or at such other convenient place thereto as they shall direct; the said justices shall proceed to inquire into the truth of said report, and if they shall be satisfied that such report is true and the convict has not had since his conviction any estate, real or personal, with which he could have paid the sum for the nonpayment of which he was committed, they shall make a certificate thereof to the sheriff of the county, and direct him to discharge such convict from prison, and the sheriff shall forthwith discharge him.

§ 647, C. Cr. P.

§ 8635. Sheriff to receive and hold United States prisoners. All sheriffs, jailers, prison keepers, and their and each and every of all their deputies, within this state, to whom any person or persons shall be sent or committed, by virtue of legal process issued by or under the authority of the United States, shall be and they are hereby enjoined and required to receive such persons into custody, and to keep them safely until they are discharged by due course of the laws of the United States; and all such sheriffs, jailers, prison keepers and their deputies, offending in the premises, shall be liable to the same pains and penalties, and the parties aggrieved shall be entitled to the same remedies against them or any of them, as if such prisoners had been committed to their custody by virtue of legal process issued under the authority of this state.

§ 649, C. Cr. P. § 8636. United States liable for expenses. The United States shall be liable to pay for the support and keeping of said prisoners the same charges and allowances as are allowed for the support and keeping of prisoners committed under authority of this state.

§ 650, C. Cr. P.
am'd. § 8637. Jailers must report to United States courts. Before every stated term of the United States court to be held within this state, the said sheriffs, jailers and prison keepers shall make out, under oath, a calendar of prisoners in their custody under the authority of the United States, with the date of their commitment, by whom committed and for what offense, and transmit the same to the judge of the district court of the United States for this district; and at the end of every six months they shall transmit to the United States marshal of this state, for allowance and payment, their account, if any, against the United States, for the support and keeping of such prisoners.

§ 651, C. Cr. P. § 8638. Prison established in every county. There shall be established and kept in every county, by authority of the board of county commissioners and at the expense of the county, a prison for the safe keeping of prisoners lawfully committed.

am'd. § 8639. Grand jury shall examine county jails. At each term of the district court at which a grand jury is impaneled, said jury shall make a personal inspection of the condition of the county jail, as to the sufficiency of the same for the safe keeping of persons confined therein, their convenient accommodation and health, and shall inquire into the manner in which the same has been kept since the last previous inspection; and the court shall give this duty in special charge to such grand jury, and it shall be imperative upon the board of county commissioners to issue the necessary orders, or cause to be made the necessary repairs, in accordance with the complaint or recommendation of the grand jury.

§ 653, C. Cr. P. § 8640. Sheriff or his deputy shall keep the jail. The sheriff of the county by himself or deputy, shall keep the jail, and shall be responsible for the manner in which the same is kept. He shall keep separate rooms for the sexes, except when they are lawfully married; he shall provide proper meat, drink and fuel for prisoners.

§ 654, C. Cr. P. § 8641. County board to allow charges for keeping prisoners. Whenever a prisoner is committed for crime or in any suit in behalf of the state, the county board shall allow the sheriff his reasonable charge for supplying such prisoner.

§ 655, C. Cr. P. § 8642. Commitment. Authority of sheriff. When a prisoner is confined by virtue of any process directed to the sheriff and which shall require to be returned to the court whence it issued, such sheriff shall keep a copy of the same, together with his returns made thereon, which copy, duly certified by such sheriff, shall be prima facie evidence of his right to retain such prisoner in custody.

§ 8643. Commitments to be indorsed and filed. All instruments of every kind or attested copies thereof by which a prisoner is committed or liberated, shall be regularly indorsed and filed, and safely kept in a suitable box by such sheriff or by his deputy acting as a jailer. § 656, C. Cr. P.

§ 8644. Same to be delivered to successor. Such box with its contents shall be delivered to the successor of the officer having charge of the prison. § 657, C. Cr. P.

§ 8645. Prisoner sent to jail of another county. When there is no sufficient prison in any county wherein any criminal offense shall have been committed, any judge of the district court of such county upon application of the sheriff, may order any person charged with a criminal offense and ordered to be committed to prison, to be sent to the jail of the county nearest having a sufficient jail, and the sheriff of such nearest county shall, on exhibit of such judge's order, receive and keep in custody in the jail of his county, the prisoner ordered to be committed as aforesaid, at the expense of the county from which said prisoner was sent, and the said sheriff shall, upon the order of the district court or a judge thereof, redeliver such prisoner when demanded. § 658, C. Cr. P.

§ 8646. Fugitives may be kept in any county jail. Any county jail may be used for the safe keeping of any fugitive from justice or labor in this state, in accordance with the provisions of any act of congress, and the jailer shall, in such case, be entitled to reasonable compensation for the support and custody of such fugitive from the officer having him in custody. § 659, C. Cr. P.

§ 8647. Juvenile prisoners. Juvenile prisoners shall be treated with humanity and in a manner calculated to promote their reformation; they shall be kept, if the jail will admit of it, in apartments separate from those containing more experienced and hardened criminals; the visits of parents, guardians and friends, who desire to exert a moral influence over them, shall at all reasonable times be permitted. § 660, C. Cr. P.

CHAPTER 20.

HABEAS CORPUS.

§ 8648. Persons restrained may prosecute the writ. Every person imprisoned or restrained of his liberty under any pretense whatever, may prosecute a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of such imprisonment or restraint and thereby (except in the cases specified in the next section), obtain relief from such imprisonment or restraint if it is unlawful. § 651, C. Cr. P. am'd.

§ 8649. Who not entitled to relief. The person in whose behalf the application is made is not entitled to relief from imprisonment or restraint under a writ of habeas corpus, if the time during which such person may be legally detained in custody has not expired, whenever it appears:

1. That he is detained in custody by virtue of process issued by any court or judge of the United States in a case where such court or judge has exclusive jurisdiction; or,

2. Except as provided in section 8662, that he is detained in custody by virtue of the final order or judgment of any competent court of criminal jurisdiction or of any process issued upon such order or judgment.

§ 672, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8650. Application for writ. Contents. Verification. Application for the writ must be made by petition signed either by the person for whose relief it is intended or by some person in his behalf, and must specify:

1. That the person in whose behalf the writ is applied for is imprisoned or restrained of his liberty, the officer or person by whom he is so confined or restrained, and the place where, naming all the parties if they are known, or describing them if they are not known.

2. The cause or pretense of such confinement or restraint according to the knowledge or belief of the party verifying the petition.

3. If the confinement or restraint is by virtue of any warrant, order or process, a copy thereof shall be annexed, or it shall be averred that by reason of such person being removed or concealed before application, a demand of such copy could not be made, or that such demand was made and the legal fees therefor tendered to the officer or person having such person in custody, and that such copy was refused.

4. If the imprisonment is alleged to be illegal, the petition shall state in what the illegality consists.

5. The petition must be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person making the application.

§ 689, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8651. By what court application granted. The writ of habeas corpus must be granted:

1. By the supreme court or any judge thereof, upon petition by or on behalf of any person restrained of his liberty in this state. When so issued it may be made returnable before the court or any judge thereof, or before any district court or judge thereof.

2. By the district courts or a judge thereof, upon petition by or on behalf of a person restrained of his liberty in their respective districts.

When application is made to the supreme court, or to a judge thereof, proof by the oath of the person applying or other sufficient evidence shall be required that the judge of the district court having jurisdiction by the provisions of subdivision 2 of this section is absent from his district or has refused to grant such writ, or for some cause to be specially set forth is incapable of acting, and if such proof is not produced the application shall be denied.

§ 8652. When court must grant the writ. The court or judge authorized to grant the writ to whom a petition therefor is presented, must, if it appears that the writ ought to issue, grant the same without delay, and the writ shall not be denied for any informality in the petition or for any want of matters of substance if the same can be supplied, and the court or judge to whom application is made, must point out the matters wanting and direct the manner of supplying the same.

§ 8653. Direction and form of writ. The writ must be directed to the person having custody of or restraining the person on whose behalf the application is made, and must command him to have the body of such person before the court or judge before whom the writ is returnable, immediately, at a place therein specified (or at some specified time), regard being had to the circumstances and the distance to be traveled.

Every writ of habeas corpus issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be substantially in the following form:

State of North Dakota, }
County of..... } ss.

The state of North Dakota to the sheriff of.....etc. (or to)

You are hereby commanded to have the body of.....by you imprisoned and detained, as it is alleged, together with the time and cause of such imprisonment and detention, by whatever name the said.....shall be called or charged, before.....judge of the district (or supreme) court, (or before the district or supreme court, as the case may be), at..... (naming the place) on..... (naming the date) (or immediately upon the receipt of this writ) to do and receive what shall then and there be considered concerning the said.....and have you then and there this writ.

Witness, etc.

Such writ must be indorsed "By the habeas corpus act" and if issued by the court it shall be under the seal of the court; if by the judge it shall be under his hand.

§ 8654. Manner of serving the writ. Whenever the writ is directed to the sheriff or other ministerial officer of the court out of which it is issued, it must be delivered by the clerk or by such person as it may be entrusted to, without delay as other writs are delivered to such sheriff or other officer for service, or it may be left with the jailer, keeper or other person under such sheriff or other officer in charge of and at the jail or place where the person seeking the writ may be imprisoned or restrained. If it is directed to any other person it may be delivered to the sheriff or his deputy and be by him served upon such person by delivering the same to him without delay. If the person to whom the writ is directed cannot be found or refuses admittance to the officer or person serving or delivering such writ, it may be served or delivered by leaving it at the residence of the person to whom it is directed, or by affixing it to some conspicuous place on the outside either of his dwelling house or of the place where the party is confined or under restraint. In any case the court or judge thereof issuing the writ, may at his discretion authorize any person to serve and deliver it by an entry signed by him thereon to the following effect: "I hereby authorize to serve the within writ," and service made by such person in the manner designated in this section shall be due and lawful service.

§ 8655. Penalty if officer refuses to execute and return writ. If the person to whom the writ is directed refuses after service, to obey the same, the court or judge, upon affidavit stating such facts, must issue an attachment against such person, directed to the sheriff or coroner commanding him forthwith to arrest such person and bring him immediately before such court or judge; and upon being so brought he must be committed to the jail of the county until he makes due return to such writ or is otherwise legally discharged. The person disobeying such writ shall also forfeit to the person imprisoned or restrained a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. and if an officer he shall be incapable of holding or executing his said office.

am'd.

§ 8656. What the return must set forth. The person upon whom the writ is served must state in his return, plainly and unequivocally:

1. Whether he has or has not the party in his custody or under his power or restraint.

2. If he has the party in his custody or power or under his restraint, he must state the authority and cause of such imprisonment or restraint.

3. If the party is detained by virtue of any writ, warrant or other written authority, a copy thereof must be annexed to the return and the original produced and exhibited to the court or judge on the hearing of such return.

4. If the person upon whom the writ is served had the party in his custody or power or under his restraint, at any time prior or subsequent to the date of the writ of habeas corpus but has transferred such custody or restraint to another, the return must state particularly to whom, at what time and place, for what cause, and by what authority, such transfer took place.

5. The return must be signed by the person making the same, and, except when such person is a sworn public officer and makes such return in his official capacity, it must be verified by his oath or affirmation.

§ 8657. Party restrained must be brought. Exception. The person to whom the writ is directed if it is served, must bring the body of the party in custody or under his restraint, according to the command of the writ, except in cases specified in the next section.

§ 8658. When party need not be brought. When from sickness or infirmity of the person directed to be produced he cannot without danger be brought before the court or judge, the person in whose power or custody he is, may state that fact in his return to the writ, verifying the same by affidavit. If the court or judge is satisfied of the truth of such return and the return to the writ is otherwise sufficient, the court or judge may proceed to decide on such return and to dispose of the matter as if such party had been produced on the writ, or the hearing thereof may be adjourned until such party can be produced.

§ 8659. When hearing must be had. The court or judge before whom the writ is returned must, immediately after the return or with five days thereafter, proceed to hear and examine the return, and such other matters as may be properly submitted to his consideration.

§ 8660. Return may be controverted. Proofs. The party brought before the court or judge on the return of the writ, may deny or controvert any of the material facts or matters set forth in the return, or except to the sufficiency thereof or allege any fact to show either that the imprisonment or detention is unlawful or that he is entitled to his discharge. The court or judge must thereupon proceed in a summary way to hear such proof as may be produced against such imprisonment or detention, or in favor of the same, and to dispose of such party as the justice of the case may require, and has full power and authority to require and compel the attendance of witnesses, by process of subpoena and attachment, and to do and perform all other acts and things necessary to a full and fair hearing and determination of the case. The court or judge may allow the return to be amended according to the facts of the case, whenever it may be deemed necessary.

§ 8661. When person restrained must be discharged. If no legal cause is shown for the imprisonment or restraint or for the continuation thereof, such court or judge must discharge such party from the custody or restraint under which he is held.

§ 8662. Causes for discharge of person restrained. If it appears on the return of the writ that the party is in custody by virtue of process from any court of this state or judge or officer thereof, such person may be discharged in any of the following cases, subject to the restrictions of section 8649 of this code: § 673, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

1. When the jurisdiction of such court or officer has been exceeded.

2. When the imprisonment was at first lawful, but by some act, omission or event which has taken place afterward, the party has become entitled to a discharge.

3. When the process is defective in some matter of substance required by law rendering such process void.

4. When the process though regular in form has been issued in a case not allowed by law.

5. When the person having the custody of the party is not the person allowed by law to detain him.

6. When the process is not authorized by any order or judgment of any court nor by any provisions of law.

7. When a party has been committed on a criminal charge without reasonable or probable cause.

8. When the process appears to have been obtained by false pretense or bribery.

§ 8663. Informal commitment from justice of the peace. If the person is committed to prison, or is in custody of an officer on a criminal charge, by virtue of a warrant of commitment of a justice of the peace, such person must not be discharged on the ground of any mere defect of form in the warrant of commitment. § 673, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8664. Procedure when person appears to be guilty. If it appears to the court or judge, by affidavit or otherwise or upon inspection of the process or warrant of commitment, and proceedings as may be shown to the court or judge, that the party is guilty of a criminal offense or ought not to be discharged, such court or judge, although the charge is defectively or not substantially set forth in such process or warrant of commitment, must cause the complainant or other necessary witness to be subpoenaed to attend at such time as ordered, to testify before the court or judge, and upon the examination he may discharge such party, admit him to bail if the offense is bailable, or recommit him to custody, as may be just and legal.

§ 8665. Habeas corpus to give bail. Whenever a person is imprisoned or detained in custody on a criminal charge, for want of bail, such person is entitled to a writ of habeas corpus for the purpose of giving bail, upon averring that fact in his petition, without alleging that he is illegally confined. Any judge in or out of the court in which he is authorized to act may take an undertaking of bail from any person who has been committed on a criminal charge, when brought before him on a writ of habeas corpus, as in other cases if the offense is bailable, and file the undertaking in the proper court.

§ 675, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8666. Procedure when person not entitled to discharge. If a party brought before the court or judge on the return of the writ is not entitled to his discharge, and is not admitted to or bailed when allowable, the court or judge must remand him to custody, or place him under the restraint from which he was taken, if the person under whose custody or restraint he was, is legally entitled thereto.

§ 8667. Prisoner may be ordered to custody of proper officer. In cases where any party is held under illegal restraint or custody, or any other person entitled to the custody or restraint of such party, the court or judge may order such party to be committed to the custody or restraint of such person as is by law entitled thereto.

§ 8668. How person disposed of before judgment. Until judgment is given on the return, the court or judge before whom any party may be brought on such writ, may commit him to the sheriff of the county or place him in such care or under such custody as his age or circumstances may require.

§ 8669. When notice of hearing must be given state's attorney. When it appears that the person in whose behalf a writ of habeas corpus is issued, is held upon a criminal charge of any kind, notice of the time and place of the hearing upon the return must be given to the state's attorney of the county where the offense arose if he is within his county; in other cases, like notice shall be given to any person interested in continuing the custody or restraint of the party asking aid of such writ.

§ 671, C. Cr. P.

§ 8670. Person taken out of county. Expenses. When ever the officer or person to whom a writ of habeas corpus is directed and delivered, is required thereby to make return and take the person in whose behalf the writ is issued into a county other than the county in which such person is imprisoned or restrained, the court or judge awarding the writ may, at his discretion, ascertain and by an entry thereon specifying the amount, but not exceeding fifteen cents per mile, require the payment or tender, at the time of delivering the writ, of the charges of obeying the same; but in no case when such entry is not made can the payment or tender of such charges be demanded before the return of the writ in accordance with its direction.

§ 8671. Writ must not be disobeyed. No writ of habeas corpus can be disobeyed for defect of form, if it sufficiently appears therefrom in whose restraint the party imprisoned or restrained is, the officer or person detaining him, and the court or judge before whom he is to be brought.

§ 677, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8672. When person discharged may be again arrested. No person who has been discharged by the order of the court or judge upon habeas corpus can be again imprisoned or kept in custody for the same cause, except in the following cases:

1. If he has been discharged from custody on a criminal charge and is afterwards committed for the same offense, by legal order or process.
2. If, after a discharge for defect of proof, or for any defect of the process, warrant or commitment in a criminal action, the accused is again arrested on sufficient proof and committed by legal process for the same offense.

3. If in a civil action the party has been discharged for any illegality in the order, judgment or process and is afterwards imprisoned by legal process for the same cause of action.

§ 8673. How obedience to order of discharge enforced. Obedience to an order for the discharge of any person, granted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, may be enforced by the court, or judge issuing such writ, or granting such order, by attachment, in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for a neglect to make a return to a writ of habeas corpus; and the person guilty of such disobedience shall forfeit to the party aggrieved five hundred dollars, in addition to any special damages such party may have sustained.

§ 8674. Person restrained in danger of being taken out of jurisdiction. Warrant. When it appears to any court or judge authorized by law to issue the writ of habeas corpus, that any one is illegally held in custody, confinement or restraint, and that there is reason to believe that such person will be carried out of the jurisdiction of the court or judge before whom the application is made, or will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with the writ of habeas corpus can be enforced, such court or judge may cause a warrant to be issued, reciting the facts and directed to the sheriff, coroner or a constable of the county, commanding such officer to take such person thus held in custody, confinement or restraint, and forthwith bring him before such court or judge to be dealt with according to law. The court or judge may also insert in such warrant a command for the arrest of the person charged with such illegal detention and restraint.

§ 8675. Execution of warrant. The officer to whom such warrant is delivered must execute it by bringing the person therein named before the court or judge who directed the issuing of such warrant, but if such warrant is issued by the supreme court or a judge thereof, upon the return of the warrant, the hearing and decision of the matter may be ordered by such court or judge to be had before the district court of the proper county or the judge thereof.

§ 8676. Return to warrant. Procedure. The person alleged to have such party under illegal confinement or restraint may make return to such warrant, as in case of a writ of habeas corpus, and the same may be denied, and like allegations, proofs and trial may thereupon be had as upon a return to a writ of habeas corpus.

§ 8677. When person must be discharged. If such party is held under illegal custody or restraint he must be discharged, or if not, he must be restored to the care or custody of the person entitled thereto.

§ 8678. When writ may be served. Any writ or process authorized by this chapter may be issued and served on any day or at any time.

§ 8679. Accused liberated for want of prosecution. If any person shall be committed for a criminal or supposed criminal matter and not admitted to bail, and shall not be tried on or before the second term of the court having jurisdiction of the offense, the prisoner shall be set at liberty by the court, unless the delay shall happen on the application of the prisoner; if such court at the second term shall be satisfied that due exertions have been made to procure

am'd.

the evidence for and on behalf of the state, and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence may be procured at the third term, it shall have power to continue such case till the third term; if any such prisoner shall have been admitted to bail for a crime other than a capital offense, the court may continue the trial of said cause to a third term, if it shall appear by oath or affirmation that the witnesses for the state are absent, such witnesses being mentioned by name, and the court shown wherein their testimony is material.

§ 679, C. Cr. P.

§ 8680. Writ not allowed to delay trial. To prevent any person from avoiding or delaying his trial, it shall not be lawful to remove any prisoner on habeas corpus under this chapter out of the county in which he is confined, within fifteen days next preceding the term of the court at which such person ought to be tried, except it be to convey him into the county where the offense with which he stands charged is properly cognizable.

§ 680, C. Cr. P.
am'd.

§ 8681. Prisoners shall not be removed from one prison to another. Exceptions. Any person being committed to any prison, or in custody of any officer, sheriff, jailer, keeper or other person, or his underofficer or deputy, for any criminal or supposed criminal matter, shall not be removed from the said prison or custody, into other prison or custody, unless it be by habeas corpus or some other legal writ; or when the prisoner shall be delivered to the constable or other inferior officer, to be carried to some common jail; or shall be removed from one place to another within the county, in order to his discharge or trial in due course of law; or in a case of sudden fire, infection or other necessity, or when the sheriff shall commit such prisoner to the jail of an adjoining county for the want of a sufficient jail in his own county, as is provided in the chapters concerning jails and jailers; or when the prisoner in pursuance of a law of the United States, may be claimed or demanded by the executive of the United States, or territories; if any person shall, after such commitment as aforesaid, make out, sign or countersign any warrant or warrants for such removal, except as before excepted, then he or they shall forfeit to the prisoner or aggrieved party, a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, to be received by the prisoner or party aggrieved in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

§ 681, C. Cr. P.

§ 8682. Penalty if judge refuses or delays writ. Any judge empowered by this act to issue writs of habeas corpus, who shall corruptly refuse to issue such writ when legally applied to, in a case when such writ may lawfully issue, or who shall, for the purpose of oppression, unreasonably delay the issuing of such writ, shall, for every such offense, forfeit to the prisoner or party aggrieved a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§ 683, C. Cr. P.

§ 8683. Removing or concealing prisoner to avoid writ. Anyone having a person in his custody or under his restraint, power or control, for whose relief a writ of habeas corpus is issued, who, with intent to avoid the effect of such writ, shall transfer such person to the custody, or place him under the control of another, or shall conceal him or change the place of his confinement with intent to avoid the operation of such writ, or with intent to remove him out of this state, shall forfeit for every such offense one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one year, nor more than five years; in any prosecution for the penalty incurred under this section, it shall not be necessary to show that the writ of habeas corpus had issued at the time of the removal, transfer or concealment therein mentioned, if it is proven that the acts therein forbidden were done with the intent to avoid the operation of such writ.

§ 8684. Officer refusing prisoner copy of commitment. § 684, C. Cr. P.

Penalty. Any sheriff or his deputy, any jailer or coroner, having custody of any prisoner committed on a civil or criminal process of any court or magistrate, who shall neglect to give such prisoner a copy of the process, order or commitment by virtue of which he is imprisoned, within six hours after the demand made by said prisoner, or anyone on his behalf, shall forfeit five hundred dollars.

§ 8685. Penalty for rearresting on same charge. Any § 685, C. Cr. P.

person who, knowing that another has been discharged by order of a competent judge or tribunal on a habeas corpus, shall, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, arrest or detain him again for the same cause which was shown on the return of such writ, shall forfeit five hundred dollars for the first offense, and one thousand dollars for every subsequent offense.

§ 8686. All penalties inure to use of party aggrieved. § 686, C. Cr. P.

All the pecuniary forfeitures under this chapter shall inure to the use of the party for whose benefit the writ of habeas corpus issued, and shall be sued for and recovered with costs, in the name of the state, by every person aggrieved.

§ 8687. Recovery of penalties no bar to civil action. The § 688, C. Cr. P. recovery of the said penalties shall be no bar to a civil suit for damages.

§ 8688. Writ may issue for witness. Discharge of bail. § 689, C. Cr. P.

The supreme and district courts within this state, or the judges thereof in vacation, shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, for the purpose of bringing the body of any person confined in any jail within the same before them, to testify or be surrendered in discharge of bail. When a writ of habeas corpus shall be issued for the purpose of bringing into court any person to testify, or the principal to be surrendered in discharge of bail, and such principal or witness shall be confined in any jail in this state out of the county in which such principal or witness is required to be surrendered, or to any county in this state, and there be executed and returned by any officer to whom it shall be directed, and the principal, after being surrendered, or his bail discharged, or a person testifying as aforesaid, shall, by the officer executing such writ, be returned by virtue of an order of the court, for the purpose aforesaid, an attested copy of which, lodged with the jailer, shall exonerate such jailer from being liable for an escape. The party praying out such writ of habeas corpus shall pay to the officer executing the same, such reasonable sum for his services as shall be adjudged by the courts respectively.

CHAPTER 21.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§ 8689. Code construed as continuation of statutes. The provisions of this code so far as they are the same as existing statutes, must be construed as continuations thereof and not as new enactments.

§ 8690. When this code governs. The provisions of this code so far as they relate to procedure, or alleviate the punishment to be imposed upon conviction in any case, shall govern in all criminal actions in any way prosecuted or tried after the date upon which it takes effect whether the offense was committed before or after such date.

REPEALS.
